XXVI. And whereas in some cases in which one Living hath been united to and consolidated with another Living, Part of the Lands or other Hereditaments belonging to one of such Livings hath been sold for the Purpose of redeeming the Land Tax charged upon the Lands, Thems and other Hereditaments of both of such Livings; and it is expedient that such Sales should be confirmed, and that future Sales for the like Purpose should be authorized; and that due Provision should be made in the Event of the Dissolution of such Livings; Be it therefore further enacted, That all such Sales as have been so made as last mentioned, and all Contracts that have been entered into for any such Sales, shall be and the same are hereby confirmed; and that all such Sales as shall hereafter be made of any Land or other Hereditaments belonging to any Living united to or consolidated with any other Living, for the Purpose of redeeming the Land Tax charged on the Globe Lands and other Hereditaments belonging to both such Livings, shall be as valid and effectual as if the same had been made merely for redeeming the Land Tax charged on the Lands and other Hereditaments of the Living, any Land belonging to which shall be so sold and as if such Living had not been united to or consolidated with any other Living; But that in case any consolidated Livings, the Land Tax charged upon which hath been so redeemed as aforesaid, or shall hereafter be redeemed, shall at any time hereafter become dissolved and held by different Incumbents, either by reason of the want of lawful Consent to the Union thereof, or from any other Cause, the Incumbent for the time being of the Living, by sale of any Lands belonging to which such Land Tax hath been or shall be redeemed, shall be entitled to an annual Rent Charge (issuing out of the other of such Livings, equivalent to the Amount of the Land Tax charged thereon at the time of such Redemption as aforesaid).

XXVII. And

Sales made to or under Companies for redeeming Land Tax confirmed.

42 G. 3. c. 123.

Companies entitled to sell Lands to other Companies for raising Money to redeem any Land Tax.

42 G. 3. c. 123.

Companies Bodies entitled to lay out Trust Money in Purchase of Lands, sold by other Companies, for redeeming Land Tax.

42 G. 3. c. 123.

Sales already made of Land belonging to One of Two consolidated Livings, for redeeming the Land Tax on both Livings, confirmed; and future Sales authorized: In case of Dissolution, Incumbent of Living, Land of which has been sold, entitled to a Rent Charge.

the Patron or Patron or Tenant Incumbent of such Living, or from any other Person who shall have endorsed or purchased the same, or from his, her or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns, it shall be lawful for such Incumbent for the time being, for the Purpose of re-imbursing any Sum of Money which shall have been paid by him out of his own Money as the Consideration for any such Assignment, to carry into Execution all and every one of the Powers which by the said Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty are given, in order to raise Money by Sale, Mortgage or Grant, for the Purpose of purchasing an Assignment of such Land Tax: Provided always, that the Money to arise from any such Sale, Mortgage or Grant, to be made by virtue of this Act, or so much thereof as shall be requisite, shall, under the Order of any Two of the Commissioners appointed or to be appointed under the Great Seal of Great Britain as aforesaid, be paid to such Incumbent for the time being, whole Receipts in pursuance of such Order shall be an effectual Discharge to the respective Purchasers or Mortgagees; and the Remission of such Money, in case any such Sale, shall be paid and applied in such and the like manner as by the said Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty is directed concerning the Remission of the Money arising by the Sales, Mortgages or Grants thereby authorized to be made.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That where the Land Tax charged upon the Glebe Land, Tithes or other Profits of any Living, hath been redeemed by the Patron or Patron, or any former Incumbent thereof, or by any other Person or Persons, and the Incumbent for the time being of such Living hath, under the Powers contained in the said Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, purchased an Assignment of such Land Tax, for the Benefit of such Living, every such Assignment shall, and the same is hereby required to be transmitted within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act to the Officer appointed for the Registry of Conveyances for Redemption of such Land Tax, and so much thereof as shall be requisite for the time being of any Living, the Land Tax charged upon the Glebe Land, Tithes or other Profits whereof has been or shall be redeemed or purchased by the Patron or Patron, or any Incumbent thereof, shall, under the Provisions of the said Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, or of this Act, purchase an Assignment of such Land Tax, for the Benefit of such Living, every such Assignment shall, within Six Calendar Months after the Date thereof, be in like manner transmitted to such Officer for the Registry of Conveyances; and such Officer shall, upon the Production to him of every such Assignment as aforesaid, register the same paying a Copy of the Registry of such Assignment signed by such Officers, shall be allowed in all Courts and Places, and before all Persons, as so good and sufficient Evidence of such Assignments, and so Copy of the Registry thereof shall be liable to any Stamp Duty.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That, in order to provide for the Purchase of any Land Tax under the Powers and Provisions of the said Act of the Forty second Year of His present Majesty, by any Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, or any Trustees or Trustees for Charitable or other Public Purposes, it shall be lawful for such Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, or Trustees or Trustees, to Sell any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments belonging to such Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, or Trustees or Trustees, or to Mortgage the same, or to grant any Rent Charge out of the same, or to Enfranchise any Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which are or shall be held by Copy of Court Roll or other Customary Tenure of any Manor belonging to any such Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, or Trustees or Trustees; and to sell and dispose of any Houses or Free Farms, Rents, Chief Rents or Quit Rents, or other Emoluments or Advantages, issuing or payable from or in respect of any Freehold or Copyhold or Customary Manor or other Hereditaments, or incident thereto or accruing therefrom, in such and the same manner as said under and subject to the same Statutes and Regulations as such Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, or Trustees or Trustees are respectively authorized to do under the Provisions of the said Act of the Forty second Year of His present Majesty, for the Purpose of providing for the Redemption of any Land Tax charged on the Manor or other Hereditaments belonging to such Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, or Trustees or Trustees.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Governors of the Society of Queens Arms, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Peer Clergy, shall have appropriated any Sum or Sums of Money to or for the Benefit of any Living or Livings, or the Incumbent or Incumbents of any Living or Livings, which the said Governors shall have already agreed or shall agree to augment within the meaning and under the Provisions of the Charter granted in the Reign of Queen Anne, or any Act or Acts in force at the time of passing this Act, it shall be lawful for the Incumbent or Incumbents of the said Living or Livings, by the Direction of the said Governors, to contract and agree for the Purchase of Land Tax, on the same Terms and Conditions, and in the manner described by the said Act passed in the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and it shall be lawful for the said Governors to apply the said Sum or Sums so appropriated, or any Part or Parts thereof, in Satisfaction or in Payment of the Consideration stipulated in such Contracts; and the said Incumbent or Incumbents of the said Living or Livings to be so augmented, from the Period of the Exemption of such Land Tax purchased by them respectively, and their respective Successors for the time being so appointed, shall be entitled to and shall be in the effect Service and Satisfaction of a Free Farm Rent, equal in Amount to the Land Tax so purchased, to be issued and payable out of the Manor, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, whereon the Land Tax so purchased was charged, on the same Days as such Land Tax was payable before the time of the Purchase thereof, and enjoy all such Powers, Remedies and Advantages, for the Recovery of such Free Farm Rents as are given to Purchasers of Land Tax by the said Act last mentioned.

XXXIII. And whereas several Acts were passed in the Forty fifth, Forty sixth and Fiftieth Years of the said Majesty, for the Purpose of authorizing the Commissioners appointed by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to direct the Exemption and Discharge of the Land Tax charged upon the Messuages, Lands, Tenements or other Hereditaments belonging to Livings or other Ecclesiastical Benefices or Churches which were sold, or purchased, or mortgaged, or granted, or otherwise disposed of, in pursuance of the said Acts, to be in the same manner as the said Land Tax, in the said Acts, is directed to be paid, and applied in such and the like manner as by the said Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty is directed concerning the Remission of the Money arising by the Sales, Mortgages or Grants thereby authorized to be made.

Assignments of Land Tax, if not previously purchased by Incumbents, from Patrons or other Persons, within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, to the Officer appointed for the Registry of Conveyances for Redemption of such Land Tax, and so much thereof as shall be requisite for the time being of any Living, the Land Tax charged upon the Glebe Land, Tithes or other Profits whereof has been or shall be redeemed or purchased by the Patron or Patron, or any Incumbent thereof, shall, under the Provisions of the said Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, or of this Act, purchase an Assignment of such Land Tax, for the Benefit of such Living, every such Assignment shall, within Six Calendar Months after the Date thereof, be in like manner transmitted to such Officer for the Registry of Conveyances; and such Officer shall, upon the Production to him of every such Assignment as aforesaid, register the same paying a Copy of the Registry of such Assignment signed by such Officers, shall be allowed in all Courts and Places, and before all Persons, as so good and sufficient Evidence of such Assignments, and so Copy of the Registry thereof shall be liable to any Stamp Duty.

Corporations or Trustees may sell or mortgage any Lands or other Hereditaments belonging to them, or to grant any Rent Charge out of the same, or to Enfranchise any Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which are or shall be held by Copy of Court Roll or other Customary Tenure of any Manor belonging to any such Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, or Trustees or Trustees; and to sell and dispose of any Houses or Free Farms, Rents, Chief Rents or Quit Rents, or other Emoluments or Advantages, issuing or payable from or in respect of any Freehold or Copyhold or Customary Manor or other Hereditaments, or incident thereto or accruing therefrom, in such and the same manner as said under and subject to the same Statutes and Regulations as such Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, or Trustees or Trustees are respectively authorized to do under the Provisions of the said Act of the Forty second Year of His present Majesty, for the Purpose of providing for the Redemption of any Land Tax charged on the Manor or other Hereditaments belonging to such Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, or Trustees or Trustees.

Incumbents of such Livings, by the Direction of the said Governors, to contract and agree for the Purchase of Land Tax, on the same Terms and Conditions, and in the manner described by the said Act passed in the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and it shall be lawful for the said Governors to apply the said Sum or Sums so appropriated, or any Part or Parts thereof, in Satisfaction or in Payment of the Consideration stipulated in such Contracts; and the said Incumbent or Incumbents of the said Living or Livings to be so augmented, from the Period of the Exemption of such Land Tax purchased by them respectively, and their respective Successors for the time being so appointed, shall be entitled to and shall be in the effect Service and Satisfaction of a Free Farm Rent, equal in Amount to the Land Tax so purchased, to be issued and payable out of the Manor, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, whereon the Land Tax so purchased was charged, on the same Days as such Land Tax was payable before the time of the Purchase thereof, and enjoy all such Powers, Remedies and Advantages, for the Recovery of such Free Farm Rents as are given to Purchasers of Land Tax by the said Act last mentioned.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Inhabitant of any such Living or other Ecclesiastical Benefice, and all Executors or Trustees of any such Charitable Institution, who shall be desirous that the Messuages, Lands, Tenements or other Hereditaments belonging to such Living or other Ecclesiastical Benefice or Charitable Institution, should be executed from Land Tax under the Provisions of this Act, shall within One Year after the passing of this Act transmit a Memorial to the said last mentioned Commissioners, verified in such manner as they shall require and direct, stating the Nature and Description of the Property, or other Funds or Sources from whence the Income of such Living or Ecclesiastical Benefice or Charitable Institution is derived, and the Amount of Income derived from each respectively; and shall also at the same time transmit to the said Commissioners a Certificate signed by the Collector of the Land Tax acting for the District, Town, Parish or Place, within which the Messuages or other Hereditaments belonging to such Living or other Ecclesiastical Benefice or Charitable Institution shall be situate (which Certificate such Collector is hereby authorized and required to grant), containing a Description in Writing of the Messuages or other Hereditaments belonging to such Living or other Ecclesiastical Benefice or Charitable Institution, and the Name of the Parish or Place, or Parishes or Places within which the same shall be situate, and the Amount or Amounts of Land Tax charged thereon: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said last mentioned Commissioners, if they shall deem it expedient, to enlarge the time by this Act limited for the Transmission of such Memorials and Certificates as aforesaid, for any further Period not exceeding Six Calendar Months from the Expiration of the Period by this Act limited as aforesaid for the Transmission thereof; and all Memorials and Certificates which shall be transmitted to the said Commissioners within such extended Period, shall be as valid and effectual to enable the Execution of Land Tax under the Provisions of this Act, as if the same had been transmitted within One Year from the passing of this Act.

Commissioners
may enlarge time for transmitting any such Memorials and Certificates.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said last mentioned Commissioners, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, to certify and declare that all the Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments belonging to any such Living or other Ecclesiastical Benefice or Charitable Institution, shall be wholly freed and exempted from the Land Tax charged thereon, and from all further Assessments thereof; and such Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments shall thenceupon and notwithstanding it may afterwards appear that any of them, or any Part thereof, was assessed to be rated on the Land Tax at the time such Certificate of Land Tax has been obtained, be wholly freed and exempted from all Land Tax, and all further Assessments thereof, from each of the quarterly Days of Payment of Land Tax as shall next precede the Day on which such Certificate of Exemption shall be left at the Office, for the Purpose of being duly recorded in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

Commissioners
may, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, certify that Lands are exempted from Land Tax.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Officer appointed for the Registry of Contracts for Redemption of the Land Tax, shall register all such last mentioned Certificates of Land Tax, and the said Certificates of Exemption, grant; and shall make out and transmit Duplicates of the Land Tax thereby certified and exempted under the Provisions of this Act, and do all such other Acts and Things necessary for the Execution of the Messuages and Hereditaments so to be exempted, as by the said Act of the Forty second Year of His present Majesty are directed, in regard to Contracts entered into under the Provisions thereof; and every Copy of the Registry of any such Certificate shall be allowed in all Courts and Places, and before all Persons, to be good and sufficient Evidence of such Certificate; and no such Certificate, nor any Copy of the Registry thereof, shall be liable to any Stamp Duty.

gistered upon.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That a Statement of the Proceedings of the said Commissioners appointed under the Great Seal in the Execution of this Act, with regard to the Exemption of Livings or other Ecclesiastical Benefices, or Charitable Institutions, from Land Tax, shall be laid before Parliament before the Expiration of the Session of Parliament ending in the Year One thousand eight hundred and Sixteen.

• XXXVIII. And whereas Sales have been made and Conveyances executed by Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, or Persons or Persons for Charitable or other Public Purposes, of Tithes and other Hereditaments, which have not been rated on the Land Tax, for the Purpose of redeeming the Land • Tax charged on other Hereditaments; and Doubts may arise as to the Validity of such Sales and Con-
 • veyances; and it has frequently happened that certain Tithes or other Hereditaments belonging to Livings,
 • have not been rated to the Land Tax at the time of the Contract for the Redemption of the Land Tax
 • charged on the Messuages, Lands and other Hereditaments belonging to such Livings respectively; and

• such

* Such Tithes or other Hereditaments so united to be rated, are still liable to be rated to the Land Tax; and * It appears that in some Instances certain Tithes or other Hereditaments belonging to Livings or other * Ecclesiastical Benefices and Charitable Institutions, exempted or intended to be exempted from the Land * Tax, by the Commissioners appointed under the Great Seal, by virtue of the Powers contained in the said * Acts of the Forty sixth, Forty seventh and Fiftieth Years of His present Majesty, were not, at the respective * times of such Exemption, rated to the Land Tax; and such Tithes or other Hereditaments not so rated, * are still liable to be rated to the Land Tax: Be it therefore further enacted, That in all cases where any * Tithes or other Hereditaments have been sold or conveyed to any Body or Bodies Public or Corporate, or * Companies, or any Persons or Trustees for Charitable or other Public Purposes as last aforesaid, the Sales and * Conveyances thereof shall be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and the Tithes and * Hereditaments therein conveyed discharged from the Land Tax, and all future Assessments thereof, notwith* standing the Tithes or other Hereditaments so sold and conveyed, or any of them, may not have been in the * case of such Sales or Conveyances rated to the Land Tax, and the Land Tax charged thereon may not have * been previously redeemed or purchased; and that all such Tithes and other Hereditaments belonging to any * Livings comprised in any Contract entered into for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged on the * Messuages, Lands, Tithes or other Hereditaments belonging to any such Livings, as at the time of the * Contract for the Redemption of such Land Tax were not rated to the Land Tax, shall nevertheless be * discharged from Land Tax, and all future Assessments thereof; and further, that all such Messuages, Lands, * Tithes and other Hereditaments belonging to the several Livings or other Ecclesiastical Benefices and * Charitable Institutions which have been, or have been intended to be exempted from Land Tax, under the * Powers and Provisions contained in the said Acts of the Forty sixth, Forty seventh and Fiftieth Years of His * present Majesty, or either of them, shall be absolutely exempted and discharged from all Land Tax, under the * respective Provisions of their Exemption and from all future Assessments of Land Tax, notwithstanding * certain Portions or Parts of the Tithes or other Hereditaments belonging to such Livings or other * Ecclesiastical Benefices or Charitable Institutions were not, at the respective Periods of such Exemptions, * included in the Rate or Assessment to the Land Tax.

* XXXIX. And whereas by the said Act of the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, * it was enacted, That whenever there should be any Surplus of Stock transferred as the Consideration for,
 * or purchased with the Money arising by any Sale, Mortgage or Grant to be made by virtue thereof, after * referring to much of such Stock as should be agreed to be transferred as the Consideration for the Land * Tax reduced, the said Surplus Stock should, where the Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments sold, * mortgaged or charged, are Situate in England, be placed in the Books of the Bank of * England, in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to the * Intent that the same might be applied in the manner thereinafter mentioned; that is to say, to the Intent * that such Surplus Stock might at a convenient time be sold, and the Money arising therefrom applied under the * Directions and with the Approbation of the said Court, to be assigned by an Order made upon a Petition
 * as is preferred in a summary way, to the Discharge of any Debt or Debts, or Parts thereof, affecting the * Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, the Land Tax charged whereof should have * been so reduced; or where the same should not be so applied, then the same should be laid out and invested
 * under the like Direction and Approbation, in the Purchase of other Messuages, Lands, Tenements * and Hereditaments, which should be conveyed and settled in manner as the said Act aforesaid: Now be
 * it further enacted, That no Surplus Stock transferred or to be transferred as the Consideration for, or pur* chased with the Money arising by any Sale, Mortgage or Grant, made or to be made by virtue of the said * Act of the Forty second Year of His present Majesty, or of any subsequent Act passed for the Redemption * and Sale of the Land Tax, or of this Act, by any Bodies Public or Corporate, or Companies, or Trustees or * Trustees for Charitable or other Public Purposes, shall be placed in the Books of the Bank of England, in * the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the said Court of Chancery, pursuant to the * Direction of the said Act of the Forty second Year of His present Majesty, and the Bodies Public or Cor* porate, or Companies or Trustees or Trustees for Charitable or other Public Purposes intended therein, shall * have obtained a Certificate under the Hand of Two or more of the said Commissioners appointed or to be * appointed under the Great Seal of Great Britain, that the whole of the Land Tax charged, as well on the * Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, by Sale, Mortgage or Grant whereof such Surplus Stock shall arise * or be paid, as on the Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, limited to the like Uses or * Endorsed to the same Trusts as the Messuages, Lands and Hereditaments so sold, mortgaged or charged, had * settled or limited to at the time of such Sale, Mortgage or Charge, has been wholly redeemed or purchased, * or that so much of such Land Tax has been redeemed or purchased as the said Commissioners shall under the * circumstances of the case think reasonable.

* XL. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where there shall be any Surplus of Stock transferred as * the Consideration for, or purchased with the Money arising by any Sale, Mortgage or Grant to be made by * virtue of any of the Acts passed for the Redemption and Sale of the Land Tax, or of this Act, by any * Archbishop, Bishop, Rectory or Vicar, or other Corporation Sole, for the Purpose of redeeming or purchasing * any Land Tax (after referring to much of such Stock as shall be agreed to be transferred as the Consideration * for the Land Tax redeemed or purchased), such Surplus Stock shall, if the same shall not exceed One * thousand Pounds Capital Stock Three per Centum Consolidated or Reduced Bank Annuities, be transferred * into the joint Names of such Archbishop, Bishop, Rectory, Vicar or other Corporation Sole, having an Interest * therein, and of some Person to be named by such Archbishop, Bishop, Rectory, Vicar or other Corporation Sole,

And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for extending the Periods in which Deeds were directed to be enrolled by an Act of the Fifth Year of His present Majesty, for amending several Acts for Redemption and Sale of the Land Tax, it was enacted, that all Deeds required by the said Act of the Fifth Year of His present Majesty, or any other Acts relating to the Redemption of Land Tax, to be enrolled or registered, should be valid and effectual, although the same should not have been or should not be enrolled or registered within the Periods prescribed by the said Acts respectively, provided the same should have been enrolled or registered before the passing of the Act now in recital, or should be enrolled or registered within Twelve Calendar Months after the passing thereof: And whereas the time limited by the said last mentioned Act will expire on the First Day of July next, and it is expedient to make Provision for the Enrolment or Registry of Deeds which may not be duly enrolled or registered pursuant to the Directions of that Act: Be it therefore further enacted, That all Deeds required by the said Act of the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty, or any other Acts relating to the Redemption of Land Tax, to be enrolled or registered, shall be valid and effectual, although the same shall not be enrolled or registered within the Periods prescribed by the said Act of the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty, provided the same shall have been enrolled or registered, within Twelve Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, and that all Conveyances made subsequent to any Deeds already enrolled or registered, or to be enrolled or registered under this Act, or any former Act for the Redemption of the Land Tax, and depending in point of Title on such Deeds, shall be of the same Effect as if such Deeds had been enrolled or registered on the Day of the Date thereof, notwithstanding any Objection to the Validity of any Assurance heretofore made, to correct or supply any Defects arising from the want of such Enrolment or Registry.

though not enrolled within a certain Period.

Schedules, &c.
Act.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That the several Schedules to this Act annexed, and the Rules therein contained shall be deemed and construed a part of this Act, as if the same had been inserted herein under a Special Enactment; and the said Schedules, and all and every the Provisions of this Act, shall in the Execution of any of the Powers or Provisions contained in the said Land Tax Act, or in any Act or Acts in force at the time of passing this Act, touching the Redemption or Sale of the Land Tax, be severally applied and construed in like manner as if the said several Schedules and Provisions of this Act had been specially enacted in the said prior Act or Acts; and all and every the Powers and Provisions contained in the said Land Tax Act or in any Act or Acts in force at the time of passing this Act, touching the Redemption or Sale of the Land Tax, except where the same are repealed or varied by this Act, shall be severally applied and construed in like manner as if the same Powers and Provisions had been contained and so amended by this Act.

Former Acts applied.

All altered, &c.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That this Act, or any of the Provisions thereof, may be altered, varied or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

An Act for the better Regulation of Ecclesiastical Courts in England; and for the more easy Recovery of Church Rates and Tithes. (11th July 1813.)

WHEREAS it is expedient that Excommunication, together with all Proceedings following thereupon, should, during its various uses, be discontinued, and that other Proceedings should be substituted in its stead; and that certain other Regulations should be made in the Proceedings of the Ecclesiastical Courts; and that more convenient modes of removing Tithes and Church Rates in certain cases should be provided: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, Excommunication, together with all Proceedings following thereupon, shall in all cases, save those hereafter to be specified, be discontinued, throughout that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England; and that in all Cases which according to the Laws of this Realm are cognizable in the Ecclesiastical Courts, when any Person or Persons having been duly cited to appear in any Ecclesiastical Court, or required to comply with the lawful Orders or Decrees, as well final as interlocutory, of any such Court, shall neglect or refuse to appear, or neglect or refuse to pay Obedience to such lawful Orders or Decrees, or when any Person or Persons shall commit a Contempt in the Face of such Court, no Sentence of Excommunication shall be given or pronounced; saving in the particular cases hereafter to be specified; but in stead thereof, it shall be lawful for the Judges or Judge who sit in the Cause, or who has his Order or Decree have not been obeyed, or before whom such Contempt in the Face of the Court shall have been committed, to pronounce such Person or Persons contumacious and in contempt; and within Ten Days to signify the same in the Form to this Act annexed, to His Majesty in Chancery, as hath heretofore been done in signifying Excommunications; and thereupon a Writ de Contumacia Capiendo, in the Form to this Act annexed, shall issue from the Court of Chancery, directed to the same Person to whom the Writ de Excommunicatione Capiendo have heretofore been directed; and the same shall be returnable in like manner as the Writ de Excommunicatione Capiendo hath been by Law returnable heretofore, and shall have the same Force and Effect as the said Writ; and all Rules and Regulations not hereby altered, now by Law applying to the said Writ and the Proceedings following thereupon, and particularly the several Provisions contained in a certain Act passed in the Fifth Year of Queen Elizabeth, intitled An Act for the due Execution of the Writ de Excommunicatione Capendo, shall extend and be applied to the said Writ de Contumacia Capiendo and the Proceedings following thereupon, as if the same were herein particularly repeated and enacted; and the proper Officers of the said Court of Chancery are hereby authorized and required to issue such Writ de Contumacia Capiendo severally; and all Sheriffs, Gaolers and other Officers are hereby authorized and required to execute the same, by taking and detaining the Body of the Person against whom the said Writ shall be directed to be executed; and upon the due Appearance of the Party to trial and not having appeared as aforesaid, or the Obedience of the Party to trial and not having obeyed as aforesaid, or the due Submission of the Party to having committed a Contempt in the Face of the Court, the Judges or Judge of such Ecclesiastical Court pronounce such Party absolved from the Contumacy and Contempt aforesaid, and shall forthwith make an Order upon the Sheriff, Gaoler or other Officer in whole Custody, that he, in the Form to this Act annexed, for discharging such Party out of Custody, and such Sheriff, Gaoler or other Officer shall, on the said Order being shewn to him, as soon as such Party shall have discharged the Costs lawfully incurred by reason of such Custody and Contempt forthwith discharge him.

in all cases except in certain cases.

Form of the Writ de Ex-communicatione Capiendo.

§ 2. c. 1.

It is Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall prevent any Ecclesiastical Court from pronouncing or declaring Persons to be Excommunicate in definitive Sentences, or in interlocutory Decrees having the Force and Effect of definitive Sentences, such Sentences or Decrees being pronounced in Spiritual Causes for Offences of Ecclesiastical Cognizance, in the same manner as such Court might lawfully have pronounced or declared the same, had this Act not been passed.

In what cases
shall continue.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Person who shall be pronounced or declared Excommunicate, shall incur any Civil Penalty or Incapacity whatever, in consequence of such Excommunication, save such Imprisonment, not exceeding Six Months, in the Court pronouncing or declaring such Person Excommunicate shall direct, and in such case the said Excommunication, and the Term of such Imprisonment, shall be signified and notified to His Majesty in Chancery, in the same manner as Excommunications have been heretofore signified,

Proceedings in case of Excom-

voided likewise, that nothing herein contained shall affect any Regulations that may have been made by Another Power.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Professor of the Arches Court of Canterbury, or any other Ecclesiastical Court or Courts in which he shall be entitled to sit as Proctor, shall sit as such, or permit or suffer his Name to be in any manner used in any Suit, the Prosecution or Defence of any full appearance to the Office of a Proctor, or in obtaining Probate of Wills, Letters of Administration or Marriage Licences, or for any other use, or for the Profit and Benefit of any Person or Persons not entitled to sit as a Proctor, or shall permit or suffer any such Person or Persons so demanded or participate in fee, Profit and Benefit, and Counselor thereof shall be made to the Court or Courts wherein such Proctor hath been admitted and enrolled, and Plead gives to the Satisfaction of the said Court or Courts that such Person hath offended therein as aforesaid, then and in such case every such Proctor on offending shall be struck off the Roll of Proctors, and be for ever after disabled from practicing as a Proctor, or be suspended from the Office, Functions and Practice of a Proctor in all and every the said Court or Courts for as long a Period as the Judge or Judges of the said Court or Courts may deem fit; and cannot go to any Allowance or Allowances, Sum or Sums of Money that are or shall be agreed to be made to the Widows or Children of any deceased Proctor or Proctors by any surviving Partner or Partners of such deceased Proctor or Proctors; and after that and except as to any Agreement made, or understood to have been made, between Proctors and Attorneys, Clerks, or other Persons, who have been entered prior to the passing of this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, in case any Person or Persons shall in his or in their own Name, or to the Name of any other Person or Persons, make, do, sell, execute or perform any Act, Matter or Thing whatsoever in any way appurtenant or belonging to the Office, Function or Practice of a Proctor, for or in Consideration of any Gain, Fee or Reward, or with a View to participate in the Benefit to be derived from the Office, Functions or Practice of a Proctor, without being admitted and enrolled, every such Person, for every such Offence, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be paid for and recovered in manner hereinafter mentioned.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Salary which shall be agreed to be paid by a Proctor, his Partner or Successor, to a Clerk really and bona fide serving in his Office at the time of the passing of this Act, and who shall have been bona fide serving in the Office of any Proctor or Proctors for Seven Years next before the passing of the same.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures imposed on any Person or Persons for Offences committed against this Act, shall and may be paid for and recovered as any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Pleint or Information, wherein an Effort, Frustration, Privilege, Waiver of Law or more than One Importance shall be showed, and wherein the Plaintiff, if he or she shall recover any Penalty or Forfeiture, shall receive the same for his or her own Use, with full Costs of Suit.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, every such Action or Suit shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid and tried in the City or County wherein the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence as any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance of by the Authority of this Act; and if the same shall appear to have been so done, or if any Action or Suit shall be brought after the time limited for bringing the same, or shall be laid in any other City, County or Place than as aforesaid, then the Judge shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be satisfied, or suffer a Discontinuance of their Action or Suit, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Triple Costs, and shall have full Recovery for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit in any other case by Law.

An Act to make further Regulations for the Building and Repairing of Court Houses and Sessions Houses in Ireland. [12th July 1813.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to make further Regulations for the Building and Repairing of Court Houses and Sessions Houses in Ireland; Be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of any County, County of a City or County of a Town, in Ireland, or any Affixes or Prefecting Terms for such County, County of a City or County of a Town, and they are hereby required from time to time to enquire into the State of the Court Houses or Sessions Houses of such County, County of a City or County of a Town; and if they shall find any such Court House or Sessions House in want of Repair, or deficient in any Accommodations or Advantages requisite for the same, such Grand Jury is hereby empowered to present such Sum or Sums, to be raised off such County, County of a City or County of a Town, as shall be deemed necessary to remedy such Deficiency, either by enlarging or altering such Court House or Sessions House, or by building a new Court House or Sessions House in lieu thereof, or to effect all such Repairs as may be necessary; and that whenever any Prefectment shall be made by such Grand Jury, for the building, repairing, enlarging or rebuilding of any Court House or Sessions House, it shall and may be lawful for such Grand Jury to direct that the Overseers appointed for the overseeing of such Work shall, before the then next ensuing Affixes or Prefecting Terms, enter into a Contract with some Person or Persons duly qualified for performing the Whole or any Part of the Work to be done; and the said Overseers are hereby empowered and required to make and enter into such Contracts accordingly with any Person or Persons, and his or their Surety or Sureties for performing the same; in which Contract the Nature of the Work to be done, and the time within which the same is to be completed, the whole Sum or Sums of Money to be paid for the same, and the period or other time or times of Payment or Advance of such Sum or Sums, or any Part or Parts thereof to the Contractor or Contractors, shall be fully stated and set forth; and every such Contract shall be made and entered into in Writing at least Twenty Days next before such ensuing Affixes or Prefecting Terms, and shall at the Affixes or Prefecting Terms next after the same shall be made and entered into, be laid before the Grand Jury, who shall signify on the Back of such Contract their Approbation or Disapprobation thereof, and of the Sufficiency of the Sureties for performing such Contract; and the Approbation of such Grand Jury, when given, shall be entered in the Prefectment Book at the said Affixes, and shall be signed by the Judge at such Affixes, whereupon such Contract shall be binding and enforceable as all Powers to all Intents and Purposes; and if such Contract shall not be so approved of by such Grand Jury, the same shall be null and void so all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to appear at the Affixes or Prefecting Terms at which such Contract shall be so laid before the Grand Jury, and to traverse the Property of such Contract, on the Ground only that the Price agreed to be paid for the Work contracted to be done is excessive; and whenever any Person shall so appear and traverse the Property of such Contract upon the Ground of such excessive Price, it shall be lawful for the Court at such Affixes or Prefecting Terms, and they are hereby required to try the Merits of such Traverse by a Jury, in the same manner as any other Traverse within the Jurisdiction of such Court ought to be tried at such Affixes; and in case the Jury shall find for such Traverse, such Contract shall thereupon be dissolved and annulled; and if they shall find against such Traverse, such Contract shall stand good and valid.

III. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Prefectment shall be made for the building, enlarging, repairing or rebuilding any Court House or Sessions House as aforesaid, and the Sum necessary to be raised for the same shall be greater than it may be proper to raise in such County, County of a City or County of a Town, in One Half Year, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury presenting the same, fore, to prefer in the said Sessions the whole Sum to be expended thereby and to disburse it and by such Prefecture that the same shall be raised as the County, County of a City or County of a Town, by any Half-yearly or Yearly Sums or Installments in manner and at the times therein specified, and in such Proportions as to such Grand Jury may from expedient; and the same shall be so raised accordingly: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any subsequent Grand Jury to prorate that any of the Installments shall be increased or diminished to any Sum that shall be stipulated to be paid in or by such Contract as may have been entered into under or by virtue of this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury, at the Assizes or Prefecture Term in which such Contract as aforesaid shall be approved of as aforesaid, or at any subsequent Assize or Prefecture Term, to prefer that any Sum or Sums agreed by such Contract to be paid or advanced to the Contractor or Contractors at any Times or Periods in the said Contract specified, or any other Sum or Sums in the Discretion of the said Grand Jury, shall be paid and advanced to such Contractor or Contractors at such Times or Periods as shall be specified in such Prefecture by the Treasurer of the County, upon the Order in Writing of such Overseers, and such Overseers and Contractors shall thereupon, before any Sum shall be so advanced, enter into a Recognizance before the Court in double the Sum so to be advanced, conditioned that the Money so to be advanced shall be applied for the Purpose for which the same was so preferred, and none other; and that such Overseers and such Contractor or Contractors or some of them, shall at the next Assize or Prefecture Term fully and fairly account for the same, and that they or some of them, their Executors or Administrators, shall at such ensuing Assize or Prefecture Term pay to the Treasurer for the true being of such County, County of a City or County of a Town, any Balance or Part of such Money which shall not by such Account appear to have been applied for the Purpose aforesaid.

Grand Jury may prefer that Money shall be advanced to Contractors.

V. And be it further enacted, That such Overseers and Contractors shall, at the next ensuing Assize or Prefecture Term as aforesaid, lay before the Grand Jury and the Court a just and fair Account in Writing, of all and every Expensures and Expensures of such Money so to be advanced, and the particular Purpose for which the same was expended, and the Quantities and Prices of such Material bought, transported, and such Account shall be verified by Affidavit in Writing at the Foot thereof, to be made in open Court by the Contractor or Contractors, or one of them, and shall state that the whole of the Money was so expended for the sole Purpose of executing the Work so preferred pursuant to the Prefecture thereof; and whenever any such Work shall be in hand, and the Accounts of the said Contractors approved of and passed by the Grand Jury and the Court, it shall be ordered that all such Recognizances so entered into shall be returned on the last Day of the next Assize or Prefecture Term, and they shall be so returned accordingly; unless some sufficient Complaint laid in to the Court or the Grand Jury sufficient Cause shall appear to induce the Court to make an Order to the contrary; and provided that three or any Balance aforesaid, a Certificate of the Treasurer of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, shall be laid before the Grand Jury and the Court, and setting forth that he had received the said Balance and applied it to the Credit of the County, County of a City or County of a Town.

Overseers and Contractors to account.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it may at any time before the passing of this Act any Overseer or Overseers duly appointed by any Grand Jury of any County, County of a City or County of a Town in Ireland, shall have made and entered into any Contract or Contracts for the building, rebuilding, enlarging or repairing of any Session House or Court House, the same shall be laid before the Grand Jury of such County, County of a City or County of a Town, at the Assize or Prefecture Term next ensuing the passing of this Act, and if it shall appear to such Grand Jury that such Contract hath been or Part executed, they shall signify the same on the Back of such Contract, and thereon the same shall be good and valid, and the Provision of this Act shall be applied to the Execution thereof, as if the same had been duly approved and not entered; and if it shall appear to such Grand Jury that such Contract has not been in Part executed, they shall signify on the Back of such Contract their Approbation or Disapprobation thereof, and thereupon the same, if approved, shall be liable to be inserted, and be in all respects in the same State and Condition and be executed in the same manner, and the Provision of this Act shall be applied to the Execution thereof, as if the same had been preferred and regularly approved or disapproved under this Act; and that all Moneys which may have been or shall be advanced or paid to such Contractor or Contractors, shall be duly accounted for in manner required by this Act; and that all Sums shall after the passing of this Act be paid to any Contractor, until he shall have so accounted for all Sums so previously received by him.

Act to extend to Sessions House.

VII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Prefecture shall have been or shall be made for the Purpose of building, rebuilding or repairing any Session House or Court House in or for any County, County of a City or County of a Town, and it shall appear that any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments may be convenient for the Site of any new Court House or Session House, or may be adjoining to any old Court or Session House, and be convenient for the Purpose of enlarging the same, or the Courts or Outlets thereto belonging, it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of such County, County of a City or County of a Town, to contract and agree with any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Corporate or Public, who may be willing to demise or sell such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any of them, and such Grand Jury shall direct that the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments be contracted or agreed for, shall be demised or conveyed to such Contractors, as such Grand Jury shall appear, and to their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, in Trust for the Uses and Purposes aforesaid, in such manner and under such Rules and Regulations as for the appointing such Commissioners, and for the demising and conveying such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, shall be so agreed or contracted for as aforesaid, to such Commissioners, as are contained in an Act made in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for repealing the several Laws

An Act to amend an Act of the present Session of Parliament, for granting a Sum of Money for purchasing an Estate for the Marquis of Wellington and his Heirs, in Consideration of the eminent and signal Services performed by the said Marquis of Wellington to His Majesty and the Public.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for granting a Sum of Money for purchasing an Estate for the Marquis of Wellington and his Heirs, in Consideration of the eminent and signal Services performed by the said Marquis of Wellington to His Majesty and the Public, a Sum not exceeding One hundred thousand Pounds was granted out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain to the Speaker of the House of Commons, the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, or First Lord Commissioners of the Treasury, the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, the Right Honourable William Wellesley Pole, and the Honourable and Reverend Gerald Patrick Wellesley, Doctor in Divinity, who were thereby required to invest the same in the Purchase of Freehold Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in Great Britain; and it was enacted, that the said Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments should, when so purchased, be forthwith settled, conveyed and assured to the Use of the said Marquis of Wellington, and to the Heirs Male of the Body of the said Marquis of Wellington, and to such other Person to whom the Title, Honour and Dignity of Marquis of Wellington should descend, pursuant to the Limitations of the Patent whereby the said Dignity was granted, and to Default and so Failure of the Heirs Male of the Body of the said Marquis, then to the Use of the Heirs of his Body: And whereas it was intended that the Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments to be purchased should always go along and be enjoyed with the said Title, Honour and Dignity of Marquis of Wellington, so long as the same should endure, and that the said Premises should also be unalienable until there should be a Failure of Issue of the Body of the said Marquis of Wellington; but Doubts may arise whether the Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments to be purchased as aforesaid would be unalienable, by reason that an express Provision is for that Purpose contained in the said recited Act: Be it therefore enacted and declared by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, he and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so long as the said Title, Honour and Dignity of Marquis of Wellington shall endure, and until there shall be a Failure of Issue of the Body of the said Marquis of Wellington, neither the said Marquis of Wellington, nor any other Person to whom the Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments to be purchased shall or may be disposed of or sold limited by virtue of the Limitations directed by the said recited Act, shall have any Power, by Fine or Recovery, or by the Exercise of any Power, or by any other Act, Assurance or Conveyance in the Law, to tender, bar or discharge any the Person or Persons to or upon whom the said Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments are by the said recited Act to be settled or limited from holding or enjoying the same, according to the said Limitations, other than and except such Lessee and Jointures, and Power of selling and giving Tenure, and disposing of the Manors thence arising, as may be made or exercised under the Provisions of the said recited Act, and Grants of Lands or Tenements held by Copy of Court Roll, according to the Customs of the respective Manors to be purchased, whereof the same may be held, but all such Fines, Recoveries, Acts, Assurances and Conveyances, other than such Lessee and Jointures, and Powers and Grants, by Copy as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby declared and enacted to be void.

II. And be it further enacted, That on Failure of the Heirs of the Body of the said Marquis of Wellington, the Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments to be purchased as aforesaid, shall go and remain to the Use of the said Marquis and his Heirs and Aliens, which shall ensue Remainder or Reversion in Fee Simple it shall be lawful for the said Marquis of Wellington, and his Heirs and Aliens, at any time or times during the Continuance of the said Honour, Title and Dignity of Marquis of Wellington, and until there shall be a Failure of Issue of his Body, notwithstanding any thing heretofore contained, to grant, convey, devise or dispose of, by Deed or Will, or other Assurance or Assurances by which Freehold Estates in Remainder or Reversion are capable by Law of being conveyed or disposed of.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Person by the said Act authorized, to invest a Sum not exceeding One hundred thousand Pounds in the manner aforesaid, to sell and build, or cause to be erected and built upon Part of the Land which shall be purchased as aforesaid, a Mansion House, with suitable Out Offices and Out Buildings which in their Discretion and Judgment shall be suitable and fit for the Residence of the Marquis of Wellington for the time being, and to lay out and appropriate according to such Discretion and Judgment, any Part or Parts of such Land to be so purchased as and for a Garden or Gardens, and as and for a Park or Pleasure Ground or Grounds, and to make, erect and build, or cause to be made, erected and built thereon, such Edifices or Buildings, and Walls and Fences as shall, according to such Discretion and Judgment, be fitting and proper, and to pay and apply a sufficient Part of the said Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds, but not exceeding the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds to relieving and discharging the Costs and Expenses of erecting and building such Mansion House, Out Offices and Out Buildings, and of making, erecting and building such other Enclosures, Walls and Fences, and laying out and appropriating such Garden or Gardens, Park or Pleasure Ground or Grounds as aforesaid, and of making such Avenues, Walks and Rides, Borders and Divisions, in the said Garden or Gardens, Park and Pleasure Ground or Grounds, and of planting and sowing the same respectively with such Trees, Plants, Shrubs and Flowers, as in such Discretion and Judgment as aforesaid shall be fit and proper: and also that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Person so authorized by the said recited Act to make such Investment as

An Act to amend the several Acts for regulating Licences for the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale and Cyder, by Retail, in Ireland. [19th July 1813.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating Licences for the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale and Cyder by Retail; and for discouraging the immoderate Use of Spirituous Liquors in Ireland, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no Person shall be capable of securing a Licence to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale or Cyder by Retail, who shall not generally take and subscribe an Oath, among other things, that he or she will not permit or suffer to be sold in any House, Building, Out House, Tent, Field or other Place, for Sale or for Auction or Profit (during the Continuance of the Licence), any Spirituous Liquors which shall not have been duly and legally purchased, and attended with proper Permits, to him or her, and which shall not, on the oath of him or her Knowledge or Belief, have paid the full Duties due thereon to His Majesty's Exchequer. Be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Person requesting any such Licence shall make, take and subscribe that Part of the Oath hereinafter specified, in the Presence of One Justice of the Peace, and the Collector, Inspector General or the Surveyor of Excise in the District within which such Person shall require to be licensed; and such Justice, and such Barrowyn, Inspector General or Collector, as the case may be, shall attach such Affidavit; and that every Person who shall require any such Licence, shall produce, to the Distributor of Stamps, or other Officer or Person who is or shall be empowered by Law or appointed to grant to a Licence, such Affidavit, signed and subscribed by such Person, and attested as aforesaid, and shall leave it to be filed with such Distributor of Stamps, or other Officer who shall transmit the same, when required, to the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes; and if any Distributor of Stamps, or other Officer, shall grant or issue any such Licence to any Person who shall not produce to and leave with him such Affidavit so made and signed and attested as aforesaid, such Distributor of Stamps, or other Officer, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds to any Person who will sue or prosecute for the same, such Penalty or Forfeiture to be levied and recovered to any Penalty of the like Amount may be recovered and levied under and by virtue of the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year, or under or by virtue of an Act, made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act to make further Regulations with respect to Licences for the Sale of Spirituous and other Liquors by Retail or Wholesale; and such Licence shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be null and void to all Intents and Purposes; and the Person whose Licence shall so become null and void, shall be deemed an unlawful Retailer of Spirituous Liquors, and shall be subject to such Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, as Retainers of Spirituous Liquors without Licence are subject to.

II. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Justice of the Peace, or Chief or High Constable, or any Officer appointed by or arising under the Commissioners of Customs, Excise and Stamps respectively, shall find any Persons drinking in any House, Shop, Southshore or other Building, or any Booth or Shed, Hut, Tent, Stall or Place in which or where any Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale or Porter, Cyder, Perry, Mead or any Misch shall be sold by Retail, and the Licence for such Sale shall not upon Demand be produced to such Justice of Peace, Constable or Officer according to Law, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice of Peace, Constable or Officer to apprehend all such Persons so found drinking there; and every such Person so found drinking shall, upon Conviction before any Justice of Peace in manner directed by the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year aforesaid, be subject and liable to a Fine or Penalty not exceeding Twenty Shillings and not less than Five Shillings, in the Discretion of such Justice, to be paid and applied in such manner as is directed by the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year aforesaid; and in case such Penalty shall not be paid by the Offender immediately upon Conviction, such Offender shall be committed to Goal by such Justice, for any time not exceeding One Month, at the Discretion of such Justice.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be entitled to or shall maintain any Cause, Action or Suit, in any Civil Bill Court, before any Assistant Barrister at any General Session or Quarter Session of the Peace for any County in Ireland, upon any Processory Note, Bill, Bond or other Writing, given in the Whole or in Part as a Security for the Payment of any Debt contracted for Spirituous or other Liquors sold by Retail; and it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister presiding at such Civil Bill Court in all cases, and be is hereby required to examine the Witnesses produced on the Trial of any such Suit or Action in any such Court, or any other Person; and if such Assistant Barrister shall, on the Evidence of such Witnesses or other Persons, be satisfied that any Part of the Debt or Demand, or any Part of the Consideration of any Processory Note, Bill, Bond or other Writings, on account of which such Action or Suit shall be brought or prosecuted, has arisen from the Sale of Spirituous or other Liquors by Retail, it shall be lawful for such Assistant Barrister, and he is hereby required to dismiss such Action or Suit, or to commit the Plaintiff thereon; and to direct the Payment of Costs by such Plaintiff, in like manner as if the said Plaintiff had not had any Cause of Action or Suit whatever against the Defendant thereon.

IV. And whereas it is, among other things, enacted by the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year aforesaid, that any Grocer or Person answering by himself or herself, or by any One for him or her own Use or Benefit, the Trade or Business of a Grocer, or who shall be licensed as a Grocer, or in whole House or in Part a Building occupied by him or her, or any House or Building adjoining thereto and which shall communicate with such House or Buildings, the Trade or Business of a Grocer shall be carried on in any Place where the Stamp Duty to be paid for a Licence to sell Spirituous or other Liquors by Retail shall not be less than Twenty two Pounds, shall be capable of being levied in such Place to retail Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale or Porter, Cyder or Perry, Mead or any Misch; Be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, whenever any such Licence shall be required by such Grocer or other Person described in the said recited Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Distributor of Stamps or other Officer empowered by Law or appointed for that Purpose, to grant such Licence to such Grocer in Places where the Stamp Duty on such Licence is Forty Pounds, upon Payment by such Grocer or Person of the Sum of Thirty Pounds only, and in Places where the Stamp Duty on such Licence is Thirty three Pounds, upon Payment by such Grocer or other Person of the Sum of Twenty five Pounds only, and in Places where the Stamp Duty on such Licence is Twenty two Pounds, upon Payment by such Grocer or other Person of the Sum

19th July 1847.

WHEREAS notwithstanding the Acts heretofore passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and the Discharge of many Prisoners for Small Debts by Charitable Donations, several Prisons generally remain cumbered for Debt in different Prisons in Ireland; and it is therefore expedient to make a general Provision for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland under certain Restrictions; Be it therefore enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, an Act passed in Ireland in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the Relief and Discharge of Insolvent Debtors detained in Prison; and also another Act, passed in the Fifteenth Year of His Majesty's Reign, to extend and amend the Provisions of the last recited Act, shall stand and be repealed; save in as far as relates to any Person who has been actually discharged from Cuckery under the same, before the passing of this Act; and save that any Person who has before the passing of this Act presented a Petition for his or her Discharge under the Provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, may, if he or she shall think proper, proceed under the same, and have the full Benefit thereof respectively, as if this Act had not passed.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for every Person who shall be a Professor in any Prince is, franked, upon any Process whatsoever, issuing from any Court whatsoever, for or by reason of any Debt, Damage, Costs, Sums or Sums of Money, or Contempt for Non-payment of Money, and who shall have been in Custody upon some Process for some or one of the said Debts or Demands, during the Space of Three Calendar Months or more, to apply by a Petition in a summary way to the Court from whence such Process issued, for his or her Discharge from such Confinement, according to the Provisions of this Act; and in such Petition such Prisoner shall state the Person wherein such Prisoner shall be then confined, the time when such Prisoner was first charged in Custody or received in Prison upon some Process on which he or she shall then be detained in Prison, together with the Name or Names of the Person or Persons at whose Suit or Proceedings such Prisoner shall, at the time of suffering such Process, be detained in Prison, and the Amount of each and every Debt or Sum of Money for which such Prisoner shall be so detained, and shall pray to be discharged from Custody upon all such Process, and to have full and Liberty of his or her Person against the Demands for which such Prisoner shall be then in Custody, and against the Demands of all other Persons who shall be named or specified as Creditors, or as claiming to be Creditors of such Prisoner, in the Schedule annexed to such Petition; and such Prisoner shall by such Petition offer to convey, assign and deliver to such Person or Persons as the Court shall direct, for the Payment of such Debts and Sums of Money respectively from which such Prisoner shall seek to be discharged, all such Property as such Prisoner shall possess, or have in his or her Power, so hereinafter expressed; the Wearing Apparel and Bedding for such Prisoner and his or her Family, and Working Tools and necessary Implements for his or her Occupation or Calling, and other small Necessaries, not exceeding in the whole the Value of Two Pounds, only excepted; and that also offer to engage to pay so much of all such Debts and Demands respectively as shall be justly due from such Prisoner to such Creditors, as shall not be discharged by means of the Property to be so conveyed, assigned and delivered, as aforesaid; and such Prisoner shall at any time thereafter become possessed of sufficient means for such Purpose; to which Petition shall be annexed a Schedule, containing a full and true Description of all and every the Person or Persons to whom such Prisoner shall then be indebted, or who to him or her Knowledge or Belief shall claim to be a Creditor or Creditors of such Prisoner, with the Nature and Amount of such Debts and Claims respectively, and of every Security for the same respectively, distinguishing such Debts and Claims as shall be admitted, from such as shall be disputed by such Prisoner; and also a full, just, true and perfect Account and Discovery of all the Estates and Effects, Real and Personal, in Possession, Receipt, Revenue, Revenue or Expectancy, of every Nature and Kind whatsoever, which such Prisoner, or any other Person or Persons in Trust for such Prisoner, or for his or her Use, Benefit or Advantage, in any manner whatsoever shall have been or shall be seized or possessed of, or intended to, or withheld unto, or which such Prisoner, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him or her, or for his or her Use, Benefit or Advantage, shall have had or shall have any Power to dispose of or charge for the Benefit or Advantage of such Prisoner, at the time when such Prisoner was first committed to Prison, or charged in Custody for any of the Debts or Sums of Money for which such Prisoner shall then be detained in Custody, or at any time subsequent to that time, before and on the Day on which the Truth of such Schedule shall be sworn to by such Prisoner as herein aforesaid; together with a full, just, true and perfect Account of all Debts at such time owing to such Prisoner, or to any Person or Persons in Trust for him or her, or for his or her Benefit or Advantage, either solely or jointly with any other Person or Persons, and the Names and Places of Abode of the several Persons from whom such Debt shall be or shall have been due or owing, and of the Witnesses who can prove such Debts as shall remain due (if any such debt shall be) so far as such Prisoner can for such time, and in what manner any such Estates or Effects, Real or Personal, of such Prisoner shall have been applied or disposed of since the time when such Prisoner shall have been first committed to Prison or charged in Custody as aforesaid, and which of such Estates or Effects, or any of them, shall have been in any manner conveyed, assigned, disposed of, charged or incumbered in any manner whatsoever, and when and in what manner, and for what Consideration, and to whom, and for whose Benefit, and which of such Estates and Effects shall, at the time of becoming to such Schedule, be applicable to the Discharge of the Demands of his or her Creditors; and such Schedule shall also fully and truly describe the Wearing Apparel and Bedding of such Prisoner and his or her Family, and the Working Tools and Implements, and other small Necessaries intended to be exempted by such Prisoner from the Assignment proposed by the said Petition to be made by such Prisoner as aforesaid, together with the Values of such excepted Articles respectively; and such Prisoner shall make Oath of the Truth of such Petition and Schedule to the following Effect, or with such Variations, according to special circumstances, as shall be consistent with the Provisions of this Act.

For Three Months, in reply to be assigned by Petition to Court from whence Process issued.

Schedule of Debts and Effects, as mentioned in Petition.

I, A. B. upon my corporal Oath, do solemnly swear and declare, That on the Day of _____ I was really and truly a Prisoner or the actual Custody of _____ at the Suit of _____ for the Sum of _____ [or the sum may be], without any Fraud or Collection whatever; and that I have ever since been and now am a Prisoner in _____ in the actual Custody of the Keeper or Gaoler of _____ [or the sum may be], or within the Liberties thereof, at the Suit of _____ and of _____ [or the sum may be], without any Fraud or Collection whatever; and that I have not taken the Benefit of any Act of Parliament made for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors within the Space of Two Years now last past, and that I have not had at any time since I was committed to Prison, or charged in Custody by the said _____ as aforesaid, any means whatsoever of discharging the Demands of the said _____ and of the other Persons named or described as my Creditors, or as claiming to be my Creditors, in the Schedule hereto annexed and subscribed by me, except the Estates and Effects mentioned in the said Schedule; and that I have not now any means of discharging such Demands, except so much of the said Estates and Effects as still remain applicable for that Purpose, as expressed in the said Schedule; and that I

Form of Oath of Truth of Petition and Schedule.

all the Estates and Effects which I have disposed of since I was first committed to Prison or charged in Custody have been necessarily expended by me for the Maintenance of myself and Family, and for Law Charges and other unavoidable Expences during my Confinement, and in Payment of just Debts, due and owing by me before or since the said Day of when I was first committed to Prison, or detained in Custody at the Bar of the said as aforesaid, and that the said Schedule doth contain to the best of my Knowledge and Belief, a full, just, true and perfect Account and Discovery of all the Estates and Effects, Real and Personal, in Possession, Reversion, Remainder or Expectancy, and of every Nature and Kind I own now, or which any Person or Persons in Trust for me, or for my Use, Benefit or Advantage, now or are lawfully possessed of, interposed in or entitled unto, or which was or were in my Possession, Custody or Power, or in the Possession, Custody or Power of any such Person as aforesaid, as which I or any Person or Persons had any Power of disposing of or charging for my Benefit or Advantage at the time I was first committed to Prison or charged in Custody by the said as aforesaid, or at any time since that time, and of all Debts owing to me or to any Person or Persons in Trust for me or for my Benefit, either solely or jointly with any other Person or Persons, and of all Securities or Contracts whereby any Money now is, or will, or may hereafter become payable, or any Benefit or Advantage may accrue, or might have accrued to me or my Use, or to any Person or Persons in Trust for me or for my Benefit, at the time I was first committed to Prison or charged in Custody as aforesaid, and the Names and Places of Abode of the several Persons from whom such Debts are or were due and owing, and of the Witnesses who can prove such Debts or Contracts as remain due or unperformed, so far as I am able to set forth the same; and that neither I nor any Person or Persons in Trust for me or for my Use and Benefit, in my Knowledge or Belief, have or have any Land, Money, Stock or other Estate or Effects whatsoever, either Real or Personal, in Possession, Reversion, Remainder or Expectancy, or of any Nature or Kind whatsoever, or any Power of disposing of or of charging for my Benefit or Advantage any Property whatsoever, other than such as are in the said Schedule contained or expressed, except the Working Apparel and Bedding for myself and Family, Working Tools and the necessary Implements for my Occupation and Calling, and other small Newclothes, not exceeding in the whole the Value of Ten Pounds, mentioned and described in the said Schedule, and intended to be excepted from the Assignment intended to be made by me; and that I have not, nor hath or have any Person or Persons for me, directly or indirectly, sold, gifted or otherwise conveyed or disposed of, as in Trust or otherwise, except as herebefore expressed, or in any manner concealed any Part of my Lands, Money, Goods, Chattels, Stocks, Debts, Securities, Contracts, Estates or Effects, Real or Personal, whereby to secure the same for my own Benefit, or whereby I may receive or expect to receive any Profit or Advantage therefrom, or with any Intent to defraud or deceive any Creditor or Creditors to whom I am or was indebted, in any wise howsoever.

Court, or a Justice, resident either Oath.

Copy of Petition, Schedule and Oath, delivered to every Prisoner.

And the said Oath shall and may be administered to such Prisoner by such Court, or by any Person duly authorized to take Affidavits for such Court, or by any Justice of the Peace within whose Jurisdiction such Prisoner shall be detained in Custody: And the said Petition and Schedule and Oath shall be respectively subscribed by such Prisoner, in the Presence of the Person by whom such Oath shall be administered, who shall certify the Subscriptions thereof respectively by such Prisoner; and such Petition, Schedule and Oath, shall be filed in the said Court, which Court shall thereupon cause a Day for hearing the Matter of such Petition; and a Copy of such Petition, Schedule and Oath, shall be served on all and every Person or Persons who shall be specified in such Petition as the Person or Persons at whose Suit such Prisoner shall then be detained in Custody, or on his, her or their Attorney or Solicitor, to the Address or Addresses, Suit or Suits, in respect of which such Prisoner shall be so detained, together with a Copy of the Order of the Court upon such Petition, Twenty Days at the least before the Day appointed for hearing the Matter of such Petition, by delivering such Copies respectively to such Person or Persons respectively, or leaving the same with the Wife, Clerk or Steward of such Person or Persons respectively, at his, her or their usual Place of Abode; and Notice in Writing that such Petition had been preferred, and such Schedule and Oath filed in the said Court, together with a Copy of the Order on such Petition, shall be served in like manner on all and every the Person or Persons named or described in the said Schedule as Creditors, or as claiming to be Creditors of the said Prisoner, and against whose Demands such Prisoner shall seek to be discharged, or on the Attorney or Solicitor of any Creditor, or any Affine or Son brought against such Prisoner for the Demand of such Creditor; and such Service shall, on the hearing of the Matter of the said Petition, be proved on Oath to the Satisfaction of the Court.

Where Petition is made on Petition of Two Courts, Petition shall be preferred to Superior Court, &c.

III. Provided always, and he it enacted, That if any Person shall be confined under the Process of Two or more Courts, then if any One of the said Courts shall be One of His Majesty's Superior Courts in Dublin, such Person shall be preferred to such Court; and if all such Courts, or any Two or more of them, shall be such Superior Courts, then and in such case such Petition shall be preferred to such of the said Superior Courts under whose Process such Person shall have been first detained in Custody; and if all the said Courts shall be inferior Courts, then of such Prisoner shall be so detained in the County of Dublin, or County of the City of Dublin, such Petition shall be preferred to the said Court of Common Pleas; and if in any other Part of Ireland, then such Petition shall also be addressed to the said Court of Common Pleas, but it shall be lawful for the said Court either to proceed on such Petition or to give general Authority to the Judge or Judges of Assize for the County, County of a City or County of a Town, in which any such Prisoner shall be so detained, from time to time to receive any such Petition, and to proceed on any such Petition, whether preferred to any such Judge or to the said Court, as the said Court shall think fit; and such Judge or Judges shall transmit all Proceedings on any such Petition to the said Court of Common Pleas, who shall have Power to act thereupon as to such Court shall seem fit; and all Proceedings of any such Judge or Judges of Assize under the Authority Authority aforesaid shall be deemed and taken to be, for the Purpose of this Act, Proceedings of the said Court.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Court to which any such Petitioner shall apply to be discharged according to the Direction of this Act, that the Creditors of such Petitioner, exclusive of those at whose Suit such Prisoner shall be then detained in Custody, are, inasmuch as their Residence is remote, that the Expense of serving such Creditors with Notice of the Application of such Prisoner for his or her Discharge, would be so considerable that such Prisoner might be unable to procure such Service to be duly made in manner heretofore directed, or that for any other Reason it will be fit in the Judgment of the said Court to dispense with such Service with respect to all or any of such Creditors, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order, that Notice of the Petition of such Prisoner for his or her Discharge may, instead of being served on such Creditors respectively, be inserted in the Dublin Gazette, and in such Two or more Newspapers as the said Court shall direct, and in such Form of Words as the said Court shall approve, Twenty Days at the least before the Day appointed for hearing the Matter of the said Petition, and that such Notice shall be deemed sufficient Notice to the Creditors named or described therein; or to substitute some other mode of Notice, which in the Judgment of the said Court may appear reasonable; and upon such Notice so given to the Satisfaction of the said Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court to proceed on such Petition with respect to all such Creditors as shall be named or described in such Notice, in the same manner as the said Court might have done if such Creditors respectively had been actually served with Notice as heretofore directed: Provided always, that where any Prisoner shall be charged in Execution or under Attachment for non paying Money, or under Mifeas Process, out of any of His Majesty's superior Courts in Dublin, in any County Gaol or other Gaol or Prison except within the County of Dublin, or County of the City of Dublin, then upon Petition being made by such Prisoner as aforesaid, and on so Affidavit, of the Purport heretofore set forth being made and left with such Petitioner, such Court, on being furnished with the Truth of such Affidavit, is hereby authorized and required, on the Application of such Prisoner, to make a Rule or Order to cause such Prisoner to be brought to the next Assizes which shall be holden for the County, County of a City or County of a Town, where he or she shall be imprisoned; and the Expense of bringing such Prisoner to any such Assizes, not exceeding One Shilling a Mile, shall be paid to the Keeper or Gaoler or Officer who shall bring such Prisoner to such Assizes, in obedience to such Rule or Order, out of such Prisoner's Estate or Effects, if the same shall be sufficient to pay such Expense, and if not, then such Expense shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, in which such Prisoner shall be imprisoned, as the same shall be directed or ordered by the Judge before whom such Prisoner may be brought; and the Grand Jury of each County, County of a City or County of a Town, is hereby empowered and required to protect the Amount thereof; and a Copy of such Petition, Schedule and Oath, and also of such Rule or Order of the Court thereupon, shall be served in manner aforesaid on all and every the several Persons required to be served with such Petition as aforesaid, Twenty Days at the least before the holding of such Assizes; and on the Proof being made of such Service thereof, the Judge or Judges of Assizes is and are hereby required to appoint a time for hearing the Matter of such Petition as aforesaid, on some certain Day and Time during such Assizes; and on such Day to be appointed, the Judge or Judges of such Assizes respectively shall there in a summary way examine in manner aforesaid into the Matter of such Petition, and hear what can or shall be alleged on either Side for or against the Discharge of the Prisoner in petitioning, and upon every such Examination such Judge or Judges of Assizes respectively, or any One of them, is and are hereby empowered and required respectively within their respective Jurisdictions to administer or tender to every such Prisoner the same Oath or Oaths as heretofore is or are directed and appointed to be taken by any Prisoner before the Judges of the Court out of which the Process, upon which any such Prisoner was taken, issued; and such Judge or Judges of Assizes respectively, or any One of them, is and are hereby respectively authorized and required to make such Order in the Premises as to him or them shall seem meet, according to the Provisions of this Act, and to proceed in the same manner concerning the Discharge of any Prisoner or Prisoners in any Prison within their respective Jurisdictions, and to give the same Judgment, Relief and Directions relating thereto, as all respects as the Courts out of which any Process shall issue against any such Prisoner as aforesaid, is herein empowered and directed to do, or to postpone, if he or they shall be fit Cause for so doing; the Hearing of such Matter until any subsequent Day in the same Assizes, or until the ensuing Assizes; and the Judge or Judges at such ensuing Assizes shall have all and every the same Powers and respect thereof; and every Order which shall be made in the Premises by any such Judge or Judges of Assizes shall be as valid and effectual as if the same had been made in the Superior Court to which such Petition was preferred, and the same shall be made a Record of the Proceedings at such Assizes, and a Copy thereof shall from thence be transmitted to such Superior Court, signed by such Judge or Judges of Assizes, to be a Record of the said Court, and to be kept as such among the Records thereof.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Sum of Three Shillings and no more shall be paid to any Printer or Proprietor of any Newspaper for the Insertion of any such Advertisement aforesaid; and all Printer and Proprietors of Newspapers are hereby required to insert the same on the Payment of the said Sum of Three Shillings for the Insertion thereof; and give to such Advertisement shall be liable to the Payment of, or be chargeable or charged with the Payment of any Stamp or other Duty which, or

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Court to whom any such Prisoner shall apply to be discharged according to the Direction of this Act, that any of the Persons required to be served with such Petition, Schedule, Oath, Order or Notice, is or are beyond the Seas, or cannot be found, so as to be served with such Petition, Schedule, Oath and Order, as required required by this Act, and the said Court shall not think fit to order Notice to such Person to be informed in the Dublin Gazette and such Newspapers as aforesaid, or to substitute any other mode of Notice, it shall be lawful for the said Court to proceed upon the said Petition notwithstanding such Defect in the Service thereof; but in such case such Prisoner shall not be in any manner discharged from the Demands of the Petitor or Petitors who shall not be so served, or with respect to whom such Notice shall not be given in the Dublin Gazette and such Newspapers as aforesaid, or in such other substituted mode of Notice as shall be approved of by the said Court, unless such Person or Persons shall appear before the said Court and oppose the Discharge of such Prisoner, or consent to the Proceeding of the Court, notwithstanding any such Defect of Service.

Prisoner Excluded out of England.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Prisoner seeking the Benefit of this Act shall within Two Years before he or she shall seek the Benefit of this Act, have resided in any Place or Places out of Ireland, and shall during such Residence have contracted in such Place or Places any Debt from which he or she shall seek to be discharged by virtue of this Act, such Prisoner shall not be discharged under the Authority of this Act from any such Debt, without the Consent of the Petitor or Petitors to whom such Debt shall be due, unless such Prisoner shall at the time of such Application be in actual Custody for such Debt, or shall be actually forced in some Court of Law or Equity in Ireland for the same; in either of which cases Notice of the Application for the Discharge of such Prisoner shall be given to the Creditor or Creditors in detaining or suing such Prisoner, or to the Attorney or Solicitor actually employed at the time of such Application in the Affairs or Suit then depending for such Debt or Debts, if the Court to which Application shall be made for the Discharge of such Prisoner shall think fit to allow of Service on such Attorney or Solicitor, instead of personal Service on such Creditor or Creditors.

Hearing of Petition deferred in case of Default of Service.

VIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case of any Defect in the Service of such Petition, Schedule, Oath or Order, it shall be lawful for such Court from time to time to allow further time for such Purpose, and to make an Order or Orders for adjourning the Hearing of the Matter of the said Petition, in the Whole, or with respect to any particular Person or Persons, to give Opportunity for such Service; and in case the said Petition, Schedule, Oath and original Order, together with such further Order or Orders, shall be duly served according to the Provisions of this Act, and the Petitor or Petitors not before duly served, Twenty Days before the Day appointed for hearing the Matter of the said Petition on any such further Order, it shall be lawful for the said Court to proceed as such Service, as the said Court might have done if the said Petition, Schedule, Oath and original Order, had been duly served according to the Provisions before contained in this Act.

On hearing Petition, Creditors may oppose it.

IX. And be it further enacted, That upon the Day appointed by any Court for hearing the Matter of the said Petition, or upon such subsequent Day as such Court shall appoint for such Purpose, such Court respectively shall cause such Prisoner to be brought before the said Court, to be examined touching the truth of the Matter contained in the said Petition and Schedule; and any of the Creditors of such Prisoner, and any of the Persons named or described in such Schedule, as claiming to be Creditors of any such Prisoner, and any Person or Persons not named or described in such Schedule, who shall claim to be a Creditor or Creditors of such Prisoner shall be at Liberty to oppose such Petition, and for that Purpose to put such Questions to such Prisoner as the said Court shall think fit, touching the Matter contained in such Petition and Schedule, and touching such other Matters as the said Court shall be of Opinion it may be fit and proper that such Questions should be put for the due Execution of this Act; and such Prisoner shall answer all such Questions upon Oath; and in case such Prisoner shall not answer all such Questions to the Satisfaction of the said Court, or in case it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the said Court, from such Answers as shall be given by such Prisoner, or by Evidence, that such Prisoner is not entitled to the Benefit of this Act, then and in such case such Court shall so declare, and shall remove such Prisoner to Custody: Provided always, that in case such Court shall entertain any Doubt touching any Matter alleged against such Prisoner to prevent his or her Discharge, or touching the Examination of such Prisoner, it shall be lawful for such Court to remove such Prisoner to Custody, and afterwards to cause such Prisoner to be again brought up for Examination as often as to such Court shall seem fit.

Court, if not satisfied, may remove Prisoner.

Prisoner claim, not to be Creditors not duly served with Notice, to be added to Schedule.

X. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons claiming to be a Creditor or Creditors of any Prisoner, shall oppose the Petition of such Prisoner for his or her Discharge, (such Person or Persons, although not duly served with such Petition, Schedule, Oath or Order as aforesaid, shall be considered as having had due Notice thereof;) and the Name or Names of such Person or Persons shall be added to the said Schedule by the said Court, either as a Creditor or Creditors, or as claiming to be a Creditor or Creditors of such Prisoner.

Court may adjudge Release of Prisoners entitled to Benefit of Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in case the Court to whom any Prisoner shall apply to be discharged, according to the Direction of this Act, shall be of Opinion that such Prisoner is entitled to the Benefit of this Act, then and in such case the said Court shall so order and adjudge, and shall in such Order specify the several Creditors and Persons claiming to be Creditors of such Prisoner, who shall appear to have been duly served with Notice of such Proceedings, as required by this Act, or with respect to whom Notice shall appear to have been given in the Dublin Gazette and other Newspapers as aforesaid, or in such other manner as shall have been directed aforesaid, or who shall have appeared before the said Court, and opposed the Discharge of such Prisoner, or consented to the Proceeding of the Court with respect to their Demands, notwithstanding any Defect of Service of such Notice; and the said Court shall in such Order also specify the several Persons against whose Demands such Prisoner shall be decreed by such Court entitled to be discharged by virtue of this Act; and such Court shall appoint a proper Person or proper Persons to be Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, for the Purpose of this Act, and shall order proper Conveyances and Assignments of such Estate and Effects to be made by such Prisoner, according to this Act, together with an Assignee appointed, and Assignments made for Payment.

Engagement to be executed by each Prisoner to pay to each of the said Debtors and Demandors of the several Periods against whom such Prisoner shall by such Court be adjudged entitled to the Benefit of this Act, as shall not be paid out of the Estate and Effects to be conveyed and assigned by such Prisoner for such Purpose, in case he or she shall at any time thereafter be enabled to pay such Debts and Demandors, or to pay such Part or Parts thereof as he or she shall be able at any time to pay; and shall also order all Books, Papers and Writings to be the Custody or Power of such Prisoner, relating to the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, and the Demandors of his or her Creditors, to be delivered on Oath to such Assignee or Assignees, or otherwise to be disposed of as such Court shall direct; and upon the due Execution of all such Conveyances, Assignments and Engagements as aforesaid, and Delivery of such Books, Papers and Writings as aforesaid, as such Court shall direct, such Court shall order such Prisoner to be discharged from Custody; and Judgment shall thereupon be entered against such Prisoner in pursuance of such Engagements as aforesaid, in such Court, if the same be One of His Majesty's Superior Courts of Law in Dublin, and if not, then in any of such His Majesty's Superior Courts; which Judgment shall and may, if the said Court shall so order, be executed against the future Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, Real and Personal, as the said Court shall direct, and shall bind the Assets of such Prisoner, Real and Personal, in the hands of his Heirs, Executors and Administrators, for the full Amount of the Debts and Demandors aforesaid which shall remain unsatisfied, or so much of such Debts and Demandors as the said Court shall be of Opinion ought to be satisfied; and Executions shall be had upon such Judgment, in such and the same manner as Executions may be had upon a Judgment of the Court of King's Bench, nevertheless according to the Orders of the said Court, and in Conformity to the Provisions of this Act contained.

XII. And whereas Prisoners discharged by virtue of this Act may be entitled to Accruals for their own Lives, or other ascertainable Interests, or to reverfuious, or contingent Interests, or to Property under such circumstances, that the immediate Sale thereof for Payment of their Debts may be very prejudicial to them, and deprive them of the means of Subsistence which they might otherwise have after Payment of their Debts; and it may be proper in some cases to authorize the raising of Money by way of Mortgage for Payment of the Debts, or Part of the Debts of a Prisoner discharged by virtue of this Act, and defraying Expenses attending the Execution of this Act, instead of selling the Property of such Prisoner for such Purpose: Be it enacted, That in all such cases, it shall be lawful for the Court by whom any such Prisoner shall be discharged, to take into Consideration all circumstances affecting the Property of any such Prisoner, either at the time of the Discharge of such Prisoner, or at any subsequent time; and if it shall appear to the said Court, that it would be reasonable to make any Special Order touching the same, it shall be lawful for the said Court so to do, and to direct that such Property as it may be expedient not to sell, or not to sell immediately, according to the Provisions of this Act, shall not be so sold, and from time to time to order and direct in what manner such Property shall be managed for the Benefit of the Creditors of such Prisoner, until the same can be properly sold, or until Payment of all such Creditors according to the Provisions of this Act, and to make such Order touching the Sale or Disposition of such Property as to the said Court shall seem reasonable, considering the Rights of the Creditors of such Prisoner to Payment of their Demandors, and the future Benefit of such Prisoner after Payment of his or her Debts, and upon such Terms and Conditions with respect to the Allowance of Interest on Debts not bearing Interest, or other circumstances, as to the said Court shall seem just; and if it shall appear to the said Court that the Debts of such Prisoner can be discharged by means of Money raised by way of Mortgage on any Property of such Prisoner, instead of raising the same by Sale, it shall be lawful for the said Court so to order, and to give all necessary Directions for such Purpose, and generally to direct all things which may be proper for the Discharge of the Debts of such Prisoner in such manner as may be most consistent with the Interests of such Prisoner, in any Surplus of his or her Effects after Payment of such Debts.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Creditor against whom any Prisoner shall have obtained his or her Discharge by virtue of this Act, shall within One Year after the Date of the Order for such Discharge, apply to the Court by which such Order was made, to avoid such Discharge as improperly obtained, and upon such Application it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Court that such Prisoner has acted in any manner fraudulently in obtaining such Discharge, or has wilfully concealed any of his or her Estate or Effects by not specifying or not properly specifying the same in such Schedule as aforesaid, for the Purpose of depriving the Creditors against whom he shall have obtained such Discharge of the Benefit thereof, it shall be lawful for such Court to declare the Discharge so obtained by such Prisoner null and void; and it shall thereupon be lawful for any Creditor or Creditors of such Prisoner against whom such Discharge shall have been obtained, to proceed against such Prisoner as if such Discharge had not been obtained, each Creditor as Creditors relinquishing all Benefit of the Assignment of the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner which shall remain unsatisfied by the Assignee or Assignees appointed under this Act; and any of such Creditors who shall have detained such Prisoner in Custody at the time of such Discharge shall be at Liberty to apply to such Court to remove such Prisoner again into Custody on the same Process from which he or she had been so discharged; and such Court shall have Power to make an Order that such Prisoner shall be remanded accordingly, and such Order shall be sufficient Authority for the Arrest and Detention of such Prisoner, upon the Process from which such Prisoner was before discharged; and so much (if any) of the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner as shall then remain in the Hands of the Assignee or Assignees thereof, after paying all the just Charges and Expenses of such Assignee or Assignees to be allowed by the said Court, shall be recovered as so assigned or paid to such Prisoner as the said Court shall direct; but so much of such Estate and Effects as shall have been before applied in Payment of the Debts of such Prisoner, shall be retained by the Creditors who shall have received the same in Part of their respective Demands, excepting only the Creditor or Creditors who shall apply to the Court to avoid such Discharge, who shall repay the Debt or Debts received by him, her or them respectively, to the Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, before such Order, discharging such Discharge call and such, and shall be delivered out by the said Court.

XIV. And he it further enacted, That in case any Prisoner who shall have been discharged by virtue of this Act, shall become able to pay all or any Part of the Debts due from him or her, and against which he or she shall have obtained such Discharge, after a reasonable Allowance for the Maintenance of such Debtor, and his or her Family, and Payment of his or her Debts, contracted after such Discharge, or to which such Discharge did not extend, it shall and may be lawful for any Creditor or Creditors against whom he or she shall have obtained such Discharge, to apply to the Court, by whom such Discharge was ordered, for Liberty to proceed against such Debtor, notwithstanding such Discharge; and in such it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Court, that such Debtor is of Ability to pay such Demand, or any Part thereof, it shall be lawful for such Court to revoke such Discharge either wholly or upon Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money for the Benefit of the Parties against whom such Discharge shall have been obtained, either in Gross, or by instal Payments, as to such Court shall appear reasonable, or it shall be lawful for the Court wherein Judgment shall have been entered as aforesaid, on Application to such Court, to permit Execution to be taken out in such case on the Judgment entered up in such Court upon the Engagement of such Prisoner, for such Sum of Money as the said Court shall think fit, to be distributed ratably among the Creditors entitled under such Engagement, and such Proceedings shall and may be had according to the Discretion of the said Court or Courts respectively from time to time, until the whole of the Debts due to the several Parties against whom such Discharge shall have been obtained, shall be fully paid and satisfied, together with such Costs as such Court or Courts respectively shall think fit to award: Provided always, that in case any such Application shall appear to be ill founded and vexatious, it shall be lawful for the Court to whom the same shall be made, not only to refuse to make any Order on such Application, but also to dismiss the same, with such Costs as to such Court shall appear reasonable.

XV. And he it further enacted, That all and every Person who shall, at any time after the Expiration of Six Calendar Months from the Date of the Appointment of any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of any Prisoner under the Authority of this Act, voluntarily come and make Discovery of any Part of such Prisoner's Estate not specified in the said Schedule, and not before come to the Knowledge of the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner's Estate, either to the said Assignee or Assignees or to the Court, by which such Prisoner shall have been discharged, shall be allowed Five Pounds per Centum and such further and other Reward as the said Assignee or Assignees, or the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Prisoner present at any Meeting of the said Creditors, shall think fit, to be paid out of the net Proceeds of such Prisoner's Estate which shall be recovered on such Discovery, which shall be paid to the Person or Persons so discovering the same by the said Assignee or Assignees, who shall be allowed the same in his, her or their Accounts.

XVI. And he it further enacted, That all and every Person who hath or have accepted or shall accept any Trust or Trusts, or shall be possessor of and wilfully conceal or permit any Estate Real or Personal, of any Prisoner who shall be discharged under the Authority of this Act, and knowing such Discharge, shall not, within the Space of Six Calendar Months after such Discharge, disclose such Trust and Estate in Writing, either to the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner's Estate, or to the Court by which such Prisoner shall have been discharged, and submit himself, herself and themselves to be examined touching the same on Oath before such Court if thereunto required, and truly discover and declare the same and all Particulars thereof, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds being Currency and Double the Value of the Estate whether Real or Personal so concealed, up and for the Use of the Creditors of such Prisoner, to be recovered by Action of Debt in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in the Name of the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner, or of any One of his, her or their Creditors who shall seek redress for the same, with full Costs of Suit.

XVII. And he it further enacted, That in case any Prisoner who shall have been discharged by virtue of this Act, shall be leaving Assets Real or Personal, after Payment of all his or her Debts, exclusive of the Debts from which such Prisoner shall have obtained such Discharge, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons entitled to so much of such Debt or Debts, from which such Discharge shall have been obtained as shall remain unpaid, to apply to the Court wherein such Judgment shall have been entered as aforesaid, for Liberty to proceed thereon in order to obtain Payment of so much of such Debt or Debts as shall thus remain due as aforesaid, and such Court shall make such Order thereupon as shall be just; and the Heirs, Executors or Administrators of such deceased Prisoner shall apply the Assets in his, her or their Hands according to such Order, but without Prejudice to the Demand of any other Creditor or Creditors of such deceased Prisoner, all of which shall be first paid or satisfied: Provided always, that in case it shall at any time be made appear to such Court, that the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner, conveyed or assigned under the Authority of this Act, would have been sufficient, if carefully and properly managed, to have satisfied all the Debts from which such Prisoner had been discharged, or to have satisfied a larger Proportion of such Debts than shall have actually been paid thereon, then and in any such case such Court shall not authorize any further Proceedings against such Prisoner, or his or her Assets, except for so much of the Debts of such Prisoner as could not have been satisfied out of the Estate and Effects so conveyed and assigned in case the same had been carefully and properly managed and rendered productive for the Discharge of such Debts: Provided also, that in no case Interest shall be recovered on such Judgment on any such Debts until the said Court shall order the same, which shall be wholly in the Discretion of the said Court as herein-after provided.

XVIII. And

XVIII. And he is further enacted, That all said Estate, Right, Title, Interest and Trust of every Prisoner who shall be discharged by virtue of this Act, of, in and to all the Real Estate, and of, in and to all the Personal Estate, Debts and Effects of every such Prisoner, shall immediately from and after the Order of such Court as aforesaid for the Discharge of such Prisoner, be and the same are hereby vested in the Person or Persons to whom the same shall, by the Order of the said Court, be directed to be conveyed and assigned as aforesaid, in such form Prison or Persons shall consent to accept the same; and the Conveyance and Assignment which shall be made in pursuance of such Order shall be without Stamp, and shall, together with this Act, be good and effectual in Law, to all Deeds and Purposes whatsoever, to vest the Estate and Effects therein comprised in the Person or Persons to whom the same shall, by Order of such Court, be directed to be conveyed and assigned as aforesaid, his, her or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, according to the Estate and Interest which if a Prisoner had therein, and every such Conveyance and Assignment shall be in Trust for the benefit of the Creditor or Creditors of every such Prisoner against whom such Prisoner shall have obtained his or her Discharge by virtue of this Act, in respect of any Debt or Proportion to the Debts justly due to them respectively; and every Person and Persons to whom any such Assignment and Conveyance as aforesaid shall be made, it and are hereby empowered to see from time to time, as they may be Occasion, in his, her or their own Name or Names, for the Recovery and obtaining Possession of any Estate or Effects of any such Prisoner, and also to execute any Power vested in or created for the Use and Benefit of any such Prisoner, and to give such Discharge and Discharges to any Person or Persons who shall respectively be indebted to such Prisoner, as may be requisite: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prejudice or affect any Estate, Interest or Right whatsoever, of any Person or Persons, other than such Prisoner, expectant upon or subject to any Estate or Interest of such Prisoner so vested in such Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid, but that the Estate, Interest and Right whatsoever of every other Person and Persons shall continue and remain and be secured to him, her or them respectively, in the same manner as if this Act had been a nullity.

XIX. And he is further enacted, That every such Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid shall, with all convenient Speed, after he, her or their accepting such Assignment or Conveyance, do he, her or their best Endeavour to receive and get in the Estate and Effects of every such Prisoner, and shall, with all convenient Speed, make Sale of all the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner vested in such Assignee or Assignees; and if such Prisoner shall be attached in or attached to any Real Estate, either in Possession, Reversion or Expectancy, the same, within the Space of Two Months after such Assignment and Conveyance, shall be sold by Public Auction, in such manner, and at such Place or Places, as the major Part of the Creditors of such Prisoner entitled to the Benefit thereof (who shall assemble together on any Notice in Writing published in the Dublin Gazette, and in some daily Paper printed and published in Dublin, if the Prisoner, before he or she going to Prison, resided in Dublin, and if such Prisoner resided elsewhere, then in the Dublin Gazette, and also in some printed Newspaper which shall be published and generally circulated in or near the County, City, Town or Place in which such Prisoner resided before he or she was committed to Prison, Thirty Days before any such Sale shall be made), shall, under his, her or their Hand or Hands, approve; and every such Assignee or Assignees, at the End of Three Months at the farthest from the time of his, her or their accepting any such Assignment or Conveyance as aforesaid, and so from time to time as Occasion shall require, shall make a fair and just Dividend of all such Prisoner's Estate and Effects which shall have been then recovered amongst such Creditors of such Prisoner, from whose Demand such Prisoner shall have obtained a Discharge as before mentioned, in Proportion to the just Debts due to them respectively; but before any such Dividend shall be made, such Assignee or Assignees shall make up an Account of such Prisoner's Estate, and make Oath in Writing before One or more Justices or Justices of the Peace within whose Jurisdiction such Assignee or Assignees shall reside, that such Account contains a fair and just Account of the Estate and Effects of every such Prisoner got in by or for such Assignee or Assignees, and of all Payments made in respect thereof, and that all Payments in every such Account charged were truly and justly made and paid, which Account so made shall be filed with the proper Officer of the said Court, and Notice of the making of every such Dividend shall be published in like manner as a Meeting of Creditors is heretofore directed to be published, Twenty Days at least before such Dividend shall be made; and no Creditor shall be allowed to receive any Share of such Dividend until he shall have made due Proof of his or her Debt, by Oath, before some such Justice or Justices of the Peace; and if such Prisoner, or his or her Assignee or Assignees, any Creditor of such Prisoner, shall object to any Debt so claimed, the same shall be examined into by the Court, by whom such Prisoner shall have been discharged, who shall have full Power for that Purpose, to require and compel the Production of all Books, Papers and Writings which may be necessary to be produced, as well by the Person or Persons claiming such Debt, as by the Prisoner against whom the same shall be claimed, or his or her Assignee or Assignees, and to examine all such Persons and the Witnesses on Oath, as the nature of the case may require, and to take all other Measures necessary for the due Investigation of such Claim; and the Decision of the said Court upon such Claim shall be conclusive with respect to any Dividend of the Effects of such Prisoner under the provision of this Act.

XX. And he is further enacted, That in case the Prisoner be discharged, or any of his or her Creditors, against whom he or she shall have obtained such Discharge, shall be dissatisfied with the Account of any Assignee or Assignees, received upon Oath as aforesaid, or in case any such Assignee or Assignees shall neglect to render such Account, or shall neglect to dispose of the Property or collect the Effects of such Prisoner, or shall in any manner waste or mismanage the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner, or neglect to make a due Distribution thereof, it shall be lawful for such Court, by whom such Assignee was appointed,

That if Prisoner be released on Bail, he shall be liable to be detained in Jail for the Benefit of Creditors.

Twelve.

Assignees to go to Prison and sell, with all convenient Speed, make Sale of all the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner vested in such Assignee or Assignees; and if such Prisoner shall be attached in or attached to any Real Estate, either in Possession, Reversion or Expectancy, the same, within the Space of Two Months after such Assignment and Conveyance, shall be sold by Public Auction, in such manner, and at such Place or Places, as the major Part of the Creditors of such Prisoner entitled to the Benefit thereof (who shall assemble together on any Notice in Writing published in the Dublin Gazette, and in some daily Paper printed and published in Dublin, if the Prisoner, before he or she going to Prison, resided in Dublin, and if such Prisoner resided elsewhere, then in the Dublin Gazette, and also in some printed Newspaper which shall be published and generally circulated in or near the County, City, Town or Place in which such Prisoner resided before he or she was committed to Prison, Thirty Days before any such Sale shall be made), shall, under his, her or their Hand or Hands, approve; and every such Assignee or Assignees, at the End of Three Months at the farthest from the time of his, her or their accepting any such Assignment or Conveyance as aforesaid, and so from time to time as Occasion shall require, shall make a fair and just Dividend of all such Prisoner's Estate and Effects which shall have been then recovered amongst such Creditors of such Prisoner, from whose Demand such Prisoner shall have obtained a Discharge as before mentioned, in Proportion to the just Debts due to them respectively; but before any such Dividend shall be made, such Assignee or Assignees shall make up an Account of such Prisoner's Estate, and make Oath in Writing before One or more Justices or Justices of the Peace within whose Jurisdiction such Assignee or Assignees shall reside, that such Account contains a fair and just Account of the Estate and Effects of every such Prisoner got in by or for such Assignee or Assignees, and of all Payments made in respect thereof, and that all Payments in every such Account charged were truly and justly made and paid, which Account so made shall be filed with the proper Officer of the said Court, and Notice of the making of every such Dividend shall be published in like manner as a Meeting of Creditors is heretofore directed to be published, Twenty Days at least before such Dividend shall be made; and no Creditor shall be allowed to receive any Share of such Dividend until he shall have made due Proof of his or her Debt, by Oath, before some such Justice or Justices of the Peace; and if such Prisoner, or his or her Assignee or Assignees, any Creditor of such Prisoner, shall object to any Debt so claimed, the same shall be examined into by the Court, by whom such Prisoner shall have been discharged, who shall have full Power for that Purpose, to require and compel the Production of all Books, Papers and Writings which may be necessary to be produced, as well by the Person or Persons claiming such Debt, as by the Prisoner against whom the same shall be claimed, or his or her Assignee or Assignees, and to examine all such Persons and the Witnesses on Oath, as the nature of the case may require, and to take all other Measures necessary for the due Investigation of such Claim; and the Decision of the said Court upon such Claim shall be conclusive with respect to any Dividend of the Effects of such Prisoner under the provision of this Act.

upon the Application of such Prisoner, or of any such Creditor as aforesaid, to require such Assignee or Assignees to render such Account on Oath as directed by this Act, if not before rendered, and to examine any Account so rendered, and to certify into any Writ, Mismanagement or Neglect of the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner, and to do such a proper Administration thereof, and to furnish the Produce of such Estate and Effects to be divided amongst the Creditors of such Prisoner, and to do such the Distribution thereof accordingly, and to require and compel the Production of all Books, Papers and Writings necessary for such Purpose, and to examine all Parties and their Witnesses on Oath, in the case may require, and to take all such Measures as shall be necessary for the completing the rendering of such Account and the due Investigation thereof, and the proper Distribution and Disposition of the Effect of such Prisoner according to this Act, and to award Costs against any of the Parties, as Justice shall require; and the Decisions of the said Court upon all such Matters shall be final and conclusive.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Creditor and Creditors of any Prisoner who shall be discharged by virtue of this Act for any Sum or Sums of Money payable by way of Annuity or otherwise, at any future time or times, by virtue of any Bond, Contract or other Security of any Nature whatsoever, shall be entitled to be admitted a Creditor or Creditors, and to receive a Dividend or Dividends of the Estate of such Prisoner, in such manner, and upon such Terms and Conditions as such Creditor or Creditors would have been entitled unto such Dividend by the Laws now in force, if such Prisoner had become Bankrupt, and without Prejudice to the Security of their respective Securities, otherwise than as the same would have been affected by Proof made in respect thereof by the Creditor under a Commission of Bankrupt, and a Certificate obtained by the Bankrupt under such Commission, but subject nevertheless to the Terms of the Engagement of such Prisoner for future Payment of his or her Debt, in case such Prisoner should become able to pay the same as herebefore directed.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That from the Date of any such Order of Discharge as aforesaid, all Interest on any Debt bearing Interest of the Prisoner is discharged, shall cease, and not be computed in the Amount of such Debt in the Distribution of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner under the Authority of the Act; but if it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Court by which such Prisoner was discharged, that such Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, are not only sufficient for Payment of the Principal of all the Debts of such Prisoner payable thereunder under the Authority of this Act, together with all other Debts of such Prisoner, and to afford such Prisoner competent means of future Subsistence, but are so considerable as to render it so that Interest should be allowed on Debts of such Prisoner bearing Interest from any Period after the Date of such Order of Discharge, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order such Interest to be paid accordingly, and to fix the time from which such Interest shall be computed, having regard always to the unsatisfactory State of the Effects of such Prisoner during the Administration thereof, under the Authority of this Act; and if it can be shown to the Satisfaction of the Court in which such Judgment shall be entered as aforesaid, that the subsequently acquired Property of such Person is discharged is so considerable as aforesaid, then such Court shall and may, in its Discretion, direct the Payment of Interest in like manner.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Sum in Law or Equity shall be recovered by any Assignee or Assignees of any such Prisoner's Estate and Effects, without the Consent of the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Prisoner, who shall meet together pursuant to a Notice so that Purpose, to be given at least Ten Days before such Meeting, in the Public Gazette, or other New-Spaper, as heretofore required, previous to the Sale of any Estate of such Prisoner.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That the proper Officer of the Courts aforesaid respectively shall, on the reasonable Request of such Prisoner, or of any Creditor or Creditors of such Prisoner, or his, her or their Attorney, produce and shew to such Prisoner, Creditor or Creditors, or his, her or their Attorney, at such Times as the said Court shall direct, such Petitions, Schedule, Oath, Order and Judgment, and all other Orders and Proceedings made and had in such Matters; and that a true Copy of every such Petition, Schedule, Oath, Order, Judgment and Proceedings, signed by the Officer in whose Custody the same respectively shall be, or his Deputy, certifying the same to be a true Copy of such Petition, Schedule, Order, Judgment or other Proceedings, as the case may be, without being written on stamped Paper, shall at all times be admitted in all Courts whatever, as legal Evidence of the same respectively.

XXV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to prevent any Mortgage, Charge or Lien, upon the Estate of such Prisoner, or any Part thereof, made prior to the Discharge of such Prisoner by virtue of this Act, to take place upon the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or Personal Estate and Effects comprised in or charged or affected by such Mortgage, Charge or Lien respectively, nor to prevent any Statute Staple, Statute Merchant, Recognizance or Judgment acknowledged by or obtained against any such Prisoner, prior to such Discharge, to take place upon the Lands, Tenements or Real Estates of such Prisoner, and also where any Inquisition shall have been taken upon any Statute or Recognizance, or any Writ of Execution shall have been taken and directed to the Sheriff or proper Officer upon any such Judgment, before such Prisoner shall have obtained his or her Discharge as aforesaid, the Personal Estate of such Prisoner shall be subject thereto, for so much as shall remain due upon such Statute, Recognizance or Judgment respectively, in like manner as the same would have been respectively, if this Act had not been made; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary notwithstanding; unless in any of the said cases the Creditor or Creditors having such Mortgage, Charge, Lien, Statute Staple, Statute Merchant, Recognizance, Judgment or Execution, shall elect and take and receive any Dividend under this Act in respect of such Debt, and shall cause such Election to be entered on the Files of the Court discharging such Prisoner: Provided always, that no such Person who shall not have so made and entered such Election shall be entitled to receive any Dividend under this Act in respect of any Debt so incurred.

XXVI. And whereas a Prisoner who may be entitled to and claim the Benefit of this Act, may be seized and possessed of or entitled to Lands, Tenements or Movements, to hold to such Prisoner for the Term of his or her Life, or other limited Estate, with Power of granting Leases, or may have Powers over Real or Personal Estate, which such Prisoner could execute for his or her own Advantage, and which said Powers ought to be executed for the Benefit of the Creditors of such Prisoner: Be it therefore enacted, That in every such case all and every the Powers of Leasing, and all such other Powers as aforesaid, over Real or Personal Estate, which are or shall be vested in any such Prisoner or Prisoners as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby vested in the Assignee or Assignees of the Real and Personal Estate of such Prisoner by virtue of this Act, to be by such Assignee or Assignees executed and sold and conveyed for the Benefit of all and every the Creditors or Creditors of such Prisoner as aforesaid.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to entitle the Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of any Prisoner being an Officer of the Army or Navy, or beneficed Clergyman or Curate, to the Pay of such Officer, or the Income of any Benefice or Curacy, for the Purposes of this Act: Provided always, notwithstanding, that it shall be lawful for such Assignee or Assignees to apply for and obtain a Satisfaction of the Profits of any such Benefice, for the Payment of the Debts of any such Clergyman, against which such Clergyman shall have obtained a Discharge by virtue of this Act; and the Order for such Discharge shall be a sufficient Warrant for the granting of such Satisfaction, without any Writ or other Proceeding to authorize the same; and such Satisfaction shall accordingly be issued as the same might have been issued upon any Writ of Levari Facias founded upon any Judgment against such Clergyman: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Court ordering the Discharge of any such Prisoner, to order such Portion of the Pay or Half Pay of any such Officer of the Army or Navy, as, on Commencement from the said Court to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or in his Absence to the Under Secretary of the Military Department, or to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty or their Secretary, be or they may respectively collect as, in Writing under the Hand of such Chief Secretary, or, in his Absence, of such Under Secretary, or of such Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or their Secretary respectively, as the case may require, to be applied in Payment of his Debts, and for that Purpose to be paid to his Assignee or Assignees; and such Order and Consent being lodged in the Military Department of the Office of Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or in the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy, as the case may be, such Chief Secretary, or, in his Absence, the Under Secretary of the Military Department, or such Treasurer of the Navy, as the case may be, shall give Directions accordingly, or shall cause the same to be transmitted to the proper Officer for that Purpose, and such Proportion of the Pay or Half Pay of such Officer as shall be specified in such Order and Consent shall be paid to his Assignee or Assignees, until the said Court shall make Order to the contrary.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall apply for his or her Discharge under the Provisions of this Act, or any other Person taking an Oath under the Provisions of this Act, shall wilfully swear and perjure himself or herself in any Oath to be taken under this Act, and shall be lawfully convicted thereof, he or she so offending shall suffer such Penalties as by Law may be inflicted on Persons convicted of Perjury under the Laws in force in Ireland.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That no Prisoner who shall have obtained his or her Discharge by virtue of this Act, shall at any time after such Discharge, so long as the same shall remain in force, be seized by reason of any Judgment or Decree obtained for Payment of Money only, or for any Debt, Damages, Costs, or for Non payment of Money, Costs or Sums of Money contracted, incurred, occasioned, owing or growing due, with respect to which such Discharge shall have been obtained; but that upon every Arrest upon any such Judgment or Decree, or for any such Debt, Damages, Costs, Sums and Sums of Money, it shall and may be lawful for any Judge of the Court from which any such Process shall have issued, upon forwarding to such Judge the Copy of the Order for such Discharge as aforesaid, and upon Affidavit that such Discharge shall remain in force, to release from Custody such Prisoner as aforesaid; and at the same time, if such Judge shall in his Discretion think fit, to order the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Suit or Suits, or other Person or Persons suing on such Process, to pay such Prisoner the Costs which he or she shall have incurred on such Occasion, or so much thereof as to such Judge shall seem just and reasonable, such Prisoner causing a Common Appraiser to be entered of for him or her in the Action or Suit for any such Debt as aforesaid.

XXX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That when any such Person shall have been discharged by any Court other than one of His Majesty's superior Courts in Dublin, or the Court of Assize, as Creditor whose Debt could not be lawfully filed in and recovered in the Court by which such Discharge shall have been made shall be in any respect affected by such Discharge, unless such Creditor shall have received a Dividend on such Debt under the Provisions of this Act.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Prisoner shall be discharged by virtue of this Act, of any Debt or other Matter accrued or incurred subsequent to the Application of such Prisoner to be discharged; and if it shall appear to the Court that any Prisoner applying to be discharged as aforesaid, shall be charged in Custody with any Debt or other Matter accrued or incurred subsequent as well as previous to such Application, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Court to discharge the Prisoner of such Prisoner only from such Debts or other Matters as had accrued or been incurred previous to such Application, and to commit him or her back to the Custody of the Keeper of the Prison from whence he or she was brought, for all Debts and other Matters for which he or she shall first be charged, and which shall have accrued or been incurred subsequent to such Application.

XXXIII. And it is further enacted, That if any Action of Elopement, or any Suit or Action be brought against any Judge, Justice of the Peace, Sheriff, Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison, or other Person, for performing the Duty of his Office, in pursuance of this Act, such Judge, Justice, Sheriff, Gaoler or Keeper, or other Person may plead the General Issue, and give the Act in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff be convicted or discharged, the Defendant shall have Treble Costs.

XXXIII. And it is further enacted, That if any Sine Felony, or Action of Debt, or upon Payment, or any other Suit or Action shall be brought against any Prisoner, his or her Heirs, Executors or Administrators, upon any Judgment obtained against any such Prisoner, or any Statute or Recognition acknowledged by him or her, or any other Cause of Action from which such Prisoner shall have obtained his or her Discharge by virtue of this Act, except under the Judgment to be entered by virtue of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any such Prisoner, his or her Heirs, Executors or Administrators, to plead generally that such Prisoner was discharged from such Debt or Demand, according to this Act, by the Order by which such Discharge shall have been obtained, and that such Discharge remains in force, without pleading any other Matter specially; whereas the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall or may reply generally, and deny the Matters pleaded as aforesaid, and reply any other Matter or Thing which may show the Defendant or Defendants not to be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, or the Plaintiff not to be affected thereby, or that such Prisoner was not duly discharged according to the Provisions of this Act, in the same manner as the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs might have replied, in case the Defendant or Defendants had pleaded the Act, and his Discharge by virtue of this Act specially; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be convicted, discharged or his or her Action, or Verdict shall pass against him, her or them, or Judgment shall be had on Demurrer, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Double Costs.

XXXIV. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That in case it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Court which shall decide as to the Discharge of any Prisoner, that any Prisoner who shall apply for a Discharge by virtue of this Act, has voluntarily yielded his or her Estate or Effects whilst in Prison, or has at any time fraudulently disposed thereof, or any Part thereof, with intent to deprive any of his or her just Creditors of the Benefit thereof, or has wilfully remained in Prison, although enabled to be discharged therefrom by virtue of this Act, or otherwise with intent to defraud his or her Property in Prison, instead of applying the same to the Discharge of his or her just Debts, such Prisoner shall not be entitled to the Benefit of this Act; unless on special Circumstances the said Court shall think fit to grant such Discharge.

XXXV. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to relieve or discharge any Attorney at Law, Solicitor, or any other Person acting or pretending to act as such with regard to any Debt or Demand for any Money or other Effects received or recovered by him for the Use of any Person or Persons, Bodies Corporate or Politic, or by any such Attorney, Solicitor or other Person acting as such, authorized, concealed or converted to his own Use; or to relieve or to discharge any Servant or other Person employed or entrusted as such, with regard to any Debt or Demand for or on account of any Money, Goods or other Effects received or possessed by him or her for the Use and Account of his or her Master or Masters, or Employer or Employers, and by such Servant or other Person so authorized, concealed or converted to his or her own Use; or to relieve or discharge any Person with regard to any Debt or Demand arising from or created by any Breach of Trust or Confidence; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any will notwithstanding; which the Person or Persons on whom such Debt or Demand shall be due or owing shall consent to the Discharge of such Prisoner by virtue of this Act, or unless such Prisoner shall have been confined in Prison for such Debt or Demand for the Space of Ten Years before the time when such Prisoner shall apply for his or her Discharge by virtue of this Act.

XXXVI. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That no Prisoner who knowingly and deliberately, by false Pretence or Pretences, or under any fictitious Name or Names, assumed for the Purpose of obtaining Credit or by any other fraudulent means shall have obtained from any Person or Persons Money, Goods, Wares, Merchandises, Beasts, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes or other Securities for Money, or any other Effects; or who shall have contracted any Debt by fraudulently obtaining false Credit or by any other fraudulent means, or who shall have fraudulently removed or needed to be removed any Stock, Cattle, Goods or Effects of the Value of Two Pounds or upwards, which were subject or liable to be detained by him or her Landlord or Landlords for any Rent or Rents, whereby such Landlord or Landlords shall have lost all or some Part of such Rent or Rents, shall have any Discharge by or under this Act, from the Debt or Demand arising from or resulting due to consequence of such fraudulent Conduct; unless the Person or Persons who shall be entitled to such Debt or Demand shall consent to the Discharge of such Prisoner by virtue of this Act, or such Prisoner shall have been confined in Prison for such Debt or Demand for the Space of Five Years before the time when such Prisoner shall apply for his or her Discharge by virtue of this Act.

XXXVII. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That no Prisoner who shall have seduced any Person, who has become Bail or Surety for such Prisoner, to be charged in respect of such Bail or Surety, shall be discharged by virtue of this Act from any Debt or Demand arising on such Account, without the Consent of the Person or Persons entitled to such Debt or Demand.

XXXVIII. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That no Prisoner who shall be charged in Execution for Damages recovered in any Action for Criminal Conversation with the Wife of the Plaintiff in such Action, or in any Action for seducing or carnally knowing the Daughter or Female Servant of the Plaintiff in such Action, or in any Action for a Malicious Prosecution, or in any Action for any other Malicious Injury, shall have any Discharge from such Debt or Damages under this Act, unless the Person or Persons entitled to the Benefit of such Debt or Damages shall consent to the Discharge of such Prisoner by virtue of this Act; or unless such Prisoner shall have been confined in Prison, for such Debt or Damage, for the Space of Five Years before the time when such Prisoner shall apply for his or her Discharge under this Act.

XXXIX. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That no Prisoner against whom any Commission of Bankruptcy shall have issued and shall remain in force, and who shall not have obtained a Certificate of his or her Conformity to the several Statutes concerning Bankruptcy under such Commission, shall be entitled to be discharged by virtue of this Act from any Debt, for which such Prisoner shall be detained in Custody, and which might have been proved under such Commission, unless such Prisoner shall have been so detained in Prison for the Space of Five Years before the time when such Prisoner shall apply for his or her Discharge under this Act.

XL. And whereas Debtors may, with a view to defraud their Creditors, sell, transfer, convey or assign their Estate and Effects, or some Part thereof, but it may be difficult to prove that such Sale or Transfer, Conveyance or Assignment was made with a fraudulent Design; Be it enacted, That whenever it shall be proved by one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, or by the Confession of any Prisoner, who shall apply for his or her Discharge by virtue of this Act, that such Prisoner has sold, transferred, conveyed or assigned to any Person or Persons all or any Part of his or her Estate or Effects subsequent to the time of contracting any Debt or of from which such Prisoner shall be liable to be discharged, without just Cause, for so doing (to be determined by the Court), and such Sale, Transfer, Conveyance or Assignment, shall remain in force, so that the Creditors of such Prisoner cannot have the Benefit of such Estate or Effects under this Act, without first at Law or Equity, every such Prisoner shall lose all the Benefit and Advantage that he or she might otherwise have claimed under the Authority of this Act, unless all the Creditors of such Prisoner against whom such Prisoner shall seek to be discharged by virtue of this Act will consent to such Discharge.

XLI. And whereas many Prisoners squander their Property by playing at Cards, Dice and other unlawful Games whilst in Prison, to the great Injury of their Creditors: Be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to discharge or release any Prisoner who hath or shall have lost, since the time of his or her Commitment to Prison for any Debt with which he or she shall stand charged at the time when Application shall be made for his or her Discharge by virtue of this Act, the Sum or Value of Ten Pounds in any One Day, or Fifty Pounds in the whole, since such Commitment as aforesaid, in playing at or with Cards, Dice, Tables, Tennis, Bowls, Billiards, or any other Game or Games whatsoever, or in or by bearing a Share or Part in the Stakes, Wages or Adventures, or in or by betting on the Sides or Hands of such as do play as aforesaid, unless all the Creditors of such Prisoner against whom such Prisoner shall seek to be discharged by virtue of this Act shall consent to such Discharge, or unless such Prisoner shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Five Years at the least, since the time when any such Money was so lost as aforesaid.

XLII. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That if any Prisoner seeking the Benefit of this Act, shall appear to the Court who shall decide as to the Discharge of such Prisoner, to have made, within Five Years before the Application of such Prisoner to be discharged by virtue of this Act, any Conveyance or Assignment of all or any Part of his or her Estate or Effects in Trust or otherwise for the Benefit of any particular Creditor or Creditors, with Intent to give in undue Preference to such Creditor or Creditors, and afterwards to obtain a Discharge from the Demands of any other Creditor or Creditors by virtue of this Act, such Prisoner shall have no Benefit of this Act, unless such Person or Persons for whose Benefit any such Conveyance or Assignment shall have been made shall first relinquish the same; and all such Estate and Effects shall be conveyed or delivered by such Person or Persons as the Court shall direct, for the Benefit of all the Creditors of such Prisoner under the Provisions of this Act, or unless all the Creditors against whom such Discharge shall be sought shall consent thereto.

XLIII. And whereas the Estates both Real and Personal of any Prisoner who may be discharged by virtue of this Act may not be sufficiently satisfied or discharged in the Schedule before directed to be delivered upon Oath by such Prisoner, or the Assignees of such Prisoner may be desirous to adjust, make out, recover or manage his Estate or Effects for the Benefit of his or her Creditors; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Assignees or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of any such Prisoner who shall obtain his or her discharge in pursuance of this Act, from time to time to apply to the Court by whom such Prisoner shall have been discharged, that such Prisoner may be further assigned as to any Matters or Things relating to his or her Estate and Effects, either by such Court, or by any Justice of the Peace within whose Jurisdiction such Prisoner shall then reside; and if such Court shall direct any such Commission before any such Justice, such Justice shall send for or call before him such Prisoner, by such Warrant, Summons, Ways or Means as he shall think fit; and if such Prisoner shall appear before such Justice, such Justice shall examine him or her upon Oath, or otherwise, as to such Matters and Things as such Assignee or Assignees shall desire relating to the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner; and if any such Prisoner, on Payment or Tender of Possession of such reasonable Charges as such Justice shall judge sufficient, shall neglect or refuse to appear before such Justice, not having a lawful Excuse showed by such Justice, or being come before such Justice, shall refuse to be sworn or to answer such Questions as by such Justice shall be put to him or her, relating to the Discovery of his or her Estate and Effects vested or intended to be vested in such Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid, as required by the Order of the said Court, such Justice shall certify such Default to the said Court; and thereupon, and also in case such Prisoner shall neglect or refuse to appear before such Court to be examined by such Court, if the Court shall think fit so to order, on appearing before such Court, shall refuse to be sworn, or to answer such Questions as shall be put to him or her relating to the Discovery of his or her said Estate or Effects, then and in any such case it shall be lawful for such Court to commit such Prisoner to gaol, or to any Prison within the Jurisdiction of such Court, there to remain.

remain without Bail or Mainprize, until such time as he or she shall submit himself or herself to such Court and answer upon Oath or otherwise as shall be required, in all such lawful Questions as shall by such Court be put or offered to be put to him or her for the Purpose aforesaid.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful at all times hereafter, for any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of any Prisoner discharged by virtue of this Act, by and with the Consent of the major Part in value of the Creditors of such Prisoner who shall be present at a Meeting to be had on Twenty one Days' Notice being previously given for the Purpose in the Dublin Gazette, if the Prisoner was in Custody in the County of Dublin, or County of the City of Dublin, at the time of his or her Discharge, and if not, then in some Newspaper which shall be published and circulated in the County, City or Place in or near which such Prisoner shall have been in Custody, to make Composition with any Person who shall be a Debtor or Accountant to such Prisoner, where a Composition shall appear necessary or reasonable, and to take such reasonable Part of any Debt due to such Prisoner as may upon any such Composition be gotten, in full Discharge of such Debt, and also to submit to Arbitration, any Difference or Dispute between such Assignee or Assignees, and any Person or Persons, for or on account or by reason of any Matter, Cause or Thing, relative to the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner; and every such Assignee or Assignees is and are lawfully indemnified for what he, she or they shall fairly do in the Premises, in pursuance of this Act.

Court may hear Composition from Assignee, and may remove same.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Court by whom any such Person shall be discharged from time to time, upon the Petition of any Person is discharged, or of any Creditor or Creditors of such Person, complaining of any Insufficiency, Fraud or Misconduct of any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Person, to summon all Parties concerned, and upon hearing the Parties concerned, to make and give such Orders and Directions therein, either for the Removal of such Assignee or Assignees and appointing any new Assignee or Assignees in the Place of such Assignee or Assignees to be removed, and for the present, just and equitable Management and Distribution of the Estate and Effects of any such Person for the Benefit of his or her Creditors, as the said Court shall think fit; and in case of the Removal of any Assignee or Assignees, and the appointing of any new Assignee or Assignees, the Estate and Effects of such Person is discharged shall from thenceforth be devolved out of the Assignee or Assignees so removed, and be vested in and delivered over to such new Assignee or Assignees, in the like manner, and for the same Intents and Purposes as the same were before vested in the Assignee or Assignees first appointed; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

In case of Death or Incapacity of Assignee, another appointed.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That in case of the Death or Incapacity of any Assignee of the Estate and Effects of any Person discharged by virtue of this Act, or in case any Assignee shall be unwilling to Act as Assignee, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Creditor of such Person to apply to the said Court to appoint a new Assignee or Assignees, with like Powers and Authorities as are given by this Act to the original Assignee or Assignees; and the said Court shall have Power to appoint such new Assignee or Assignees accordingly, and to oblige any Assignee who shall be removed, and the Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns of any deceased Assignee, to account for and deliver up all such Estate and Effects, as shall remain in his, her or their Hands, to be applied for the Purpose of this Act; and the Decision of the said Court thereupon shall be final and conclusive.

Assignee, he, not paying over Balance of Estate proceeds, sequestrated.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of any Prisoner discharged by virtue of this Act, or the Heirs, Executors or Administrators of any deceased Assignee or Assignees, shall not deliver over any Part of such Estate or Effects, or pay the Balance of the Produce of any such Estate or Effects found to be in the Hands of such deceased Assignee or Assignees, or of such Heirs, Executors or Administrators as aforesaid, according to the Order of the said Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order the Person or Persons disobeying such Order to be arrested, and committed to the next County Gaol, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, until such Person or Persons shall have obeyed such Order, and paid all such Costs as the said Court shall award to be paid in respect thereof, or until such Court shall make other Order to the contrary.

Person committed for Contempt of Court, is not paying Costs, he, committed to Benefit of Act, Absolution of Quaker taken.

XLVIII. And whereas Persons are often committed by the Courts of Law and Equity for Contempts in not paying Money ordered or awarded to be paid, and also for not paying of Costs duly and regularly taxed and allowed by the proper Officer, after proper Demands made for that Purpose, and also upon the Writ de Execrationibus expiendis, or other Process, for or grounded on the Nonpayment of Money, Costs or Expenses, in some Cause or Proceeding in some Ecclesiastical Court, or for Contempt of such Court by Nonpayment of Money, Costs or Expenses: Be it further enacted, That all such Persons so committed shall be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, on and subject to the same Terms, Conditions and Restrictions, as are herein expressed and declared with respect to Prisoners for Debt only.

Vagary.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That in all cases wherein by this Act an Oath is required, the solemn Affirmance of any Person being a Quaker shall and may be accepted and taken in lieu thereof; and every Person making such Affirmance, who shall be convicted of wilful false Affirmance, shall incur and suffer such and the same Penalties as are inflicted and applied upon Persons convicted of Perjury under the Laws in force in Ireland.

Person being Absolution Act within Five Years not entitled to Relief.

L. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall have taken the Benefit of any Act heretofore passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall have the Benefit of this Act, or be deemed to be within the Intent and Meaning thereof, so as to be discharged under the same, until the Expiration of the Term of Five Years from the time of such former Discharge; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; unless from special Considerations the Court to which such Person shall apply to be discharged under the Directions of this Act should be of Opinion that it would be just and reasonable that such Prisoner should be again discharged by virtue of this Act.

L.I. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to discharge any Prisoner seeking the Benefit of this Act, with respect to any Debt or Penalty with which he or she shall stand charged at the Seat of the Crown, or of any Prison for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to His Majesty's Revenues of Customs, Excise or Stamp Duties, or any of them, or any Branches of the said Public Revenue, or in the Seat of any Sheriff or other Public Officer, upon any Bail Bond entered into for the Appearance of any Prisoner prosecuted for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to His Majesty's said Revenues of Customs, Excise or Stamp Duties, or any other Branches of Public Revenue, unless Three of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer in Ireland for the time being shall certify under their Hands their Consent to the Discharge of such Prisoner, upon the Terms and Conditions prescribed by this Act.

L.II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall have been at any time discharged by virtue of this Act shall again be entitled to the Benefit thereof within the Space of Five Years after such Discharge, unless Three months in Number and Value of the Conditions against whom such Person shall seek to be discharged a Second time by virtue of this Act, shall signify his, her or their Assent to such Discharge, or it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Court to whom such Person shall apply for his Discharge, that such Person has since his or her former Discharge endeavoured by Industry and Frugality to pay all his Debts due upon him or her, and has incurred no unnecessary Expence, and that the Debts which such Person has incurred, subsequent to such former Discharge, have been necessarily incurred for the Maintenance of such Person, or his or her Family, or that the Indebtedness of such Person has arisen from Misfortune, or from Inability to acquire Subsistence for himself or herself, and his or her Family, or from Debts incurred prior to such former Discharge, to which such Discharge did not extend, or from Debts incurred subsequent to such Discharge in consequence of Engagements entered into or Acts done prior to such Discharge.

L.III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person, not being a natural-born Subject of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall have the Benefit of this Act, except under such circumstances, and on such Terms and Conditions, as to the Court to which such Person shall apply to be discharged pursuant to this Act, shall seem fit and reasonable; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

L.IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Objection shall be made to the Discharge of any Prisoner on the Ground of any Misconduct of any such Prisoner, and it shall appear to the said Court that such Prisoner might not have been aware of such Objection as to be able to answer the same, such Court shall allow such Prisoner sufficient time to answer such Objection; and shall also, if necessary, require such Objection to be stated in Writing to such Prisoner, in that such Prisoner may be fully apprized thereof.

L.V. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Court, that any Misconduct which shall be attributed to any Prisoner to prevent his or her Discharge, although finally within the Letter and Meaning of this Act, was nevertheless attended with such extenuations, or the Injury thereby done was so small an Amount, that it may not be fit that such Prisoner should be that account be deprived of the Benefit of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Court to discharge such Prisoner, notwithstanding any Objection founded on such Misconduct, either in the same manner as if such Objection had not been made, or on such further Terms and Conditions as to the said Court shall appear reasonable, in consequence of such Misconduct. Provided also, that in case it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Court, that any Debt incurred by any Prisoner seeking to be discharged by virtue of this Act, was contracted under any fraudulent circumstances not specially provided for by this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Court to except such Debt from the Discharge to be granted to such Prisoner, either absolutely or upon such Terms and Conditions as to the said Court shall appear to be proper; and if such Prisoner shall be in actual Custody for such Debt, it shall be lawful for the said Court to remove such Prisoner according to the Determination of the said Court upon such Debt.

L.VI. And be it further enacted, That all Justices and other Courts which shall have the same Title and Jurisdiction, and within the same Limits respectively, shall, as to all the Purposes of this Act, be deemed and taken to be the same Courts respectively, although sitting under different Commissions or Warrants respectively.

L.VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall at any time be a Prisoner in any such Prison in Ireland as aforesaid, upon any such Process as aforesaid, shall be or become of unsound Mind, and therefore incapable of taking the Benefit of this Act in such manner as he or she might have done if of sound Mind, the Clerk or Keeper of such Prison shall forthwith require One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace within whose Jurisdiction such Prisoner shall be, to attend at the said Prison, and enquire into the State of Mind of such Prisoner; and thereupon, and also in case any such Justice or Justices shall receive Information by any other means that any such Prisoner is of unsound Mind as aforesaid, such Justice or Justices shall go to the said Prison, and by his or their own View, and by Examination on Oath of such Prisoner or Persons as he or they shall think fit to examine, shall enquire into the State of Mind of such Prisoner; and if it shall appear to such Justice or Justices upon such Enquiry, that such Prisoner is of unsound Mind, and therefore incapable of taking the Benefit of this Act in such manner as a Person of sound Mind might do, such Justice or Justices shall forthwith make a Record of the Fact, and certify the same to the Court to which such Prisoner might, if of sound Mind, prefer his Petition to be discharged by virtue of this Act; and thereupon it shall be lawful for such Court, at the Instance of any Person or Persons as behalf of such Prisoner, to order Notice to be inferred in the Dublin Gazette, and in Two or more public Newspapers usually circulated in the Neighbourhood of such Prison, and in the Neighbourhood of the usual Residence of such Prisoner before he or she was committed to such Prison, in the said Court shall be fit, and shall in such Order signify and direct that Application will be made to such Court or to the Court of Assize in Crown Prison, or that as recommended by the Commissioners of the said Prisons, for the relief of the said Prisoner.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. CXXXIX.

An Act for exempting Bankers, and others, from certain Penalties contained in an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for the further Prevention of the Counterfeiting of Silver Tokens issued by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, called Dallies, and of Silver Pieces issued and circulated by the Governor and Company, called Tokens; and for the further Prevention of Frauds practised by the Imitation of the Notes or Bills of the said Governor and Company.

1813, c. 138.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for the further Prevention of the Counterfeiting of Silver Tokens issued by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, called Dallies, and of Silver Pieces issued and circulated by the said Governor and Company, called Tokens; and for the further Prevention of Frauds practised by the Imitation of the Notes or Bills of the said Governor and Company; it was enacted, that any Person, from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twelve, should engrave, cut, etch, scrape or by any other Means or Device make, or should cause or procure to be engraved, cut, etched, scraped, or by any other Means or Device made, or should knowingly aid or assist in the engraving, cutting, etching, scraping, or by any other Means or Device making, on or upon any Plate of Copper, Brass, Steel, Pewter, or of any other Metal or Mixture of Metals, or upon any Wood or any other Materials, or upon any Plate whatsoever, any Word or Words, Figure or Figures, Character or Characters, the Imposition taken from which should resemble or be apparently intended to resemble the Whole or any Part of any of the Notes or Bills of the said Governor and Company, commonly called Bank Notes and Bank Post Bills, or should contain any Word, Number, Figure or Character in White on a black, fable or dark Ground, without an Authority in Writing for that Purpose from the said Governor and Company, to be produced and proved by the Party accused, or should (without such Authority so aforesaid) use any such Plate, Wood or other Material, to engrave, cut, etched, scraped, or by any other Means or Device made, or should use any other Instrument or Device for the making, or printing upon any Paper or other Material, any Word or Words, Figure or Figures, Character or Characters, which should be apparently intended to resemble the Whole or any Part of the said Notes or Bills of the said Governor and Company, or any Word, Number, Figure or Character in White on a black, fable or dark Ground; or if any Person or Persons should, from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twelve (without such Authority as aforesaid) knowingly have in his, her or their Custody, any such Plate, Instrument or Device, or should knowingly and wilfully alter, publish or dispose of, or put away any Paper or other Material containing any such Word or Words, Figure or Figures, Character or Characters as aforesaid, or should knowingly or wilfully have in his, her or their Custody or Possession, any Paper or other Material containing any such Word or Words, Figure or Figures, Character or Characters as aforesaid (without lawful Excuse, the Proof whereof should lie upon the Person accused), every Person so offending in any of the cases aforesaid, and being convicted thereof according to Law, should be adjudged a Felon, and should be transported for the Term of Fourteen Years: And whereas many Persons carrying on the Business of Bankers have, in Ignorance of the Provisions of the said Act, made, issued and of circulated, Provisionary Notes containing white Letter or Figure on a black, fable or dark Ground; and any use of such Notes is now in Circulation: And whereas it is expedient to give a reasonable time to all such Bankers to call in such Notes, and to issue others in their stead: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Person shall be liable to Prosecution by virtue of the said recited Act for having, before the passing of this Act, engraved, cut, etched, scraped or made, or colored or prepared to be engraved, cut, etched, scraped or made, by Authority of any Person or Persons acting as a Banker or Bankers, any Provisionary Note, or Part of a Provisionary Note, for Payment of Money, the Impression taken from which may contain any Word, Number, Figure or Character in White on a black, fable or dark Ground, or for having made or printed by such Authority as aforesaid, before the passing of this Act, any such Provisionary Note, or Part of a Provisionary Note, or for having herebefore issued or circulated any such Provisionary Note, or having herebefore had any such Provisionary Note in his or her Possession or Custody, or who shall, before the Fifth Day of November in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, issue or circulate, or have in his or her Possession or Custody, any such Provisionary Note, the Date whereof shall not be later than the Fifth Day of November in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or suspend any Provision contained in the said Act respecting the engraving, cutting, etching, scraping or making any Word or Words, Figure or Figures, Character or Characters, the Impression taken from which may resemble, or be apparently intended to resemble, the Whole or any Part of any of the Notes or Bills of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, commonly called Bank Notes or Bank Post Bills, or the using any Plate or other Material upon which any such Word or Words, Figure or Figures, Character or Characters may be engraved, cut, etched, scraped or made, or the using any other Instrument or Device for making or printing any such Word or Words, Figure or Figures, Character or Characters, or the having any such Plate, Instrument or Device, in Custody or Possession, or the using, publishing, disposing of or putting away, or the having in Custody or Possession any Paper or other Material containing any such Word or Words, Figure or Figures, Character or Characters; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to repeal or suspend any Enactment, Provision, Matter or Thing contained in an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the more effectual preventing the forgery of the Notes or Bills of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England; and for the preventing the obtaining a false Credit by the Imitation of the Notes or Bills of the said Governor and Company; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. CXL

An Act to amend an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for the more effectual Regulation of Pilots, and of the Pilots of Ships and Vessels in the Coast of England, and for the Regulation of Boatmen employed in supplying Vessels with Pilots, licensed under the said Act, be so as relates to the Coast of Kent, within the Limits of The Cinque Ports.

(19th July 1812.)

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled
As to the more effectual Regulation of Pilots, and of the Pilots of Ships and Vessels on the Coast of England: And whereas it is necessary for the securing a proper Supply of Pilots under the said Act for Vessels plying between and through The Downs, to and from the River Thames and other Places, that further Provisions should be made for the bettering and Regulation of Boatsmen usually employed in putting Pilots on board of Vessels from Downs, Drift, and Ramsgate and Margate: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That One hundred and forty Boatsmen shall be licensed by the Lord Warden of the Cinqus Ports, or by his Lieutenant, or by the Deputy Lieutenant Governor of Downs Castle, or such other Person or Persons as shall be from time to time specially authorized by the Lord Warden for that Purpose within the Jurisdictions of the Cinqus Ports, for the Purpose of assisting Ships in Entrance and conducing them into and out of the Harbours of Downs, Ramsgate, Margate and Folkestone, and putting on board Cinqus Port Pilots on board of Ships and Vessels coming from the Westward and bound up the River of Thames and Medway; and Fifty of such Boatsmen shall constantly reside at Downs, Fifty at Drift, Twenty at Ramsgate and Twenty at Margate; and all such Boatsmen shall be respectively required by such Licenses to reside at the respective Places to be specified in their Licenses, and shall, upon quitting their Places of Residence, or applying to use or act under the same for the Space of Two Months, unless prevented by Illness, forfeit such Licenses: And all such Boatsmen, before any such License shall be given as aforesaid, shall be examined as to their Knowledge of the Coast, and their Ability to conduct Ships and Vessels into The Downs, and the Harbours of Downs, Ramsgate, and Margate and Folkestone, by the Commissioners of the Lord Warden of the Cinqus Ports for taking Salvoage and the other Commissioners appointed by this Act, at the respective Places where such Boatsmen shall apply to be licensed at a Meeting to be held for the Purpose of this Act, upon whose Certificate the Lord Warden or his Lieutenant, or the Deputy Lieutenant Governor of Downs Castle, or such other Person or Persons as shall be authorized as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby authorized and empowered to grant such License as aforesaid: and if the Number of Persons so examined and qualified to act as such licensed Boatmen shall enter the Number prescribed by this Act, the Names of the Persons so approved and qualified shall be entered in a Book to be provided for that Purpose, together with the times of their Approval and Examination, in order that they may regularly succeed by Rotation to the Vacancies that may from time to time occur of such Licensed Boatmen; and Licenses shall thereupon be granted to such Boatmen, in such Order and Rotation from time to time as Vacancies arise by Death or Forfeiture of Licenses or otherwise, in order that such Number of licensed Boatmen for each respective Places as aforesaid may at all times be complete.

Commissioners for examining Boatmen.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor of Dover, the Mayor of Sandwich, and the Mayor of Deal, and also the Two Junior Justices of the Peace for each of those Places for the time being, not being Commissioners of Salvoage, shall, and they are hereby appointed jointly with the said Commissioners of Salvoage of the said Warden, Commissioners for the Purpose of carrying this Act into Execution within their respective Jurisdictions, and examining such Boatmen, and granting such Licenses as aforesaid to Boatmen for Licenses under this Act.

Rules for Boatmen made by Commissioners of G. S. & J. R.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Salvoage at the respective Places for which they are authorized and empowered to act as such Commissioners, under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for preventing various Frauds and Deceptions committed in Merchants, Ship Owners and Undertakers, by Boatmen and others, within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports; and also for remedying certain Defects relating to the Adjustment of Salvoage, under a Statute made in the Tenth Year of the late Majesty Queen Anne, to make Rules, Orders and Regulations for the Government of such Number of Boatmen to be licensed under this Act, as are hereafter specified, in their respective Places; and such Rules, Orders and Regulations when made, shall be printed and put up in conspicuous Parts of the Custom House, Port, Harbour and Place, to which such Rules, Orders and Regulations apply, for the Inspection of all such Boatmen and other Boatmen, and all other Persons having occasion to employ such Boatmen, and all Persons concerned in the enforcing such Rules, Orders and Regulations as aforesaid.

Licenses to Boatmen: Size of Boats.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no License granted or to be granted under the Authority and Provision of this Act, to any Boatman, shall be subject to any Stamp Duty; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Licenses in duplicate: Perish, and produced to Officers of Customs, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That every such License shall be written or printed in large Characters, in as to be read with great Facility by Night as well as by Day; and every such License shall contain a Description of the Person to whom the same is granted, and his Place of Residence, and the Date of granting thereof, and shall specify by whom the same was granted; and any Boatman so licensed shall, when on Board, have with him his proper License, and shall, whenever the same shall be demanded by any Officer of Customs or Excise, or the Master or other Person having the Command of any Merchant Ship or Vessel, produce the same for Inspection: And any Boatman who shall alter any such License, or obliterate the same, or knowingly permit or suffer any Alteration or Obliteration to be made in such License, or who shall transfer or lend any such License to any other Person or Persons, or who shall refuse to produce his License for Inspection, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit his such License, or forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Two Pounds, at the Discretion of the said Commissioners.

Licenses stored in fact.

Proviso.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no such License, or any Provision relating thereto or contained in this Act, in relation to any such Boatman, and no Rules or Regulations made under the Authority thereof, shall have any Effect so be deemed or construed to affect or in any manner to alter or interfere with any Provision, Claim, Penalty, Forfeiture, Reliance, Matter or Thing contained in this Act; or to exempt any such licensed Boatman from any of the Provisions of any such Act, or any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to His Majesty's Customs or Excise.

Licensed Boatmen offending against Revenue Laws.

VII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Boatman licensed under the Provisions of this Act shall be concerned in any Offence against any Law or Laws relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, or shall be concerned in or shall wilfully connive at any unlawful Practice or Frauds against the Revenue of Customs or Excise, or shall procure, abet, connive at or participate in any Unlawful Spoil, Concealment, Fraud, Extortion or Corrupt Practice, relating to Ships or Vessels, or Persons in Distress at Sea or by Ship, wreck, or relating to the Tackle, Apparel, Furniture or Cargoes of any such Ship or Vessel, or relating to the Crew or Passengers belonging thereto, or the Manner, Goods or Chattels of any of them; then and in every such case, any such licensed Boatman shall, over and above all other Punishments, Maims or Penalties, for such Offences forfeit his License, or be suspended from acting as a licensed Boatman, at the Discretion of the said Commissioners.

Penalty.

Rates on Boatmen for putting up on board at Vessels.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all such licensed Boatmen shall be paid the Rates now allowed for putting Cargo Ports Pilots on board Ships or Vessels, but shall not be entitled to any such Rates unless the Pilot is actually shipped and put on board of such Ships or Vessels, and such Boatmen shall be entitled to demand, have and receive the Sum of Five Shillings for every Foot of the Deck of Water of any Vessel piloted by them into any of the said Harbours, and Three Shillings for every Foot of Water for piloting out of any of the said Harbours; and such Payments shall in both cases include the Hire of the Boat and Crew in moderate Weather; but if such Pilots or Boatmen shall take place under any circumstances of Distress, then such Boatmen shall be allowed such Sum as the said Commissioners of Salvoage of the said Warden shall in each such case award.

In cases of Distress, to be paid by the Boatmen.

* IX. And whereas Impertinences are often practised upon Passengers landed from Vessels, and Delinquents often made as to the same proper to be paid in such cases; For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Salvage at any of the Ports and Places for which Commissioners of Salvage shall be appointed, upon the Application of any Boatman or of any Passenger or Passengers landed by any Boatman at any such Ports or Places respectively, to hear and in a summary manner to settle any Dispute which shall arise between any such Boatman or Passengers, and to fix and adjust the Sum to be paid by such Passenger or Passengers respectively, for any Service which shall have been performed by such Boatman or Boatmen in the bringing on Shore or landing from any Ship or Vessel any Passenger or Passengers, or the Goods or Baggage of any Passenger or Passengers, and to make such Order in relation thereto as shall appear to the said Commissioners to be necessary and proper; and such Commissioners shall for that Purpose of and exercise all such and the like Powers and Authority as are given to them in case of Salvage, by the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year aforesaid.

X. And be it further enacted, That no more than Two licensed Boatmen shall be allowed to go in each Boat; and in every case in which any such licensed Boatman shall be crewing without any licensed Cinque Ports Pilot, and shall fail in such any ship or Vessel regarding a licensed Cinque Ports Pilot, One of the licensed Boatmen shall be left on board the Ship or Vessel waiting such Pilot, as a Guarantee for a proper licensed Cinque Ports Pilot being brought or sent off the Shore to such Ship or Vessel; and the Boatman so left shall not be entitled to any Sum of Money or Payment for being so left, or being on board of such Ship or Vessel.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every such licensed Boatman having a Boat, shall cause the Number of his License to be distinctly painted in Figures as each Bow and Quarter of such Boat, and on both sides of every one of the Sails thereof, with the Addition for the Deers Boat, of the Roman Letters D. R. in Black; the Dead Boat, the Letter D. in Black; the Swanow Boat, the Letter R. in Black; the Margaw Boat, the Letter M. in Black, which Figures and Letters shall be at least Eighteen Inches in Length, and Twelve Inches in Breadth: And every licensed Boatman who shall not have the proper Number and Mark distinctly painted in manner aforesaid, on the Sails of his Boat, or who shall have any Sails on board not duly numbered and marked as aforesaid, or improperly numbered and marked, or who shall in any manner evade or attempt to evade any of the Provisions of this Act, shall forfeit his License, and also a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Boat or Vessel not having a licensed Boatman on board, shall without lawful Authority carry such distinguishing Numbers and Marks as aforesaid, the Owner or Owners, or the Master or other Person having Charge of such Boat or Vessel displaying or carrying any such Number or Mark, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every such licensed Boatman as aforesaid, who shall, on being applied to by a licensed Cinque Ports Pilot to take him off to any Ship or Vessel, refuse so to do, unless procured by Illness, shall, upon due Proof thereof to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for executing this Act, in the Place where he shall be licensed, forfeit his License, and any Sum of Money not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds for such Offence.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Pilot, whose Turn it shall be to go off as Duty, shall refuse or neglect so to do, on being applied to by any licensed Boatman to go off to any Ship or Vessel, shall refuse to apply to or refusing to go off to such Ship or Vessel, shall lose his Turn, and such Ship or Vessel shall be placed by any duly licensed Pilot who shall first get on board, but which shall not be taken for the Turn of Duty of such last mentioned Pilot.

XV. And be it further enacted, That all Licenses to be granted by virtue of this Act, shall continue in force during so long time as the Boatmen to whom the same shall be granted shall faithfully and diligently discharge their Duty; and no such License shall be annulled or suspended but upon such Grounds of Complaint or Incapacity, Negligence or Misbehaviour, and an Order made thereon by the Commissioners acting in Execution of this Act, at a Meeting to be held for the Purposes of the said Act.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That all the Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, shall be recovered, levied and applied as any Penalties and Forfeitures may be recovered, levied and applied under the Provisions of the last recited Act of the last Session of Parliament; and all the Provisions, Clauses and Regulations in the said Act contained for the Recovery of Penalties and Forfeitures, shall be used, applied and enforced for the recovering, keeping and applying the Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, as fully and effectually as if the same were severally and separately recited in and made Part of this Act.

XVII. And whereas by the said recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that a proper and sufficient Number of the Cinque Ports Pilots, not less than Eighteen at any one time, and to succeed from time to time, without Interruption or any unnecessary Delay, should at all seasons be ready by Day and Night constantly ply at Sea, or be absent between the South Foreland and Dungeness, to take Charge of Ships and Vessels coming from the Westward: And whereas it may be expected to suspend the carrying into Execution that Part of the said recited Act: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council by any Order or Orders made for that Purpose, and published by Proclamations in The Gazette, to suspend in whole or the said recited Act as respects the Cinque Ports Pilots exclusively to ply at Sea, and be absent, between the Forelands in the said Act specified, either for any Period His Majesty shall think proper, and to be in such case specified in such Order or Orders, and Proclamations, or until any further Order of His Majesty in Council shall be made for again carrying the said Provision of the said recited Act into Effect and Execution; and all the Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures in relation to such specified Number of Pilots constantly plying at Sea, and Clauses and Regulations Commissioners for the said Act, in relation to the Cinque Ports Pilots, shall be in force as if the said Act had not been so suspended.

48 G. 3. c. 170.

Licensed Boatmen crewing without Pilots to leave one of licensed Boatmen on board of ship, or otherwise for the bringing off Pilot (Boat of licensed Boatman marked on Sails).

Penalty.

Penalty. Pilots neglecting or refusing to go off to take their Turn.

Licenses to continue in force during good Behaviour.

48 G. 3. c. 170. § 10.

Provision for suspending the said Act as respects the Cinque Ports Pilots exclusively to ply at Sea, and be absent, between the Forelands in the said Act specified, either for any Period His Majesty shall think proper, and to be in such case specified in such Order or Orders, and Proclamations, or until any further Order of His Majesty in Council shall be made for again carrying the said Provision of the said recited Act into Effect and Execution.

Regulations

Regulations for enforcing the same, shall, upon the issuing of such Proclamations, writs and certificates be suspended.

Public Act.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded.

otherwise every such Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance, shall be null and void, to all Intents and Purposes.

Companies distributed by their shareholders.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any such Annuity shall be granted by, or to or for the Benefit of any Company exceeding in Number Ten Persons, which Company shall be formed for the Purpose of granting or purchasing Annuities, it shall be sufficient in any such Memorial to describe such Company by the usual Firm or Name of Trade.

Memorial of Parties beneficially interested, stated.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in every Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance, whereby any Annuity or Rent Charge shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be granted or attempted to be granted, for one or more Life or Lives, or for any Term of Years or greater Estate determinable on one or more Life or Lives, where the Person or Persons to whom such Annuity shall be granted or secured to be paid, shall not be be entitled thereto beneficially, the Name or Names of the Person or Persons who is or are intended to take the Annuity beneficially shall be described in such or the like manner as is hereinafter required in the Enrolment; otherwise every such Deed, Instrument or other Assurance, shall be null and void.

V. And be it further enacted, That to take any Person or Persons, by whom any Annuity or Rent Charge, of which such Particulars as aforesaid are hereby required to be enrolled, shall for the time being be payable, shall be deliverable of obtaining a Copy of every or any Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance, whereby such Annuity or Rent Charge was granted, and of such his, her or their Deeds, shall give Twenty one Days Notice in Writing to the Person or Persons for the time being entitled to such Annuity or Rent Charge, such Person or Persons shall, on or before the Expiration of such Twenty one Days, unless prevented by Fire or other inevitable Accident, and in that case if the Assurance shall not be destroyed by such Accident, then as soon after as such Impediment shall be removed, send or deliver to the Person or Persons requiring the same, a Copy of every Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance, whereby such Annuity or Rent Charge was granted, or of such of the Assurances as in such Notice shall be required; and such last mentioned Person or Persons shall, at the time of receiving the same, pay to the Person or Persons furnishing the same, a Sum after the Rate of Six pence for every One hundred Words contained in every such Copy, and also the reasonable Costs of finding or delivering the same; and the Person or Persons holding the original Instruments by which such Annuity or Rent Charge shall be secured shall suffer the Person or Persons, to whom such Copies shall be delivered or sent, to examine the same with the Originals; and in case such Copies shall not be lost or delivered, or the Person or Persons holding the original Instruments shall refuse to suffer such Copies to be examined therewith according to the Direction in this Act, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons by whom the Annuity or Rent Charge is payable to take out a Summons from any of His Majesty's Justices of His Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, requiring the Person or Persons neglecting to send or deliver such Copies, or refusing to suffer the same to be examined with the original Instruments as aforesaid, to appear before such Judge and show Cause in the Premises; and it shall and may be lawful for the Judge before whom such Person or Persons shall be summoned to make such Order for the Production of the Instruments by which such Annuity or Rent Charge shall be secured, and for suffering the Complainant to take Copies thereof, and examine the same, or the Copies delivered with the original Instruments, and otherwise in the Premises, as to such Judge shall seem meet.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Part of the Consideration for the Purchase of any such Annuity or Rent Charge shall be secured to the Person advancing the same, or in case such Consideration, or any Part of it shall be paid in Notes, or in any of the Notes, with the Priority and Consent of the Person advancing the same, shall not be paid when due, or shall be cancelled or destroyed without being first paid; or if such Consideration is expended to be paid in Money, but the same or any Part of it shall be paid in Goods; or if the Consideration or any Part of it shall be received, on Pretence of advancing the future Payments of the Annuity or Rent Charge, or any other Pretence; in all and every the aforesaid cases, it shall be lawful for the Person by whom the Annuity or Rent Charge is made payable, or whose Property is liable to be charged or affected thereby, to apply to the Court in which any Action shall be brought for Payment of the Annuity or Rent Charge, or Judgment moved by Motion, to stay Proceedings on the Action or Judgment, and if it shall appear to the Court that such Pretences as aforesaid, or any of them, have been used, it shall and may be lawful for the Court to order every Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance, whereby the Annuity or Rent Charge is secured, to be cancelled, and the Judgment, if any has been entered, to be vacated.

VII. And be it further enacted, That a particular Book shall be provided and kept by the Clerks of the Enrolments in Chancery, or their Deputy, in which such Particulars as hereinafter are mentioned shall be entered Alphabetically, by the Names of the Grantors, in order of time as the same shall be brought to the Office; and the said Clerks of the Enrolments, or their Deputy, shall specify in the Book the certain Day, Hour and Time on which such Particulars are brought to the Office, and shall grant a Certificate of the Entry thereof, when required; and that there shall be paid for every such Entry Twenty Shillings only, and the Fee of One Shilling for every Certificate and Copy given, and the Fee of One Shilling for every Search in the Office, and no more.

VIII. ## C. A. P. CXLII.

An Act to explain and amend several Acts relative to the Land Tax.

[14th July 1813.]

28 G. 2. c. 2.

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, was made perpetual by another Act passed in the same Year, intitled An Act for making perpetual, subject to Redemption and Purchase in the manner therein stated, the several Sums of Money now charged in Great Britain as a Land Tax for the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight; and whereas Doubts have arisen whether several Clauses and Provisions in the said first mentioned Act, having reference to the particular Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, are by the said other Act continued and made applicable to each subsequent Year of Assessment respectively, and the Execution of such Clauses and Provisions is thereby impeded: And whereas it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed and other Provisions made for the better Collection and Regulation of the Duties payable under and by virtue of the said recited Acts: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Acts, Matters and Things authorized or required to be done or performed in and by the said first mentioned Act, in the Execution thereof within and for the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, by any Commissioners, Assessors or Collectors (except when any such Matters and Things are varied or otherwise provided for in and by this Act), may and shall be done and performed by them respectively, within or for the Year in or for which any Assessment shall be to be made by virtue of the said first mentioned Act, in like manner, and at the like times, and at the Places as were therein directed with Reference to the said Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight; and all Matters and Things authorized or required to be done or performed in and by the said first mentioned Act in the Execution thereof, at any limited time after the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, by the said Commissioners, Assessors or Collectors (except as aforesaid), may and shall be done and performed by them respectively, within the like Period of time after the Year in or for which any Assessment shall be to be made as aforesaid; and all Dates and Times mentioned in the said first recited Act, within or during or after which or with reference to which, any of the Authorities, Powers, Provisions or Directions, are to be executed, which are within or are computed from the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, or from any Day or Time within the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, or within any prior or subsequent Year, with Reference to the Execution of the said Acts for the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, shall be construed to refer to the Year of Assessment as aforesaid, and shall be computed within or from the Year in which any Assessment shall be to be made, or within any prior or subsequent Year, with reference to the Execution of the said Acts for each Year of Assessment, in like manner as is therein directed with reference to the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the respective Commissioners for putting in Execution the said first recited Act shall, from and after the passing of this Act, cause Two Duplicates of every Assessment to be made out on Parchment by their Clerk, within Six Calendar Months after the Twenty fifth Day of March next following the making of the said Assessment yearly, containing the whole Sum assessed upon each Parish or Place, and also the Christian and Surnames of the respective Assessors or Collectors, One of which said Duplicates the said Commissioners shall cause to be delivered unto the Receiver General of each County, Riding, City, Borough, Town and Place in England, Wales and Berwick upon Tweed, or his Deputy; and the other of them, to be sent by the said Commissioners to and delivered at the Office for Taxes, the previous Inspection of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, who may make Copies thereof, or any Part thereof, to be taken, and who shall afterwards transmit such Duplicate to the King's Remembrancer in All Matters required to be done by the said recited Act, by Commissioners, Assessors, or Collectors, (except when any such Matters and Things are varied or otherwise provided for in and by this Act), may and shall be done and performed by them in any Year for which Assessments shall be made by virtue of the said recited Act, &c.

Commissioners to make Two Duplicates of Assessments to be made out on Parchment, and one of which said Duplicates the said Commissioners shall cause to be delivered unto the Receiver General of each County, Riding, City, Borough, Town and Place in England, Wales and Berwick upon Tweed, or his Deputy; and the other of them, to be sent by the said Commissioners to and delivered at the Office for Taxes, the previous Inspection of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, who may make Copies thereof, or any Part thereof, to be taken, and who shall afterwards transmit such Duplicate to the King's Remembrancer in the Eschequer, for which he is to receive the proper Office still given in Acquittance gratis, so as every the said Receiver General may be duly charged to deliver these respective Collectors and Receipts; and if any Clerk to such Commissioners shall neglect or refuse to make out and deliver such Receipts as aforesaid within the time and in manner therein directed, or shall wilfully make any false Entry, or omit any Item or Sum in such Receipts, every such Clerk shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered to The King's UP, as other Penalties are recoverable by the said recited Acts.

Twenty.

III. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Receiver or Receivers of Monies granted by or charged under the said recited Acts, or either of them, or the Heirs, Executors or Administrators of such Receiver, in the Account of the Monies whereunto such Receiver shall be chargeable for any Year after the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and ten, to let Jefays, or charge any County, Division or Place in England, Wales or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for any such Monies aforesaid which shall be in Arrear or unpaid; provided that true and lawful Accounts of the said Receiver for the particular Year in respect of which the said Monies shall be in Arrear, signed by the said Receiver, together with all Talles and Vouchers relating thereto, shall be delivered or transmitted by such Receiver, his Heirs, Executors or Administrators, into the proper Office of the Auditor of the said Accounts (according to the established and accustomed Course of transmitting the said Accounts) on or before the Fifth Day of Hilary Term next after the Expiration of One Year after the End of the Year for which the Affessment of the said Rates and Duties shall be payable; but on Default of the Delivery or Transmission of such Accounts within the time and in the manner last aforesaid, the said Monies, for or in respect of which such Jefays or Charge ought or ought to have been made, shall remain a Debt upon every such Receiver to be answered by him and his Securities, his and their Heirs, Executors or Administrators Liables, Tenements, Goods and Chattels respectively.

IV. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Jefays or Charge let upon any County, Parish or Place for any such the Monies in Arrear as last aforesaid, shall be in Force and have Effect against such County, Parish or Place, by Process from the Court of Eschequer, provided that the Accounts of the Receiver for the particular Year in which such Rates and Duties ought to have been paid, containing such Jefays, shall be sworn and declared in the Eschequer on or before the last Day of Hilary Term next after the time herein appointed for the Delivery of the said Accounts.

Inferior in force by Process from Court of Eschequer.

V. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal or alter the Powers given to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, in and by an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend the several Laws relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, so far as the same relate to extending the time for settling Jefays by Receivers General, in the particular cases and in the manner described and authorized in and by said Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Stamp Duty shall be charged or chargeable for any Receipts given by any Receiver General of the Duties payable under and by virtue of the said recited Acts, or any Collector for Payment of Money made by virtue of the said Acts or the Act; any Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

IX. And whereas by the said Act recited Act passed in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His most Excellent Majesty, the Commissioners for putting in Execution that Act are empowered to seize and seize and to sell and dispose of the Copyhold Estates of Collectors under that Act obliging to pay Sums of Money by them received; but no Provision is made by the said Act for the manner of Sale or Transfer of the said Copyhold Estates, or for the Admission of the Purchasers thereof: Be it therefore enacted, That the Commissioners for putting in Execution the several Acts relating to the Land Tax shall, from and after the passing of this Act, make Conveyance of all such Copyhold Estates to the respective Purchasers thereof by Deed indented between say Two or more of the said Commissioners and the said Purchasers respectively, and such Sale shall be effectual to all Intests and Purposes, in like manner as the Sale of Copyhold Estates of Bankrupts, under and by virtue of Statutes relating to Bankrupts or any of them, by Deed indented and enrolled: Provided always, that such Person or Persons to whom any such Sale of Copyhold Lands shall be made, shall, in like manner as the Purchaser of the Copyhold Estates of Bankrupts, before such time as he or they or any of them shall enter or take any Profit of the said Lands or Tenements, agree and compound with the Lords of the Manors of whom the same shall be holden, for such Fines or Incumbrances as themselves hath been made usual and accustomed to be paid or paid therefore; and that upon every such Agreement or Composition the said Lords for the time being, at the next Court to be holden at or for the said Manors, shall not only grant to the said Vendor or Vendors, upon Request, the same Copyhold or Customary Lands or Tenements, by Copy of Court Roll of the same Manors, for such Estate or Interest as to them shall be so sold, and referring the ancient Rents, Customs and Services, but who is the same Court admit them Tenants of the same Copyhold or Customary Lands, as other Copyholders of the same Manors have been wont to be admitted, and to receive their Fealty, Suit or Service, according to the Custom of the Court of such Manors.

C A P. CXLIII.

An Act to direct the Application of the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, and of such further Sums as may be granted for the Benefit of the Company of Undertakers of The Grand Canal, in Ireland.

[14th July 1813.]

WHEREAS a Committee of the Honourable House of Commons, appointed to take into Consideration the Affairs of "The Grand Canal Company, and the State of Inland Navigation in Ireland," have reported the Expediency of recommending a Grant of the Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, Irish Currency, upon certain Conditions, to be applied to the Liquidation of the Debts of the said Company: And whereas in pursuance of the said Report, the Commons of the United Kingdom, in Parliament assembled, have resolved to grant to His Majesty, in the present Year, a Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, Irish Currency, to be applied, upon certain Conditions for the Benefit of the Company of Undertakers of The Grand Canal, in Ireland: May it please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That at any time after the passing of this Act, by or out of such Monies as shall at any time or times remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer of Ireland, or of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland (after paying or relieving sufficient to pay all such Sums and Sums of Money as have been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the same), there shall and may be issued, by Order of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, as he or they shall think fit, from time to time, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, to the Treasurer of the said Company of Undertakers of the Grand Canal in Ireland, to be by the said Treasurer of the said Company applied in the Liquidation of the Debts of the said Company, in such manner as the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland for the time being, or the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of them, shall direct and approve; and also subject to and under such Directions and Provisions as are contained in this Act; and the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of them for the time being, it and are hereby authorized to issue the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds Irish Currency accordingly.

II. And whereas one of the Conditions upon which the said Committee of the Honourable House of Commons recommended the Advance of the said Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, is, that the said Company should themselves advance the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds; the Whole of back the said Sums to be applied, in similar Proportions, to the Liquidation of the Debts of the said Company: Be it therefore enacted, That before any Part of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, to be issued under the Authority of this Act, in the present Year, or any further Sum of Money to be granted on account of the said Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, be recommended to be advanced as aforesaid, shall be issued or paid over to the said Company, or to their Treasurer, or any Person for their Use, the said Company shall first spend, out of any Funds, Monies or Securities, belonging to the said Company, a Sum of Money equal to one third Part of each Sum as shall from time to time be directed to be issued for the Use of the said Company;

may direct sums out of his Consolidated Fund for Benefit of Grand Canal Company.

Company shall first spend, out of their Funds, a Sum equal to one third of all Sums to be advanced to them;

Company, and the same shall be placed in the Bank of Ireland, in the Name of the Commissioners of the Treasury of Ireland, and of the Treasurer of the said Company; and the said Company shall apply such Sum of Money to fit apart, together with such Sum as shall at any time be so placed in the said Company, in the Payment or Liquidation of such Debts of the said Company, and in such manner and at such times, and in such Proportions and under such Regulations, as the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, shall, upon Representations to be made to them, on Behalf of the said Company, think fit from time to time, to order, direct and approve.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Book keeper, Accountant or other proper Officer of the said Company, shall, once in every Half Year ending the Twenty eighth Day of February and the Thirty first Day of August respectively, make out and prepare a full and complete Statement of the Accounts of the said Company, by way of Debtor and Creditor, for the Half Year ending on such Twenty eighth Day of February and Thirty first Day of August respectively, shewing the whole Receipts and Expenditure of the said Company on account of the said Canal, and the Charge on the said Company, in respect of all Interest payable on all Debts due from the said Company during such Half Year, together with all other Matters necessary to shew the true State and Condition of all the Funds, Revenues, Expenditures and Debts of the said Company; and the said Book keeper, Accountant or other proper Officer as aforesaid, shall sign his Name at the Foot of such Account, and shall make Oath to the Truth thereof before any One Magistrate for the City of Dublin (which Oath any such Magistrate is hereby empowered to administer); and the said Book keeper, Accountant or other proper Officer as aforesaid, shall Ten Days at least before the Day of each Half Yearly Meeting of the said Company next after each aforesaid Twenty eighth Day of February and Thirty first Day of August respectively, send Two written Copies of such Accounts signed by the said Book keeper, Accountant or Officer as aforesaid, and attested by the Magistrates before whom Oath shall be made of the Truth thereof as aforesaid, to be delivered, One at the Office in Dublin of the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, and the other at the Office in Dublin of the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or of the Commissioners for executing the Office of the Lord High Treasurer; and the said Book keeper, Accountant or other proper Officer as aforesaid, shall also send printed or written Copies of every such Account to be delivered among the Proprietors of the Joint Stock of the said Company, and to be ready to be delivered to all and every such Proprietors and Proprietress as may demand the same at the Office of such Book keeper, Accountant or other Officer in Dublin, at any time within Ten Days before the Day of such following Half Yearly Meeting as aforesaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Dividend or Payment of or from, or on account of or under Pretext of any Profits arising from the said Canal or otherwise, in the said Company, or to the Proprietors of the Joint Stock of the said Company, shall be made or paid, or distributed to or among the said Proprietors, or any of them, except only of and from such actual clear Profits as shall arise in any Half Year after the passing of this Act to the said Company, from the Receipt of the Tolls and Duties, and other Property vested in them by Law, after paying or providing for all Expenses of maintaining and keeping up the said Canal, and also the Interest of all Loans and Debts contracted or to be contracted by the said Company; and that all such Expenses, and all Interest of such Debt, shall be fully paid or provided for before the declaring any such Dividend by the Directors of the said Company, or the making of such Dividend by the said Company.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for the said Company, or the Directors thereof, to borrow or take up at Interest any Money, by Loan or on Debentures, upon the Credit of the said Canal, or of the Tolls payable in respect thereof, or of the Estate of the Company thereof, or on any other Security, or in any other manner whatsoever, without the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, and of the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of them for the time being, in Writing first had and obtained under his and their Hands and Seals respectively; and that any Loan made or Debentures issued without such Consent and Approbation signified as aforesaid shall be null and void; any thing in any Statute, Bye-Law or Act of Parliament, or any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

VI. And be it further enacted, That within Two Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, the Directors of the said Company shall invest or cause to be invested, in Funds transferable at the Bank of Ireland, or in other Government Securities, the full Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds Irish Currency, for the Purpose of providing for the Expenses to be incurred by any collisions or sudden Accidents which may happen to the said Canal, or any of the Works or Embankments thereof, or by any other Contingencies which may from time to time arise, in relation to the said Canal; and that wherever any Part of the said Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds Irish Currency, or of the Funds or Securities in which the same shall be invested, shall be applied in the Payment of such Expenses, the Amount of the Sum so expended shall be replaced, before any Dividend upon the Capital Stock of the said Company shall be made, in that a Permanent Fund or Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds Irish Currency may always remain applicable, and ready to be applied in the Payment of any such Expenses, as the same may from time to time arise or be incurred.

VII. And whereas the said Company of Undertakers of The Grand Canal are at present possessed of or entitled unto certain Collieries and Coal Mines, with divers Lands and Hereditaments connected therewith in the Queen's County in Ireland, whereas considerable Sums of Money have been expended; and it is expedient that the said Collieries and Coal Mines, Lands and Hereditaments, should be sold and disposed of, as soon as possible, and the Proceeds of the same applied as hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted, That all the said Collieries and Coal Mines, Lands and Hereditaments, and every of them, shall be sold and disposed of by the

the whole to be applied in Liquidation of their Debts.

An Act to amend an Act of the Parliament of Ireland of the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty, for promoting Inland Navigation in Ireland.

[14th July 1813.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds for promoting Inland Navigation in Ireland, and for the other Purposes therein mentioned, and for authorising the raising of the said Sum by Loan; it was, among other things, enacted, That the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds should be, and the same was thereby granted to and vested in His Majesty, to be applied to the general System of Inland Navigation in Ireland, and particularly to the opening a Communication between Dublin and the River Shannon, and to the rendering the said Navigation navigable from Lough Allen to the Sea, the said Sum to be raised in manner directed by the said intitled Act; and it is highly expedient for carrying into Effect the Purposes of the said Act, that so much of the said Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds as has not been appropriated or supplied to the Purposes of the said Act, and as may be sufficient for the Purpose, should be applied in purchasing the Interest of the Lancaster Navigation Company in the Navigation and Works now vested in and belonging to the said Company: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief

C. A. P. CXLV.

An Act to amend the several Acts for regulating the Distillation of Spirits in Ireland.

[20th July 1813.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to make more effectual Provisions for the regulating the Distillation of Spirits in Ireland: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever any Distiller from Corn or Grain, or from Sugar, in Ireland, owns and distils the respective Quantities of Spirits for which such Distiller is chargeable by Law, in respect of each and every Still, according to the Content thereof, and according to the Number of Charges of Singleings or Low Wines for each such Still, for any Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, shall also be charged with and shall pay the said Duty for as much more Spirits as might be produced, according to the Rates established by Law, from all Pot Ale, Wash, Low Wines or Singleings, which such Distiller shall have actually distilled within such Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the Surveyor and Gauger in Charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, or other Officer of Excise making such Charge on such Distiller, to be paid and allowed, and to receive as a Recognition for the Performance of their Duty, any such Sum, being a Proportion of such Duty for such further Quantity of Spirits charged on and paid by such Distiller, as the Commissioners of Ireland Excise and Taxes shall by and with the Consent of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, think proper to order and direct; and such Sum shall be paid to such Officers, or any of them, at such time, and in such manner, and in such Proportions, as the said Commissioners of Ireland Excise and Taxes, by and with such Consent as aforesaid, shall from time to time order, direct and approve.

relation to the full Duty on all such Spirits with which such Distiller shall be chargeable according to the Contents of the Still, and the Number of Charges of Stillings or Low Wines, by any Act or Acts in force in Ireland relating to the Duty on such Spirits: Provided nevertheless, that in case the Quantity of such Excess of Spirits be shown and declared, shall be less than the whole Quantity of such Excess of Spirits actually distilled by such Distiller, such Distiller shall be liable to and shall be charged with and shall pay the full Duty for the whole of such Excess, as if no Part of such Excess had been shown or declared.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Distiller to procure any Part of any such Excess of Spirits as aforesaid in any of His Majesty's Warehouses or Stores, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force at the time of the passing of this Act for the Warehouse of Spirits; and that all Spirits which at any time after the passing of this Act shall be found in Warehouse without Payment of Duty first, upon being taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption, be charged with and shall pay the full Excess Duty of Five Shillings and Six pence Brill Carney for every Gallon thereof; and that as Distiller or other Person who shall export any Spirits made or distilled from Corn or Grain in Ireland, which shall not have been warehoused, shall be entitled to or shall receive any Drawback whatever so the Expectation of any such Spirits, unless such Distiller or Person so exporting such Spirits shall prove to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Inland Excheq. and Taxes, upon Oath or otherwise as the said Commissioners shall direct and require, that all such Spirits so exported have actually paid the full Excess Duty of Five Shillings and Six pence for every Gallon thereof; and such Drawback on all Spirits so exported shall be paid under such other Rules and Regulations as the said Commissioners of Inland Excheq. and Taxes shall from time to time think fit to make relating thereto.

IV. And, for the better securing the Use of Malt in the making of Spirits, and the Payment of the Duty as all Malt is used, be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Officer in charge of the Distillery, of any Distiller for the distilling of Spirits from Corn or Grain malted or unmaltd shall at the End of every Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, while any Still of any such Distiller shall continue or be prepared to continue working, or shall by Law be chargeable as working, call upon such Distiller to produce and deliver, and such Distiller shall accordingly produce and deliver, or cause to be produced and delivered to such Officer, on any Day to be appointed by such Officer, after the Monday is the Fourth Week of each such Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, an Account of the Quantity of Malt actually malted or brewed by such Distiller within the Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days ending immediately before such Monday, together with Permits or Certificates for the proving of such Quantity of Malt into the Malt Kieve of such Distiller; and if upon such Account, and the Permits and Certificates delivered sheweth, it shall appear that the Quantity of Malt so actually malted or brewed by such Distiller shall be less than the Rate of One Barrel of Malt for every Eighteen Gallons of Spirits for which such Distiller shall have been charged and chargeable with the Duty within each Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, every such Distiller shall, for every Barrel of such Deficiency of Quantity of Malt, forfeit and pay the Sum of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence Brill Carney, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity than a Barrel; and if such Distiller shall refuse or neglect to produce and deliver such Accounts or such Permits or Certificates as aforesaid, or to cause the same to be produced and delivered to such Officer, such Distiller shall for every Eighteen Gallons of Spirits for which such Distiller shall have been charged and chargeable, within each Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, forfeit and pay the Sum of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence Brill Carney; One Third Part of which said several Forfeitures shall be paid and distributed to the Officer or Officers in charge of such Distillery, and the other Two Third Parts thereof shall, by the Collector to whom the same shall be paid, be placed to the Account of the Duties on Malt payable in Ireland.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in any case where the Commissioners of Excheq. may consider that the Officer ought not to receive the said One Third Part of the said Penalty of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence, a still and may be lawful for the said Commissioners either to remit such One Third Part of the said Penalty, or to direct that the whole of the said Penalty of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence shall be placed to the said Account of the Duties on Malt payable in Ireland.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if by the Accounts and Permits to be produced by such Distiller at the End of the last Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days of the whole of any time during which any Still or Stills of such Distiller shall by Law be chargeable as working, and by the Permits and Certificates to be delivered with such Accounts, as compared with the Accounts and Certificates and Permits previously delivered, it shall appear that the Quantity of Malt actually malted or used by such Distiller during the whole of the time that the Still or Stills of such Distiller have been by Law chargeable as working, shall be equal to or shall exceed the Rate or Proportion of One Barrel of Malt for every Eighteen Gallons of Spirits for which such Distiller shall have been charged and chargeable with Duty within the whole of such time of working, such Distiller shall not be liable to any such Penalty of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence, in respect of the Quantity of Spirits distilled, or the Quantity of Malt malted or brewed within each last Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days although the Quantity of Malt so malted or used within each Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days shall be less than the Rate or Proportion aforesaid; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Distiller, by whom or whose Behalf such Account shall be produced, shall, if thereto required by the Officer to whom the same shall be tendered, make Affidavit (or solemn Affirmation if a Quaker) to the Truth of such Account, before the Collector of the District; and on Default or Refusal of such Distiller so to do, such Account shall not be received by such Officer; and if any Distiller shall infer in any such Account a greater Quantity of Malt, as being malted or used or consumed by such Distiller, within the Period remitted in such Account, than such Quantity as shall appear appears to have been decreed within the said Period in the Stock Account of the Malt made or received by each Distiller, every such Distiller shall, for every Barrel of such Excess of Malt, forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings, and so in Proportion for any greater Quantity than a Barrel.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for every Distiller or Maker of Spirits from Corn or Grain, malted or unmalted, in Ireland, who is or shall be licensed to keep a Still of any Content whatsoever, to warehouse such Spirits, without Payment of Duty of Excise chargeable thereon, in any of His Majesty's Warehouses or Stores in any Port in Ireland, in which, or in the District in which such Port shall be situated, such Still shall be licensed by the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's Warehouses or Stores in any Town in Ireland at which the Office of the Collector of Excise for the Districts shall be held, and also in His Majesty's Warehouses or Stores at such other Places in Ireland as the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, by and with the Consent of the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Treasurer, shall direct and appoint: any thing in any Act or Acts in force in Ireland to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding, is like Statute, and under and subject nevertheless to such Rules and Regulations, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures, and modes of Recovery thereof, as are provided, enacted and contained in an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to provide for regulating the Warehousing Spirits distilled from Corn in Ireland, for Exportation, without Payment of the Duty of Excise chargeable thereon; and to transfer the Custody of Spirits so warehoused, from the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, and their Officers, to the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, and their Officers, upon any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland; and so immediately before the passing of this Act, with respect to the Warehousing of any Spirits, and to the Exportation of the same, or to the taking of the same out of Warehouses for Home Consumption; and that all such Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures, shall be applied and put in execution, with respect to the Warehousing of Spirits distilled from Corn or Grain, malted or unmalted, in Ireland, in Still of any Content whatever, and to the Exportation thereof, and to the taking thereof out of Warehouses for Home Consumption, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been expressly repeated and re-enacted in this Act, except so far as such Rules and Regulations are altered or amended by this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in case at any time after the Thirtieth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, shall in his or their Discretion judge it to be for the Benefit of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, to permit the Distillation without Ireland, of Spirits from Oats, Barley or any other Corn or Grain (Wheat excepted), or from Malt, Flour or Bran, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, by Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, or by Order in Council to be published from time to time in the Dublin Gazette, to permit and suffer all and every Person and Persons in Ireland (but not any particular Person or Persons), at any time or times, not less than Thirty Days from the Date of such Proclamation or Order in Council, to make Worts or Wash for Distillation, and to distill Spirits from Oats, Barley or any other Corn or Grain (Wheat excepted), or from Malt, Flour or Bran; and it shall be lawful for all and every Person and Persons, from and after the time aforesaid for that Purpose in any such Proclamation or Order in Council, to make Worts or Wash for Distillation, and to distil Spirits accordingly; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; subject nevertheless to the Regulations contained in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts in force for regulating the Distillation of Spirits in Ireland.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall take any Oath or make any Affirmation by this Act required to be taken or made, shall wilfully or knowingly swear or affirm falsely therein, every such Person, being duly convicted thereof, shall suffer the Pains and Penalties to which Persons guilty of wilful or corrupt Perjury are or shall be subject by any Law in force in Ireland; and if any Person shall corruptly procure or induce any other Person or Persons to swear or affirm falsely in any such Oath or Affirmation, every such Person, being duly convicted of such procuring or inducing, shall, for every such Offence, incur and suffer such Penalties, Forfeitures, Pains and Disabilities as Persons convicted of Subornation of Perjury are respectively liable unto by any Law in force in Ireland.

XI. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Distiller licensed under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland for the Distillation from Corn or Grain, or from Sugar, shall by any Faulty or unavoidable Accident have been prevented from distilling any Wash or Pot Ale from Corn or Grain malted or unmalted, or any Sugar Wash, within the time respectively prescribed by Law, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, on Proof made to their Satisfaction that the Faulty or Accident was unavoidable, and not owing to any Default or Negligence, to abate any Charge of Double Duty which may have been made on such Distiller, in respect of any such Wash, Pot Ale or Sugar Wash, not having been distilled within the time prescribed by Law for the distilling of such Wash, Pot Ale or Sugar Wash respectively; and also to make any proportionable Allowance to any Distiller in Consideration of any Loss by any Faulty or unavoidable Accident proved as aforesaid, by which any Wash, Pot Ale, Sugar Wash, Law Wines, Singlings or Spirits shall have been destroyed; and also to abate the Quantity of Spirits whereunto any Distiller shall be chargeable by Law in any Period of Four Weeks, in Consideration of any Faulty or unavoidable Accident proved as aforesaid, by which such Distiller shall have been prevented from working for any time within each Period of four Weeks: Provided always, that every such Abatement and Allowance be well approved by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland; and then no such Abate-

Spirits distilled in stills of any size may be warehoused, without Payment of Duty, under Order of Board of Excise, with Consent of Treasury.

An Act for the better securing the Excise Duties on Spirits in Great Britain, and for rectifying a Mistake in an Act of the last Session of Parliament for granting certain Duties on Worts or Wash made from Sugar.

[Took July 1813.]

FOR better preserving Funds which Distillers may contract by privately receiving and receiving Wash, Low Wines or Spirits, and in order that the Officers may obtain true Gauges of the same: Be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, no such Distiller or Distillers in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall, at one and the same time, have, keep or continue in any Cask by him, her or them made use of as or for a Low Wine Cask, any Low Wines or Spirits extracted from different Stills, unless such Stills shall have been charged with Wash at one and the same time, and also worked off at one and the same time, nor shall any such Distiller or Distillers have, keep or continue in any Cask by him, her or them made use of as or for a Low Wine Cask, any Low Wines or Spirits extracted from different Charges of one and the same Still; and if any such Distiller or Distillers shall at one and the same time have, keep or continue in any Cask by him, her or them made use of as or for a Low Wine Cask, any Low Wines or Spirits extracted from different Stills, unless such Stills shall have been charged with Wash at one and the same time, and also worked off at one and the same time, or shall have, keep or continue in any Cask by him, her or them made use of as or for a Low Wine Cask, any Low Wines or Spirits extracted from different Charges of one and the same Wash Still, then and in each and every such case such Distiller or Distillers is offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

II. And he it further enacted, That all and every such Distiller or Distillers shall, and he, she and they it is hereby required to provide a proper Spirit Cask sufficient to contain the whole Quantity of Spirits which shall be extracted from the Low Wines produced from each Charge of his, her or their Wash Still or Wash Stills, and shall, and he, she and they it is and are hereby required to mix and convey into such Spirit Cask immediately from the Low Wine Still or Low Wine Stills all such Spirits so extracted; and when and as soon as the whole Quantity of such Spirits extracted from the Low Wines produced from each Charge of such Wash Still or Wash Stills shall be collected in such Cask from the Low Wine Still or Low Wine Stills, the proper Officer of Excise shall take a true Gauge, and try the Strength of such Spirits, and will and compare the same at the Stem of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, and keep an exact Account thereof; and such Officer of Excise shall take such Gauge and try the Strength immediately on being required by any such Distiller or Distillers to do so, and all and every such Distiller or Distillers shall, and he, she and they it is and are hereby required to keep and maintain in such Cask all such Spirits extracted from the Low Wines produced from each Charge of such Wash Still or Wash Stills, until the proper Surveyor, Supervisor or Officer

III. And be it further enacted, That all and every such Distiller and Distillers shall, and he, she and they is and are hereby also required to provide a proper Feint Cask sufficient to contain the whole Quantity of Feints which shall be produced from each Charge of his, her or their Low Wine Still or Stills, and shall, and he, she and they is and are hereby required immediately to run and convey all the Feints which shall be produced from each Charge of his, her or their Low Wine Still or Stills directly from such Still or Stills into the said Feint Cask, and when and so long as the whole Quantity of such Feints shall be collected in such Feint Cask from such Charge of such Low Wine Still or Stills, the proper Officer of Excise shall take a new Gauge, and try the Strength of such Feints, and seal and compute the same at the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, and keep as exact Account thereof; and all and every such Distiller and Distillers shall, and he, she and they is and are hereby required to keep and continue in such Feint Cask all the Feints produced from each Charge of his, her or their Low Wine Still or Stills, until the proper Surveyor, Supervisor or Officer of Excise shall have gauged the same and ascertained the Strength thereof, and shall deliver all such Feints with and amongst the Waste of the next Charge, or next Charge but one, of his, her or their Wash Still or Wash Stills; and if any such Distiller or Distillers shall neglect or refuse to provide a proper Feint Cask sufficient to contain the whole Quantity of Feints which shall be produced from each Charge of his, her or their Low Wine Still or Stills, or shall neglect or refuse immediately to run or convey into such Feint Cask all or any Part of the Feints which shall be produced from any Charge of his, her or their Low Wine Still or Stills as aforesaid, in manner aforesaid, or shall neglect or refuse to keep or continue in such Feint Cask all or any Part of the Feints produced from any Charge of his, her or their Low Wine Still or Stills until the proper Surveyor, Supervisor or Officer of Excise shall have gauged the same and ascertained the Strength thereof, or shall neglect or refuse to deliver all or any Part of such Feints with and amongst the Waste of the next Charge, or next Charge but one, of his, her or their Wash Still or Wash Stills, then and in each and every such case the Distiller or Distillers so offending, shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all and every such Distiller and Distillers shall, and he, she and they is and are hereby required to permit the proper Officer and Officers of Excise to remove the Pump or Pumps for emptying the Spirit and Feint Casks respectively, so as to prevent such Pump or Pumps from being used in the Absence of the Officer, and also to remove the Lid or Lids of the Low Wine, Spirit and Feint Casks respectively; and the proper Officer and Officers of Excise is and are hereby authorized and empowered to use so many such Lids and Pumps respectively in such manner as to such Officer and Officers shall seem meet for the respective Purposes aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any such Distiller or Distillers or any Workman or Servant belonging to him, her or them, shall offend, offend, offend, offend or hinder any Officer or Officers of Excise in the due Execution of this Act, or of any of the Powers or Authorities hereby given or granted to each Officer or Officers, every such Distiller or Distillers shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Twenty Hundred Pounds.

VI. And whereas according to Law in the same new Acts, Distillers in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, and Berks, containing or producing any Quantity of Spirits exceeding the Proportion of Twenty one Gallons for every One hundred Gallons of Wort or Wash brewed or made from Sugar, are bound to pay Duty for all such Spirits as aforesaid according to the Proportion aforesaid, at and after the Rate of Seven Shillings and Elevenpence Halfpenny for every Gallon of such Spirit, computed at the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof: And whereas it may sometimes happen that in the Influence of the Atmosphere on the Process of Distillation for the Conversion of such Wash into Spirits a less Proportion of such Spirits may be produced, and it is therefore expedient to make such Provision as is hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, an Allowance shall be made for such Defect now and the Duty paid only on the Balance or Total of Spirits above the Deficiency of Produce to be ascertained yearly in the Month of July, or when such Distiller shall cease working: Provided always nevertheless, that nothing hereinbefore contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to any Excise or Excises of Spirit, made, distilled, extracted or produced by any Distiller or Distillers who shall be discovered to have become Bankrupt, or to be in declining or decaying circumstances in as to induce the Commissioners of Excise to deem it expedient to have recourse to the Prerogative Power of Extort or Disturbance, or to a summary Prosecution for the Recovery of the Duties due or in respect of any such Excise or Excises of Spirit as last aforesaid; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in any wife notwithstanding.

VII. And whereas by a Clause in an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, among other things, and for granting certain Duties on Worts or Wash made from Sugar during the Prohibition of Distillation from Cereals or Grain in Great Britain, it was enacted, that that Act should commence and take Effect as to all such Matters and Things therein contained, in respect whereof no special Commencement is thereby directed or provided, from and immediately after the Eighth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and should remain and continue in force during the Term that the Distillation of Spirits from Cereals or Grain should be and remain in force: And whereas it was by the said Act intended that the same should remain and continue in force during the Term that the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Cereals or Grain should be and remain in force, but proper Words for that Purpose were by Mistake left out of the said Clause, and it is therefore expedient to rectify the said Mistake: Be it therefore enacted, That the said Act shall be deemed and taken to have commenced and taken Effect as to all such Matters and Things therein contained, in respect whereof no special Commencement is thereby directed or provided, from and immediately after the Eighth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and to have been in force, and shall remain and continue in force during the Term that the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Cereals or Grain shall be and remain in force; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary in any wife notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, shall be paid for, recovered, levied or mitigated by such means, ways or methods, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture may be found for, recovered, levied or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Pleint or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and that One Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture shall be to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him, her or them who shall inform, discover or sue for the same.

An Act to provide for the more effectually preventing the illicit Distillation of Spirits in Ireland. [16th July 1813.]

WHEREAS it is necessary, in order to restrain illegal Distillations in Ireland, that the Provisions contained in several Acts of Parliament, for the imposing of Fines in respect of unlicensed stills, or Parts of Stills, or Worts, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Baglings, being used or found in any Townland in Ireland, should be revised and amended: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all and every the Clauses and Provisions relating to the imposing or keeping of any such Fine or Fines which are contained in an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend the Acts made in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for the regulating and securing the Collection of the Duty on Spirits distilled in Ireland; and in an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend the several Acts for the regulating and securing the Collection of the Duty on Spirits distilled in Ireland; and in an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend the several Acts for the regulating and securing the Collection of the Duty on Spirits distilled in Ireland; and for the regulating the Sale of such Liquors by Retail; and which Clauses and Provisions, by an Act made in the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend several Acts relating to the Revenue of Ireland and Taxes in Ireland, were repealed, shall be and the same are hereby revived, and shall be in full force, from and after the passing of this Act, except in so far as the same relate to the fixing of any Parish, Manse or Parishes, or any other District than a Townland; and except in so far as the said repealed Acts are altered or amended by this Act; and that it shall from thenceforth be lawful for the Court or Judge in any Affairs

Assize or Preferring Term for any County, County of a City or County of a Town in Ireland, or in any Preferring Term in the County, or County of the City of Dublin, for or in respect of any uncollected Still, or Part of a Still, or any Appurtenance to a Still, or any Worm, or any Utensil for distilling Spirits, or any Wash, Put Ale, Low Wines or Singlings, which at any time, after the passing of this Act, shall be used or found within any Townland in Ireland, in such Sums or Sums of Money or Pounds, as in by this Act directed to be collected for or in respect of the same respectively; under and subject nevertheless to the Regulations relating to such Fines in the last recited Acts, or any of them, and in this Act mentioned and contained; any Repel, Chafe, Manor or Thing, in the said recited Act of the Fifty second Year altered to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

My Information presented on, or before the said Justices by the said
Justice.

II. Provided always, and he it enacted, That no Information for any Offence, for the Purpose of proceeding to impose any such Fine, shall be received or proceeded upon, by or before any Justice at Peace, in any County, City, County of a City or County of a Town in Ireland, until Notice shall have been given under the Hands of the Commissioners for Insured Excise and Taxes in Ireland, or any Three of them, by Publication in the Dublin Gazette, that it has been deemed expedient by the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of them, upon the Representation of the said Commissioners for Insured Excise and Taxes, that the Provisions of the said Acts, and this Act, should be put in force within such County, County of a City or County of a Town respectively, from such time and for such Period as shall be mentioned in such Notice.

Justice of the Peace.

III. And he it further enacted, That when under and by virtue of the said recited Acts of the Forty seventh, Forty eighth and Forty ninth Years aforesaid, and of this Act, the Court at any Assize or Preferring Term, at any time after the passing of this Act, shall be required to fine any Townland, on account of any uncollected Still, or Part of a Still, or Appurtenance to a Still, or any Worm or other Utensil for distilling Spirits, or any Wash, Put Ale, Low Wines or Singlings, having been found or used in any Place within such Townland, such Court shall fine such Townland in the Sum of Twenty five Pounds only, and no more; and in case, at any assize or Preferring Term, the Court shall be required on any of the said Accounts to fine any Townland which shall have been fined in the last Term of Twenty five Pounds on any of the said Accounts, at any preceding Assize or Preferring Term, such Court shall find such Townland in such Second instance, in the Sum of Forty Pounds; and in case at any assize or Preferring Term, the Court shall be required on any of the said Accounts to fine any Townland which shall have been fined in the Sum of Forty Pounds on any of the said Accounts, at any preceding Assize or Preferring Term, such Court shall in every such Instance fine such Townland in the Sum of Sixty Pounds; and all such Fines of Twenty five Pounds, Forty Pounds and Sixty Pounds respectively, shall be levied and recovered, and disbursed, in such manner and Proportion, and by such ways and means, and under all such Rules and Regulations, as by the said recited Acts of the Forty seventh, Forty eighth and Forty ninth Years, or any of them, is directed, with respect to any Fine to be levied on any Parish, Townland, Manor or Lordship, under the said Acts or any of them; except only so far as the said Acts are altered or amended by this Act.

Peace.

IV. Provided always, and he it enacted, That whenever any Offender shall have been tried and convicted for any Offence, declared to be a Misdemeanor by any Act or Acts for the regulating or securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits made in Ireland, by the Endorse of any Inhabitant (not being an Officer of Excise) of the Townland in which the Place shall be situate where such Offence was committed, upon an Information given by such Inhabitant, before any other Information for the said Offence shall have been given to a Magistrate, the Court before whom any such Conviction shall be had at any Assize or Preferring Term shall fine such Townland on account of such Offence, in One Half of the Sums respectively heretofore mentioned; that is to say, in the Sum of Twelve Pounds Ten Shillings in the first Instance, the Sum of Twenty Pounds in a Second Instance, and the Sum of Thirty Pounds in a Third or any subsequent Instance; to be recovered and levied in like manner as is directed with respect to the other Fines heretofore mentioned; and the Whole of such levied Fine or Sums shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, to the Inhabitant who shall have given such Information, and by whose Evidence such Conviction shall have been had; and in case such Inhabitant shall state in such Information, that he is willing to give up all Right in such Place, if imposed, it shall not be lawful for such Court in such case to fine any such Townland on account of such Offence, in any Sum of Money whatever; any thing in this Act, or in any of the said recited Acts, or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

In Market Towns, Towns
Place.

V. And he it further enacted That in all cases where, under the said recited Acts and this Act, the Court at any Assize or Preferring Term shall fine any Townland being situated in Part or in the Whole within any Market Town or City in Ireland, in any Sum of Money, on account of any uncollected Still, or any Worm or other Utensil for distilling Spirits, or any Wash, Put Ale, Low Wines or Singlings having been found or used in any Place within such Townland, situate within any such Market Town or City, such Court shall direct the Treasurer of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, within which such Townland shall be situate, to issue his Warrant for keeping the Whole of such Fine or Sum of Money off the Distillery Heale or Place in which such uncollected Still, or Part of a Still, or Appurtenance to a Still, or any Worm or other Utensil for distilling Spirits, or any Wash, Put Ale, Low Wines or Singlings, were found or used, and off such Houses and Places as shall be assigned to such Distillery Heale or Place; and such Fine or Sums shall in such case be apportioned upon and raised off such Distillery Heale or Place, and such Houses or Places adjoining, exclusive of any other Part of such Townland; in such manner and according to such Rules and Regulations, as are contained in the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year aforesaid: Provided always, that if on such Apportionment or no sufficient Apportionment shall be made on such Distillery Heale or Place, and the

Peace.

Houses or Places in adjoining, each Fine shall be levied off the whole Township, as is directed by the said Act of the Forty-fourth Year, in cases where no Apportionment is made under the said recited Act.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever it shall appear upon the Trial of any Information, that any male neld Still, or Part of a Still, or Appurtenance to a Still, or any Worm or other Uir all for the distilling of Spirits, or any Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singlings, shall have been used or used in any House or Place on the Borders of any Two or more Townships, in that it cannot be ascertained within what Township such House or Place is wholly or in Part situate, it shall be lawful for the Court to fine each and every or any Township on the Border or Borders of any of which such House or Place or any Part thereof, shall be situate, in a Penalty or Fine of Twenty five Pounds, and to direct the Treasurer or Treasurers of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, in which the said Townships or any of them shall be situate, to issue his Warrant for levying the said Fine or Sum of Twenty five Pounds upon each and every such Township, to be apportioned upon and levied off each such Township, in such manner and according to such Rules and Regulations, as are mentioned and contained in the said recited Acts or any of them.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who is or shall be an Officer appointed by or acting under the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, or the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, shall be guilty of any Collusion or fraudulent Practice whatever, whereby any Township shall become liable to the Payment of any Fine under the said recited Acts and this Act, every Person so offending, shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, instead of the Penalty of Fifty Pounds for such Offence, mentioned and provided in the said recited Act of the Forty-fourth Year aforesaid, to be recovered and applied in such manner as is directed by the said recited Act, with respect to such Penalty or Sum of Fifty Pounds: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for any Person liable to pay any Grand Jury Costs in such Township, to appear at the Assize or Preferring Term at which the Fine on such Township is to be imposed in consequence of such Collusion or fraudulent Practice, or at any subsequent Assize, and there to prove the Fact of such Collusion or fraudulent Practice; and the Court at such Assize or Preferring Term, shall try, and such Court is hereby required to try the Fact or Facts so offered to be proved, in the same manner as the Traveller to any Preliminary of a Grand Jury is or ought to be tried; and if the Fact of such Collusion or fraudulent Practice shall be proved, such Court shall give Judgment for the Recovery of the said Sum of Five hundred Pounds against the Person so found guilty of the same, and shall increase the Person is guilty to the Payment of the said Sum of Five hundred Pounds to the Person so proceeding for the Recovery of the same; and it shall be lawful for the said Court to order and direct that the Person so found guilty shall be forthwith committed to the Common Goal or House of Correction of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, and there imprisoned for the Space of Twelve Months, unless such Fine or Penalty shall be sooner paid or satisfied; and such Person so found guilty shall be, and he is hereby declared and declared incapable of holding any Office or Employment whatsoever, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or any Authority derived under His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person whatever other than a Revenue Officer shall leave in, or bring into, or place in any House or Place whatsoever within any Township, any unlicensed Still or any Part of a Still, or Appurtenance to a Still, or any Worm or other Uirall for distilling of Spirits, or any Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singlings, or shall be guilty of any other Collusion or fraudulent Practice whatever, whereby any Township, or any House or Houses, or any Person or Persons in such Township, shall or may be or become liable to the Payment of any Fine or Penalty whatever, under the said recited Acts and this Act, every Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and applied in such manner as is directed by the said recited Act of the Forty-fourth Year with respect to any Penalty or Sum of Fifty Pounds under the said recited Act: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for any Person liable to pay any Grand Jury Costs in such Township to appear at the Assize or Preferring Term at which the Fine or Penalty on such Township, House or Person is to be imposed in consequence of such Collusion or fraudulent Practice, or at any subsequent Assize, and there to prove the Fact of such Collusion or fraudulent Practice, and the Court at such Assize or Preferring Term shall try, and such Court is hereby required to try the Fact or Facts so offered to be proved in the same manner as the Traveller to any Preliminary of a Grand Jury is or ought to be tried, and if the Fact of such Collusion or fraudulent Practice shall be proved, such Court shall give Judgment for the Recovery of the said Sum of Five hundred Pounds against the Person so found guilty of the same, and shall sentence the Person so guilty to the Payment of the said Sum of Five hundred Pounds to the Person so proceeding for the Recovery of the same; and it shall be lawful for the said Court to order and direct that the Person so found guilty shall be forthwith committed to the Common Goal or House of Correction of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, and there imprisoned for the Space of Twelve Calendar Months, unless such Fine or Penalty shall be sooner paid or satisfied.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Informations for any Offence, on account whereof any Township shall be liable to the Payment of any Fine under the said recited Acts and this Act, which shall be delivered to the Clerk of The Crown, according to the Directions of the said recited Act of the Forty-fourth Year, by any Justice or Justices before whom such Informations shall have been laid and given respectively, shall by such Clerk of The Crown be laid before the Court on the First Day of every Assize or Preferring Term; and all such Informations, and all Issues and Traverses concerning such Informations, and for the Recovery of such Penalties, or for the proving or disproving of the Matter or Thing relating to such Informations or Practices, shall be proceeded upon, and shall be fully tried and determined by the Court at such Assize, before any Issue in any Civil Cause or private Cause shall be proceeded upon, tried or determined, at any such Assize or Preferring Term respectively.

An Act for the further Support and Maintenance of Supendary Curates.

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, Queen Anne, entitled An Act for the better Maintenance of Curates within the Church of England, and for preventing any Ecclesiastical Person from buying the next Avoidance of any Church Parsonage; And whereas another Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for the further Support and Maintenance of Curates within the Church of England, and for making certain Regulations respecting the Appointment of such Curates, and the Admission of Persons to Cures assigned by Queen Anne's Bounty, with respect to the Avoidance of other Benefices: And whereas by a Canon or Ecclesiastical Constitution made in the Year of our Lord One thousand five hundred and three, in the Reign of His Majesty King James the First, it was provided, that no Curate should be permitted to serve in any Place without Examination and Address of the Bishop of the Diocese, or Ordinary of the Place having Episcopal Jurisdiction, in Writing under his Hand and Seal, having respect to the Greatness of the Cure and Members of the Parity; and that the said Curates and Ministers, if they remove from one Diocese to another, should not by any means be admitted to serve without Testimony of the Bishop of the Diocese, or Ordinary of the Place as aforesaid; whereas they came, in Writing, of their Honesty, Ability and Conformity to the Ecclesiastical Laws of the Church of England; and that none should serve more than One Church or Chapel upon One Day, except that Chapel be a Member of the Parish Church, or united thereto, and unless the said Church or Chapel, where such Minister should serve in Two Places be not able in the Judgment of the Bishop or Ordinary as aforesaid to maintain a Curate: And whereas the Provisions of the said Acts and Canon, and of the Laws in force with respect to Curates, have been found insufficient, and it is necessary that more effectual Provision should be made to secure a competent Maintenance to Curates, in order to insure the due and regular Performance of the Service of the Church of England in Parishes where Incumbents do not reside: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Incumbent of any Parish holding any Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, who does not or shall not duly reside therein (unless such Person shall be the Duty of the same, having a legal Exemption from Residence, or a Licence to reside out of the same, or to reside out of the Parsonage House or Vicarage House, or other usual House of Residence belonging to the same), and who shall, for the Period of Six Months after the passing of this Act, or after his Induction or Appointment, or after the Death or Removal of a former Curate, neglect to nominate a proper Curate, to be licensed by the Bishop of the Diocese or Ordinary of the Place having Episcopal Jurisdiction, to serve his Church or Chapel, or who shall, for the Period of Three Months after the Death or Relinquishment of any Curate who has served his Church or Chapel, neglect to notify to the Bishop of the Diocese such Death or Relinquishment, shall forfeit and lose all the Benefit of any Dispensation or Exemption from Residence, or Licence for Non-residence, and be subject and liable to such and the like Penalties for Non-residence as if he had so such Dispensation, Exemption from Residence, or Licence for Non-residence; and in every case in which no Curate shall be nominated to the Bishop or Ordinary for the Purpose of being licensed by him within such Period as aforesaid, the Bishop or Ordinary is hereby authorized to appoint and bestow a proper Curate, with such Salary as is by this Act allowed and directed, to serve the Church or Chapel of the Parish or Place in respect of which such Neglect or Default shall have occurred.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Bishop or Ordinary, and he is hereby required, subject to the several Provisions hereinafter contained, to appoint to every Curate so licensed, such fullness Salary as is allowed and specified in this Act; and every Instrument of Licence to be granted as aforesaid shall contain and specify the Amount of the Salary allowed by the Bishop or Ordinary to the Curate, and such Licence, or any Copy of the Registry thereof made according to the Provisions of this Act, duly proved to be a true Copy, shall be Evidence of the Amount of the Salary to be appointed to any Curate in all Courts of Law or Equity; and in case any Difference shall arise between any Rector or Vicar, or Person holding any Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, and his Curate, touching such Stipend or Allowance, or the Payment thereof, or of the Arrears thereof, the Bishop or Ordinary, on Complaint to him made, may and shall sensually hear and determine the same; and in case of usual Neglect or Refusal to pay such Stipend, Salary or Allowance, or the Arrears thereof, shall be and is hereby empowered to sequestrate the Profits of the Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, for and until Payment of such Stipend or Allowance, or the Arrears thereof; and no such Licence shall be valid, or exempt any Incumbent, or Person holding any Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, from any of the Penalties of this Act, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament, unless it shall contain and specify the Amount of the Stipend, Salary or Allowance to be paid to the Curate.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Bishop or Ordinary who shall grant any Licence to any Curate to serve any Church or Chapel, where the Rector or Vicar, or Person holding any Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, is not resident for Four Months in each Year, to allow, if he shall think fit, for the Residence of such Curate, the Parsonage or Vicarage House, or usual House of Residence of the Person holding the Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, if there shall be any such House of Residence in the Parish or Place, and the Offices and Gardens thereto belonging, or any Part or Parts thereof, during the time of such Curate's serving the Cure, or during the Non-residence of such Rector or Vicar or Person; and the Licence shall specify whether the Curate is required to reside within the Parish or Place

Incumbent of any Parish holding any Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry.

Penalty.

Bishop to appoint Curate to every parish where the Incumbent does not reside.

Curate may be allowed to reside in the Parsonage House or usual House of Residence of the Incumbent.

Place or not; and if the Curate is permitted by the Bishop or Ordinary granting the Licence to reside out of the Parish or Place, the Ground upon which the Curate is so permitted to reside out of the Parish or Place, shall be specified in the said Licence; and the Offence of such Curate from any Church or Chapel which he shall be licensed to serve shall not exceed Five Statute Miles, except in cases of Necessity to be approved by the Bishop or Ordinary, and specified in the Licence.

IV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Bishop or Ordinary shall have Power at any time, upon Three Months Notice, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, to direct the said Curate to deliver up the said Parsonage or Vicarage House or usual House of Residence, and the Offices and Gardens thereto belonging, or any of them; and the said Curate shall peaceably deliver up the Possession of the said Premises allotted to him; and in case he shall refuse to do so, he shall forfeit or lose to the Rector or Vicar, all such Parts of his Stipend as shall then be unpaid or shall thereafter become due, and also the Sum of Fifty Pounds to each Rector or Vicar, and which shall be recoverable in an Action of Debt.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Rector or Vicar, or other Person holding any Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, in any case in which the Parsonage or Vicarage or usual House of Residence of the Person holding any Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, shall have been assigned to the Curate as a Residence, to dispose of such Curate, or take possession thereof, without and against the Permission of the Bishop or Ordinary shall have given in Writing for that Purpose; and it shall be lawful for the Bishop or Ordinary assigning any such House or Residence to any Curate, to require the Profits of the Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry to which the House shall belong, in any case in which Possession shall not be given up to the Curate, pursuant to any such Assignment of Benefice, and until such Possession shall be given: Provided also, that if any such Curate shall refuse to give up Possession of any such House, upon the Order of the Bishop or Ordinary for that Purpose, it shall be lawful for the Rector, Vicar or Person holding the Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, to which any such House shall belong, to apply to any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate of the County, Riding, Precinct, City or Place, for a Warrant, for the taking Possession thereof; and the Justice of the Peace to whom any such Order of the Bishop or Ordinary for such Possession is produced shall and he is hereby required thereupon to give a Warrant for such Possession, and Possession may thereupon be taken of such House under such Warrant at any time in the Day time, by entering the same by Force if necessary without any other Proceeding, by Ejectment or otherwise; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament or Law or Laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Bishop or Ordinary who shall grant or revoke any Licence to any Curate under this Act shall and he is hereby required to cause a Copy of such Licence or Revocation to be entered in the Registry of the Diocese within which the Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, in respect whereof any such Licence shall be granted or Revocation made shall be locally situate, and an Alphabetical List of such Licences and Revocations shall be made out by the Registrar of each Diocese, and entered in a Book, and kept for the Inspection of all Persons, except as hereinafter excepted; and a Copy of every such Licence and Revocation, with respect to any Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, shall be transmitted by the said Registrar to the Churchwardens or Chapelwardens of the Parish, Township or Place to which the same relate, within One Month after the Grant of such Licence or Revocation thereof, to be by them deposited in the Parish Chest, except as hereinafter excepted; and every Registrar who shall refuse or neglect or omit to make any such Entry, or to transmit any such Copy, shall forfeit for every such Offence or Neglect the Sum of Five Pounds, to be recovered as any Penalty or Forfeiture may be recovered under the said recited Acts: Provided always, that such Registrar shall for every such Copy to be transmitted to such Churchwardens or Chapelwardens as aforesaid be entitled to a Fee of Ten Shillings and no more, and that such Fee shall be allowed in the Accounts of such Churchwardens or Chapelwardens, and no other Fee shall be taken by such Registrar in respect of the Execution of this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in every case in which any Person shall be nominated or selected to any Benefice, or nominated or appointed to any Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, after the passing of this Act, and shall not duly reside thereon, unless such Person shall do the Duty of the same, having a legal Exemption from Residence, or a Licence to reside out of the same, or to reside out of the Parsonage or Vicarage or other usual House of Residence belonging to the same, the Bishop or Ordinary shall appoint for the Curate licensed to serve such Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry of such Non-resident Incumbent or Person as aforesaid in his Absence, such Salary, according to the Grade Annual Value of the Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, as is hereinafter next mentioned; that is to say, such Salary shall in no case be less than Eighty Pounds per Annum, or than the said Annual Value of the Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, if the said Value shall not amount to Eighty Pounds per Annum; and such Salary shall not be less than One hundred Pounds per Annum, or than the whole Value as aforesaid, if the said Value shall not amount to One hundred Pounds per Annum, in any Parish or Place where the Population, according to the Returns then last made in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament, shall amount to or exceed Three hundred Persons; and such Salary shall not be less than One hundred and twenty Pounds per Annum, or the whole Value as aforesaid, if the said Value shall not amount to One hundred and twenty Pounds per Annum in any Parish or Place where the Population shall appear as aforesaid to amount to or exceed Five hundred Persons; and such Salary shall not be less than One hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum, or than the whole Value as aforesaid, if the said Value shall not amount to One hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum in any Parish or Place where the Population shall appear as aforesaid to amount to or exceed One thousand Persons: Provided always, that the annual Value of all Benefices, Donatives, Perpetual Curacies or Parochial Chapelries, of which the said Value, aforesaid as is herein provided, does not amount to One hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum, shall be estimated from the Revenue made by the Bishops of the several Dioceses to the Government of Queen Anne's Bounty, in pursuance of an Address of the House of Lords, or from any future Revenue which may be made by the said Bishops to the said Government, respecting Parishes or Places omitted in the said Returns, or respecting Parishes or Places in the usual Income of which it shall be made appear to the said Bishops that any considerable Variance has taken place, either by Augmentations made by the said Government or otherwise.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in every case in which such Bishop or Ordinary shall appear for such Curate a Salary equal to the whole annual Value of such Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, such Salary shall be subject to all such and the like Charges and Outgoings as may legally affect the Value of such Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, and to any Loss or Diminution which may befall such Value without the wilful Default or Neglect of such Incumbent.

IX. Provided always, That in every case when the Bishop or Ordinary shall find it necessary or expedient, for the obtaining any proper Performance of Duties Ecclesiastical, to remove the Incumbent or Perpetual Curate of any Parish or Place to serve as Curate of any adjoining or other Parish or Place, it shall be lawful for such Bishop or Ordinary to appoint for such Incumbent or Perpetual Curate to succeed, a Salary less by a Sum not exceeding Thirty Pounds per Annum than the Salary which as the several cases herebefore mentioned the Bishop or Ordinary is respectively required by this Act to appoint; and in every case where the Bishop or Ordinary shall find it necessary or expedient as aforesaid to remove one and the same Person to serve as Curate for Two adjoining or other Parishes or Places, it shall be lawful for such Bishop or Ordinary to direct that during such time as such Curate shall serve such Two Churches or Chapels, the Salary to be received by him for serving each of the said Churches or Chapels shall be less by a Sum not exceeding Thirty Pounds per Annum than the Salary which in the several cases herebefore mentioned the Bishop or Ordinary is required by this Act to appoint: Provided always, that no such Salary shall in any case be less than Fifty Pounds per Annum, or than the whole Value of the said Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, which such Incumbent, Perpetual Curate or Curate, shall be licensed to leave if the said Value shall not amount to Fifty Pounds per Annum: Provided always, that no Incumbent, Perpetual Curate or Curate shall be licensed to leave as Curate in any Church or Chapel which is distant more than Five Statute Miles from any Church or Chapel already served by such Incumbent, Perpetual Curate or Curate, except in cases of Necessity to be approved by the Bishop or Ordinary, and specified in the Licence.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in every case in which it shall be made out to the Satisfaction of the Bishop or Ordinary of any Diocese, that any Incumbent or Person holding any Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, is or has become non-resident or incapable of performing the Duties charged from Age, Sickness or other unavoidable Cause, and that from these or from any other special and peculiar circumstances of the case great Hardship and Inconvenience would arise if the full Amount of Salary specified in this Act should be allowed to the Curate, then, and in such case, it shall be lawful for such Bishop or Ordinary to assign to the Curate any such Salary, less than the full Amount, as shall, under all the circumstances, appear to him just and reasonable: Provided always, that in the Licence granted in every such case it shall be stated that for special Reasons the Bishop or Ordinary hath not thought proper to assign to the Curate the full Amount of Salary allowed or required to be assigned by this Act: Provided also, that such special Reasons shall be entered fully and at large in a separate Book, to be kept for that Purpose, and to be deposited in the Registry of the Diocese, which Book shall not be open to Inspection unless with the Leave of the Bishop or Ordinary, or by other proper Authority.

XI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Bishop or Ordinary, upon the Application of any Rector, Vicar or Person holding any Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, the whole Profit or Income of which shall have been allotted to the Curate, to allow such Rector, Vicar or other Person, to deduct and retain therefrom in any or each Year so much Money, not exceeding in any case One fourth Part of such Profit or Income or of the Salary allotted to the Curate, as shall have been actually laid out and expended during the Year, in the Repair of the Parsonage, Vicarage or other House of Residence, in respect of which such Rector, Vicar or Person aforesaid, or his Executors, Administrators or Assigns, would be liable for Disbursements in the Execution; and it shall also be lawful for the Bishop or Ordinary in like manner to allow any Rector, Vicar or other Person aforesaid, having or holding any Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, the Profits or Income of which shall not exceed One hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum, to deduct and retain from the Salary allotted to the Curate, in such or any Year, so much Money as shall have been actually laid out and expended in such Repairs as aforesaid, over and above the Amount of the Sums remaining of such Profits or Income, after Payment of the Salary allotted to the Curate, so as that the Sum so deducted, after laying out such Sums shall not in any Year exceed One fourth Part of the Salary allotted to the Curate.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in every case when the Bishop or Ordinary shall appoint, for the Curate licensed to serve any Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, a Salary not less than the whole gross annual Value of the same, and shall, in addition to such Salary, direct that such Curate shall reside in the Parsonage or Vicarage House, or usual House of Residence of the Person holding such Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, such Curate shall be liable, during his serving such Cure, to the said Taxes and Parochial Taxes in respect of such House, and the Appendages thereof, of which he may be in Occupation, as if he had been resident or lodged in the said Benefice, or nominated or appointed to the said Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry.

XIII. Pro-

Where Curate's Salary is of Value of Benefice, it shall be liable to Charges affecting it. New Salary allotted where Curate is permitted to serve in an adjoining Parish.

Provided.

Provided.

Bishop to allow Rector, &c. to deduct from Curate's salary the Repairs to his several Houses in certain cases.

Curate to pay Taxes of Parsonage House in certain cases.

XIII. Provided always, And be it further enacted, That in any Parish or Place where it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Bishop, that the actual annual Income of such Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, less of all Doubtful Credits, exceeds the Sum of Four hundred Pounds per Annum, it shall be lawful for the Bishop to assign to the Cure of such Parish or Place, being resident within the said Fee, and serving as such Cure, a Salary or Allowance of One hundred Pounds per Annum, notwithstanding the Population of such Parish or Place may not appear to amount to amount to Three hundred Persons; and that in any Parish or Place where the actual annual Income shall appear as aforesaid, and where the Population shall also appear as aforesaid to amount to or exceed Five hundred Persons, it shall be lawful for the Bishop to assign to the Cure of such Parish or Place, being resident within the same, and serving as such Cure, one larger Stipend or Allowance, so that the same shall not exceed by more than Fifty Pounds per Annum, the Amount of the Stipend or Allowance heretofore respectively assigned to such Cure.

XIV. Provided always, And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall authorize or empower any Bishop or Ordinary to assign to any Cure, of any Parish holding any Benefice, Donative or Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, but in the paying of any Act, upon any such Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, held by such Person within the paying of this Act, and on which such Person is or shall be bound to pay for License or Forfeiture, or to the Cure of any Parish holding, as he or she is, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, who shall duly reside thereupon, or who shall himself do the Duty of the Cure, either a legal Dispensation from Residence or a License to reside out of the Cure, or to reside out of the Parishes of any City, Hamlet or other small House of Residence belonging to the Cure, and no greater Dispensation or Allowance for the Cure who shall be bound to serve such Cure, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, than is allowed by the Statutes in force before the passing of this Act, and with the Qualities to the Person holding such Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel.

XV. And be it further enacted, That all Agreements and Contracts made or to be made between Persons holding Benefices, Donatives, Perpetual Curacies or Parochial Chapels, and their Curates in Fee or Donative of the Possession of this Act, or of the said Act of the Thirty first Year of His present Majesty's Kings, and all Agreements and Contracts whereby any Cure shall moderate, or in any manner bind his self to accept or by contract with any Stipend or Salary less than that which shall be allowed to be allowed to any License of such Curate, shall be void to all Intents and Purposes in the Law whatsoever, and shall not be set up, pleaded or given in Evidence in any Court of Law or Equity, and notwithstanding the Payment and Acceptance, in pursuance of any such Contract or Agreement, of any Sum less than the Sum specified in the License of such Curate, or any Receipt, Discharge or Acquittance, that may be given in satisfaction of such Payment and Acceptance, the Curate or his personal Representatives, shall be and remain entitled to the full Amount of what shall remain unpaid shall, together with Treble Costs of recovering the same, be recovered by the Bishop or Ordinary by Sequestration of the Profits of the Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel; provided that no Sequestration shall, by virtue of this Act, affect the Profits of any Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, beyond the time during which the Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, shall be held by the Person liable to make the Payments in respect of which such Profits shall be sequestrated.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That no License or Licenses shall, after the passing of this Act, be granted, except in the case herein mentioned, to any Curate, to serve more than Two Churches on One Day, or Two Churches, or One Church and One Chapel, in One Day; and every License granted to any Curate for any greater Number of Churches or Chapels shall be wholly void and of no Effect, both as to the Curate to whom the same shall be granted, and as to the Incumbent or Person to whom the Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Chapel shall belong: Provided always, that where it shall appear to the Bishop or Ordinary, of any Diocese, in any case in which a Curate shall before the passing of this Act have served more than Two Churches or Chapels, or in which, from the nature of the Circumstances or the local Situation of the Churches or Chapels, and the Value of the Benefices, Donatives, Perpetual Curacies or Parochial Chapels to which they belong, and in which the Provision of this Act cannot be enforced as to the assigning of Curates until the Death or Removal of the Persons holding such Benefices, Donatives, Perpetual Curacies or Parochial Chapels, that the granting Licenses to any Curate to serve Three Churches or Chapels not being distant from each other more than Four measured Miles, is necessary to the obtaining any proper Maintenance of Ecclesiastical Duties in any Parish or Place, it shall be lawful for the Bishop in such cases to grant Licenses to any Curate to serve Three such Churches or Chapels: Provided always, that in every such case the Reasons for granting such Licenses shall be stated by the Bishop in each of such Licenses, and such Licenses shall not be void or effectual until the Reasons for granting the same are informed therein as aforesaid: And provided also, that the Residence of such Curate shall be so placed, that it shall not be necessary for him to travel more than Fifteen Miles in One Day for the Performance of the Duties to be performed at such last Churches or Chapels.

XVII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if any Incumbent of Two or more Benefices, Donatives, Perpetual Curacies or Parochial Chapels, or Parochial Chapels, residing in loco in the different Portions of each and every Year, upon the same subject, shall employ a Curate from time to time upon such of the same as one which he shall be absent during his own actual Residence upon the other thereof, the Stipend or Salary to be assigned to such Curate shall not exceed a due Proportion of an Annual Salary calculated according to the Provisions of this Act, the Bishop having regard to the Circumstances of the Cure, and to the Proportions tion of the Year during which such Curate shall have done or shall be engaged to do the Duty of such Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry respectively.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person holding any Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, who shall apply to the Bishop or Ordinary of the Diocese for any Licence for Non-residence, shall file in his Application what Salary he proposes to give to his Curate, and whether the Curate proposes to reside or not to reside in the Parish, and if resident, whether in the Parsonage House, and if not resident in the Parish at whose Distance therefrom, and at what Place, and whether such Curate serves any other Parish as Curate or Incumbent, or has any other Ecclesiastical Prebend, or holds any Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, or officiates in any other Church or Chapel, and shall also state the gross Value of the Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, in respect of which he applies for a Licence not to reside, and it shall not be lawful for the Bishop or Ordinary to grant any such Licence, unless the Application shall contain a Statement of the several Particulars aforesaid; and all such Applications and Specifications shall be kept and filed by the Registrar of the Diocese in a separate Book, and preserved from public Inspection, and disclosed only in like manner and in such cases as is before directed as to the Copies of Licences wherein the full Salary allowed or required by this Act is not granted to Curates.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every Bishop or Ordinary to whom any Application shall be made for any Licence, for a Curate to serve for any Person excepting by Law from Residence in his Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, shall, before he shall grant such Licence, require of the Person for whom such Curate is to serve, a Statement of all the Particulars by this Act required so he stated by any Person applying for a Licence for Non-residence as aforesaid; and it shall not be lawful for any Bishop or Ordinary to grant a Licence to any Curate to leave the Church or Chapel of any Person except from Residence, until a Statement of all such Particulars as aforesaid shall have been delivered to him, and such Statement shall be kept and filed, and preserved from public Inspection, and disclosed only in like manner and in such cases as is before directed, as to Statements of Person applying for Licences for Non-residence.

XX. And be it enacted, That this Act and the several Provisions therein contained shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to all Benefices, Donatives, Perpetual Curacies and Parochial Chapelry, except as well as out except, and to all Peculiars; and it shall moreover be lawful for the Churchwardens or Chapelwardens of any Parish or Chapelry which shall be exempt or subject to any peculiar Jurisdiction, from time to time to make Complaint to the Bishop or whole Diocese such Parish or Chapelry shall be locally situate, of Non-residence of the Incumbent and the Want of due Provision for the Cure, and, Proof being made of the Fact in such manner as the Bishop or Ordinary shall direct, to the Satisfaction of the Bishop or Ordinary, who is hereby empowered to administer an Oath, if he shall think fit to require Proof upon Oath (and which Oath any Justice of the Peace shall also have power to administer), it shall be lawful for the said Bishop or Ordinary to proceed to the Augmentation of the Curate's Salary, or Appointment of a Curate, under the Provisions of this Act.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That where any Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, shall be locally situate within the Limits of more than one Province or Diocese, or between the Limits of Two or more Dioceses, or any of them, the Archbishop or Bishop to the Cathedral Church of whose Province or Diocese the Parish Church thereof shall be seated in local Situation, shall have, use and exercise all the Authorities and Powers which such Archbishop or Bishop could or would have used or exercised if the said Benefice, Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry had been locally situate within his Province or Diocese; provided that the Peculiars belonging to any Archbishop or Bishop, though locally situate in another Diocese, shall continue subject to such Archbishop or Bishop to whom they belong, as well for the Purposes of this Act as for all other Purposes of Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction in the Law whatsoever.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That no Commissions issued by any Bishop or Ordinary to any Consistory or Commissaries appointed to administer the Oaths required to be taken by any Curate for the Purpose of any Licence, shall be subject to any Stamp Duty; any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Archbishop and Bishop, lawfully and without formal Process or Suit, to use and exert in all and every the Powers and Authorities, and to do all and every the Acts, Matters and Things which such Archbishop or Bishop can use, exercise or do, under or by virtue of the Provisions of this Act.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed or taken to vary, prejudice, alter or affect, otherwise than is expressly provided, any Power, Right or Authority already vested in any Bishop, touching Curates or their Salaries, under or by virtue of any Statute, Canon, Usage or otherwise lawfully.

XXV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or alter the Provisions contained in any Act of Parliament, or any other Provision of Law for the due Celebration of Divine Service in any Church or Chapel; or for the Discharge of any other Duty of any Rector or Vicar, or Person holding any Donative, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, by himself or his Curate.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland.

An Act for the more speedy and effectual Examination and Audit of the Accounts of Military Expenditure in Spain and Portugal; for removing Delays in passing the Public Accounts; and for making New Arrangements for conducting the Business of the Audit Office.

• WHEREAS it is expedient that Provision should be made for the more effectual Examination in Spain and Portugal of the Accounts of Public Expenditure in those Kingdoms; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by Warrant or Commission under His Royal Sign Manual, to nominate and appoint One of the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, to be Auditor General of Accounts of the Public Expenditure in Spain and Portugal, which already has been or may hereafter be incurred; who shall, upon receiving such Appointment, proceed forthwith to such Place in either of those Countries, as he may think fit, and shall execute that Office there during the Pleasure of His Majesty, under the Direction and Control of the Commissioners of the Treasury; and such Auditor General shall have Authority to require all such Persons in Spain and Portugal as shall have received any Sum or Sums of Public Money by way of Imprest, or in any other manner, or any Public Sums for which they shall be accountable, to render an Account of the same to him, attested upon Oath, within a time to be by him limited, and to exhibit to him all such Books, Certificates, Warrants, Documents, Receipts and other Papers whatsoever, in the Possession or Power of such Persons, as shall appear to be necessary for the Examination of the Accounts of such Public Expenditure as aforesaid; and the said Auditor General so to be appointed shall have Authority to examine upon Oath (which Oath he is hereby authorized to administer) all Accountants and all other Persons whom he shall think fit to examine touching the Receipt and Expenditure of Public Money or Sums in Spain and Portugal, and touching all other Matters and Things necessary for the due Execution of the Powers to be vested in him by virtue of his Appointment, and of this Act.

Auditor General of Accounts of Public Expenditure in Spain and Portugal appointed.

Oath.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of the Treasury may grant to the said Auditor General such Salary or Allowance as he shall deem by them to be a reasonable Remuneration for the Service to be performed by him, so long as he shall continue to hold the said Office of Auditor General.

Treasury to grant Salary.

• III. And whereas it may be necessary or expedient that the Accounts which shall have been examined by such Auditor General, or that any Accounts of Public Expenditure which have been or hereafter may be examined by any Commissioners of Accounts, Public Boards, Officers or other Persons duly authorized to examine such Accounts, should in all cases be again examined by the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Audit, in making up and settling Public Accounts which have previously undergone such Examination as aforesaid, whether the same Accounts, according to the Course of their Proceedings, are stated to the Commissioners of the Treasury for Consideration, or prepared for Declaration in the first Instance, to allow or disallow without further Investigation, if the said Commissioners for auditing Public Accounts shall think proper, all Articles which shall have been allowed or disallowed upon such previous Examination.

Accounts not audited by Auditor General, &c. need not be examined by Commissioners of Public Accounts.

• IV. And whereas great Delay and Inconvenience with respect to the making up and passing of the Public Accounts have been experienced by reason of certain Provisions of the Law which require that the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts should not give Allowance of any Article without a written Voucher or other Evidence of actual Payment: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, notwithstanding any Law or Usage to the contrary, to allow One or more Articles of Discharge in any Public Account without the Production of any written Voucher or other Evidence of Payment, provided that the Articles so allowed be pointed out to the Attention of the Commissioners of the Treasury by a Note or Memorandum on the State of the Account, or by a Representation thereof in the case of Accounts prepared by the Commissioners of Audit for Declaration without being previously stated, to the end that the Commissioners of the Treasury may require such Explanation of the Articles so allowed as they shall deem to be necessary, and shall have full Opportunity of considering the Propriety of all such Allowances, and of confirming or refusing the same at their Pleasure: Provided always, that in every case in which such Articles allowed in any One Account shall exceed in the whole the Sum of One thousand Pounds, the said Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being shall, in a Minute of the Treasury, and also in the Warrant for preparing the Account for Declaration in all cases in which the Account shall have been stated to them by the Commissioners of Audit, specifically direct the Allowance of the said Articles, and if they shall deem it necessary, state their Reasons for allowing the same.

Commissioners of Public Accounts may allow Articles of Discharge without written Voucher, on stating facts to Treasury.

• V. And whereas considerable Delay and Inconvenience have been experienced in the passing of divers Public Accounts from the Want of a discretionary Power to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts to dispense in certain cases with the Production of Stamped Receipts: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, in the Examination of any Public Accounts, to admit and allow, in cases where it shall appear to them to be reasonable and expedient for the Public Service, of Receipts and Vouchers for any Money expended therein, although such Receipts and Vouchers should not have been stamped according to Law.

Accounts passed although Receipts have not proper Stamp.

• VI And

* VI. And whereas in consequence of the Claims which have already taken place, or may hereafter take place in the Number of the Commissioners for settling the Public Accounts by Death or by the Appointment of one of them to be such Auditor General as afore said, by virtue of this Act, it is expedient that some new Arrangement should be made for enrolling the Benefits of the Audit Office: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, from time to time by Warrant under their Hands to direct such new Arrangements respecting the Conduct of the Benefits in the Audit Office, and to constitute and appoint such One or more Board or Boards of the said Commissioners of Audit, and to assign to such Board or Boards respectively the Exercise of such Duties with respect to the Conduct of the Benefits of the Office, and the Supervisance and Control to be exercised over the Officers, Clerks and other Persons employed there, as to the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall seem to be expedient.

An Act for regulating the Office of Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, and High Court of Appeals for Prizes.

* WHEREAS it is expedient to make Provisions for securing the Monies of Prizes in Prize Cases depending in the High Court of Admiralty, and the High Court of Appeals for Prizes: May it please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty and of the High Court of Appeals for Prizes, his Deputy or Deputies, do, within a Three Month, after the Commencement of this Act, make out and deliver, daily continued, to the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and to the Lords Commissioners of Appeals for Prizes, true and perfect Schedules of all Monies, Exchequer Bills, Stocks, and other Securities, belonging to any of the Statutes of the said Courts, in Prize Cases, Cash or in Power, specifying the Name of the Case, Proceeding or Matter, in or on account of which such Monies have been paid, or such Exchequer Bills, Stocks and other Securities, have been purchased or transferred, and do, within One Month after the Delivery of such Schedules, pay, deliver and transfer the whole of such Monies, Exchequer Bills, Stocks and Securities, to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to an Account to be referred to the Books of the said Governor and Company, and to be settled, "The Account of the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty and High Court of Appeals for Prizes," referring the Name of such Registrar for the time being; and all such Monies, Exchequer Bills, Stocks, and Securities, so to be paid, delivered and transferred as aforesaid, shall be placed to the like Account; and at the time of such Payment, Delivery and Transfer, the said Registrar or his Deputy shall receive from the Bank a Certificate of the Transfer of such Stock, and a Receipt for such Monies, Exchequer Bills and Securities, and forthwith file such Certificate and Receipt in the High Court of Admiralty, and High Court of Appeals for Prizes.

II. And be it further enacted, That when any Money shall be paid into the High Court of Admiralty, or High Court of Appeals for Prizes, on account of any Prize Suit depending therein, the Registrar of such Courts, or his Deputy, shall forthwith pay the same into the Bank to such Account as aforesaid, and shall take a Certificate from one of the Clerks of the Bank of his paying the same, which Certificate shall be filed in the High Court of Admiralty, or High Court of Appeals for Prizes, as the case may be.

III. And be it further enacted, That if the total Amount of the Sums so delivered to be retained by the Registrar shall at any time exceed the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds, the said Registrar or his Deputy shall, within One Week after such Exceeding, lay before the Judge of the said High Court of Admiralty, who shall thereupon order a Part of the Monies so retained, as to him shall seem expedient, to be lodged in the Bank, to be in order to reduce the Amount in the Registry to the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds.

IV. And be it further enacted, That when any Money shall be received by the High Court of Admiralty, or the High Court of Appeals for Prizes, by or on behalf of the Government Securities, the Sums of the particular Securities in which the same shall be invested, shall be entered in the Order; and the said Registrar or his Deputy shall forthwith invest the same accordingly; and in case any Part thereof shall consist of Exchequer Bills, Exchequer Bills, Tallies or Orders, the same shall be delivered to the Bank, and placed to such Account of the Registrar, as before aforesaid; and if any of such Securities shall consist of Government Stocks or Annuities, the same shall be transferred to the said Registrar or his Deputy, who shall make a Declaration of Trust in the Books of the Bank, that the same is subject to the Order of the said High Court of Admiralty, or High Court of Appeals for Prizes; and shall take a Certificate thereof from the proper Officer at the Bank, and likewise enter the same in his Book at the Bank, that the Bank may, from the Dividends thereupon; and the said Registrar shall from time to time make a Report of all such Securities in the said Court of Admiralty, or Court of Appeals for Prizes, by signing the Date and Numbers of such Bonds, Tallies and Orders, and Quantities of Stock, and of the several in Treasury of such Stock as have, of which a clear and proper Entry shall be kept in such manner as the Judge of the said Court of Admiralty shall direct.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after such Payment, Delivery and Transfer, the Bank shall receive all Interest on such Exchequer Bills and other Securities, as likewise the Dividends of all such Stocks in the Company's Books transferred to the said Account; and the said Re-

gildar shall, for that Purpose, by a proper Authority in Writing, empower one of the Cashiers of the Bank to receive the same, and from time to time such Interest of Money and Dividends on Stock shall be placed to the said Registrar's Credit in the said Account.

VI. And he it further enacted, That when any Securities deposited or to be deposited at the Bank shall be directed by Order of the Court to be delivered out, an Order or Decree shall be made, under the Direction of the Court, of the Securities to be delivered out, together with the Number, Date and Sum, and the Name of the Case or Matter wherein the same are to be delivered out; which Order or Decree shall be signed by the said Registrar or his Deputy, and pass under the great Seal of the Court in which the Cause is depending, and the same shall be a proper Authority to the Bank to deliver over such Securities, and enter the Delivery thereof in the Registrar's Accounts.

VII. And he it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Stock in any of the Company's Books shall be ordered to be transferred to any of the Officers of the said Court of Admiralty, or Court of Appeals for Prize, the Probator shall convey into his Hand to the Registrar or his Deputy, what Stock he is by such Order to transfer, and to whom; which Certificate the said Probator concerned shall carry to the Registrar, who shall by himself or Deputy, within One Week, or at the next opening of the respective Company's Books, attend and deliver such Certificate to the proper Officer of such Company, and transfer such Stock, or give full power Authority to some other Person he to do.

VIII. And he it further enacted, That such Certificate shall be an Authority to the respective Companies to permit the said Registrar, or other Person by him lawfully authorized, to transfer such Stocks; of which Transfer the said Registrar or his Deputy is to make his Report, and file the same in the proper Court; and the Transfer of such Stock shall be certified by the Registrar or his Deputy, to the Bank, in order that such Stock may be discharged out of the Account of the said Registrar in his Book there.

IX. And he it further enacted, That when any Money belonging to the Debtors of either of the said Courts, received by the Bank pursuant to the Directions of this Act, shall be directed to be paid by Order of either of the said Courts, the Probator concerned shall certify under his Hand to the said Registrar or his Deputy, what Sum he is by such Order to pay, and to whom; and on the same being first, the said Registrar or his Deputy shall, by Note under his Hand, draw on the Bank for so much Money as shall be directed to be paid, upon Cheque Paper, fairly written and signed by the Registrar or his Deputy, which Note shall be sufficient Authority to the Bank to pay such Money to the Person or Persons mentioned in such Note, or to such Person as he, the Probator, by Indorsement, shall order to receive the same, as likewise to write off the same from such Registrar's Account: And, for the better and more effectually carrying this Act into Execution, the Judge, for the time being of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Lords Commissioners of Appeals for Prizes, are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to make all such further Orders and Regulations in Writing, to be signed by them, as they shall deem necessary and proper for effectuating all or any of the Purposes hereinbefore especially provided always, that when any such Orders shall be made, such Registrar shall make a true Copy thereof, signed by him, to be transmitted to the Governor and Deputy Governor of the Bank of England, who, after receiving such Orders, shall cause the same to be entered in the same manner as if such Orders had originally formed a Part of or been contained in this Act.

X. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Money or Securities for Marine, payable to be paid into the High Court of Admiralty of England, or the Instance Jurisdiction thereof.

XI. Provided also, That the Regulations of this Act shall not extend nor be construed to extend to any Sum not exceeding Two hundred Pounds, paid or to be paid into either of the aforesaid Courts of Admiralty or Appeals in any Prize Suit; but all such Sums shall be allowed to remain in the Hands of the said Registrar or his Deputy, as well as the current Balances of the said Offices; provided the whole Amount of such Sums do not exceed Ten thousand Pounds.

XII. And he it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the Period of Three Months after the Commencement of this Act, forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or wilfully sell or deliver or to be forged or counterfeited, the Name or Hand of the said Registrar for the time being on the High Court of Admiralty or High Court of Appeals for Prizes, or any of the Cashiers of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to any Certificate, Entry, Indorsement, Declaration of Truth, Note, Direction, Authority, Indorsement or Writing whatever, for or in order to the receiving or obtaining any of the Money or Effects of any of the Officers of the said Courts, or either of them, or shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or wilfully sell or deliver or to be forged or counterfeited, any Certificate, Entry, Indorsement, Declaration of Truth, Note, Direction, Authority, Indorsement or Writing, made by such Registrar or his Deputy, or any of the Cashiers of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or shall utter or publish any Book, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, with Intention to defraud any Person whatsoever, then every such Person and Persons so offending (being the said wilfully concerned) shall be and is hereby declared and adjudged to be guilty of Felony.

XIII. Provided always, and he it enacted, That none of the Provisions or Regulations of this Act shall commence or take Effect until after the Expiration of the Term it was referred to the proper Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, and the High Court of Appeals for Prizes; any thing therein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

An Act to enable His Majesty to grant additional Annuities to the Judges of the Courts in Westminster Hall, on their Resignation of their Offices. [10th July 1813.]

39 G. 3. c. 128.

‘Most Gracious Sovereign,’
‘WHEREAS an Act passed in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the Augmentation of the Salaries of the Judges of the Courts in Westminster Hall, and also of the Lords of Session, Lords Commissioners of Justiciary and Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, and for enabling His Majesty to grant Annuities to Persons in certain Offices in the said Courts of Westminster Hall on their Resignation of their respective Offices; And whereas it is expedient that further Provision should be made for such Persons as have held the Offices of Chief Justice of the Court of King’s Bench, of Master of the Rolls, of Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, and the Chief Baron of the Exchequer, and the Justices of the Court of King’s Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Exchequer respectively, in the Event of their quitting the said Offices:’ We, your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to give and grant unto any Person who may or shall have executed the Office of Chief Justice of the Court of King’s Bench, Master of the Rolls, Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, or Chief Baron of the Exchequer respectively, and who shall respectively have resigned the same, as Annuity or yearly Sum of Money, not exceeding the Sum of Eight hundred Pounds; and to any Person who may or shall have executed the Office of Justice of the Court of King’s Bench or Common Pleas, or of Barons of the Court of the Court of Exchequer, and who shall have resigned the same, as Annuity or yearly Sum of Money, not exceeding the Sum of Six hundred Pounds; which said several and respective Annuities shall be in Addition to and in Augmentation of the respective Annuities or yearly Sums allowed to be given and granted to such Persons respectively, under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Thirty sixth Year aforesaid, and in like manner to continue from and after the Period when the Person to whom any such Annuity or yearly Sum of Money shall be granted as aforesaid shall have resigned his said Office, and to continue from thenceforth for and during the natural Life of the Person to whom the same shall be granted as aforesaid; and every such Annuity or yearly Sum of Money shall be issued and payable out of and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund, next in order of Payment to and after paying or referring sufficient to pay all such Sums or Sums of Money as have been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the same, but with like Preference to all other Payments wheresoever.

Annuities due from Time, reserved Property Till
40 G. 3. c. 67.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said several Annuities and yearly Sums of Money shall from time to time from the granting thereof be payable and paid Quarterly free and clear from all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, except the Duty charged by an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the present Majesty’s Majesty, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty during the present War, and until the Sixth Day of April next after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, further additional Rates and Duties in Great Britain on the Rates and Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices; and for repealing an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for repealing certain Parts of an Act made in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, for granting a Contribution to the Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, and in consequence and order more effectual the Provision for collecting the said Duties, by even and equal Portions as the like Polls, and together with and in the same manner as the Annuities and yearly Sums which may be given and granted under the said recited Act and under and subject to the like Rules, Regulations and Restrictions (so far as the same are applicable), as are contained and prescribed in the said recited Act in relation to the Annuities or yearly Sums of Money therein allowed to be given and granted.

Provisions of re-
plied.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Act, and all Clauses, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Matters and Things therein contained (so far as the same are applicable and are not hereby altered); shall be in force and be applied to carry into Effect the Purposes of this Act.

C A P. CLIV.

An Act to render valid, and to authorize the Payment and granting of certain Pensions at Kilmarnock Hospital, and to empower the Commissioners of the said Hospital to constitute Pensions for a Sum of Money in certain Cases. [enth July 1813.]

WHEREAS since the Establishment of the Militia of Ireland, certain yearly Pensions have from time to time been paid under the Direction of the Governors of the Royal Hospital at Kilmarnock to Non Commissioned Officers and Privates who had served in the said Militia and had been discharged therefrom, but who, according to the Terms of the several Acts of Parliament made in that behalf respectively, were not by Law entitled to receive the same: And whereas the said Payments have been made hæc sibi under an Opinion that the same were warranted and required by Law, and the several Persons who have so received such yearly Pensions having been led thereby to expect and rely on the Continuance thereof respectively as a Provision for Life, have become chiefly, if not entirely, dependent thereon for their future Support; it is therefore expedient that the Payments of the said Pensions should be confirmed and continued: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Payment and Payments which shall or may have been made at any time before the passing of this Act, by or under the Direction or Authority of the said Governors, or of any Committee or Committees thereof, or of any One or more of the said Governors authorized, empowered or appointed to act for or on behalf of the whole, or any Person or Persons who had served in the said Militia, as or for a Pension or Pensions for or in respect of such Service, shall be and be deemed and taken to be good, valid and lawful, and shall be allowed and credited as such to the Person or Persons making the same; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Pensions to Militia Men granted by any General shall.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Person who shall have served in and been discharged from the said Militia, and to whom any such Pension shall have been ordered or awarded at any time before the passing of this Act, for or in respect of such Service, by the said Governors, and who has not in any manner forfeited the same, shall continue to receive and shall be entitled to receive the same from time to time, for such Term and in such manner as and subject to such and the same Terms, Conditions, Limitations and Restrictions as if the Order, Resolution or Act of the said Governors, or of any Committee or Committees thereof, or of any One or more of the said Governors authorized, empowered or appointed to act for or on behalf of the whole, whereby any such Pension was ordered or awarded to him respectively, had at the time of making such Order, Resolution or Act been fully warranted by Law; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to promote the Interchange of the English and Irish Militias respectively, it is amongst other things, provided that all Non Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men, of the said Militia, whose Service should become extended to all Parts of the United Kingdom by virtue of the said Act, who should be disabled in actual Service, should be entitled to the Benefit of Chloffe Hospital; but the Royal Hospital at Kilmarnock is not mentioned therein: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That all Non Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men of such Force who shall be disabled in Ireland, shall be entitled to the Benefit of the Royal Hospital at Kilmarnock instead of Chloffe Hospital.

25 G. 3. c. 181. 17.

Instead of Chloffe Hospital, Militia Men disabled in Ireland are entitled to Kilmarnock.
25 G. 3. c. 181.

IV. And whereas an Act was passed in the Fifth second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, to empower the Commissioners of Chloffe Hospital to constitute Pensions for a Sum of Money in certain cases therein mentioned; and it is expedient that a similar Power should be granted to the Commissioners of the Royal Hospital at Kilmarnock: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Royal Hospital at Kilmarnock to give to any Soldier not a Native of the United Kingdom who may have been or may be discharged, and may be entitled to any Out Pension or Allowance from the Royal Hospital at Kilmarnock by reason of Service, or having become invalid or disabled, and who shall be desirous of residing out of Ireland, and who may be recommended for that Purpose, by any Order of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governor of Ireland for the time being, to be assigned to the said Commissioners by the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or in his Absence by the Under Secretary for the Military Department, such Sum of Money in gross, as he or she for the Purchase of such Annual Pension or Allowance as may be directed by such Order in that behalf; any thing contained in any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Pensions granted to Benefit of Kilmarnock Hospital instead of residing out of Ireland may purchase a Commutation for Pensions.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Money to be paid as aforesaid to any such Person as an Equivalent for the Pension or Allowance to which he is entitled, shall be paid out of any Money voted for or applicable to the Payment of Pensions or Allowances to discharged Soldiers under the Management of the Commissioners of the Royal Hospital at Kilmarnock; and the Receipt of the Person receiving such Equivalent shall be a full Discharge for the said Commissioners for the said Sum or Sums of Money is paid by them as aforesaid, and shall also be a Discharge by the Person giving such Receipt of all Claims to any future Payment of the said Pension or Allowance: Provided always, that no such Receipt shall be liable to any Stamp Duty.

C A P. CLV.

An Act for amending in the East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges, for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; and for regulating the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter.

[18th July 1813.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, passed in the Thirtieth third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for amending in the East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with their exclusive Trade, under certain Limitations, and for other Purposes; the Possession and Government of the British Territories in India, together with an exclusive Trade in, to and from the East Indies, and other the Limits described in an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King William the Third, or in a certain Charter of the Fifth Day of September, in the Tenth Year of the said King, were continued in the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, for a Term thereby limited, under certain Regulations and Conditions; And whereas by an Act of the Parliament of Ireland, passed in the same Thirtieth third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for regulating the Trade of Ireland, to and from the East Indies, under certain Conditions and Provisions, for a time therein expressed, the exclusive Privileges granted to the said United Company by the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain were confirmed, (subject to certain Conditions and Restrictions; And whereas it is expedient that the Territorial Acquisitions mentioned in the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain of the Thirtieth third Year of His present Majesty, together with such other Territorial Acquisitions on the Continent of Asia, or in any Islands situate to the North of the Equator, as are now in the Possession and under the Government of the said United Company, with the Revenues thereof, should, without Prejudice to the undoubted Sovereignty of The Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to and over the same, or to any Claim of the said United Company to any Rights, Franchises or Immunities, remain in the Possession and under the Government of the said United Company for a further Term; subject to such Powers and Authorities for the Superintendence, Direction and Control over all Acts, Operations and Concerns, which relate to the Civil or Military Government or Revenue of the said Territories, as have been already made or provided by any Act or Acts of Parliament in that behalf, or are made and provided by this Act; And whereas it is expedient that, from and after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the Right of trading, trafficking and advertising, in, to and from, all Ports and Places within the Limits of the said United Company's present Charter, save and except the Dominions of the Emperor of China, should be open to all His Majesty's Subjects, in common with the said United Company, subject to certain Regulations and Provisions; but that the existing Restrictions respecting the Commercial Intercourse with China should be continued, and the exclusive Trade in Tea preferred to the said Company, during the further Term hereby limited; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Territorial Acquisitions mentioned in the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, of the Thirtieth third Year of His present Majesty, together with such of the Territorial Acquisitions since obtained upon the Continent of Asia, or in any Islands situate to the North of the Equator, as are now in the Possession and under the Government of the said United Company, with the Revenues thereof respectively, shall remain and continue in the Possession and under the Government of the said United Company, subject to such Powers and Authorities for the Superintendence, Direction and Control over all Acts, Operations and Concerns which relate to the Civil or Military Government or Revenue of the said Territories, and to such further and other Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as have been already made or provided by any Act or Acts of Parliament in that behalf, or are made and provided by this Act, for a further Term, to be computed from the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, until the same shall be determined by virtue of the Provisions hereinafter contained.

II. And be it further enacted, That the sole and exclusive Right of trading, trafficking and using the Bunkers of Merchandise in, to and from the Dominions of the Emperor of China, and the whole, sole and exclusive Right of trading and trafficking in Tea, in, to and from all Islands, Ports, Havens, Coasts, Cities, Towns and Places, between the Cape of Good Hope and the Straights of Malacca, in such manner as the same Rights now are or lawfully may be exercised or enjoyed by the said United Company, by virtue of any Act or Charter now in force, but not further or otherwise; and all and singular the Profits, Benefits, Advantages, Privileges, Franchises, Allowances, Capabilities, Powers, Authorities, Rights, Revenues, Methods of Sale, Possessions, Fortifications, Dispositions, Provisions, Matters and Things whatsoever, granted or relied on by the said Company by the said Acts of the Thirtieth third Year of His present Majesty, or otherwise, for and during the Term limited by the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, and all other the Endowments, Profits, Matters and Things contained in the said Acts of the Thirtieth third Year of His present Majesty, or in any other Act or Acts whatsoever, which are limited or may be construed to be limited, to exist so far and during the Term granted to the said Company by the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain of the Thirtieth third Year of His present Majesty, in far as the same or any of them are in force, and not repealed or repugnant to this Act, shall continue and be in force during the further Term hereby granted to the said Company; subject to such Alterations therein as may be made by any of the Endowments, Provisions, Matters and Things in this Act contained.

III. Provided

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That at any time upon Three Years' Notice to be given by Parliament after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty one, and upon Payment made to the said United Company, of any Sum or Sums of Money, which according to the Provisions of a certain Act of the Thirty third of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act for placing the Stock, called East India Annuities, under the Management of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and regarding the same as the Three Per Cent Consol Reduced Annuities, in Redemption of a Debt of Four millions seven hundred thousand Pounds owing by the Public to the said India Company; and for enabling the said Company to raise a Sum of Money by a further Lottery of their Capital Stock, is to be applied in Discharge of certain Debts of the said Company, full, or any, upon the Expiration of the said Three Years, become payable to the said Company, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, then and from thenceforth, and not before or sooner, the said Term hereby granted to the said United Company, and all Right, Title and Interest of the said United Company, to or in any exclusive Trade continued to the said Company under the Provisions of this Act, shall cease and determine.

IV. Provided also, That nothing in the said Proviso last hereinbefore contained, or in any Proviso in the said Act of the Ninth Year of King William the Third, or in the said Charter of the Fifth Day of September in the Tenth Year of His said Majesty, or in any other Act or Charter contained, shall extend or be construed to extend, to determine the Corporation of the said United Company, or to hinder, prevent or preclude the said Company or their Successors, from carrying on at all times after such Determinations of their exclusive Trade as aforesaid, a Free Trade, in, to and from the East Indies, and Livets to the said last mentioned Act or Charter contained, with all or any Part of their said Stock in Trade, Goods, Merchandises, Estates and Effects, in common with other the Subjects of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, trading to, in and from the said Parts or Livets.

V. And be it further enacted, That any Notice in Writing, signified by the Speaker of the House of Commons for the time being, by order of the said House, shall be deemed and adjudged a day and proper Notice by Parliament, to and for all the Ends, Intents and Purposes, for which any Notice is by this Act directed to be given to the said United Company.

VI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, it shall and may be lawful for any of His Majesty's Subjects, in Common with the said United Company, to export in Ships navigated according to Law, from any Port or Ports within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to all Ports and Places within the Limits hereinbefore referred to; and except the Dominions of the Emperor of China; any Goods, Wares and Merchandises, which can now, or may at any time or times hereafter be legally exported; and also, in common with the said Company, to import in Ships navigated as aforesaid, from any Port or Ports within the Limits aforesaid, any and except as aforesaid, into the said United Kingdom, any Goods, Wares and Merchandises, the Product or Manufacture of any of the Countries within the said Limits, which are now or may at any time or times hereafter, be legally imported; subject nevertheless to the several Restrictions, Conditions and Limitations, in this Act contained.

VII. And whereas by a certain Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, it is enacted, That no Goods or Commodities, that are of Foreign Growth, Production or Manufacture, and which are to be brought into England, Ireland, Wales, the Islands of Guernsey and Jersey, or Towns of Bordeaux upon Towed, in English-built Shipping or other Shipping belonging to some of the aforesaid Places, and navigated by English-built Mariners, as in the said Act mentioned, shall be shipped or brought from any other Place or Places, Country or Countries, but only from those of the said Growth, Production or Manufacture, or from those Parts where the said Goods and Commodities can only be or are or usually have been first shipped for Transports, and from some other Places or Countries; Provided that the said Act or any thing therein contained should not extend or be meant to refuse the importing of any East India Commodities, loaded in English-built Shipping, and wherof the Master and Three fourths of the Mariners at least are English, from the usual Place or Places of lading of them to any Part of these Seas to the Southward and Eastward of Cape Horn or Sparrow, although the said Ports be not the very Places of their Growth; Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's Subjects, in Ships navigated according to Law, to import, under the Authority of this Act, into the said United Kingdom, from all Ports and Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter; save and except the Dominions of the Emperor of China; any Goods, Wares or Merchandises the Product or Manufacture of any Country within the Limits of the said Company's Charter, except Tea, although such Goods, Wares or Merchandises may not be of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the Place or Country from which the same shall have been shipped or brought, or have been shipped or brought from the Port where such Goods or Commodities can only be, or are, or usually have been, first shipped for Transports, nor the usual Place for lading the same; the said Act or any other Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons, save only the said United Company or such as shall obtain their special Leave and Licence in Writing, or a special Leave and Licence in Writing under their Authority, for that Purpose, to ship, carry or put on board any Ship in the East Indies, or other Parts within the Limits aforesaid, or to import into the said United Kingdom from any Port or Place whatsoever, any Tea; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons to carry any Military Stores to any Place upon the Continent of Asia, between the River Indus and the Town of Melacca on the Peninsula of Melacca inclusive, or in any Island under the Government of the said Com-and imposed for advertising and collecting Duties to be paid according to Value, by an Act passed in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties together with others compounding the Public Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandises, the Produce or Manufactures of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Estates, remaining in the Exchequer for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt, or by any other selling out Act or Acts now in force.

XX. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent the making, during the further Term hereby granted to the said Company, such further Provisions by Authority of Parliament as may from time to time be deemed expedient, for enabling His Majesty's Subjects to carry on Trade and Traffic directly or circuitously as well between all Ports and Places situate without the Limits of the said Company's Charter, and all Ports and Places (except the Dominions of the Emperor of China) situate within these Limits, as between the said United Kingdom, and all the last mentioned Ports and Places except as aforesaid; but without Prejudice to any of the Restrictions or Provisions herein contained, as to the Return to and Residence of any Person or the said India and Persia aforesaid.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That so much of an Act passed in the Thirty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in shipping or carrying into Execution a certain Order of Council respecting the Importation of a limited Quantity of Saltpetre; for repealing the Duties now payable upon the Importation of Saltpetre; and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, as requires the said Company, at their public Sales to put up certain Quantities of Saltpetre at certain Rates; or to receive and deliver into the Stores of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, certain Quantities of Saltpetre at certain Rates, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of King William the Third, or of any other Act or Acts, in consequence of which all Goods and Merchandises belonging to any Private Trader to the said India, which shall be imported into England or Wales, shall be sold openly and publicly by such of the said Company, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Acts of the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty, or either of them, as requires the Court of Directors of the said Company to lay yearly before the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, an Invoice of the Quantities and Sorts of Cowage, Pitch and Tar, and the Number and Sorts of Masts and Spars, and the Number and Weight of Anchors exported, or intended to be exported by the said Company; or as relates to the Admission of Individuals, by Authority of the said Board of Commissioners, to export or import any Goods, Wares or Merchandises on board the said Company's Ships; or to the granting or appropriating by the said Company of Tonnage for the Private Trade; or to the Rate of Freight to be charged thereon; or to the Nomination to be given to the Chief Secretary of the said Company, or to the Chief Secretary of the Postoffice in India, by Persons intending to export or import Goods; or to the registering of Private Trade Goods, or to the granting Orders or Licences for Shipping such Goods in the Ships of the said Company; or as requires One or more of the outward bound Ships of the said Company to touch at the Port of Cork between the Month of October and the Month of February in every Year; shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, Wares and Merchandises of or belonging to the said Company, exported or imported from or into any Ports or Places under the Government of the said Company in the said India, or other Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter, shall be subject to the Payment of the like Rates, Customs and Duties of Import and Export, as the Goods, Wares and Merchandises of the same Kind or Sorts, exported or imported in Private Trade, under the Authority of this Act, are or shall be subject or liable to be charged with.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That no new or additional Imposts of any Duty or Tax upon the Export, Import or Transit of any Goods, Wares or Merchandises whatsoever, made or to be made by Authority of the Governor General or Governor in Council, of any of the said Company's Presidencies or Settlements in the said India or Persia aforesaid, shall be valid or effectual, until the same shall have been sanctioned by the Court of Directors of the said United Company, with the Approbation of the said Board of Commissioners; which Sanction and Approbation shall be applied to the said Governments respectively by some Public Dispatch from the said Court of Directors, defining each Regulation for the Purposes aforesaid, which shall be so sanctioned and approved by its Title at full Length, and explaining that the same is so sanctioned and approved; and all such Regulations, when promulgated in the said India by the said Government, shall contain express Mention that the same are made with the Sanction of the said Court of Directors, and with the Approbation of the said Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India; and such Mention shall be taken as conclusive Evidence of such Sanction and Approbation in all Courts of Justice.

XXVI. And whereas, by virtue of the said Act made in the Ninth Year of King William the Third, the said Company were authorized to receive a Duty of Five Pence for every Hundred Pounds of the true and real Value of all Goods, Wares and Merchandises, of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of the said India, or other Parts within the Limits aforesaid, imported or brought into the Kingdom of England in Private Trade, towards defraying certain Charges in the said Act mentioned and specified: And whereas the said Company, before the passing of the said Act made in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, had, over and besides the said Duty of Five Pence per Centum, been accustomed to charge and receive, for their own Use, after the Rate of Two Pence per Centum on the Gross Sale Amount of all Goods, Wares and Merchandises, imported into the Kingdom of Great Britain from the said India in Private Trade, in Recompense and Satisfaction of the Charges and Expenses of shipping and and selling the same, and otherwise in the Case and Management thereof: And whereas by the first mentioned Act, made in the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty, it was enacted, that, from and after the First Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety four, the said Duty of Five Pounds per Cwtm should be repealed, and the said Charge of Two Pounds per Cwtm discontinued, and that in lieu thereof respectively, there should be rendered and paid to the said Company, during the further Term by the said Act granted to them, in their exclusive Trade, a Duty or Allowance, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Cwtm on the Gross Sale Amount of all Goods, Wares and Merchandises, imported or brought into this Kingdom from the East Indies in Private Trade, including in such Value or Account, all Duties and Charges payable in respect thereof: Be it further enacted, That the said Duty or Allowance in respect of Goods, Wares or Merchandises, imported in Private Trade, shall be, and the same is hereby wholly repealed.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whether the said Regal of the said Duty contained in the said Act of the Ninth Year of King William the Third, or any thing in this Act contained, shall extend to release the Payment of the Duty or Allowance of Three Pounds per Cwtm in respect of any Articles of Silk, Hair, Cotton Wool or any Mixture thereof, which being brought into the Port of London by Private Merchants, Traders or other Persons, may be deposited in the Warehouses of the said United Company, or of the said Duty of Five Pounds per Cwtm, or the said Charge of Two Pounds per Cwtm, on any Goods, Wares or Merchandises which shall be brought Home and imported to any of the Ships of the said Company, or in their Service from China; nor to affect any Customs or Regulations now existing, or hereafter to be made by or between the said Company, or on their behalf, with the Masters or Commanders of the Company's Ships, or with any other of the Officers or Servants of the said Company, in whatever Employment or Capacity they may happen to be; but that all and every such Customs and Agreements shall be and be held, deemed and taken to be of the same Force and Effect as if the said Regal had not been enacted, or this Act been made: the said Regal or any other Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVIII. And, for more effectually securing to the East India Dock Company the Rates and Duties granted and made payable to them by Two several Acts, one passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the further Improvement of the Port of London, by making Docks and other Works at Blackwall, for the Accommodation of the East India Shipping in the said Port, and the other passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for altering and enlarging the Powers of an Act made in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the further Improvement of the Port of London, by making Docks and other Works at Blackwall, for the Accommodation of the East India Shipping in the said Port, be it further enacted, That all the Rates and Duties by the said Acts granted and made payable to the East India Dock Company, for or in respect of any Goods, Wares or Merchandises, shall be fully applied, settled and paid to the said East India Dock Company, or their Collectors or Receivers, before such Goods, Wares or Merchandises, shall be delivered to the Owner or Owners, or Consignee or Consignees thereof.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Goods, Wares or Merchandises, shall be cleared or discharged from any Ship or Vessel before the Rates and Duties payable to the said East India Dock Company in respect of the same shall have been fully discharged, then it shall be lawful for the said East India Dock Company to cause such Goods, Wares or Merchandises, so so lost or deposited in the Warehouses of the said United Company, and to be sold under the Order and Authority of the Court of Directors of the said Company, on the Account of the proper Owners thereof; and the Rates and Duties payable to the said East India Dock Company in respect of the same, and the reasonable Expenses of finding and depositing the same as aforesaid, shall be deducted and paid to the said East India Dock Company, their Receivers or Collectors, as far as may be as directed by the said Act of the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, with respect to the Rates or Duties thereby made payable; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary in that behalf notwithstanding.

XXX. And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for extending for a limited time the Importation of Goods from India and China, and other Parts within the Limits of the exclusive Trade of the East India Company, in Ships and of British-built and registered or built ships, and for the Importation of Goods from Great Britain, by the same Ships under certain Restrictions, it was enacted, that, during the Continuance of the then present War, and for Eighteen Months after the Conclusion thereof, any Ship freighted by the said United Company with the Approbation of the said Board of Commissioners, with Home Investment of Goods from India or China or other Parts within the Limits of the said Company's Trade, should arrive in the Ports of Great Britain, it should and might be lawful upon Representation made by or on Behalf of the said Company to His Majesty in Council, for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to authorize the Importation and Entry of such Goods, subject to the like Duties and so other, as if they were imported in British-built Ships, though such Goods should be brought in Ships which might not be British-built, nor have been registered as British-built Ships, nor registered as required by the Laws then in force; provided the said Ships should have been built within the Territories belonging to the said United Company, or in the Ports under the immediate Protection of the British Flag in the East Indies; and also to permit such Ships to export from Great Britain to the British Settlements in the East Indies, or any of the Places within the Limits before mentioned, with the License and Consent of the said Company, any Goods, Wares or Merchandises whatsoever, Ordnance and Military Stores excepted; and it was thereby further enacted, that such Ships should not be liable to Forfeiture, nor Should any Person whatever be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture on account of any Importation of Goods, Wares or Merchandises, in pursuance of the said Act, or of any Order or Orders of His Majesty in Council, which might be issued in virtue thereof: And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty second Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for making perpetual &c. &c. of an Act made in the Nineteenth Year of His XXXI. And whereas it is necessary to encourage the Fishery carried on to the Southward of the Greenland Seas and Down's Straights, by extending the Limits now preferred for the same: Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Ship or Vessel fitted and cleared out conformably to an Act passed in the Thirty fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the further encouraging and regulating the Southern Whale Fishery, to sail and pass for the Purpose aforesaid, in all the Seas to the Eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, and in all the Seas to the Westward of the Straights of Magellan: Provided always, that no such Ship or Vessel shall sail or pass in any Seas further to the Northward than Eleven Degrees of North Latitude, and between the Sixty fourth and One hundred and Sixty Degrees of East Longitude from London, without a Licence from the said Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, specially authorizing such Ship or Vessel to so proceed: Provided also, that no such Ship or Vessel, the registered Merchantmen whereof shall be less than Three hundred and fifty Tons, shall sail or pass in any of the Seas to the Eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, or to the Westward of the Straights of Magellan, without a Licence from the said Board of Commissioners, specially authorizing the same: Provided also, that it shall not be lawful for any such Ship or Vessel to go to, touch or stay at any Port or Place upon the Continent of Asia, from the River Indus to the said Town of Malacca inclusive, or any Place under the Government of the said Company to the North of the Equator, nor the said Company's Factory at Bencoolen or its Dependencies, nor the Dominions of the Emperor of China, without a Licence in Writing from the said Court of Directors of the said United Company specially authorizing the same.

XXXII. And whereas it is the Duty of this Court to promote the Interest and Happiness of the Native Inhabitants of the British Dominions in India; and such Measures ought to be adopted as may tend to the Introduction among them of useful Knowledge, and of religious and moral Improvement; and in furtherance of the above Objects, sufficient Facilities ought to be afforded by Law to Persons desirous of going to and remaining in India, for the Purpose of accomplishing those benevolent Designs as in the Authority of the Local Governments respecting the Intercourse of Europeans with the Interior of the Country be preferred, and the Principles of the British Government, on which the Natives of India have hitherto relied for the free Exercise of their Religion, be inviolably maintained: And whereas it is expedient to make Provision for granting Permission to Persons desirous of going to and remaining in India for the above Purposes, and also to Persons desirous of going to and remaining there for other lawful Purposes:
 Be it therefore enacted, That when and as often as any Application shall be made to the said Court of Directors, for or on Behalf of any Person or Persons desirous of proceeding to the East Indies for Permission to do, the said Court shall, unless they shall think fit to comply therewith, transmit every such Application within One Month from the Receipt thereof to the said Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India; and in case the said Commissioners shall not for any just Reason Object thereto, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to direct that such Person or Persons shall, as in or to their own special Charge, be permitted to proceed to any of the said Principal Settlements of the said Company, and that such Person or Persons shall be furnished by the said Court of Directors with a Certificate or Certificates, according to such Form as the said Commissioners shall prescribe, signifying that such Person or Persons hath or have so pro-

ended with the Consignee and under the Sanction of the said Court of Directors; and that all such Certificates shall continue the Permits during the time so long as they shall properly conform thereto, to the Continuance and Protection of the several Governments of the said Company in the East Indies and Parts adjacent, in their respective Powers, subject to all such Provisions and Restrictions as are now in force, or may hereafter be judged necessary, with regard to Persons residing in India.

XXXIV. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to revoke or provide the said Court of Directors from offering such Representations to the said Board of Commissioners, respecting Persons to applying for Permission to proceed to the East Indies, as the said Court of Directors may at any time think fit.

XXXV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That all Persons who shall proceed to the East Indies shall upon their Arrival at any Place within the Limits of the said United Company's Government, be subject to all such Rules and Regulations, as now are or hereafter may be in force within those Limits.

XXXVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Person having obtained a Certificate or Licence from the said Court of Directors, authorizing such Person to proceed to the East Indies, shall at any time so conduct himself as in the Judgment of the Governor General or Governor of the Presidency within which such Person shall be found, to have forfeited his Claim to the Continuance and Protection of the Government of such Presidency, it shall and may be lawful for such Governor General or Governor, by Order, to declare that the Certificate or Licence is obtained by such Person shall be void from a Day to be named in such Order; and from and after such Day it to be named in such Order, such Person shall be deemed and taken to be a Person residing and being in the East Indies without Licence or Authority for that Purpose, and may be sent forthwith to the United Kingdom, any manner or thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided nevertheless, that no Person whose Certificate or Licence shall have been so vacated by Order of any of the Governments of the said Company as aforesaid, shall be subject or liable to any Prosecution for residing or being found in the East Indies without Licence or Authority for that Purpose, until Two Months after Notice of such Order shall have been given to such Person, by Delivery to such Person of a Copy thereof, or by leaving the same at the last Place of Abode of such Person, or by Publication of such Order in the Gazette of the Presidency where such Order shall be made.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any of the Governments of the said Company at their several Presidencies to license or otherwise authorize the Residence at any Place or Places within the Limits of the said Company's Government, of any Subject of His Majesty, who shall go thither after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, unless such Person shall have been previously furnished with a Licence or Certificate from the Court of Directors of the said Company or have otherwise been authorized by Law to reside within the said Limits: Provided nevertheless, that any Governor General or Governor of any of the said Presidencies, for extraordinary Reasons to be returned upon the Minutes of Council, may authorize by Special Licence the Residence of any Subject of His Majesty at any Place or Places under the Government of such Presidency, until the Pleasure of the said Court of Directors shall be known in that behalf; and that such Special Licence shall be deemed and taken to be of the same Force and Effect as a Licence of and from the said Court of Directors, until Notice of the Pleasure of the said Court to the contrary shall have been given to such Person, by Delivery thereof to such Person, or by leaving the same at his last Place of Abode, or by Publication thereof in the Gazette of the Presidency by which such Special Licence shall have been granted: Provided that a Copy of such Licence, and of the Resolves for granting the same, accompanied with an Application for a Licence from the said Court of Directors, shall be transmitted to the said Court of Directors forthwith after the granting thereof.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, by Licence in Writing for that Purpose, upon such Terms and Conditions as they may think fit, to authorize any Person or Persons to proceed to and reside at any Place or Places situate more to the Northward than Eleven Degrees of South Latitude, and between the Sixty fourth and One hundred and fifth Degrees of East Longitude from London, and not being upon the Continent of Asia, between the River Indus and the Town of Molacca inclusive; not in any Island under the Government of the said Company lying to the Northward of the Equator; nor at the said Company's Factory at Batavia, nor its Dependencies; nor within the Dominions of the Emperor of Giles; any Admiral or Thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Subjects of His Majesty to proceed to and reside at any Place or Places situate more to the Southward than Eleven Degrees of South Latitude, or more to the Westward than Sixty four Degrees, or more to the Eastward than One hundred and fifty Degrees of East Longitude from London, for any lawful Purpose without any Licence whatsoever; any thing in this or any other Act, or in any Charter contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XL. And be it further enacted, That if any of the Subjects of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or of belonging to any of His Majesty's Dominions situate without the East Indies and Limits of the said Company's Charter, other than such as shall be licensed by the said United Company, or otherwise thereto lawfully authorized, shall at any time before the Determination of the farther Term hereby granted to the said Company, directly or indirectly, sell, go, visit, import, freight, trade, traffick or adventure to, in or from the East Indies or Parts adjacent, or go, sail or export thence, or be found therein, in any other manner than is permitted or allowed by the Provisions of this Act, and the Terms and Conditions of any Licence or Certificate to be granted by virtue thereof, all and every such Person and Persons shall be deemed and taken to have unlawfully traded and trafficked there; and all such Persons, and all Ships and Vessels found in the Company of any such Person or Persons, or engaged or concerned in such unlawful Trade

Trade or Traffick, and the Owners, Masters and Crews thereof, and all Goods, Merchandise, Treaders and Effects shipped or laden thereon, or taken out of the Ship, or found in the Custody of any such Person or Persons, shall be subject and liable to all such and the like Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, Disabilities and Mischances of Seizure, as are contained in the said Acts of the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty, or either of them, or in any Act or Acts now in force, and which Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, Disabilities and Methods of Seizure, were created for the Purpose of securing to the said Company the sole and exclusive Right of trading to the East Indies, and other Parts within the Limits of their Charter, during the Continuance of such sole and exclusive Right, and of resuscitating slave-trade and other Trade, in, to and from the East Indies and Parts aforesaid; and all such and the like Powers, Privileges, Clauses, Matters and Things as are contained in the said Acts of the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty, or either of them, or in any Act or Acts now in force, and which were created for the Purpose aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be in force, and to apply to all such unlawful Trade and Traffick as aforesaid, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or of the Terms and Conditions of any License or Certificate to be granted by virtue thereof, and shall be put in Execution during the further Term hereby granted to the said Company, for the Purpose of preventing any such unlawful Trade or Traffick, as fully and effectually as if the same Powers, Privileges, Clauses, Matters and Things were severally repeated at large, and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and applied to and for the Purpose last aforesaid.

Ship driven by Storm or other Accidents within prescribed Limits, not liable to Penalties.

XLII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Ship or Vessel shall happen by Storms of Weather or other inevitable Accident to be driven or forced more to the Northward than Eleven Degrees South Latitude, and between the sixty fourth and One hundred and sixtieth Degree of East Longitude from London, and being driven or so forced shall return within the said Limits with as much convenient Speed as the Safety of such Ship or Vessel or other circumstances will admit, such Ship or Vessel shall not, nor shall any of the Goods, Merchandise, Treaders or Effects shipped or laden on board the same, be liable to any of the Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures or Disabilities heretofore mentioned, on account of being or having been within the said Limits: Provided nevertheless, that the Proof of such Ship or Vessel having been driven or forced beyond the said Limits by Storms of Weather or other inevitable Accident, and of having returned within the said Limits with as much convenient Speed as the Safety of the said Ship or Vessel or other circumstances would admit, shall be on the Party claiming the Benefit of such Exemption; any thing in this or any other Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Colleges and Universities established as Colleges of Board.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, by force and virtue of this Act, shall have and be invested with full Power and Authority to superintend, direct and control all Orders and Instructions whatsoever, which in any wise relate to or concern any Rules, Regulations or Establishments whatsoever of the several Colleges established by the said Company at Calcutta or Fort Saint George, or of any Seminaries which may be established under the Authority of any of the Governments of the said Company, in the same manner, to all Invents and Purposes, and under and subject to all such and the like Regulations and Provisions, as if such Orders and Instructions immediately related to and concerned the Government and Revenue of the said Territorial Acquisitions in the East Indies.

Provision for Schools, Public Lectures or other Literary Institutions for the Benefit of Native, regulated by Governor General in Council, subject to Consent of Officers of the Board, and Appointment to Office therein made by Act of Government.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor General in Council to direct, that out of any Surplus which may remain of the Revenues and Profits, arising from the said Territorial Acquisitions, after defraying the Expenses of the Military, Civil and Commercial Establishments, and paying the Interest of the Debt, in manner hereinafter provided, a Sum of not less than One Lakh of Rupees in each Year shall be set apart and applied to the better and improvement of Literature and the better management of the learned Natives of India, and for the Introduction and Promotion of a Knowledge of the Sciences among the Inhabitants of the British Territories in India; and that any Schools, Public Lectures or other Institutions, for the Purposes aforesaid, which shall be founded in the Presidencies of Fort William, Fort Saint George or Bombay, or in any other Parts of the British Territories in India, in virtue of this Act, shall be governed by such Regulations as may from time to time be made by the said Governor General in Council; subject nevertheless to such Powers as are herein vested in the said Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, respecting Colleges and Seminaries: Provided always, that all Appointments to Office in such Schools, Lectureships and other Institutions, shall be made by or under the Authority of the Governments within which the same shall be founded.

XLIV. And whereas the said United Company have lately established, in England, a College, for the appropriate Education of young Men designed for their Civil Service in India, and also a Military Seminary for the appropriate Education of young Men designed for their Military Service in India: And whereas it is expedient that the said College and Military Seminary should be further continued and maintained, and that proper Rules and Regulations should be constituted and established by Authority of Law, for the good Government of the said College and Military Seminary respectively: Be it therefore enacted, That the said College and Military Seminary shall be continued and maintained by the said United Company during the further Term hereby granted to the said Company; and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Directors, and they are hereby required, forthwith, after the passing of this Act, to frame such Rules and Regulations for the good Government of the said College and Military Seminary respectively, as in their Judgment shall appear best adapted to the Purposes aforesaid; and to lay the same before the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, for their Review and Approbation, who shall thereupon proceed to consider the same, and shall and may make such Alterations therein and Additions thereto as they shall think fit; nevertheless, all such Rules and Regulations shall and may be subject to such future Review and Alteration by the said Court of Directors, with the Approbation of the said Board, as circumstances may from time to time require.

in their behalf; and all such Rules and Regulations so framed, approved, revised or altered, shall be deemed and taken to be good and valid in Law, and shall be binding and effectual upon all Persons and in all Matters belonging or relating to the said College and Military Seminary respectively; any Law, Charter or other Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the said Court of Directors from making such Representations, with respect to any Alterations in or Additions to such Rules and Regulations which may be made by the said Board of Commissioners, as the said Court of Directors shall see fit to cause to be made.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Bishops of London for the time being, to have and exercise, and be a lawfully authorised and empowered to have and exercise such Viciniorial Power and Jurisdiction over all such Persons, Matters and Things, belonging or relating to the said College, and in such manner, as shall be appointed and established by the said Rules and Regulations of the said College in that behalf any matter or thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the said Court of Directors to nominate, appoint or find to the Prefecture of Fort Mifflin, Fort Mifflin George or Breda, any Person in the Capacity of a Winner, unless such Person shall have been duly entered at such College, and have resided three Years Terms, according to the Rules and Regulations thereof; and shall also produce to the said Court of Directors a Certificate under the Hand of the Principal of the said College, testifying that he has, for the Space of Three Terms, been a Member of and duly conformed himself to the Rules and Regulations of the said College.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That no Order for the Establishment of any Office, or the Appointment of any Person to fill the Situation of Principal at the said College, or Head Master of the Military Seminary, shall be valid or effectual until the same shall have been approved by the said Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India.

* XLVIII. And whereas for the due Performance of the public Duties of Religion in the said College, as well as for the Maintenance of sound Learning and religious Education, it is expedient that the President and some of the Professors of the said College should be Clergymen of the Established Church: And whereas it may be expedient, that some Clergymen well qualified for such Stipends, from their Character and Attainments, some may be possessed of Benefices in the Church: It is enacted, That every Spanish Professor holding the Situation of Principal or Professor in the said College, and actually performing the Duties of the same, shall be and he is hereby exempted from Residence on any Benefice of which he may be possessed in the same manner as the bachelors Professors specified as an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty's Reigne, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to Spiritual Professions holding of Forms; and for reforming the Residence of Spiritual Persons on other Benefices in England, are by the said Act exempted from Residence on their respective Benefices; nor shall Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

1. And be it further enacted, That if any Indian shall take up or convey to or after the Use or Value of such Perform as shall be approved by the said Officers respectively, shall cause upon them the Execution of these respective Offices, and that all such shall be in like of all Sorts of Office, Possession, Receipt, and Advantage whatsoever; and that no Person of Office, Possession, Receipt, or Advantage whatsoever, shall be accepted, received or taken, in any manner or as any Account or Privilege whatsoever, other than the Statute aforesaid; and that his Majesty's or Archbishops respectively shall be entitled to receive his Majesty's or they shall respectively execute the Functions of their local Officers in the East Indies, West Indies, and my Kingdom.

L.L. Pounded always, and he it further method, That such Bishop shall not have or use any Jurisdiction or exercise any Episcopal Functions whatsoever, either in the East Indies or elsewhere, but only such Jurisdiction and Functions as shall or may, from time to time be granted to him by His Majesty by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom.

of such Money, in case of Failure of the said United Company or their Successors, in any Payment thereof, or to the Payment into the Bank of England, of Money to be placed to the Account of the Commissioners appointed by the Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for regulating certain Loans or Commissions at the End of every Quarter of a Year, to be by them applied in Reduction of the National Debt, or to an Account to be ruled and kept by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be intituled 'The Account of the Governor and Company of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies,' or in the said Governor's Fund, or to an Account to be made by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, of or relating thereto, shall be and the same is hereby

*LXII. And whereas by the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, of the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty, intitled Notice of a certain Fund, therein called 'The Company's Separate Fund,' it was enacted, that after Payment should be made by the said Company into His Majesty's Exchequer, of certain Installments (which said Payments were duly made), a should be lawful for the said Company, out of the said Separate Fund, and the Interest or growing Income thereof, to make and apply a Dividend of Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum on the then present or any future Amount of the said Capital Stock, which said Dividend or Dividends should be paid and payable by the said Company, and also any other Dividends which should become due in respect thereof; and that after the Expiration in the further Term by the said Act granted in their exclusive Trade, it should be lawful for the said Company to retain and dispose of what should then remain of the said Company's Separate Fund, or of the Monies constituting the same, and the Interest or other annual Proceeds thereof, in such manner as they should then think fit: And whereas by a certain other Act made in the Thirty seventh Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to enable the East India Company to raise Money by further increasing their Capital Stock, and to extend the Privileges now existing, respecting the perfect Stock of the said Company, in the said increased Stock after reciting, that the Payment of their said Dividend of Ten Shillings per Centum to the Proprietors of the increased Stock, to be made by virtue of the said last mentioned Act, out of the said Separate Fund, as in the said recited Act of the Thirty third Year of His Majesty's Reign is mentioned, would exhaust the same long before the Expiration of the then existing Term in the said exclusive Trade, it was enacted, for the Reasons therein mentioned, that the said Dividend of Ten Shillings per Centum, which under the Authority of the said Act of the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty would be payable to the Proprietors of the said increased Stock out of the said Separate Fund, should be paid to them out of the annual Profits of the said Company, in the same manner and at the same times as the Dividend of Ten Pounds per Centum, in the said Act mentioned, was to be paid to the Proprietors of the Stock of the said Company, and for that Purpose a Sum equal to the Amount of such Dividends should from time to time be directed to the annual Account, as a Charge on the said Trade, and added to the Account of the said Separate Fund: And whereas the said Company have not intended their Capital Stock pursuant to the Authority and Power given to them by the said Act of the Thirty seventh Year of His said Majesty's Reign: And whereas the said Separate Fund is still sufficient to pay the said Dividend of Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum upon the present Capital Stock of the said Company for a certain time, but not sufficient to pay such Dividend upon the said present Capital Stock during the whole of the further Term by this Act granted to the said United Company, in the said Terms of Possession and Reversion: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, there shall be paid out of the said Separate Fund a Dividend after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, on the present or any future Amount of the said Capital Stock of the said Company, for and during such time as the said Separate Fund shall be sufficient for that Purpose; and when the said Separate Fund shall become insufficient for the Payment of the whole of the said Dividend, so much as shall remain of the said Separate Fund shall be paid and applied towards the Payment of such Dividend of Ten Shillings, and the Balance of such Dividend shall be paid out of the Net Proceeds of the said Company's Profits in the manner hereinafter mentioned: any thing in the said Act of the Thirty seventh Year of His present Majesty, or any Act, Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.*

72 G 1 c. 31.
§ 5 as last repealed.

LXIII. And it is hereby enacted, That so much of the said Act of the Thirty seventh Year of His present Majesty, as directs that the said Dividend of Ten Shillings per Centum upon the increased Stock, to be raised by virtue of the said last mentioned Act, shall be paid out of the annual Profits of the said Company, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

which said Plan, to approve, alter, amend or add to, by the said Board of Commissioners, the said Court of Directors shall direct and order to be carried into Execution.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That the several Accounts required by the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, of the Thirty third Year of His said Majesty, to be annually laid before both Houses of Parliament, shall be immediately prepared and assigned in conformity to the Principles of Separation hereinafter directed, of the Territorial and Political Branch from the Commercial Branch of the Affairs of the said United Company.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the pass: of that Act, the said Court of Directors shall annually by before both Houses of Parliament, together with the Accounts directed by the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain of the Thirty third Year of His Majesty's Kings, and by this Act, to be laid before the said Houses by the said Court, One Copy of all the Regulations made by their several Governments in India, and transmitted to them under and in pursuance of an Act made in the Thirty seventh Year of His Majesty's Kings, entitled An Act for the better Administration of Justice at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay; and for preserving British Subjects from being coerced in Loans to the Native Princes in India; and also of a certain other Act, made in the Thirty sixth and Fortieth Year of His said Majesty, entitled An Act for settling further Regulations for the Government of the British Territories in India; and the latter Administration of Justice within the same; and also of a certain other Act, made in the Forty seventh Year of His Majesty's Kings, entitled An Act for the better Government of the Settlements of Fort Saint George and Bombay for the Regulation of Public Banks; and for amending so much of an Act, passed in the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty, as related to the Period at which the Civil Servants of the said India Company may be employed in their Service abroad.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That all Rates, Customs and Duties of Export and Import, which shall be charged in the East India or other Places under the Government of the said Company, upon any Goods, Wares or Merchandise of or belonging to the said Company, shall be charged in the Books of Account of the said Company to the Debt of the Commercial Branch of their Affairs; and all such Rates, Customs and Duties which shall be so charged upon any Goods, Wares or Merchandise of or belonging to the said Company, or which shall be received by the said Company in the East India or Parts aforesaid, upon any Goods, Wares or Merchandise of any Private Merchant, Trader or other Person, shall be placed in the Books of Account of the said Company, to the Credit of the Territorial Revenues of the said Company; and all such Rates, Customs and Duties, so placed to the Credit of the Territorial Revenues of the said Company, shall be deemed and taken to be Part of such Territorial Revenues, and shall be subject to the Control of the said Board of Commissioners, in like manner, to all Duties and Payers, as any other Part of such Territorial Revenues.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India shall, by force and virtue of this Act, have and be invested with full Power and Authority to superintend, direct and control all Orders and Instructions whatsoever, which in any wise relate to or concern the Amount of Appropriations to any Investment, or other Commercial Purposes, of any Part of the Revenues of the said Territories or Acquisitions in the East India or Parts aforesaid, other than and except such Sum as by this Act is directed to be issued in India for the Purpose of making good from the Indian Revenues, Payments to be made at Home on account of Territorial Charges; or of any Monies arising from any Loans raised or to be raised in the East India, or of any Securities issued or to be issued by any of the Governments of the said Company, in the same manner as all Orders and Instructions immediately related to and concerned the Civil or Military Government or Revenues of the said Territories or Acquisitions; any thing in the said first mentioned Act of the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty, or of any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Court of Directors of the said Company shall, and they are hereby required from time to time to deliver to the said Board, Copies of all Minutes, Orders, Resolutions and Proceedings of all Courts of Proprietors, General or Special, and of all Courts of Directors, within Eight Days after the holding of such Courts respectively; and also Copies of all Letters, Advertis and Dispatches, which shall at any time or times be received by the said Court of Directors, or any Committee of Directors, from the East India, or from any other of their Settlements or Possessions within the Limits of their Charter, or from any of the Servants of the said United Company stationed at Saint Helena, Batavia, Sourabaya, Singapore, or other Parts beyond the Seas, in any way relating to or concerning the Appropriation to any Investment, or other Commercial Purposes, of any Part of the Revenues of the said Territories or Acquisitions, or of any Monies arising from any Loans raised or to be raised in the East India, or of any Securities issued or to be issued by any of the Governments of the said Company, immediately after the Annual and Receipt thereof.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That no Orders or Instructions whatsoever relating to the Appropriation to any Investment or other Commercial Purpose whatsoever, of any Part of the Revenues of the said Territories or Acquisitions in the East India, or of any Monies arising from any Loans raised or to be raised in the East India, or of any Securities issued or to be issued by any of the Governments of the said Company, shall be at any time, sent or given to any of the Governments or Settlements in the East India by the Court of Directors of the said United Company, or by any Committee of the said Directors, until the same shall have been submitted to the Consideration of, and approved by the said Board; and for that Purpose, that Copies of all Orders and Instructions which the said Court of Directors, or any Committee of the said Directors shall propose to be sent to the East India, shall be by them previously laid before the said Board; and that

• LXXXII. And whereas a first Address to the President contained in the said Act made in the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, in respect to the filling up and supplying Vacancies in the Civil Service of the said Company has been found impracticably, without Detachment to the Public Service, or Injury to the best Claims and meritorious Exceptions of Individuals: And whereas a Modification of the said Act has been in part adopted in the Act of the Tenth Fourth of His present Majesty, relative to the said Scholars educated at Bengal College: It is therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, any Office, Place or Employment, the Salary and Privileges when of full career the Sum of Fifteen hundred Pounds, may be granted to and bestowed upon the said Servants who shall have been actually resident in India in the said Company's Service for the Space of Four Years at the least in the whole, and of the Salary, Privileges and Emoluments of any Office, Place or Employment, shall be added Four hundred Pounds per Annum, such Office, including that of the Council, may be granted to and bestowed upon any of the said Servants who shall have been actually resident in India in the Company's Service for the Space of ten Years at the least in the whole.

• LXXXIII. And whereas by a certain Act, made in the Fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, established an Act for making further Provision for the Payment of Salaries, and other Charges, to the Office of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, and for enabling the said India Company to refuse to the Service of the said Company, Military Officers removed therefrom by Sentence of Courts Martial, and to continue in the said Company, in case of necessary Emergency, to take up Ships by private Contract: It was declared and enacted, that it was lawful for the Court of Directors of the said United Company, to refuse to the Service of the said Company, any Military Officer who should have been or should be dismissed or suspended therefrom by the Sentence of a Court Martial, provided that no such Refusals should be in any way, said or effected, without the Approbation and Consent of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, for that Purpose had and obtained: And whereas it is expedient that the Refusals by the said Court of Directors to the Service of the said Company, of any of the said Company's Servants, Civil and Military, as shall be suspended by the Authority of any of the Governments or Possessions of the said Company in India, and also that the Refusals to their former Stations of Officers Civil and Military, removed by the like Authority, should be subject to the like Approbation and Consent of the said Board of Commissioners: It is therefore further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Refusals by the said Court of Directors, to the Service of the said Company, of any Servant of the said Company, Civil or Military, who shall have been suspended by the Authority of any of the said Company's Governments or Possessions in the said India, or Parts thereof, and no Refusals by the said Court of Directors to his Station, Office or Employment in the Service of the said Company of any Officer of the said Company, Civil or Military, who shall have been removed therefrom by the like Authority, shall be valid or effectual, without the Approbation and Consent of the said Board of Commissioners, for that Purpose had and obtained.

• LXXXIV. And whereas by the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, of the Thirtieth Year of His Majesty's Reign, it is enacted, that no Person who shall hold a Military Station in the Service of the said Company, being under the Rank of Commander or Chief of the Force, and who having departed from India by Leave of the Governor General in Council, or Governor in Council, shall not return to India within Five Years next after such Departure, shall be entitled to any Rank, or be capable of again serving in India, either in the European or Native Corps of Troops, unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Directors, and the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, that such Absence was occasioned by Sickness or Infirmary, or some inevitable Accident: And whereas Inconvenience to the Military Service of the said Company has been found to arise, in some cases, from the said Provision: It is therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Directors, with the Approbation of the said Board of Commissioners, to permit any Military Officer, being of the Rank of a General Officer or Colonel commanding a Regiment, or being a Lieutenant Colonel Commandant of a Regiment, who, having departed from India with such Leave as is therein specified, shall not have returned to India within Five Years from the time of such Departure, to have his Rank and be capable of again serving in India, although such Absence may not have been occasioned by Sickness or Infirmary, or any inevitable Accident: any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

• LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That when and as often as any Person shall hold any Civil Station in India, in the Service of the said Company, and having departed from India by Leave of the Governor General in Council, or Governor in Council, shall be bound to the said Company's Service, after an Absence of Five Years from the time of such Departure, such Person in and after such Return, shall take Rank and Precedence only according to the time he shall have passed in the Service of the said Company at the Period of his Departure from India: and on his Return to India, if any other Civil Servant or Servants at the Settlement to which he shall belong, shall have then passed a greater or the like Length of time in the Service of the said Company, as the Person so returned first passed when he left India, the Person so returned shall be placed and take Rank immediately below such other Civil Servant or Servants: any Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

• LXXXVI. And whereas by the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, of the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, it is enacted, that all the Civil Servants of the said United Company in India, under the Rank or Degree of Member of Council, shall have and be entitled to Precedence in the * Service

* Service of the said Company at their respective Stations according to the Seniority of their Appointment ;
 * And whereas the several Governors of the said Company are often prevented from appointing meritorious * Servants of the said Company to be Members of Courts, Boards and other official Establishments, where * Offices or Employments are exercised by several Servants of the said Company collectively, left by * Appointment One or more Members of each Court, Board or other Establishment should be superadded ;
 * Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Governor General or Governor in Council * of the said Company, if he shall think proper, upon Application in Writing for that Purpose by any Civil * Servant of the said Company desirous of being appointed a Member of any such Court, Board or other * Establishment, by special Order to direct that such Servant of the said Company, on being appointed to any * Office or Employment in any such Court, Board or other Establishment, shall take Precedence at or in such * Court, Board or other Establishment, according to the Seniority of his Appointment as a Member of such * Court, Board or other Establishment, although such Civil Servant in respect of whom such Order shall be * made may thereby take Precedence at or in such Court, Board or other Establishment, according to * the Seniority of his Appointment to the Service of the said Company ; and such Civil Servant shall thereupon * take Precedence at such Court, Board or other Establishment accordingly ; the said Act or any other Matter * or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

* LXXXVII. And whereas it is expedient, in the present circumstances, that the Number of His * Majesty's Forces, for which Payment should be made out of the Revenues arising from the said * Territories and Possessions in the East Indies should be ascertained and fixed ; Be it therefore enacted, That * it shall not be lawful for the Commissioners for the Affairs of India to give or approve Orders or Directions, * that there shall be paid, defrayed and allowed, out of the Revenues arising from the said Territories and * Possessions, in respect of His Majesty's Forces not or to be sent to the East Indies or Parts situated, for * the Security of the said Territories and Possessions, any Sum or Sums of Money, in respect of any greater * Number of His Majesty's Forces, than shall amount in the whole to Twenty thousand Men, including the * Commissariat and Non-Commissariat Officers ; unless any greater Number of His Majesty's Forces shall * be sent to the East Indies or Parts aforesaid, on the Requisition of the said Court of Directors ; as which * shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners to give and approve such Orders and Directions, * for paying, allowing and defraying such Sums as aforesaid, in respect to such additional Forces of His Majesty * is to be sent on the Requisition of the said Company.

* LXXXVIII. And whereas by the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain of the Thirty third Year * of His present Majesty, it was enacted, that no Grant or Re-Resolution of the said Company, or their Court or * Directors, to be made after the passing of this Act, and during the Continuance of their Right in the ex* clusive Trade therein granted, whereby the Funds of the said Company might become chargeable with any * new Salary, or Increase of Salary, or any new or additional Establishment of Officers or Servants, or any * new Pension or Increase of Pension, to any one Person, exceeding Two hundred Pounds per Annum, should * be available in Law, unless such Grant or Resolution should be approved and confirmed by the Board of * Commissioners for the Affairs of India, styled under the Hand of the President of the said Board ; And * whereas, for further protecting the Funds of the said Company, during the Continuance of the further Term * hereby granted to the said Company, it is expedient that the said Company should be put under reasonable * Limitations, in respect to the granting of Grants ; Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after * the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for the said Court of Directors to charge the Funds of the said * Company with the Payment of any Gratuity, to any Officer, Civil or Military, or other Person, exceeding the * Sum of Six hundred Pounds, unless the Grant or Resolution for that Purpose shall have been sanctioned by * the Court of Proprietors, and approved and confirmed by the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India ;
 * and that Copies of all Warrants or Instruments granting any Salary, Pension or Gratuity, shall be submitted * to both Houses of Parliament, within One Month after such Grant, if Parliament shall be then sitting, or if * not, within One Month after their next Meeting.

* LXXXIX. And whereas by a certain Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, * intitled *An Act for establishing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the East India * Company*, as well in India as in Europe, it was enacted, that the Salaries of the Governor General and Council * of Fort William, and of the Chief Justice and Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in * Bengal, shall take place and commence, in respect to all such Persons who shall be resident in Great Britain at * the time of their Appointment, upon and from the Day on which such Person shall embark from Great * Britain ; and that the Salaries of all such Persons who shall at the time of their Appointment be resident in * India, shall commence from and after their respectively taking upon them the Execution of their Offices ; And * whereas by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled *An Act for establishing * further Regulations for the Government of the British Territories in India, and the better Administration of * Justice within the same*, a further Provision was made in respect to the Salaries of the Chief Justice and Judges * of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras ; And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty seventh Year * of His Majesty's Reign, intitled *An Act for the better Administration of Justice at Calcutta, Madras and * Bombay, and for providing British Subjects from being concerned in Laws in the Native Provinces in India*, a * further Provision was made in respect to the Salary of the Recorder of the Court of Judicature at Bombay ; And * whereas on each Provision has been made respecting the Commencement of the Salaries of the Governor or * Council of Fort St. George, or of the Governor or Council of the Town and Island of Bombay, or of the * Governor or President of Madras, or of the Recorder there ; And whereas it is expedient that a general * and moderate Provision should be made in respect of all the said Offices and of others who may happen to be * in the United Kingdom at the time of their Appointments ; Be it therefore further enacted, That in such

XC. And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of His Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for making further Provision for the Payment of Salaries and other Charges in the Office of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, and for enabling the East India Company to relieve the Service of the said Company the said Officers removed therefrom by Statute of Queen Marial, and to authorize the said Company in case of any such Emergency, to take up Money by Bill of Exchange, it is enacted, that the whole of the Salaries to be paid to the Members of the said Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, and to the Secretaries and Officers of the same, together with all other contingent Charges and Expenses of the said

Board to be defrayed by the said United Company, shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty two thousand Pounds in any one Year: And whereas it is necessary, that an Addition should be made to the said Sum, for the Purpose of further remunerating the Services of the Secretaries and Officers of the said Board; Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Act as limits the Sum to be defrayed by the said Company on account of the said Board, to the Sum of Twenty two thousand Pounds in any one Year, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed; and that, from and after the passing of this Act, the Sum to be defrayed by the said Company on account of the said Board, shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty six thousand Pounds in any one Year; and that the same shall be deemed and taken as Part of the Political Charges of the said Company.

XCI. And whereas it is reasonable that His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, should have Power to grant Allowances, Commissions, Remunerations or Superannuations, to the Secretaries and other Officers of the said Board, under the Conditions hereinafter provided: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by any Warrant or Warrants under his or their Sign Manual, counterseigned by the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, to grant or allow to any of the Secretaries or Officers for the time being belonging to the said Board, such Allowances, Commissions, Remunerations or Superannuations as His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall think proper; and under and subject respectively to such or the like Conditions, and in such or the like Proportions, as Allowances, Commissions, Remunerations or Superannuations, may now be made to Public Officers, by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act to direct the Amount of Increase and Diminution of Public Salaries, Profits and Allowances, shall be made and before Parliament, and to regulate and control the granting and paying of such Salaries, Profits and Allowances; and that the same shall be paid and defrayed Quarterly by the said Company, and be deemed and taken as Part of their Political Charges.

XCII. Provided always, That where any Officer or Servant of the said Board shall have been in the Service of the said Company, previously to his Employment under the Authority of the said Board, the time of such Service under the said Company shall be taken into Account, in computing the Number of Years' Service under the said Board.

XCIII. And whereas it is reasonable that the said Court of Directors should have Power to grant Allowances, in the Nature of Superannuations, to such of their Officers and Servants in England, as from Age or Infirmary may no longer be qualified for the Execution of their several Offices or Employments:

Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Court of Directors to make Allowances, Commissions, Remunerations or Superannuations, to the Officers and Servants of the said Company in England; (subject to the Restrictions and according to the Conditions and Proportions following;) that is to say, where it shall be proved, to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Directors, that any such

Officer

Officer or Servant, being under Sixty Years of Age, shall be incapable, from any Defect of Mind or Body, to discharge the Duties of his Office, in such case, if he shall have served well and faithfully in the Service of the said Company for Ten Years, it shall and may be lawful to grant him, by way of Compensation, any annual Sum not exceeding One third of the Salary and allowed Emoluments of his Office: If above Ten Years and less than Twenty, any such Sum not exceeding One half of such Salary and allowed Emoluments: If above Twenty Years, any such Sum not exceeding Two thirds of such Salary and allowed Emoluments: If such Officer or Servant shall be above Sixty Years of Age, and he shall have served Twenty Years or upwards, it shall and may be lawful, with the Consent of the Directors of the said Company, by way of Superannuation, any annual Sum not exceeding Two thirds of the Salary and allowed Emoluments of his Office: If Sixty five Years of Age or upwards, and he shall have served Forty Years or upwards, any such Sum not exceeding Three fourths of such Salary and allowed Emoluments: If Sixty five Years of Age or upwards, and he shall have served Fifty Years or upwards, any such Sum not exceeding the whole of such Salary and allowed Emoluments: All what Allowances to be made, shall be charged in the Books of Account of the said Company to the Debit of that Branch of the Company's Affairs to which the said Officers or Servants may respectively belong: any thing to the said Act of the Thirtieth Year of His Majesty's Reign to the contrary notwithstanding.

XCV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That an Account of all Allowances, Compensation, Superannuation and Superannuations, which shall be granted, either to the Officers or Servants of the said Board of Commissioners, or to the Officer or Servants of the said Company as aforesaid, during the preceding Year, shall be laid before Parliament within Three Days after the next Meeting thereof.

XCV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice or affect the undivided Sovereignty of The Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and over the said Territories Acquisitions: nor to preclude the said United Company, after the Determination of the Term hereby granted, from the Enjoyment of or claim to any Rights, Privileges or Immunities which they now have, or to which they may hereafter be entitled.

XCVI. And whereas Doubts have been maintained whether the several Governments of the said Company pay him sufficient Power in all cases to make Laws and Regulations and Articles of War, for the Order and Discipline of Officers and Soldiers, being Natives of the East Indies, or other Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter, in the Service of the said Company, and for the Administration of Justice by Courts Martial to be held upon such Officers and Soldiers; and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed: Be it therefore enacted and declared, That the several Governments of Fort William, Fort Saint George and Bombay, have and shall, during the Continuance of the Term hereby granted to the said Company, be deemed and taken to have full Power and Authority to make all such Laws and Regulations and Articles of War, as they may think fit, for the Order and Discipline of all Officers and Soldiers, Natives of the East Indies, or other Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter, in their respective Services, and for the Administration of Justice by Courts Martial to be held on such Native Officers and Soldiers, and for the Constitution and manner of Proceeding of such Courts Martial, and for all other Purposes relating to or in any manner concerning such Native Officers and Soldiers, in as full and ample a manner as the said Governments respectively may make any other Laws or Regulations for the Government of the Natives of the several Territories subject to the said Governments respectively: any Act of Parliament, or other Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that all Laws, Regulations and Articles of War, hereafter to be made respecting any of the Matters aforesaid, whereby the Rights, Persons or Property of any such Native Officers or Soldiers may be affected, shall be made and promulgated in every respect in the same manner as other Regulations affecting the Rights, Persons or Property of Natives or other Individuals amenable to the Provincial Courts of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, are directed to be made by virtue of an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for the better Administration of Justice at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay: and for promoting British Subjects from being concerned in Laws in the Native Princes in India.

XCVII. And be it further enacted and declared, That all Laws, Regulations and Articles of War heretofore made by any of the said Governments, respecting the said Native Officers and Soldiers, or the Administration of Justice by Courts Martial to be held upon them, or the Constitution or Proceeding of such Courts Martial, or in any manner respecting the Government, Order or Discipline of such Native Officers or Soldiers, and all the established Usages acted upon by such Governments, respecting any of the Matters aforesaid, although the same may not have originated in any written Law or Regulation thereof, were and that such of the said Laws, Regulations, Articles of War and established Usages as are now subsisting, are, and until altered or repealed by the said Governments respectively shall be, in all respects and Purposes, valid: and that all Courts Martial holden according to such Laws, Regulations or Articles of War, or established Usages, and all Proceedings of the same respectively, and all other Acts or Proceedings done or had under such Laws, Regulations, Articles of War or established Usages, are hereby ratified and confirmed, and declared to be valid, and to have been legally had and done: in as far as the same respectively were and are conformable to such Laws, Regulations, Articles of War and established Usages.

XCVIII. And whereas it is expedient that the Governments of the said Company established at Fort William, Fort Saint George, Bombay and Prince of Wales Island respectively, should have Authority to impose Duties and Taxes to be levied within the several Towns of Calcutta and Madras, the Town and Island of Bombay and Prince of Wales Island, and also Duties and Taxes to be paid by Persons subject to the Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, the Court of the Recorder of Bombay, and the Court of Judicature at Prince of Wales Island respectively: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Governor General in Council of Fort William in Bengal, and to and for the Governor in Council of Fort Saint George, and to and for the Governor in Council of Bombay, and to and for the Governor in Council of Prinze of Wales Island, within the respective Presidencies of Fort William, Fort Saint George, Bombay and Prinze of Wales Island, to impose all such Duties of Customs and other Taxes, to be levied, raised and paid within the said Towns of Calcutta and Madraz, the said Town and Island of Bombay, and Prinze of Wales Island, and upon and by all Persons whatsoever, resident or being therein respectively, and in respect of all Goods, Wares, Merchandises, Commodities and Property whatsoever also being therein respectively; and also upon and by all Persons whatsoever, whether British born or Foreigners, resident or being in any Country or Place within the Authority of the said Governments respectively; and in respect of all Goods, Wares, Merchandises, Commodities and Property whatsoever, being in any such Country or Place, as in full, large and ample manner as such Governor General in Council, or Governor in Council respectively may now lawfully impose any Duties or Taxes to be levied, raised or paid, upon or by any Persons whatsoever, or in any Place whatsoever, within the Authority of the said Governments respectively: Provided always, that no Impositions or any such Duty or Tax, or any Increase of any such Duty or Tax, within the said Towns of Calcutta or Madraz, the said Town and Island of Bombay, or Prinze of Wales Island, shall be valid or effectual, until the same shall have been sanctioned by the said Court of Directors, with the Approbation of the said Board of Commissioners, in manner herebefore preferred respecting Duties and Taxes of Export, Import and Transit on Goods, Wares or Merchandise.

XCIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for such Governor General in Council, and Governors in Council respectively, to make Laws and Regulations respecting such Duties and Taxes, and to impose Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, for the Non-payment of such Duties or Taxes, or for the Breach of such Laws or Regulations, as in full and ample manner as such Governor General in Council, or Governors in Council respectively, may now lawfully make any other Laws or Regulations, or impose any other Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures whatsoever, and all such Laws and Regulations shall be taken Notice of without being specially pleaded, as well as the said Supreme Courts and Recorder's Court and Court of Judicature at Prinze of Wales Island respectively, as in all other Courts whatsoever, within the said British Territories: And that it shall and may be lawful for all Persons whatsoever, to prefer, prosecute and maintain in the said Supreme Courts and Recorder's Court and Court of Judicature at Prinze of Wales Island respectively, all manner of Informations, Informations and Suits whatsoever, for enforcing such Laws and Regulations, or for any Matter or Thing whatsoever arising out of the same; any Act, Charter, Usage or other Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

C. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Advocate General, or other principal Law Officer of the said Company, at the several Presidencies of Fort William, Fort Saint George, Bombay and Prinze of Wales Island, to exhibit in Behalf of the said Company to the Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William and Madraz, Recorder's Court at Bombay, and Court of Judicature at Prinze of Wales Island, as Occasion shall require, against any Person or Persons whatsoever, subject to the Jurisdiction of the said several Courts respectively, any Information or Informations for any Breach or Breaches of the Revenue Laws or Regulations of any of the said Governments, or for any Fine or Fines, Penalty or Penalties, Forfeiture or Forfeitures, Debt or Debts, or Sum or Sums of Money, contracted, incurred, or due by any such Person or Persons, in respect of any such Law or Regulations; and such Proceedings shall be had and taken upon every such Information as may lawfully be had or taken, in case of an Information filed by His Majesty's Attorney General in the Court of Exchequer in England, for any Offence committed against the Revenue Laws of England, or for any Fine, Penalty, Forfeiture, Debt or Sum of Money due in respect thereof; in far as the circumstances of the case, and the Course and Practice of Proceeding in the said Courts respectively will admit; and all Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, Debts and Sums of Money, contracted or owed under or by virtue of any such Information, to be exhibited as aforesaid, shall belong to the said United Company, and the same, or the Proceeds thereof, shall be entered in their Books of Account to the Credit of the Territorial Revenues of the said Company.

CI. And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for empowering the several Governments of the said Company in India, to restrain, by summary Commissions, British Subjects residing in India without License or Certificate, or beyond the Term of such License or Certificate, in cases where such Governments may not deem it advisable to commit the Persons valued in them of prosecuting such Persons for a Misdemeanor, or sending them to the United Kingdom: Be it therefore enacted, That upon Information being exhibited by the Advocate General, or other principal Law Officer of the said Company, at any of their Presidencies, in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William, the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madraz, the Recorder's Court at Bombay, or the Court of Judicature at Prinze of Wales Island, that any such Subject of His Majesty has been found in any Part or Place of the said East India, or Parts aforesaid, in which the Jurisdiction of the Court in which such Information may be filed extends, without being duly licensed or otherwise authorized by that Power, it shall and may be lawful for the Court in which such Information may be filed, to cause such Person to be arrested and brought before such Court; and upon Proof being duly made before such Court of the Substantiality of the Matter stated in the said Information, such Person shall be required to produce or prove the License or other Authority under which he came to and resides in the said East India, and under which he is referred to or was remaining, or found at the Place where he is proved to have been: And in case he shall fail to produce or prove any such License or Authority, or duly to account for the Non-production or Want of Proof thereof, or if upon Production or Proof thereof it shall appear to the said Court that the Residence of such Person in the said East India, or his refusing to or remaining at the Place where he is proved to have been, was not within the true Intent and Meaning of such License or Authority, it shall and may be

lawful for each Court, in any summary way, to commit each Offender of having been found on each Day at each Place within the Egpt India or Parta aforesaid, without being duly licensed or otherwise authorized for that Purpose, and to order each Offender to pay each Fine, not exceeding Two thousand Rupees, as the said Court shall think fit, and also to commit each Offender to the Gaol of the Presidency to which such Court shall belong, for a Period not exceeding Two Months, unless each Fine shall be sooner paid; and as each such Person shall a second time be convicted of a like Offence, either before the same or any other Court, it shall and may be lawful for such Court before which such Person shall be so convicted a second time, to order such Offender to pay each Fine, not exceeding Four thousand Rupees, as the said Court shall think fit, and also to commit each Offender to the Gaol of the Presidency to which such Court shall belong, for a Period not exceeding Four Months, unless each Fine shall be sooner paid: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal, alter or annul any Enactment or Provision contained in any former Act or Acts, whereby any Person is being found in the Egpt India or Parta aforesaid, without having a Licence or other Authority for that Purpose, as or may be subjected to a Prosecution for a Misdemeanor, or whereby such Person is or may be liable to be sent to the United Kingdom: Provided nevertheless, that no Person who shall have been convicted as aforesaid, shall be liable to be prosecuted for a Misdemeanor, or sent to the United Kingdom, in respect of any Reference in the Egpt India or Parta aforesaid, previously to the Date of such Conviction.

CII. And, for preventing any Delay of Justice, or the unnecessary Detention of Persons charged with Offences, be it further enacted, That all His Majesty's Courts exercising Criminal Jurisdiction within the said several Presidencies of the said Company, shall, and they are hereby required, Four times at the least in every Year, on such Days and at such convenient Seasons of time as the Judges of the said Courts respectively shall appoint, to hold their Sessions, for the Purpose of taking Cognizance of all Matters relating to Pleas of the Crown.

CIII. And whereas great Inconvenience and Expense have hitherto been experienced in cases of Prosecution under the Authority of the Advocate General or other principal Law Officer of the said Company, at their several Presidencies of Port William, Port Isaac Grange and Bombay respectively, for Misdemeanors committed at a Distance from the said several Presidencies, by the ordinary Course of Indictment or Information filed with Leave of the Court? Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Advocate General, or other principal Law Officer of the said Company at their several Presidencies in all cases of Misdemeanor alleged to have been committed by any British Subjects, at a Distance of more than One hundred Miles from the Presidency, within the Limits whereof such Offence shall be alleged to have been committed, to file an Information or affidavit in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William, the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, or the Recorder's Court at Bombay, as the case may be, and all such Proceedings shall and may be used and had upon such Information as may lawfully be used and had in cases of Information filed on affidavits by His Majesty's Attorney General in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in England; as, Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

CIV. And whereas it may be doubtful whether the Governor General of Port William in Bengal, or other Persons authorized to take, arrest and imprison such Persons as may be found within the Egpt India, and other Limits of the said Company's Charters, without Licence or other lawful Authority for that Purpose, have Power to arrest or lead any such Person or Persons to the said United Kingdom, except for the Purpose of being prosecuted for a Misdemeanor: And whereas it may be sufficient in many cases to arrest and lead such Person to the United Kingdom, without subjecting them to further Prosecution? Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Governor General, or in his Absence from his Government the Vice President, the Governor or any of the said Company's Presidents, the Chief Officers of the said Company resident at any British Settlement in the Egpt India or Parta aforesaid, the Company's Council of Superintendents at the Town and Factory of Canton, within the said Town and Factory, and upon the River of Canton, or other Part of the Coast of Canton, and such other Persons as may be from time to time especially deputed and authorized for that Purpose by the Court of Directors of the said United Company, to take, arrest, detain and lead to be taken, arrested and fined, at any Place or Places within the Egpt India or Parta aforesaid, and to commit and send to the United Kingdom, as board any Ship or Ships or of belonging to or in the Service of the said Company, bound to the United Kingdom, all such Persons as being found at any such Place or Places in the Egpt India or Parta aforesaid, without Licence or other lawful Authority for that Purpose; and the Masters or other Persons leaving the Command of all such Ships, shall and they are hereby authorized and required to receive, and safely and securely to keep all and every such Person and Persons who shall be first on board any Ship or Ships for the Purpose aforesaid, until such Person or Persons shall be landed in some Port or Ports of the United Kingdom: Provided always, that every Person who shall be so put on board any such Ship for the Purpose aforesaid, shall be entitled to be discharged in such Port of the United Kingdom, in which such Ship shall be moored or safe, as such Person shall think fit.

CV. And whereas His Majesty's British Subjects resident in the British Territories in India, without the Towns of Calcutta, Madras and Misal of Bombay, as, now, by Law, subject only to the Jurisdiction of His Majesty's Courts at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay respectively, and are exempted from the Jurisdiction of the Courts established by the said United Company within the said Territories, to which all other Persons, whether Natives or others, Inhabitants in the said Territories without the Limits of the Towns aforesaid, are amenable: And whereas it is expedient to provide more efficient Remedies for the better Information of the said Territories, as well in the case of Assault, forcible Entry, or other Injury, accompanied with Force, which may be committed by British Subjects at a Distance from the Places where His Majesty's Courts are established, as in case of Civil Controversies with such British Subjects? to recover the Possession or Occupation of such Property, or for Rent, or other Demand arising out of the Possession or Occupation of such Property by such British Subject: Provided also, that where by the Laws or Regulations in force, or hereafter to be in force, within the Provinces respectively subject to the Government of Fort William, Fort Saint George, and Bombay aforesaid, it would be competent to a Party to any such Judgment or Decree of any Subordinate, Civil, or Revenue Court of Judicature, to appeal therefrom to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlat, or other Court however designated, exercising within those Provinces respectively the highest appellate Jurisdiction in Civil Cases, it shall be competent to British Subjects of His Majesty, in Cases commenced against them under the Provision of this Act, instead of appealing to the said Sudder Dewanny Adawlat, or other Court as aforesaid, to exercise the highest appellate Jurisdiction as aforesaid, to appeal to the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William, at Fort Saint George, or the Recorder's Court at Bombay, according as the Suit may have been commenced in the Province subordinate to either of the said Presidencies; and such Court shall have the same Powers as to stipending or allowing Execution of the Judgment or Decree appealed against, and as to taking Security for Costs, or for the Performance of the Decree or Judgment of the said subordinate Courts, as the said Sudder Dewanny Adawlat or other such Court as aforesaid would have had, and shall also make Rules of Practice for the Conduct of the said Appeals, in all other respects conforming in Substance and Effect as nearly as possible to the Course of Procedure of the said Sudder Dewanny Adawlat, or other such Court as aforesaid in cases of Appeal: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to take away the Jurisdiction of the said Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William and Madras, or the said Recorder's Court at Bombay respectively; but that all Process issuing out of the said Courts against any British Subject may, at their Election, instead of being in such Provincial Courts as aforesaid, be provided, commenced and prosecuted in the said Supreme Courts of Judicature, and the said Recorder's Court respectively, in the same manner as before the passing of this Act: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to authorize the holding or occupying of any Land or other immovable Property, beyond the Limits of the said General Presidency, by any British Subject of His Majesty, otherwise than under and according to the Permission of the Government of the said Presidency.

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That every British Subject of His Majesty, not in the Service of His Majesty, or of the said United Company, who, after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight and fourteen, shall go to and reside in any Part of the British Territories in India, distant more than Two Miles from the Presidency to which the same shall be subordinate, with the Permission of the Government of such Presidency, or who shall, after the said Day, change his Residence from one Part thereof to another, distant as aforesaid, with such Permission, shall procure from the Chief Secretary of the said Government or other Officer authorized for that Purpose, a Certificate signed by the said Chief Secretary or other Officer, expressing that such British Subject has the Permission of such Government to reside at such Place, specifying the time, and expressing also whether such Permission has been granted during the Presence of such Government or for any limited time; and the said Certificate shall be deposited by such British Subject in the Civil Court of the District in which he shall go to reside, within One Month after his taking up his Residence there, and shall be kept among the Records of the said Court, of which certificate is deposited, a true Copy attested by the Judge or other Officer of such Court therein authorized, shall be given to the Party deposing the same, and shall be deemed and taken as all Courts of Justice, and as all Questions whatsoever, to be good and sufficient Evidence of such Certificate, in all the matters that he shew: And no British Subject not in the Service of His Majesty, or of the said United Company, going as aforesaid in any such Part of the British Territories, or changing his Residence from one Part thereof to another, after the said Day, shall be allowed, while he is so residing, to give or maintain any Civil Action or Proceeding (other than in the Nature of an Appeal) against any Person whatsoever in any Court of Civil Jurisdiction within the British Territories in India, until he shall have deposited in the Court in which such Action or Proceeding is commenced, a Copy of such Certificate signed by the Judge of the Court where the same is deposited; or as an Affidavit attesting to the Satisfaction of the Court for not doing the same; and if it shall be proved to the Court in which such Action is brought, that such British Subject is residing in any Place within the said Territories, distant more than Two Miles from the Presidency to which it is subordinate, without such Certificate or otherwise than according to the Permission contained in such Certificate, or that such Permission has been revoked, or that, being for a limited time, it has expired and has not been renewed, and that such British Subject is therefore residing without Permission at more than Two Miles distance from such Presidency, such British Subject shall thereupon be confined.

CIX. And whereas Doubts have been entertained whether Persons being Native of India, in the Service of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or of any of His Majesty's Subjects, are amenable to the Jurisdiction of the Provincial Courts established in the East Indies, or whether such Persons, being Natives of India, in the Service of the said United Company, or of His Majesty's Subjects, are not exclusively amenable to the Jurisdiction of the said Courts at Fort William, Madras and Bombay; and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed: Be it further enacted and declared, That all Persons whatsoever, being Native of India, who have been, now are or hereafter may be employed, by or in the Service of His Majesty, the said United Company, or of any of His Majesty's Subjects, were, and are, and shall be subject and amenable to all Provincial Courts of competent Jurisdiction for all Crimes and Misdemeanors, and in all Actions and Suits whatsoever, of which such Courts respectively could take Cognizance, if the Persons having committed such Crimes or Misdemeanors, or against whom the Causes of such Actions

Where Appeal would lie to Sudder Dewanny Adawlat, or Local Courts, British Subjects may appeal in His Majesty's Courts.

Persons for Appointment of His Majesty's Courts, may in any case, at their Election.

British Subjects, distant as aforesaid, may in any case, at their Election, deposit a true Copy of such Certificate in the Civil Court of the District.

Being in Civil Courts in all cases, such Copy of such Certificate, or as an Affidavit, may be deposited in the Court.

Well, in India, in Service of His Majesty, or of any of His Majesty's Subjects, are amenable to the Jurisdiction of the Provincial Courts.

Admiral or Ships shall have power, had not been employed by, or had not been in the Service of His Majesty, or the said United Company, or any of His Majesty's Subjects; any Law, Usage, or Practice to the contrary thereof in any way notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall any way call into question the said Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William and Madras, and the said Court of the Recorder of Bombay respectively, or any Jurisdiction over the Nations of India, which such Courts may now lawfully exercise; but such Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William and Madras, and the said Court of the Recorder of Bombay respectively, as well as the Provincial Courts herein referred to, according to their several Jurisdictions, shall have a concurrent Jurisdiction over Nations of India, employed by or in the Service of the said United Company or any of His Majesty's Subjects.

And whereas the Courts established by the said United Company have an Jurisdiction over Crimes of Mischance, and Deaths have been entertained whether the Admiralty Jurisdiction of His Majesty's Courts at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, extends to any Persons but those who are amenable to their ordinary Jurisdiction; by reason whereof Persons of Justice may suffer: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's Courts at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, exercising Admiralty Jurisdiction, to take Cognizance of all Crimes perpetrated on the High Seas, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, in as full and ample a manner as any other Court of Admiralty Jurisdiction established by His Majesty's Authority in any Colony or Settlement whatsoever belonging to The Crown of the said United Kingdom.

And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the Advocate General or other Principal Law Officer of the said Company, at any of the said Company's Presidencies, is by Law authorized to exhibit to the respective Courts of Judicature at any of the said Presidencies, for and on behalf of His Majesty, Informations in the Nature of Actions at Law, or Bills in Equity, for or in respect of any Cause or Causes of Action, Debts, Damages, Demands, Accounts, Reckonings, Sums or Sums of Money, Stores, Goods, Chattels, or any other Matter, Cause or Thing whatsoever, which may have arisen or accrued, or which may hereafter arise or accrue to His Majesty: For Remedy thereof, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Advocate General, or other Principal Law Officer of the said Company for the time being, at each of the said Company's Presidencies respectively, for and on behalf of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to exhibit to the respective Supreme Courts of Judicature at the said Company's Presidencies at Fort William and Madras, or to the Recorder's Court at Bombay, or the Court of Judicature at Town of Poona, Informations or Informations in the Nature of an Action or Actions at Law, or of a Bill or Bills in Equity, as Occasions shall require, against any Person or Persons residing within or being amenable to the Jurisdiction of the said Courts respectively, for or in respect of any Cause or Causes of Action, Debts, Damages, Demands, Accounts, Reckonings, Sums or Sums of Money, Stores, Goods, Chattels, or any other Matter, Cause or Thing whatsoever, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as His Majesty's Attorney General for the time being is by Law authorized to exhibit any such Informations or Informations in any of His Majesty's Courts of Law or Equity in this Realm; and that thereupon such Proceedings shall be had as far as the circumstances of the case and the Courts and Practice of the said Courts of Judicature at the said several Presidencies will admit, as are had upon any such Informations exhibited by His Majesty's Attorney General in any of His Majesty's Courts of Law or Equity in this Realm.

And whereas great Inconvenience has arisen, from requiring the Civil Servants of the said United Company, and other Persons stationed at a Distance from the Presidencies, to attend and take the Oaths in the Courts of Oyer and Tenor of the said Presidencies, as prescribed by the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain of the Thirty third Year of His Majesty's Kings: Be it therefore enacted, That all Persons who shall be nominated and appointed to any such Commissions of the Peace as are in the said Act mentioned, shall be capable of sitting as Justices of the Peace in every respect, according to the Tenor of such Commissions, upon taking and subscribing in any Civil or Criminal Court of Justice, within the Presidencies in and for which any such Commission shall have been before any other Justice of the Peace, the like Oaths as are appointed by the said Act to be taken in the Court of Oyer and Tenor of the Presidencies or Presidency for which such Persons shall be appointed to act as Justices of the Peace; and the Subscription of such Persons to the said Oaths shall be deposited and kept with the Records of the Courts of Justice in which the said Oaths shall have been administered.

And whereas it is expedient that the Sadler Dewanny Adawlat, and Nazam Adawlat, or other Provincial Courts, however denominated, exercising the highest Jurisdiction within the Presidencies respectively subject to the Governments of Fort William, Fort Saint George and Bombay, should have Power and Authority to execute Process of Arrest, either Civil or Criminal, within the Towns of Calcutta and Madras, and the Towns and Islands of Bombay, notwithstanding the Jurisdiction of His Majesty's Courts established at those Places respectively: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Sadler Dewanny and Nazam Adawlat, or other Provincial Courts aforesaid, to execute or cause to be executed upon all Persons subject to the Jurisdiction of such Courts respectively, in all manner of lawful Process of Arrest, within the respective Limits of the Towns of Calcutta and Madras, and of the Towns and Islands of Bombay, in the same manner as the said Courts respectively may, by writ or any Power now used, or hereafter to be used in them, lawfully execute, or cause to be executed, such Process in any Place situate without the said Limits: any Act, Charter or other Matter or Thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that all such Process which shall be executed within the Limits aforesaid, shall be in Writing, and shall have underwritten or indorsed thereon, or otherwise annexed thereto, a Translation thereof, or of the Substance thereof, in the English Language and Character, signed by one of the Judges of the Court from whence the same shall issue.

And

XXIV. And whereas the Provisions, for the Protection of Property and Trade in the East Indies, that have hitherto been made by Act of Parliament, for the Payment of Money within the East Indies, should be more fully and effectually provided for; and also, that further Provisions should be made for the Punishment of the Crimes of Forgery, and of uttering forged Instruments, and of counterfeiting the Current Coins, and of using such Counterfeit Coins, in the East Indies: Be it therefore enacted, That if any Person or Persons within the local Limits of the Criminal Jurisdiction of any of His Majesty's Courts at Fort William, Fort Saint George, Bombay, or Princé of Wales Island, or if any Person or Persons personally subject to the Jurisdiction of any of the said Courts, at any Place in the East Indies, or any Place between the Cape of Good Hope and the Straits of Magellan, where the said Company shall have a Settlement, Factory or other Establishment, shall send or take by Robbery any Bond, Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Treasury Note, Banker's Note, Order, Acknowledgment or other Security or Warrant for the Payment of Money, or emitting any Person to the Payment of Money, being the Property of any other Person or Persons, or of any Corporation, notwithstanding any of the said Particulars are termed in Law a Cheque or Issue, it shall be deemed and construed to be Forgery, if of the same Nature, and in the same Degree, and with or without the Benefit of Clergy, in the same manner as it would have been if the Offender had taken or taken by Robbery any other Goods of like Value with the Money due on such Bond, Note, Bill, Order, Acknowledgment, Warrant or other Security respectively, or secured thereby, and not being satisfied; and such Offender and Offenders shall suffer such Punishment as he, she or they would or might have done, if he, she or they had stolen other Goods of the like Value with the Money due on such Bond, Note, Bill, Order, Acknowledgment, Warrant or other Security respectively, or secured thereby, and remaining unsatisfied; any Law to the contrary thereof is any wise notwithstanding.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons within the local Limits of the Criminal Jurisdiction of the said Courts, or if any Person or Persons personally subject to the Jurisdiction of any of the said Courts, at any Place in the East Indies, or at any Place between the Cape of Good Hope and the Straits of Magellan, where the said Company shall have a Settlement, Factory or other Establishment, shall falsely make, forge, counterfeit or alter, or cause or procure to be falsely made, forged, counterfeited or altered, or wilfully sell or assist in the false making, forging, counterfeiting or altering, any Bond, or any written Instrument for the Conveyance of any Property or Interest in any Land, House or Goods, or for securing the Payment of Money, or any Will, Testament, Bond, Writing obligatory, Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note for Payment of Money, or any Indebtedment or Assignment of any Bill of Exchange, or Promissory Note for the Payment of Money, or any Acquittance or Receipt for any Money or Goods, or any Accountable Receipt of any Note, Bill or other Security for Payment of Money, or any Warrant or Order for Payment of Money or Delivery of Goods, with Intention to defraud any Person whatsoever, or any Corporation; or shall utter or publish as true, or sell, offer or dispose of, or put away, within the Limits aforesaid, any false, forged, counterfeited or altered Bond, written Instrument for the Conveyance of Property or Interest in any Land, House or Goods, or for securing the Payment of Money, or any Will, Testament, Bond, Writing obligatory, Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note for Payment of Money, Indebtedment or Assignment of any Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note for Payment of Money, Acquittance or Receipt for any Money or Goods, or any Accountable Receipt for any Note, Bill, or other Security for Payment of Money, Warrant or Order for Payment of Money, or Delivery of Goods, with Intention to defraud any Person, or any Corporation, knowing the same to be false, forged, counterfeited or altered; it shall and may be lawful for the Court before which any such Person or Persons shall be convicted of any such Offence by due Course of Law, to order and adjudge that such Person or Persons shall be transported to such Place beyond the Seas, and for such Term of Years, as the said Court shall direct.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons within the local Limits of the Criminal Jurisdiction of the said Courts, or if any Person or Persons personally subject to the Jurisdiction of any of the said Courts, at any Place in the East Indies, or at any Place between the Cape of Good Hope and the Straits of Magellan, where the said Company shall have a Settlement, Factory or other Establishment, shall counterfeit, or procure to be counterfeited, or wilfully sell or assist in counterfeiting, any of the Gold or Silver Coins of any of the British Governments in India, or any Gold or Silver Coins usually current and received as Money in Payments in any Part of the British Possessions in the East Indies; it shall and may be lawful for the Court before which any such Person or Persons shall be convicted of any such Offence by due Course of Law, to order and adjudge that such Person or Persons shall be transported to such Place beyond the Seas, and for such Term of Years, as the said Court shall direct.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons within the local Limits of the Criminal Jurisdiction of the said Courts, or if any Person or Persons personally subject to the Jurisdiction of any of the said Courts, at any Place in the East Indies, or at any Place between the Cape of Good Hope and the Straits of Magellan, where the said Company shall have a Settlement, Factory or other Establishment, shall utter, or tender in Payment, or sell, or give in Exchange, or pay or put off to any Person or Persons, any such false or counterfeited Coin as aforesaid, knowing the same to be so false or counterfeited, and shall be thereof convicted, every Person so offending shall suffer Six Months' Imprisonment, and shall in the Discretion of the Court before which he or she shall be so convicted, be subjected to Hard Labour during the Term of such Imprisonment, and find Sureties for his or her Good Behaviour for Six Months next, to be completed from the End of the said Six Months; and in the same Person shall afterwards be committed a Second time of the like Offence, of uttering or tendering in Payment, or giving in Exchange, or paying or putting off any such false or counterfeited Coin as aforesaid, knowing the same to be false or counterfeited, such Person shall for

General Note.

Each Second Offence suffer Two Years Imprisonment, and also, at the Discretion of the Court before which he or she shall be so convicted, be sentenced to Hard Labour during the Term of such Imprisonment, and find Sureties for his or her Good Behaviour for Two Years more, to be computed from the End of the first Two Years; and if the same Person shall afterwards offend a Third time, in uttering or tendering in Payment or giving in Exchange, or paying or putting off any such false or Counterfeit Coin as aforesaid, knowing the same to be false or counterfeit, and shall be convicted of such Third Offence in any of the Courts aforesaid, he or she shall be sentenced to Transportation for Life to such Place beyond the Seas as the said Court shall direct.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons having been convicted of any Offence or Offences by virtue of this Act, shall again be prosecuted in any Court, other than the Court or Courts wherein such Person or Persons shall have been before convicted for a like Offence, whereby such Person or Persons would be subject to an increased Punishment, the Clerk of the Crown or other Officer to whom it may belong to keep the Records of the Court where any such Conviction shall have taken place, shall, at the Request of the Prosecutors, or any other Person on His Majesty's Behalf, certify the same, by Writing under his Hand, in a few Words, containing the Substance and Effect of such Conviction, for which Certificates One Rouble and no more shall be paid; and such Certificate being produced in Court shall be sufficient Proof of such former Conviction.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons within the local Limits of the Criminal Jurisdiction of the said Courts, or if any Person or Persons personally subject to the Jurisdiction of any of the said Courts, at any Place in the East India, or at any Place between the Cape of Good Hope and the Strait of Magellan, where the said Company shall have a Settlement, Factory or other Establishment, shall have in his, her or their Custody without lawful Excuse, the Proof whereof shall be on the Party accused, any greater Number of Pieces than Five Pieces of such false or Counterfeit Coin as aforesaid, every such Person bring thereof consisted upon the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, or if there should be no Justice of the Peace duly qualified to sit in the Place where such Offence shall be committed, before One of the Judges of His Majesty's Court there, shall forfeit and forfeit all such false and Counterfeit Coin, which shall be cut in Pieces and delivered by order of such Justice or Judge, and shall for every Offence forfeit and pay any Sum of Money not exceeding in Value Forty Sixteen Roubles or less than Twenty Sixteen Roubles in the Currency of the Place in which such Offence shall be committed, for every such Piece of false or Counterfeit Coin which shall be found in the Custody of such Person, One Moiety to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish, Settlement or Place, in which such Offence shall be committed; and in case any such Person shall not be forthwith paid, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Judge to commit the Person or Persons who shall be adjudged to pay the same, to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept to Hard Labour for the Space of Three Calendar Months, or until such Person shall be paid.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons within the local Limits of the Criminal Jurisdiction of the said Courts, or if any Person or Persons personally subject to the Jurisdiction of any of the said Courts, at any Place in the East India, or at any Place between the Cape of Good Hope and the Strait of Magellan, where the said Company shall have a Settlement, Factory or other Establishment, shall counterfeit, alter, utter or falsify any Licence, authorizing any Ship or Vessel to proceed to any Place in the East India, or Ports aforesaid, or any Licence or Certificate authorizing any Person to go to or reside in any such Place, or any attested Copy of any such Licence or Certificate, or shall utter or publish as true, any such counterfeit, altered, altered or falsified Licence, Certificate or attested Copy, knowing the same to be counterfeited, altered, altered or falsified, and shall be convicted thereof, every Person so offending shall suffer such Imprisonment not exceeding One Year, and shall pay such Fine not exceeding in Value One thousand Sixteen Roubles in the Currency of the Place in which such Offence shall be committed, as the Court before which he or she shall have been so convicted, shall direct.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Governments of the said Presidencies and Settlements respectively shall and they are hereby required, to take Order for the due Performance of all Sentences of Transportation pronounced by any of the said Courts, under and by virtue of this Act: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any such Court to order the Transportation of any Person being a Native of India and not born of European Parents, to any Part beyond the Seas, situated more than Thirty Degrees North, or Twenty Six Degrees South of the Line.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whomsoever shall be convicted of making a false Oath, touching any of the Matters directed or required by this Act to be testified on Oath, such Person or Persons so convicted as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and shall be liable to the Pain and Penalties to which Persons guilty of Perjury are liable by any Law in force in that Part of the said United Kingdom called England; and if any Person shall corruptly procure or share any other Person or Persons to make falsely in any such Oath, such Person, being duly convicted of such procuring and abetting, shall, for every such Offence, incur and suffer such Penalties, Forfeitures, Fines and Disabilities, as Persons convicted of Perjury are respectively liable unto, by any Law in force in the said Part of the United Kingdom called England.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Suit or Action shall be brought or commenced against the said United Company, or any of their Servants, or any Person or Persons acting by their Authority, for the Recovery of any Coals or Damages for the unlawful taking, averting, seizing, impounding, stealing, or bringing into the United Kingdom, of any Person or Persons found in the East India or other Ports aforesaid, within the Limits of the said Company's Charter, or as not being authorized to trade or traffick there, the Defendant or Defendants to such Suit or Action may plead the General Issue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence

Evidence for his or their Defence; and the Proof shall lie on the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs upon the Trial of the Issue, to show that, at the time or times of arresting or seizing such Person or Persons respectively for the Causes aforesaid, in the manner in which such arresting or seizing shall be laid or charged to have been done in or by the Declaration or Declarations in such Suits or Actions, the Person or Persons so arrested was or were in the Military or Marine Service of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or was or were under Commission to serve the said Company in India, or was or were duly possessed of a Licence or Licences, Certificate or Certificates in Writing, authorizing him or them to go to or reside and traffick in the East Indies or Parts aforesaid, or that the Person or Persons, not being in His Majesty's Service, was or were at the time or times of his or their being so seized or arrested, entitled or authorized, by the Stipulations of such Commissions, Licences or Certificates respectively, to remain and continue in India or other the Parts aforesaid; and in Failure of such Proof, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become convicted; and to such case, or in any other case wherein the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become acquitted, or wherein Judgment shall be given against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs upon Demurrer, or where a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, he or they shall have Treble Costs awarded to be paid by the respective Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Suit or Action; any Law, Statute or Provision to the contrary notwithstanding.

CCXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Suits and Prosecutions for any thing done under or by virtue of this Act, shall be commenced within the Space of Three Years after the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen; or being done in the United Kingdom, in the Absence of any Person beyond Sea aggrieved thereby, then within the Space of Three Years next after the Return of such Person to the United Kingdom.

CCXV. And be it further enacted, That in each and such Parts of this Act, in respect whereof on particular time or times of Commencement in or are herein named or appointed, shall have Commencement from and after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners hereinafter to be named on the Part of His Majesty and the Owners and Proprietors of Estates in the said Parishes respectively, and they are hereby required, to set out and allot unto and for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in each and every of the Parishes within the said Forest, so much of the Open and Waste Land within each and every of such Parishes and Liberties, Quantity, Quality and Situation considered, as shall be equal to Nine Thirty second Parts of the whole of the Waste Lands in each and every of such Parishes and Liberties respectively, which shall be and be within the Boundaries and Limits of the said Forest of Windsor, to Satisfaction of His Majesty's Perpetual Rights in and over such Parishes respectively.

II. And be it further enacted, That such Parts of the said Common and Waste Lands as are hereinafter particularly mentioned and described, shall from and be considered as Part of the said Allotments, and shall be accordingly set out and allotted by the said Commissioners to and for the exclusive Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, either in full or in part (as the case may be) of the said Nine Thirty second Parts of the said Common and Wastes, or of such other Parts of the said Common and Wastes as His Majesty may be entitled to under or by virtue of any of the Privileges herein contained; that is to say, in the Parish of Clonsay aforesaid, so much of the said Common and Waste Lands as lies on the North Side of Cranehouse Park, extending on the West, South and North, as far as the Limits of the said Parish, and on the East as far into the said Parish of Clonsay, as may be necessary to give the aforesaid Proportion of Nine Thirty second Parts, or such other Parts as aforesaid; and in the Parish of Bray aforesaid, so much of the said Common and Waste Lands as is called or known by the Name of Braywood or New Lady Wood, and wherein Timber is now growing, or by whatsoever other Name or Names such Part of the said Waste is covered with Wood as aforesaid may be called or known, bounded on the South and East Sides by the said Parish of Clonsay, and on the North by the Enclosures in the said Parish of Bray, and on the West by other Parts of the Common and Waste of the said Parish of Bray, commonly called Sperdenburgh Hill; and in the Parish of Winkfield aforesaid, so much of the said Common and Waste Lands as is called or known by the Name of Winkfield Plain, bounded on the West Side by the Road from New Lodge to Harlow Lane; and also so much of the Open Wood and Waste Lands called Cranehouse Chase and Wood, as contains Eight hundred and six Acres, be the same more or less, and extending to the Northern Extremity of the Parish of Swainskill on the West, over an Inclosure called Gylston, and also extending to the Stream which divides the said Parishes of Winkfield and Swainskill; and in the Parish of Old Windsor, Two Acres or Part of a Land lying near Winkfield Plain, and being Part of Cranehouse Wood or Chase, containing together Eighty Acres One Road and Sixteen Perches, one of which Pieces being Part of Winkfield Plain, contains by Admeasurement Thirty Acres and Six Perches, and the other Piece being Part of Cranehouse Wood, contains by Admeasurement Fifty Acres One Road and Ten Perches; and in the said Parish of Swainskill, all that Piece or Part of Open Common or Waste Ground appropriated for, and used a long time past as a Race Ground, being Part of the Heath called Alford Heath, with proper Avenue thereto, and as Area or Space of Ground on the Boundary and round the Race Course there, as the same are now set out with Stakes, and containing by Admeasurement Two hundred and six Acres Three Rods and Three Perches, and all Enclosures and Buildings, Fences, Rails and Fences of every Description thereon, which Piece of Ground shall be kept and continued as a Race Course for the public Use at all times, as it has usually been; and in the said Parish of New Windsor, all their several Pieces or Parcels of Open Wood or Waste Land, containing in the whole Two hundred and seventy eight Acres Three Rods and Thirty Perches; that is to say, a Piece of Common or Waste Land called Her Common, containing by Admeasurement Nineteen Acres and Three Rods; and one other Piece of Common or Waste Land, being Part of Winkfield Plain, containing by Admeasurement Eighty eight Acres and Two Rods; one other Piece of Waste Land lying near Winkfield Plain aforesaid, partly covered with Wood, containing by Admeasurement One hundred and two Acres One Rod and Thirty four Perches, and one other Piece of Waste Land thereto adjoining, partly covered with Wood, lying South of Cranehouse Lodge, containing by Admeasurement Sixty one Acres Two Rods and Twenty Perches; and one other Part of Waste Land called Gleadow Common, containing Four Acres and Ten Perches; and the Lane passing East and West through New Place, containing Two Acres Two Rods and Eight Perches; and all the Timber and other Trees, Coverts and Bashes, standing, growing or being thereon, or on any Part or Parts thereof.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and required to set out, allot and award unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, such Part or Parts of the Waste Grounds, within each of the said Parishes and Liberties in which His Majesty is interested as Lord of a Manor or Messuage, in Right of His Crown or in His individual Capacity, as in the Judgment of the said Commissioners shall be equal in Value to Two Thirty second Parts of the Waste Grounds within such Manor or Messuage respectively, as a full Compensation and Satisfaction for the Mineral Rights and Interests of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in and to the Soil of the Waste Lands in the said several Manors respectively; and also so much of the said Waste Grounds as may be a full and fair Allotment in respect of the Proprietary Rights, to which His Majesty is Right of His Crown, or otherwise, is or may be entitled in any of the said Parishes and Liberties respectively.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all the Remainder of the Waste Lands within the said Forest of Windsor, not so allotted to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors as aforesaid, shall remain for the Benefit of the several other Lords of Manors, Owners of Soil, and other Persons having Rights of Common within the said Forest, and unto and for the Use and Benefit of the Poor of the respective Parishes and Liberties within the said Forest, to be divided, allotted and disposed, in the manner hereinafter mentioned, according to their several and respective Rights and Interests therein, freed and discharged of and from all Rights, Customs and

Waste Lands in Forest for the Benefit of Lords of Manors and Persons having Common Rights
therein.

Lands of the said Forest, of and belonging to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; Saving nevertheless to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and all and every Person and Persons who shall be entitled to the same, all Timber and other Trees standing and being in or upon such Remainder of the Waste Lands within the said Forest, with full Power to enter on the said Lands, and cut down and carry away the same, or others who to dispose thereof, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

V. And be it further enacted, That all such Aliements so to be made to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors as aforesaid, shall be saved and discharged of and from all Rights of Common of what Nature or Kind soever, and be held and enjoyed by His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in Severalty; and shall be deemed and taken to be a full Compensation and Satisfaction for all Forfeited Rights, Claims and Demands whatsoever of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in, over and upon any of the Open or Inclosed Grounds, within the said Forest.

VI. And whereas Disputes or Doubts may arise concerning the Boundaries of Parishes, Manors, Hamlets, Liberties, and Districts or Places, to be divided, allotted and inclosed by virtue of this Act, and of Parishes, Manors, Hamlets, Liberties, Districts or Places adjoining thereto; Be it therefore enacted, That the Commissioners hereby appointed on Behalf of His Majesty, and the Commissioners hereby appointed on Behalf of the Proprietors, and their respective Successors, shall and they are hereby authorized, whenever any such Doubts shall arise or exist, by Perambulation, Examination of Witnesses upon Oath or Affirmation (which Oath or Affirmation any One of such Commissioners is hereby empowered to administer), or by such other legal ways and means as he or they shall think proper, to enquire into the Boundaries of such several Parishes, Manors, Liberties, Hamlets, Districts or Places; and in case it shall appear to such Commissioners, that the Boundaries of the same respectively are not then sufficiently ascertained and distinguished, such Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and required to ascertain, set out, determine and fix the same respectively; and after the said Boundaries shall be so ascertained, set out, determined and fixed, the same shall and are hereby declared to be the Boundaries of such Parishes, Manors, Liberties, Districts or Places: Provided always, that such Commissioners (before they proceed to ascertain and fix out the Boundaries of such Parishes, Manors, Liberties, Districts or Places) shall and they are hereby required to give Ten Days' public Notice, by inserting the same in One of the County Papers, and affixing a like Notice on the Church Doors of the several Parishes intended, of their Intention to perambulate, and of the Time and Place from whence they shall begin so to do; and also by Writing, to be delivered to or left at the hall or usual Place of Abode of the respective Lords or Stewards of the Lords of the Manors in which the Lands and Grounds to be inclosed shall be situate, and of such adjoining Manors or Manors, Ten Days at least before the time of Perambulating and setting out such Boundaries, of his or their Intention to perambulate, ascertain, set out, determine and fix the same respectively; and such Commissioners shall within One Month after their ascertaining and setting out the same, cause a Description thereof in Writing to be delivered to, or left at the Places of Abode of One of the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of the respective Parishes, and also of such respective Lords or Stewards.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Public, Corporate or Collegiate, shall consider himself, herself or themselves prejudiced or aggrieved by the Determination of the said Commissioners, respecting the Limits or Boundaries of any Parish, Manor, Township, Hamlet, District or Place upon the said Open Commonable Parts of the said Forest, or of any Parish, Manor, Township, Hamlet, District or Place adjoining thereto, as the same shall be set out and ascertained by the said Commissioners, and shall, by Writing under their, his or her Hands or Hand, give Notice to the said Commissioners within One Calendar Month next after such Determination, of his, her or their Desire to have the same determined by an Issue at Law, then, and in such case it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Public, Corporate or Collegiate, so dissatisfied with such Determination, to have the same ascertained by Trial of an Issue at Law, in like manner as any disputed Right or Claim is hereby authorized or directed to be tried.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That upon and immediately after each Division and Aliement to His Majesty under this Act shall have been made, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, immediately to inclose and continue inclosed the whole of the said several Aliements of the said Waste Lands so to be willed to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, discharged and exonerated of and from all Common Rights as heretofore mentioned, at such time or times, and in such Manner and Form as the said Commissioners, in and by their Award to be made as hereinafter mentioned, shall order, direct and appoint.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues for the time being, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, as well before as after the making the Award of the said Commissioners, to contract and agree with, and to purchase for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, from any Person or Persons who shall be entitled to any Aliement of Land under this Act, and be willing to sell the same at a Price or Prices to be agreed on, all or any Part of their respective Aliements to be made to them under this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and all and every other Person and Persons entitled to any Timber or other Trees standing and being on any of the Waste Lands hereby intended to be inclosed within the Space of Two Years from the making of this Act, with Workmen, Labourers, Servants and Agents, Horses, Carts and Carriages, to have and take free Ingress and Egress into and upon the several Waste Lands so to become the Property of the several Proprietors of Lands and Townships, having Rights of Common within the said several Parishes as aforesaid, to fill, cut down, grub up, remove, sell and dispose of all or any of the said Timber Trees and other Trees.

And be it further enacted, That if the Sheriff or his Deputy who shall be so directed to summon and return a Jury as aforesaid, shall make Default in the Premises, or if any Person so summoned and returned as aforesaid upon such Jury, shall not appear, or, appearing, shall refuse to be sworn, or to give his Verdict, or shall in any other manner wilfully neglect his Duty contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; or if any Person so summoned to give Evidence shall not appear, or, appearing, shall refuse to be examined or give Evidence, it shall be lawful for Two or more Justices of the Peace sitting for the County wherein such Cottages, Gardens and Land shall lie, and they are hereby required, upon Complaint being made to them in Writing, to summon any Person for offending before them, and upon the Oaths of Witnesses (which Oaths the said Justices are hereby empowered and required to administer) to hear and determine, at any Petty Sessions to be held within and for such County, the Matter of Complaint; and every Person who shall be found for offending in any of the cases aforesaid, by the legal Adjudication and Determination of the said Justices, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, which said Penalty shall and may be levied by virtue of any Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any one of the said Justices, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons so offending, rendering to him or her the Overplus, after such Penalty and the Charges of such Distress and Sale shall be deducted; and every such Penalty so recovered from the said Sheriff, or from any Person who shall have been so summoned as aforesaid, or to give Evidence as aforesaid, shall go and be paid to the Party who shall appear to the said Justices to be injured by the Default of such Person.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Jury shall give in and deliver a Verdict for more Money as a Compensation for the Right, Interest or Property of any Person or Persons in any Cottages, Gardens or Land as aforesaid, then what shall have been agreed to and offered by the said Commissioners on the Part of His Majesty, before the summoning and returning of the Jury, as a Compensation or Satisfaction for any such Right, Interest or Property as aforesaid, shall then and in such case be the full Costs and Expenses of summoning and maintaining the Jury and Witnesses, and all other Expenses attending the hearing and determining of such Difference, shall be borne and paid by His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; but if such Jury shall give and deliver a Verdict for so much, or for less Money than shall have been agreed to and been offered by the said Commissioners on the Part of His Majesty, before the summoning and returning of the said Jury, as a Compensation and Satisfaction for any such Right, Interest or Property as aforesaid, then the full Costs and Expenses of summoning and maintaining the said Jury and Witnesses, and all other Expenses attending the hearing and determining of such Difference, shall be paid and borne by the Person or Persons with whom the said Commissioners on the Part of His Majesty shall have such Controversy or Dispute; which said Costs and Expenses being hereafter mentioned and justified by the Master of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench (who is hereby authorized and required to examine and settle the same), shall and may be deducted out of the Money so adjudged, as so much Money advanced go and for the Use of such Person or Persons; and the Payment or Tender of the Remainder of such Money shall be deemed and taken to all Intents and Purposes to be a Payment and Tender of the whole Sum or Sums so adjudged; or otherwise such Costs and Expenses, in case the same be not paid on Demand, may be recovered by the Commissioners of Woods, Forests and Land Revenue, or the Surveyor General of Woods and Forests for the time being, by Action or Suit in any of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster: Provided always, that in cases where any Person or Persons shall, by reason of Abolition, have been prevented from treating in manner aforesaid, the whole Costs and Expenses shall be borne and paid by His Majesty in manner aforesaid.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money by way of Compensation or Recompense to be agreed to or adjudged as aforesaid, shall, by and with the Consent, Order and Direction of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, be paid by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenue, or the Surveyor General of Woods and Forests for the time being; and that upon Payment thereof as aforesaid, or in case of Refusal to accept the same, then on depositing such Sum or Sums of Money in the Bank of England in manner by this Act directed, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners or Surveyor General for the time being, their Surveyors, Workmen or Agents, to enter into and upon and take Possession of the said Cottages, Gardens and Land respectively, and to do all and every such Act, Matter and Thing in relation to such Cottages, Gardens and Land, as the said Commissioners or Surveyor General for the time being shall think proper; and the said Cottages, Gardens and Land shall thereupon be deemed and taken to be Part of the Lands belonging to His Majesty, and shall be valued in His Majesty's His Heirs and Successors, for the Purposes of this Act.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Money shall be agreed or awarded to be paid for any Cottages, Gardens and Lands purchased by virtue of this Act for the Purposes thereof, which shall belong to any Body Public or Corporate, Trustless or Feoffee, Feme Covert, Infant, Lunatic, or Person or Persons beyond the Seas, or under any other Disability or Incapacity, such Money shall, in case the same shall amount to the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, with all interest and Sums paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, to be placed to his Account or paid to the Commissioners for executing this Act, to the Intent that such Money shall be applied, under the Direction and with Approbation of the said Court, to be signified by an Order made upon a Petition, to be preferred in a summary way by the Person or Persons who would have been entitled to the Rent and Profits of the said Cottages, Gardens and Land, in the Purchase of the Land Tax, or Discharge of any Debt or Debts, or such other Incumbrances, or Part thereof, as the said Court shall authorize to be paid, affecting the said Cottages, Gardens and Land, or affecting the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments standing settled therewith, to the Use of the like Uses, Intents or Purposes; or where such Money shall not be so applied, then the same shall be laid out or invested, under the like Direction and Approbation of the said Court, in the Purchase of other Lands,

Leads, Tenements or Hereditaments, which shall be conveyed and settled to, for and upon such and the like Uses, Trusts, Interests and Purposes, and in the same manner as the Cottages, Gardens and Land, which shall be so purchased as aforesaid, good settled or leased, or each of them as at the time of making such Conveyance and Settlement shall be existing, undisturbed and capable of taking Effect; and in the mean time and until such Purchase shall be made, the said Money shall, by Order of the Court of Chancery, upon Application therein, be invested by the said Accountant General in his Name, in the Purchase of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated or Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, and in the mean time and until the said Bank Annuities shall be ordered by the said Court to be sold for the Purposes aforesaid, the Dividends and annual Profits of the said Consolidated or Reduced Bank Annuities shall from time to time be paid by Order of the said Court to the Person or Persons who would for the time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Cottages, Gardens and Land to be purchased, in case such Purchase or Settlement were made.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Money so agreed or awarded to be paid for any Cottages, Gardens and Land, purchased for the Purposes aforesaid, and belonging to any Corporation, or to any Person or Persons under Disability or Incapacity as aforesaid, shall be less than the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and shall amount to the Sum of Twenty Pounds, then and in all such cases the same shall, at the Option of the Person or Persons for the time being entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Cottages, Gardens and Land so purchased, or of his, her or their Guardian or Guardians, Committee or Committees, in case of Infancy or Lunacy, to be signified in Writing under their respective Hands, be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privy of the said Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, and be placed to his Account as aforesaid, in order to be applied in manner herebefore directed; or otherwise the same shall be paid at the like Option to Two Trustees, to be nominated by the Person or Persons making such Option, and approved of by the said Commissioners (such Nomination and Approbation to be signified in Writing under the Hands of the nominating and approving Parties) in order that such Principal Money, and the Dividends arising thereon, may be applied in the manner herebefore directed, in far as the case be applicable, without obtaining or being required to obtain the Direction or Approbation of the said Court of Chancery.

XXIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where such Money so agreed or awarded to be paid as last before mentioned, shall be less than Twenty Pounds, then and in all such cases the same shall be applied to the Use of the Person or Persons who would for the time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Cottages, Gardens and Land so purchased for the Purposes of this Act, in such manner as the said Trustees shall think fit; or in case of Infancy or Lunacy, then to his, her or their Guardian or Guardians, Committee or Committees, to and for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons so entitled respectively.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That in case the Person or Persons to whom any Sum or Sums of Money shall be awarded for the Purchase of any Cottages, Gardens and Land to be purchased by virtue of this Act, shall refuse to accept the same, or shall not be able to make out a good Title to the Premises, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners; or in case such Person or Persons to whom such Sum or Sums of Money shall be so awarded as aforesaid, cannot be found; or if the Person or Persons entitled to such Cottages, Gardens and Land be not known or discovered, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners to order the said Sum or Sums of Money so awarded as aforesaid to be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to be placed to his Account, to the Credit of the Person interested in the said Cottages, Gardens and Land [subscribing them], subject to the Order, Control and Disposition of the said Court of Chancery; which said Court of Chancery, on the Application of any Person or Persons making Claim to such Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, by Motion or Petition, shall be and is hereby empowered, in a summary way of Proceeding or otherwise, as to the said Court shall seem meet, to order the same to be laid out and invested in the Public Funds, and to order Distribution thereof, according to the respective Estates or Estates, Title or Interest of the Person or Persons making Claim thereunto, and to make such other Order in the Premises as to the said Court shall seem just and reasonable; and the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England, who shall receive such Sum or Sums of Money, is and are hereby required to give a Receipt or Receipts for such Sum or Sums of Money, mentioning and specifying for what and for whose Use the same is or are received, to such Person or Persons as shall pay any such Sum or Sums of Money into the Bank as aforesaid.

XXV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That where any Question shall arise touching the Title of any Person to any Money to be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery in pursuance of this Act, for the Purchase of any Cottages, Gardens and Land, or of any Estate, Right or Interest in any Leads, Tenements or Hereditaments to be purchased in pursuance of this Act, or to any Bank Annuities to be purchased with any such Money, or the Dividends or Interests of any such Bank Annuities, the Person or Persons who shall have been in Possession of such Cottages, Gardens or Lands at the time of such Purchase, and all Persons claiming under such Person or Persons, or under the Possession of such Person or Persons, shall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully entitled to such Cottages, Gardens or Lands, according to such Possession, and the contrary shall be down to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Chancery; and the Dividends or Interests of the said Bank Annuities to be purchased with such Money, and also the Capital of such Bank Annuities, shall be paid, applied and disposed of accordingly; unless it shall be made appear to the said Court that such Possession was a wrongful Possession, and that some other Person or Persons was or were lawfully entitled to such Cottages, Gardens or Lands, or to some Estate or Interest therein.

XXVI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That where by reason of any Disability or Incapacity of the Person or Persons, entitled to any Cottages, Gardens or Land, to be purchased under the Application where Comptroller does not see more than 200l. nor less than 20l.

Ap. Person where Money is less than 200l.

In case of any making out Title, or if Person cannot be found, the said Money paid into Bank.

Subject to Order of Court of Chancery.

Where any Question shall arise touching the Title of any Person to be paid into Bank, the Person in Possession at time of Purchase deemed entitled thereto.

Court of Chancery may make an Order.

Expenses of contingencies to be paid by Commissioners.

Authority of this Act, the Purchase Money for the same shall be required to be paid into the Court of Chancery, and to be applied in the Purchase of other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, to be settled to the like Use in pursuance of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Court of Chancery to order the Expenses of all Purchases from time to time to be made in pursuance of this Act; and five parts of such Expenses as the said Court shall deem reasonable, to be paid by the said Commissioners out of the Moneys to be received by virtue of this Act, who shall from time to time pay such Sums of Money for such Purposes as the said Court shall direct.

Downshire's Claim to Manors and Parts of Ecclesiastical Lands taken from Lord Bury in Rights of Common, and as Actions for Breach thereon.

XXVII. And whereas the said Archibald Marquis of Downshire insists that the said Manor, and also the Park of Englemund, to which he derives his Title through and under certain Grants made by His Majesty's Royal Prodecessors and other Antecessors, are exempt from all the Laws of the said Forest and all the Rights of The Crown in respect thereof, and consequently that His said Majesty is not entitled to any Allotment of Land within the said Manor or Parish (which are co-extensive). Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by his Attorney General, to proceed to a Trial at Law at the next Spring Assizes for the County of Berk, in a single Action or Actions for that Purpose to be commenced in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer at Windsor, against the said Archibald Marquis of Downshire, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Parties or Persons entitled to the said Manor for the time being; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Actions shall forthwith name an Attorney or Attorneys, who shall file Common Pleas, or appear and accept One or more Issues or Issues, whereby the Matters in question may be properly tried and determined (such Issue or Issues to be settled by the proper Officer or Officers of the Court in which such Action or Actions shall be brought, if the Parties shall differ about the same); and it as the Trial of any such Issue or Issues in shall appear that His Majesty is not entitled to any Forestal Rights or Interests within the said Manor and Parish of Englemund, for which a Compensation ought to be made, then such Jury or Jurors by whom such Issue or Issues shall be tried, shall file for the Defendant or Defendants, in any case this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not apply to or affect the said Manor and Parish or any Part thereof; but if it shall appear to such Jury or Jurors that His said Majesty is entitled to such Forestal Rights or Interests within the same Manor and Parish, as are claimed by and belong to His Majesty, in and over the Pastures and Places within the regard of the said Forest, then such Jury or Jurors shall file for the Plaintiff, and then and in such case the said Manor and Parish shall be deemed to be within the Provisions of this Act, and the Commons and Waste Lands thereof shall be subject to such Provisions and Regulations as to the Proportions thereof to be awarded to His Majesty, as are in this Act contained, in relation to the said Pastures and Manors, and Wastes and Commons within the regard of the said Forest; but if it shall appear to the said Jury that His Majesty is entitled to Forestal Rights and Interests within the same Manor and Parish, but that such Rights have been diminished or restricted by Grants or Charters or other means, so as that such Forestal Rights of His Majesty are not in extension to the said Manor and Parish as in the other Pastures and Manors mentioned in this Act, then and in such case mentioned such Jury or Jurors shall file and declare by their Verdict, that His Majesty has only limited Forestal Rights in the said Manor and Parish, which shall be indorsed on the Pollen; and then the said Jury or Jurors, in addition to the Verdict or Verdicts given in the Issue or Issues joined, shall assize and award what Proportion of the Soil of the Waste and Open Lands within the same Manor and Parish would be a just and fair Compensation for such His said Majesty's Forestal Rights therein, and the Verdict or Verdicts which shall be given in such Action or Actions, and such Special Finding or Indorsement, shall be binding as well upon His said Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as the said Marquis, his Heirs and Assigns, and all other Persons interested in the said Manor; unless the Court wherein such Action or Actions shall be brought shall for said Verdict or Verdicts, Finding and Indorsement, and order a new Trial or Trials to be had thereupon (which it shall be lawful for the Court to do, as is used in other cases); and after such Verdict or Verdicts, Special Finding and Indorsement shall be given, the same not being first made by the Court, the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and required to sit in Conformity thereto: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Attorney General, and the Defendant or Defendants at any such Trial, in case such last mentioned Verdict shall be, that His Majesty's Forestal Rights are limited in the said Manor and Parish, to agree to refer the Proportions of Compensation to such Reference or Reference as shall at such Trial be approved of by the Judge trying such Issue or Issues; and the Amount of the Proportion so ascertained shall, when settled, be indorsed upon the Pollen as Part of the Finding of the Jury, in like manner as if the same had been so ascertained and assized by the Jury as aforesaid: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Action or Actions shall be depending, upon sufficient Cause shown, to put off the Trial of the same, although the time hereby limited for such Trial may be thereby exceeded; but if such Action or Actions shall not be proceeded in to a Trial or Trials at the next Spring Assizes for the County of Berk, by means of the Neglect or Default of the Defendant or Defendants therein, then and in such case the Allowance to be made by the said Commissioners in respect thereof, shall be deemed to belong to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and shall be conclusive as well upon and upon His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as upon the said Marquis, his Heirs and Assigns, and all other Persons so interested as aforesaid.

Actions not to abate by reason of Death of Parties.
Matters in Dis-
therefrom.

XXVIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if either of the Parties in any Action or Actions to be brought and prosecuted in pursuance of this Act, shall die pending the same, such Action or Actions shall not abate by reason thereof, but shall be proceeded in as if no such Event had happened: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, in any case before the Trial of such Action or Actions, to make or accept Proposals to or from the said Archibald Marquis of Downshire, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Parties or Persons so entitled to the said Manor for the time being as aforesaid, for compensating the Matter or Matters in Dispute, and to compromise the same accordingly; and every such Compromise, if made, shall be binding and conclusive, as well on His said Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as on the said Richard Marquis of Devonshire, his Heirs and Assigns, and all other Persons to be interested as aforesaid: Provided also, that if no such Action shall be brought, or, being brought, if the same shall not be tried within the time herein for that Purpose limited, unless such Trial or Trials shall be put off with such Leave of the Court as aforesaid, then and in such case this Act or any thing herein contained, shall not apply to or in any way affect the said Manor, Parish or Part of Southdown, or any Part thereof respectively.

XXIX. And whereas the said Richard Marquis and others, having Rights of Co-tenancy in and over the said Southdown Common, hold that the said Manor, and Parish of Southdown, to which the said Richard Marquis derives his Title, through and under a certain Grant or Grants made by him or one of His Majesty's Royal Predecessors, and other Assignments, are exempted from all the Laws of the said Forest, and all the Rights of the Crown in respect thereof, and consequently that His said Majesty is not entitled to any Allowance of Land within the said Manor or Parish: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by his Attorney General, to proceed to a Trial at Law at the next Spring Assizes for the County of Surrey, in a quare Action or Actions for that Purpose to be commenced in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer at Westminster, against the said Richard Marquis, as Lord of the said Manor of Southdown, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Persons or Persons entitled to the said Manor for the time being; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Actions shall forthwith name an Attorney or Attorneys, who shall file Common Bail, or appear and accept One or more Issues or Issues, whereby the Matters in question may be properly tried and determined (such Issue or Issues to be filed by the proper Officer or Officers of the Court in which such Action or Actions shall be brought, if the Parties shall differ about the same); and in case the said Richard Marquis, his Heirs or Assigns, or both Persons or Persons as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to become Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Actions, or refuse to appear and plead in due Course of Law to any Declaration to be delivered by the Attorney General for the Trial of such Issue, or shall suffer Judgment to go by Default, default shall and may be lawful for the said Attorney General to bring an Action against Johannes Mydels Esquire (one of the Persons having Rights of Common in and over Southdown Common), or in the Event of his Death, against any other Person or Persons being interested in the Common or Wastes of the same Manor for the Trial of the said Issue; and if at the Trial of any such Issue or Issues, it shall appear that His Majesty is not entitled to any Forestal Right or Interest within the said Manor and Parish of Southdown, for which a Compromise ought to be made, then such Jury or Juries by whom such Issue or Issues shall be tried, shall find for the Defendant or Defendants, in which case this Act or any thing therein contained shall not apply to or affect the same Manor and Parish or any Part thereof; but if it shall appear to such Jury or Juries that His said Majesty is entitled to such Forestal Rights or Interest within the same Manor and Parish as are claimed by and belong to His Majesty in and over the other Parishes or Places within the regard of the said Forest, then such Jury or Juries shall find for the Plaintiff, and also and in such case the said Manor and Parish shall be deemed to be within the Provisions of this Act, and the Common and Waste Lands thereof shall be subject to such Provisions and Regulations as to the Proportions thereof to be awarded to His Majesty, as in and under this Act contained in relation to other Parishes and Manors and Wastes and Commons; but if it shall appear to the said Jury or Juries, that His Majesty is entitled to Forestal Rights and Interest within the same Manor and Parish, but that such Rights have been diminished by Grants, Charters or other means, so as that such Forestal Rights of His Majesty are not so extensive in the said Manor and Parish as in the other Parishes and Manors mentioned in this Act, then and in such last mentioned case such Jury or Juries shall find and declare by their Verdict, that His Majesty has only limited Forestal Rights in the said Manor and Parish, which shall be entered on the Rolls; and then the said Jury or Juries, in addition to the Verdict or Verdicts given in the Issue or Issues joined, shall assess and award what Proportions of the Soil of the Waste and Open Lands within the same Manor and Parish would be a just and fair Compensation for such His said Majesty's Forestal Rights therein, and the Verdict or Verdicts which shall be given in such Action or Actions, and such Special Finding or Findings, shall be binding as well upon His said Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as the said Richard Marquis, his Heirs and Assigns, and all other Persons interested in the said Manor; unless the Court where such Action or Actions shall be brought shall set aside such Verdict or Verdicts, Finding and Findings, and award a new Trial or Trials to be had thereupon (which it shall be lawful for the Court to do as in and under this Act is otherwise); and after such Verdict or Verdicts, Special Finding and Findings shall be given, the same not being finally settled by the Court, the said Comendments shall and they are hereby authorized and required to sit in Consistency thereto: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Attorney General, and the Defendant or Defendants in any such Trial, in case such last mentioned Verdict shall be, that His Majesty's Forestal Rights are limited to the said Manor and Parish, to agree to refer the Proportions of Compensation to such Referee, or Referees as shall at such Trial be approved of by the Judge trying such Issue or Issues; and the Amount of the Proportions is ascertained shall, when settled, be entered upon the Rolls as Part of the Finding of the Jury, in like manner as if the same had been so ascertained and settled by the Jury as aforesaid: Provided also, that it shall and may be lawful for the Court in which such Action or Actions shall be depending, upon sufficient Cause shewn, to put off the Trial of the same, although the time hereby limited for such Trial may be thereby extended; but if the said Richard Marquis, his Heirs or Assigns, and the said Johannes Mydels, or in case of the Death of the said Johannes Mydels, the other Persons interested in the Waste and Commons of the Manor of Southdown aforesaid, against whom such Action shall or may be brought as aforesaid, shall refuse to appear and plead in due Course to such Declaration to be delivered as aforesaid, then and in such case the Allowance of the said Comendments shall be conclusive as well unto and upon His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as upon the said Richard Marquis, his Heirs and Assigns, and all other Persons to be interested as aforesaid.

His Majesty may enter Action against Lord of Manor of Southdown, etc. as to Claim of Exemption from Forest Laws and Rights of the Crown.

Death of Person
Actions.

XXX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if either of the Parties in any Action or Actions to be brought and prosecuted in pursuance of this Act shall die pending the same, such Action or Actions shall not abate by reason thereof, but shall and may be proceeded in as if no such Event had happened: Provided also, that if no such Action shall be brought, or, being brought, if the same shall not be tried within the time herein for that Purpose limited, unless such Trial or Trials shall be put off, with such Leave of the Court as aforesaid, then and in such case this Act or any thing herein contained, shall not apply to or in any way affect the said Matter or Matters of Land, or any Part thereof respectively.

Commissioners
as Part of His Majesty, and Proprietors of Lands.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That John Neph of Dover Street, in the County of Middlesex, Esquire, and his Successors, to be nominated and appointed in manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be and is and are respectively hereby appointed the Commissioner on the Part and Behalf of His Majesty; and that John Davis of Blacken, in the County of Oxford, Gentleman, and his Successors, to be elected in manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be and is and are respectively hereby appointed the Commissioner on the Part and Behalf of the several Proprietors of Land within the said Forth, for affixing the several Purposes aforesaid.

Commissioners
following

XXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said John Neph and John Davis, and their respective Successors, to be nominated and appointed in manner hereinafter mentioned, shall not, any or either of them, act in the Execution of the Powers hereby given, unless they shall have previously taken and subscribed the following Oath, which Oath any One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County of Berks shall and may administer; that is to say,

Oath.

" I do swear, That I will faithfully, honestly and impartially, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, execute the Trusts reposed in me as Commissioner, by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act (here omitted) to alter the City of Berks.
So help me GOD."

Appointment of new Council Electors.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in case the said John Neph, or any of his Successors, shall happen to die, or decline or neglect to act before the full Execution of all and every of the Powers hereby reposed in him, or shall refuse to qualify and act in the Execution thereof, then and in such case and so often as the same shall happen, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenue, or the Surveyor General of Woods and Forests for the time being, to nominate and appoint any other fit Person to be a Commissioner on the Part of His Majesty, in the Room of the said John Neph, or any of his Successors, so dying, or declining, neglecting or refusing to act as aforesaid; and if the said John Davis or any Commissioner to be appointed in his Stead as hereinafter mentioned, shall die, refuse or be disabled to act, then and in every such case, it shall be lawful for the major Part in Value (to be ascertained by the Land Tax Assessments) of the Proprietors of or Persons interested in the Lands within the said Forth, who shall be present at a Meeting to be held for that Purpose at some convenient Place within the said Forth, within Two Calendar Months next after such Death, Refusal or Disability shall be signified by the Commissioner for the time being, on the Part and Behalf of His Majesty, from time to time to elect and appoint a new Commissioner not interested in the said Inclosures, in the Stead of such Commissioner so dying, refusing or becoming disabled to act, of which last mentioned Death, Refusal or Disability, and Meeting, Ten Days previous Notice shall be given by Advertisement in the Newspapers called The Windsor Express and Reading Mercury, if then printed, or in some other Newspapers usually published or circulated in the said County of Berks; and that every such Election and Appointment of a new Commissioner shall be reduced into Writing, and signed by the Persons making such Election and Appointment, and shall be delivered to the other Commissioner; and in case the said respective Parties, or any of them, shall make Default in appointing any such new Commissioner as aforesaid, at any such Meeting to be held as aforesaid, then the Commissioner named and appointed on the Part and Behalf of His Majesty shall, and he is hereby required from time to time, by Writing under his Hand, within Fourteen Days after the Expiration of the time allowed for naming such new Commissioner as aforesaid, to appoint One other Commissioner not interested in the said Inclosures and Allowments, in the Place of such Commissioner so dying, refusing to act, or becoming incompetent; and every such new Commissioner to be so appointed, as well on the Part and Behalf of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as on the Part and Behalf of the Proprietors of Land within the said Forth, shall have the like Powers and Authorities for putting this Act into Execution, in all respects whatsoever, as the Commissioner in whose Place he shall have been appointed was-reposed with.

Power to appoint an Umpire.

XXXIV. And, for obviating the Delay and Inconvenience which may arise by any Difference of Opinion between the said Commissioners, touching any of the Matters and Things to be done in pursuance of this Act, be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized, in case of any such Difference of Opinions arising between them as aforesaid, from time to time to nominate and appoint any fit and competent Person to act as an Umpire concerning the Point; to whom all and every such Difference shall be referred, and whose Judgment and Determination therein shall be deemed and taken to be the Judgment and Determination of the said Commissioners, and shall be such, binding and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person shall be capable of acting as an Umpire in the Execution of this Act, until he shall have taken and subscribed an Oath, in the Form or to the Effect following; that is to say,

Oath.

" I do swear, That I will faithfully, impartially and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, execute and perform the several Trusts, Powers and Authorities reposed and reposed in me as an Umpire, by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act (here omitted) to alter the City of Berks.
So help me GOD."

* Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act [before intire the Title of this Act.] according to Equity and good Conscience, and without Favour or Affection, Prejudice or Partiality, to any Person or Persons who shall so help me GOD.

Which Oath the said Commissioners, or either of them, are and is hereby authorized and required to administer to the said Umpire.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to nominate and appoint any fit and proper Person or Persons, not interested in the said intended Division, to be a Surveyor or Surveyors for the viewing, surveying and measuring the said Forest, and the Open Commensable Parts thereof; and each Surveyor or Surveyors is and are hereby authorized and directed, as soon as conveniently may be after he or they shall be so appointed, to view, survey and measure the said Forest, and the Open Commensable Parts thereof, or such Parts thereof as the said Commissioners shall order or direct, and shall describe and lay down the same by way of Map or Plan, wherein, or in a Book of Reference to be annexed thereto, shall be set forth the Number of Statute Acres, Roods and Perches of the said Forest, and the Open Commensable Parts thereof, or such Part or Parts thereof as shall be so ordered and directed to be surveyed, and the Names of the several Persons holding and enjoying the same; and that when and so soon as the said Surveyors shall have finished and completed the said Survey, Map or Plan, they shall, by Notice in Writing under their Hands, apprise the said Commissioners thereof, and appoint a Time and Place for a Meeting with them, of which Fourteen Days previous Notice at least shall be given unto each of the said Commissioners; at which Meeting the said Surveyor or Surveyors shall deliver unto the said Commissioners perfect and exact Copies of their Survey and Plan and Book of Reference, and shall subscribe the same with his or their Name or Names in the Presence of the said Commissioners, who shall attest the same; and the said Surveyor or Surveyors shall take and subscribe the following Oath; that is to say,

LII. And be it further enacted, That in case any or either of the said Commissioners for the said Parishes or Liberties, or their Successors, to be elected in the manner hereinafter mentioned, shall happen to die, or be sick, decline or become incapable to act, for the Space of Two Calendar Months, before the Execution of all the Powers hereby vested in them, then the surviving or acting Commissioner in those Parishes where Two Commissioners shall be appointed, shall not proceed further in the Execution of this Act, until another Commissioner shall be duly appointed in manner hereinafter directed; and that in every case where One Commissioner only shall be appointed, it shall and may be lawful to and for a Majority in Value of the Proprietors of Lands and Tenements within the said several and respective Parishes and Liberties of New Walsingham, Old Walsingham, Clonville, Walsingham, Stonelyng, Southton, Fitchamstead, Bartham, Walsingham, Walsingham, Newstead and Walsingham (as be abovementioned by the Act), and for the Land Tax in the said several Parishes and Liberties respectively, or their Agents, duly authorized under their Hands, to appoint such other Person or Persons to be a Commissioner or Commissioners in the room of any or either of such Commissioner or Commissioners in design, or refusing, declining, or becoming incapable to act as aforesaid; and for that Purpose the surviving or acting Commissioner, in all cases where there shall be Two Commissioners, shall and he is hereby required, immediately after such Death, Refusal or Incapacity of the said other Commissioner or Commissioners, to cause Notice thereof, in Writing, to be affixed on the Principal Doors of the Churches of the several and respective Parishes aforesaid, where any Vacancy of a Commissioner shall happen from any of the Causes aforesaid, upon a Sunday, before Divine Service, and to be inserted in the Newspapers called The Walsingham Gazette and Reading Mercury (if then printed), or otherwise, in some other Newspaper usually circulated in the said County of Northampton, at least Fourteen Days before such intended Meeting, and which Meetings, they are hereby authorized and empowered to appoint accordingly; and in case of a Vacancy of a Commissioner in any of the said Parishes or Liberties where only One Commissioner shall be appointed, such Notice for the Appointment of a new Commissioner or Commissioners as hereinafter directed, shall and may be given by any Person interested in the Inclosure, within all or any of the said Parishes respectively, and such Commissioner or Commissioners respectively, shall be involved with and have the same Powers and Authorities for carrying into and the said recited Act into Execution, as if he or they had been originally nominated and appointed a Commissioner or Commissioners in and by this Act.

refused.

LIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever there are Two Commissioners named and appointed for any one or either of the said Parishes, and such Two Commissioners in any differ or disagree in Opinion touching or concerning any Matter or Thing to be done and performed in pursuance of any by virtue of this or the said recited Act, then and in every such case, it shall be lawful for such Two Commissioners, with all convenient Speed after such Disagreement or Difference in Opinion, from time to time as often as the same shall happen, to refer the Matter claimed to some Person or Persons, to be named as Umpire, who shall be elected in the manner hereinafter mentioned, for settling and determining such Difference or Disagreement between any such Two Commissioners; and the Determination of such Umpire in the Premises shall be binding and conclusive upon all Parties, so far as the Determination of the said Commissioners is by the said recited Act or this Act directed to be conclusive.

LIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Person shall be capable of acting as an Umpire in the Execution of this Act, or the said recited Act, until he shall have taken and subscribed an Oath in the Form and to the Effect following; that is to say,

On...

I do swear, That I will faithfully, impartially and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, execute and perform the several Trusts, Powers and Authorities involved and imposed in me as an Umpire, by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for settling the Title of the said [here insert the Title of the Act] according to Equity and good Conscience, and without Fear or Affection, Prejudice or Partiality, to any Person or Persons whatsoever.

So help me God.

Which Oath each Two Commissioners, or either of them, are and is hereby authorized and required to administer to the said Unpur; and the Writing or Writings appertaining every new Unpur shall be added or annexed to and enrolled and deposited with the Award of the said Commissioners, and a Copy of the Instrument thereof shall be advised as legal Evidence in all Courts and Places whatsoever.

LIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons who shall be appointed and appointed as Unpur by any such Two Commissioners as aforesaid, by virtue of this Act, shall die or refuse or neglect to act as such Unpur within the Space of Fourteen Days after Application made to him for that Purpose, or shall become incapable of acting in the Execution of this Act, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Two Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required, by Writing under their Hands, to nominate and appoint any other Person (not named in the said Devisions, Allotments and Inclosures respectively) to be such Unpur as aforesaid, who shall have such and the like Powers, and be subject to the same Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as the Person in whose Room or stead he shall be so nominated and appointed had or was subject or liable to.

LV. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioner or Commissioners for each of the said Parishes and Liberties respectively shall and he and they it and are hereby required to give, or cause to be given, public Notice in the Newspapers called The Windsor Express and Reading Mercury, or in some Newspaper or Newspapers printed or circulated within the said County of Berks; and also by Writing signed by him or them, directed to the principal Door of the Church of the Parish for which he writes, or are a Commissioner or Commissioners, on some Sunday immediately before Divine Service, of the Time and Place of his or their first and every other subsequent Sitting for executing the Powers of the last recited Act and this Act, Two Days at least before every such Sitting (Sittings by Adjournment only excepted) and that all Meetings of the said respective Commissioners for the Purpose of putting this Act in Execution, shall be holden in the said several and respective Parishes and Liberties for which such Commissioner or Commissioners shall be appointed respectively, or within Six Miles thereof respectively.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That all other Notices requisite or necessary to be given by the respective Commissioners, shall be given by Advertisement, to be inserted in the said Newspaper called The Windsor Express and Reading Mercury, or in case the same shall not then be published, then in some other Newspaper which is printed in the said County of Berks.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Dispute or Difference shall arise between any of the Parties that may or be, before the making of the Award of the said Commissioners for the said Parishes and Liberties respectively, be interested or claim to be interested in the said intended Division and Allotments to the Lord of the Manor and Proprietors of Estates as aforesaid, or any of them, touching or concerning the respective Shares or Proportions which they or any of them shall claim, or ought to have in any of the Lands and Grounds hereby intended to be divided and allotted, exclusive of the Allotments in His Majesty as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners respectively, within their respective Parishes, and they are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine the same: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall authorize the said Commissioners to determine the Title to any Inheritance, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments whatsoever.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Commissioners, so appointed or to be appointed for the said Parishes and Liberties respectively, shall, upon the Hearing and Determination of any Claim or Objection, be desired to do so in the performance of this or the last recited Act, for Cause to avoid any Costs, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners respectively and they are hereby empowered, upon Application made to them for that Purpose, to settle, settle and award such Costs and Charges as they or he shall think reasonable to be paid to the Party or Parties in whose Favour the Determination of the said Commissioners shall be made, by the Person or Persons whose Claim or Objections shall be thereby disclosed or overruled; and in case the Person or Persons who shall be liable to pay such Costs and Charges, shall neglect or refuse to pay the same on Demand, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, directed to any Person or Persons whatsoever, to cause such Costs to be levied in due Form of Law, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons who neglect or refuse to pay the same, rendering the Overplus (if any), upon Demand to the Person or Persons whose Goods and Chattels shall have been distrained and sold, after deducting the Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons making any Claim or Claims to any Lands or Hereditaments intended to be divided or allotted by this Act, or any Rights or Interests therein, as depending on any such Claims or Claims, shall be dissatisfied with the Determination of the said Commissioners or any one, for the said Parishes and Liberties respectively, and shall be desirous of having such Claims or Claims, Rights and Interests, respectively tried at Law, and the Person or Persons in default of having the same tried at Law, shall be themselves or their respective Executors, Administrators, Attorneys or Agents, give or cause to be given Notice thereof in Writing to the said Commissioners to be appointed or to be appointed, for the said Parishes and Liberties respectively as aforesaid, or either of them, within Two Calendar Months next after such Determination shall have been made by the said Commissioners or Unpur (if which Notice the said Commissioners are hereby required immediately on Receipt thereof, or as soon as reasonably may be, to give Information to the adverse Party or Parties, or his or their respective Executors, Administrators or Agents, by Writing under their respective Hands, to be delivered to or left at the usual Place of Abode of such Party or Parties, Executors, Administrators or Agents as aforesaid); and there, but not afterwards, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons giving such Notice as aforesaid, their respective Executors, Administrators and Agents, and he, she or they in person hereby required to proceed to a Trial or Trials at Law respecting such Claims or Claims, Rights or Interests as aforesaid, on the day or days the following following Affidavits to be taken for the said County of Berk, is a signed Affidavit or Affidavits for that Purpose to be commenced by the Petitioner or Petitioners giving such Notice as aforesaid, against any Person or Persons interested in the said Division and Inclosure, who shall make such Objections or Objections within Two Calendar Months next after such Notice shall be given to the said respective Commissioners as aforesaid; and the Defendants or Defendants in such Affidavits or Affidavits shall forthwith serve an Attorney or Attorneys, who shall file Commensal Bail, or appear and accept One or more Issue or Issues, whereby all such Claims or Claims, and Rights and Interests may be properly tried and determined, such Issue or Issues to be tried by the proper Officer of the Court wherein such Affidavits shall be brought, if the Parties differ about the same; and the Verdict or Verdicts which shall be given in such Affidavits or Affidavits shall be final and conclusive to all Persons whomsoever, unless the Court wherein such Affidavits or Affidavits shall be brought shall sit aside such Verdict or Verdicts and order a new Trial to be had therein, which it shall be lawful for the Court to do, as is usual in other cases; and after any Verdict or Verdicts shall have been obtained, and not sit aside by the Court, the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and required to conform thereto; but if no such Affidavits or Affidavits in Law shall be brought or commenced by the Petitioner or Petitioners giving such Notice as aforesaid, or if such Affidavits or Affidavits shall not be proceeded in and brought in a Trial or Trials at the said Affidavits which shall be taken for the County of Berk, after the Expiration of Thirty Days from the Day of giving such Notice, by or on account of the Neglect or Default of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein, then and in such case the Determination of the Commissioners or Umpire shall be final, binding and conclusive unto and upon all Persons whomsoever: Provided also, that if any of the Parties in any Affidavits or Affidavits to be brought in pursuance of this Act shall die pending the same, such Affidavits or Affidavits shall not abate by reason thereof, but shall be proceeded in as if no such Event had happened.

How Affidavits brought after Death of Parties

LX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons in whole or in part any such Determination as aforesaid shall have been made, and against whom any Affidavits or Affidavits might have been brought if living, shall die before any such Affidavits or Affidavits shall have been brought; and before the Expiration of the time herebefore limited for bringing such Affidavits or Affidavits, it shall be lawful for the Petitioner or Petitioners, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, who might have brought such Affidavits or Affidavits against the Person or Persons so dying, to bring the same within the time so limited as aforesaid against such Person or Persons as if actually living, and so serve the Clerk of the said Commissioners for the said several Parishes and Liberties respectively with Notice of such Affidavits or Affidavits, in the same manner as the Party or Parties might have been served therewith if living; and it shall thereupon be incumbent as the Heir or Heirs, or other Person or Persons who shall claim the Benefit of such Determination as aforesaid, to appear and defend such Affidavits or Affidavits in the Name or Names of the Person or Persons so dead, and Proceedings shall be had thereon, and in the same manner, as if such Person or Persons had been actually living; and the Rights of all Parties shall be equally heard and concluded by the Verdict of such Affidavits or Affidavits.

Commissioners not to determine contrary to Petition.

LXI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to enable the said Commissioners to determine any Right between any Lords of Manors or Proprietors, contrary to the Possession of such Lords of Manors and Proprietors; but that the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required (notwithstanding any disputed or contested Title or Titles) to set out, allot and award all and every Allotment of Land or Right of any Manors, Lands and Tenements unto and for the Lords of Manors and other Proprietors respectively, who may be in the actual Possession of such Manors, Lands and Tenements, in respect whereof such Allotment or Allotments shall be so made as aforesaid.

and Umpire.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That out of the Money which shall be raised as hereinafter mentioned for defraying the Expenses of carrying this Act into Execution, so far as respects the dividing, allotting and inclosing the Open Waste Ground and Common Lands in the said several and respective Parishes and Liberties aforesaid, there shall be paid to each Commissioner and Umpire, as a Remuneration for his Pains and Trouble, the Sum of Three Pounds Three Shillings and so more, for each Day he shall be attending in the Execution of this Act or the said recited Act, and in travelling to and from such Meetings (including all Travelling Charges and Expenses whatsoever, except the Money they shall pay to the Servants, and for the Room or Rooms wherein such Meeting shall be held).

forever, or arbiters may be used

LXIII. And, in order to save all unnecessary Expenses and Delay in the Execution of this Act or the said recited Act, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful as and for any Person or Persons living so long as their Custody or Possession any actual Surveys, Maps or Plans of any Lands or Grounds within the said respective Parishes, or any of them, to deliver such Surveys, Maps and Plans unto the said Commissioners for carrying this Act and the said recited Act into Execution, at such time or times as the said Commissioners shall appoint for that Purpose; and that the said Commissioners shall thereupon require by the Oath as well of the Person or Persons delivering such Surveys, Maps and Plans respectively, as of each other Person or Persons as they shall think fit (which Oaths they are hereby respectively authorized to administer) as to the Authenticity and Accuracy of every such Survey, Map and Plan; and in all cases where the said Commissioners shall be satisfied that such Surveys, Maps and Plans are authentic, and have been accurately made, and will advance the Purpose of a New Survey (not out otherwise), they the said Commissioners shall cause the same to be used in such manner as they shall think proper for the Purpose herein mentioned, instead of making a new Advancement and Plan of the Lands and Grounds so comprised and described in the Maps and Plans aforesaid; and that the said Commissioners, out of the Money to be raised by virtue of this Act, shall make satisfaction to the Parties called before them for their Trouble and Attendance with the same, as well as for the Copies that shall be made thereof: Provided always, that in case such Person or Persons having the Possession tion of any such Surveys, Maps or Plans, shall refuse or neglect to produce the same at such time or times as the said Commissioners shall for that Purpose appoint, then such Surveys, Maps or Plans shall not at any time thereafter be received or admitted by the said Commissioners.

any animal as above, or further conflict. That, from and after the First Day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, the following animals shall be exempted from the provisions of the said Act:—Cattle, and all and singular the Equine, Truncates and Herminivores within the said specified Counties and Liberties (Save and except such Pigs thereof as respectively are tame or Bull or may become so) in the Manors, or any Parks or Forests or Tracts of Land by virtue hereof shall be, and the same shall be taken to be, so far as to all intents and purposes whatsoever; and that from thenceforth no Pigs or Perfect shall be questioned or liable to any Pains, Penalties or Punishments for hunting, catching, killing, destroying or taking any Deer whatsoever within the same, save and except within such Park or Parks thereof (if any) as shall be inclosed with Pales and hedges for a Park or Parks by the Charters, Letters or Tenants thereof.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after such time or times as the said respective Councils, for or for the several Parishes and Liberties aforesaid shall direct by Writing under their respective Hands, to be affixed on the principal Doors of the Parish Churches of the said several Parishes, and to be published in The Weekly Express and Reading Mercury (if then printed), or in some other Newspaper or Newspapers usually circulated in that Part of the Country, all Right of Common of Pasture and Tithery, of the said several Proprietors of Messuages, Lands and Tenements, and all other Persons intitled thereto, in and upon the several Allotments of the Common and Waste Lands within the said respective Parishes by the Act directed to be set out, allotted and awarded unto the Proprietors of Messuages, Lands and Tenements, and Persons respectively intitled thereto as aforesaid (except as to any Allotment or Allotments to be set out and allotted for the Use of the Poor in all or any of the said several Parishes and Liberties aforesaid) shall respectively from thenceforth enure, determine and be for ever extinguished.

And I will be it further charged, That if any Person or Persons after the pelling of this Act, and while the Jury is carrying into Execution, Shall cut, dig or carry away any Gravel, Earth, Sand, Stone, Clay or any Turf, Furze, Peat or other Part in, upon or from the said Commonable Grounds, Henth and Walls Lands or any part thereof, without the Licence of the said Justices Commissioners respectively legally so obtained in Writing for that Purpose (which Licence the said Commissioners respectively are hereby empowered to grant), then and in every such case, upon Proof thereof made before any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County of York, either by Complaint of the Party or Parties offending or upon the Oath of One credible Witness (which Oath such Justice or Justices is or are hereby empowered and required to administer), each Justice or Justices as and are hereby required, by Warrant under their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to cause such Offender or Offenders to be committed to the Gaol of their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to remain there until he or they shall have paid, or pay some Sum of Money not exceeding Five Pounds, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons so offending; or, rendering the Overplus (if any) upon Demand to the Person or Persons whose Goods and Chattels shall have been so distrained and sold, after deducting the Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale; and the Money to be so levied or allowed shall be applied towards satisfying the Costs and Charges of executing this Act; and every Person shall be allowed to give Evidence of such Offence, notwithstanding he or she may be intimated in the Indictment; and if sufficient Evidence shall not be found, and each Penalty shall not be forthwith paid, it shall and may be lawful for each Justice or Justices of the Peace, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant or Warrants under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, to cause each Offender or Offenders to be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the County, Riding or District, where each Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for any time not exceeding One Month for the First Offence, and for the Second and every other Offence of the same Kind, for any time not exceeding Six Months or less than Two Months, unless such Penalties or Fines, and all reasonable Charges and Expenses attending the same, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

LXVIII. And be it further ordered, That, the said Commissioners for the said federal and respective Parishes and Liberties shall, in their respective Parishes and Liberties, as soon after the passing of this Act as they shall respectively think proper, and before he or they proceed to make any of the Assessments hereinafter directed, support and maintain all such Public and Police Carriage Roads, Beale Roads and Footpaths over the Lands and Grounds hereby intended to be divided and inclosed (and not heretofore allotted to His Majesty), as they shall respectively judge necessary (except any Roads hereto specifically directed to be stopped up or kept open), and all such Roads and Footpaths shall be let out by the said respective Commissioners for the manner directed by the said recited Act pulled in the Tenth full Year of the Reign of His present Majesty.

4. XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners so appointed or to be appointed for the said Prisons and Liberties respectively, and they are hereby authorized and empowered in that behalf to do, that they may, at their several Meetings, from time to time, alter, amend, add to, and in and by their Award directed by the said recited Act to be made, order and direct to be traced, altered and discontinued, such of the perfect alls and accustomed Roads, Highways, Lanes, and Footpaths or Ways leading through or over the said inclosed Lands or Townships within the several Parishes and Liberties aforesaid (but subject nevertheless to the Regulations contained in the said recited Act, respecting the Stopping up of such Roads, and to the Provisions hereinafter contained respecting such Roads, Lanes, Footpaths or Ways); and that the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered to alter the Soil and the Grass and Herbage growing, and retaining in and upon all and every such Roads, Lanes and Ways, so to be that, and Stopped, to and for the Use of such Parishes or Prisons as they shall direct and appoint in or by their said Award.

LXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall authorize such Commissioners or Commissioners to interfere with or give any Order or Direction, or exercise any Power in or about the turning, stopping, halting or stopping any of the Roads, Highways or Footpaths in any of the Alterations of the Waste Lands to be made to His Majesty as aforesaid.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That when any of the Roads or any Branches of the Roads which are to be let out, made or repaired, by such Commissioners and Commissioners shall have been sufficiently and effectually made and repaired, then any Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Berks (not intended in the Inclosure or Division) may and they are hereby required from time to time to certify the same, without waiting for a Complaint of the rest of the Roads to be made and repaired within any Parish or Liberty; and from and immediately after any such Roads shall be so certified as aforesaid, the future Repairs thereof (except as to the Roads which are to be kept in Repair by His Majesty) shall be done by and at the Expense of the Occupiers of the Lands within the Parish or Liberty where such Road is situate.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall permit any Sort of Cattle, Brasts, Sheep, Swine or Swine, to graze in any of the Highways, Lanes or Passages which the said Commissionsers for the said several Parishes and Liberties shall order or direct to be let out or to be used on both Sides, for the Space of Seven Years next after the fixing of the Award of the said Commissioners hereinafter mentioned, under a Penalty not exceeding Five Shillings for every Horse, Beast, Sheep, Lamb or Swine found grazing thereon, to be paid to such Person or Persons who shall take and impose the same (which any Person or Persons, as and so hereby authorized and empowered to do); which said Penalty shall, if not paid on Demand thereof being made of the Owner of any such Horse, Beast, Sheep, Lamb or Swine, be recovered by Application and Complaint to any Justice of the Peace for the said County of Berks, not intended in the said Lands and Grounds, who is hereby authorized and required to summon the Parties concerned, and examine into the Facts by one or more Witnesses or Witnesses on Oath (which the said Justice are hereby empowered and required to administer), and after such Summons and Examination shall and may, if he sees just Cause, order the said Penalty to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons to whom such Horse, Beast, Sheep, Lamb or Swine shall belong, rendering the Oweplias (if any) to the Owner and Owners of such Goods and Chattels, after deducting the Costs of such Summons, Warrants, Distress and Sale.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby respectively empowered and required to direct, order and award any Streams of Water, Springs and Watercourses, within the said several and respective Parishes and Liberties, to be carried and conveyed in such Course, and through such Lands and Grounds, Parcels of the said Lands hereby intended to be inclosed and divided (other than and except the said Alterations to be made to His Majesty as aforesaid), as they in their Discretion respectively shall think necessary and proper for the Purposes aforesaid; but that it shall not be lawful for any Commissioners under this Act to divert, alter or change any such Stream, Spring or Watercourse, or make any such new Ditches, Cuts or Drains, or lay out any such Division, new Cuts and Drains, through or over any of the said Waters or Commons, or Lands to be allotted or divided under this Act; nor shall any Person or Persons to whom any Lands shall be awarded and allotted under this Act, make any such Ditches, Cuts or Drains, so as to carry or throw the Water from any such new Inclosures upon any Lands or Grounds now inclosed or under Cultivation, so as to injure the same, or so as to injure any Mill or Piece of arable land Water, or in any case in which the Rivers, Rovers, Watercourses, Drains, Cuts and Drains, into which the Water from any such new Ditches, Cuts or Drains shall flow, shall not be sufficient to carry off such Waters without any Injury to Lands now inclosed or under Cultivation, within the said Commissioners or Persons to whom any Lands may be awarded or allotted under this Act, by the opening or clearing of any old Rivers, Rovers, Watercourses, Drains or Ditches, or making any new Drains, Cuts or Ditches, with the Consent in Writing of the Person interested in the Soil and Banks of such Rivers, Rovers, Watercourses, Drains or Ditches, and of the Owner or Occupier of the Lands or Grounds through which the same run, nor carry off such Water without Injury to the Owners or Occupiers of any Lands or Grounds now inclosed or in Cultivation, or which may be held under the Possession of this Act: Provided always, that as such Stream, Spring or Watercourse shall be directed or turned from or into any inclosed Lands or Grounds without the Consent in Writing of the Owner or Owners thereof.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the said several Commissioners for the respective Parishes and Liberties aforesaid shall, and they are hereby required to let out, allot and award unto and for the several other Lands of the said Manors respectively for the true benefit, in lieu of their respective Rights to the Soil of the respective Commons and Wastes within the said Manors respectively, such Parts and so much of the respective Commons and Wastes within the said Manors respectively, and hereby directed to be inclosed, as in their Judgment shall be equal to Two Thirds of the whole of such Commons and Wastes respectively, for a full Compensation for their respective Rights to the Soil of such Commons and Wastes respectively, a full Lease of the said respective Manors.

LXXIV. And whereas the Master and Poor Men (Stewards in Nurseries) constantly residing and referred to in the Hospital or Almshouse in the Parish of Walsingham, hereinafter founded and endowed by Henry the Fourth, have been usually supplied with Fuel in their respective Apartments within the said Hospital from the Commons and Wastes within the said Parish of Walsingham, although every Parish in the County has an absolute Right of Privilege in the said charitable Institution; and it is desirable that some Provision shall be made for the future Supply of Fuel to the said Hospital; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required to let out and allot unto the Reverend William Brewster, and his Successors, the Master and Chaplains of the fuel Hospital or Almshouse for the time being, Thirty Acres of Heath or Waste Land, fit and proper for Fuel within the said Parish of Walsingham; (Fifteen Acres whereof to be taken as Part of the Ailments devoted to be made to His Majesty as Compensation for Feudal Rights, and the remaining Fifteen Acres from all the other Persons entitled to Right of Common in the said Parish, in such Parts or Pieces as the said Commissioners shall think fit;) and such Parts or Pieces of Land to be set out to the said William Browne and his Successors as aforesaid shall, as the Execution of the Award of the said Commissioners, be valued, in time the said William Browne and his Successors, the Master and Chaplain of the said Hospital or Almshouse for the time being, for ever, in Trust for the Supply of Fuel for such Master and Chaplain, and of the said Poor Men who for the time being shall reside and dwell in the said Hospital, to be there used and consumed and not elsewhere.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to fit out and allot unto the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said Parish of Walsingham, and their Successors, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor for the time being, for ever, a certain Piece or Pieces of Waste Land, lying and being within the said Parish called Sainsford Bog, and containing by Admeasurement One hundred and twelve Acres; and unto the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Town and Parish of Walsingham aforesaid, and their Successors, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor for the time being, for ever, such Parts of the Open and Waste Lands within the said Parish of Walsingham as shall contain in the whole Two Twenty four Parts thereof; and unto the Rectors, Vicars, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the respective other Parishes and Liberties aforesaid, and their Successors, Rectors, Vicars, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, for the time being, for ever, such Parts of the Open and Waste Lands in such of the said several and respective Parishes and Liberties where the same can be so conveniently set out and allotted as shall contain in the whole One Thirty second Part thereof in such Allotment and Proportion as the said Commissioners shall deem fair and reasonable, as and for and in lieu of the Right or Liberty of the Poor Inhabitants of the above mentioned Parishes and Liberties respectively, to cut, take and use Turves, Fens and other Fuel from the said Common and Waste Lands whose Right exists, and such Parts of the said Waste Lands as aforesaid shall in the Execution of the Award of the said Commissioners be involved in the Rectors, Vicars, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said several and respective Parishes and Liberties aforesaid, and their Successors for the time being, for ever, as Trustees for the Poor of the same several Parishes and Liberties, and the Turves, Fens, and other Fuel arising from the Lands to be allotted as aforesaid, shall be cut, taken and used by such Poor Inhabitants of the aforesaid several Parishes and Liberties respectively, as shall be legally settled therein, and shall not respectively occupy Houses, Lands or Tenements of more than the Yearly Value of Five Pounds, in such Quantities and at such time or times as each and every Year, under such Orders, Rules and Regulations, and in such manner as the said Trustees for the time being, or the major Part of them, shall from time to time direct or appoint; which said Portions of Waste Land to be allotted in Trust for the Poor Inhabitants of the several Parishes and Liberties aforesaid (except as to Sainsford Bog) shall be taken, set out and allotted by the said Commissioners from such Part or Parts of the said Open and Waste Lands in the said several and respective Parishes and Liberties, as shall in their Judgment be the least prejudicial to the Proprietors of Messuages, Lands or Hereditaments therein respectively having Rights of Common or other Inclosures in, upon, from or out of the Open or Waste Lands in the several and respective Parishes aforesaid.

LXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Trustees, or the major Part of them, to make such Rules, Orders and Regulations for the Enjoyment of the said Right as to them shall seem right and proper, and from time to time to alter, vary or repeal all such Rules, Orders and Regulations; and all such Rules, Orders and Regulations shall be good, valid and effectual, provided that the same be not repugnant to the Laws of that Part of the United Kingdom called England, or inconsistent with the Powers and Duties of this Act; and it shall and may be lawful to or for the Trustees or the major Part of them, to add such Penalties on any Person or Persons who shall infringe or break such Rules, Orders or Regulations, or any of them, by infringing such Rules or Persons for the Use and Enjoyment of such Right and Enjoyment of Turf from the said Proprietors of Common Land, for a term not exceeding Two Years; and to call any Person or Persons aforesaid, after having been so informed from the recording of such Rules as aforesaid, answer upon the Premises, and use and exercise the same during the time that he, she or they shall be so summoned, required or prevented, that in any such case he, she or they shall be deemed a lawful Turf-cutter or Turf-carrier.

LXXVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Rectors or Vicars of the said Rectories or Vicarages, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said several and respective Parishes and Liberties for the time being, to act in the Execution of the Trust hereby in them imposed by their Agents and Trustees respectively, such Agents or Trustees being appointed by Writing under the Hand or Hands of the Rector or Rectors for whom such Agents or Trustees shall act, and producing such his or their Appointment at the time of his or their acting by virtue thereof.

LXXVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the several Rectors, Vicars, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said several and respective Parishes and Liberties for the time being, Trustees as aforesaid (if they in their Discretion shall deem it expedient, and shall be more conducive to the interests of the Poor of their said several and respective Parishes and Liberties), or the major Part of them, and they are hereby empowered, from time to time, in Writing under their Hands and seals, to lease and demise the said several and respective Allotments to the Poor or to such thereof, and in such LXXXI. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That the said Allotments heretofore directed to be made to the several Lords of Manors aforesaid, for and in lieu of their respective Rights to the Soil of the respective Common and Waste Grounds in the said several Manors respectively, shall not in any manner affect or prejudice the respective Rights of the said several Lords of Manors aforesaid, to their several and respective proprietary Allotments as Proprietors of or as being interested in the said Open Waste Grounds and Common Lands to be divided and parcelled, further than with respect to their several and respective Rights to the Soil of the said several and respective Common and Wastes, for which Allotments are heretofore directed to be made and respectively made.

Persons not entitled to Allotments for Inhabitants.

LXXXII. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That no Person or Persons shall be entitled to have or claim any Allotment or Allotments of the Common and Waste Lands within the said respective Parishes and Liberties in Right of any Enfranchisement that shall or may have been made upon any Part or Parts of the said Common or Waste Lands.

Allotments to
certain date.

LXXXIII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That the said several Allotments hereby directed to be made of the Open and Common Fields, Commonable Lands and Waste Grounds within the said several Parishes and Liberties respectively, to His Majesty and the Lords of Manors and Proprietors of Estates, and other Persons having Interest therein, by the said Commissioners respectively for carrying this Act into Execution, shall be set out, allotted and awarded according to the Direction aforesaid, within the Space of Two Years next after such Allotments to His Majesty shall be set out and aforesaid as aforesaid.

Qualities and Situation of Allotments considered.

LXXXIV. And he it further enacted, That the said respective Commissioners for the said Parishes and Liberties respectively, in making the said Divisions and Allotments respectively as aforesaid, shall have a due Regard to the Quality and Situation as well as to the Quantity of the Lands to be divided and allotted as aforesaid, and also to the Convenience of the Parties concerned, and shall set out the Part or Share of every Person's Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments respectively, as conveniently may be, without Prejudice or Partiality to any of the Parties and Persons interested in the said Division and Inclosure; but the Provision hereby made shall not authorize or empower the said Commissioners to make any Alteration in the Specific Allotments heretofore directed or authorized to be made to or for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, as aforesaid.

LXXXV. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons entitled in Fee to any Right of Common upon any of the Commonable Lands or Waste Grounds hereby directed to be divided and allotted, to sell and dispose of his, her or their Right or Interest in any such Rights, separate and apart from the Property to which the same are appurtenant; and the said Commissioners for the said several Parishes and Liberties respectively shall award the Allotments to be made in any of such Rights to fold and disposed of, to the Purchaser thereof respectively, having received a Request in Writing to do so, signed by the Proprietors or Owners of such Right in the Presence of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Lands and Hereditaments which shall be allowed by virtue of this or the said recited Act to any Person or Persons shall be held by such Person or Persons under the same Tenure, Rents, Covenants and Services as the Messuages, Cottages, Lands and other Hereditaments, in respect of which such Allotments shall be respectively made or given, were respectively held under or enjoyed by such Person or Persons as aforesaid before the passing of this Act, or would have been held under and enjoyed by in case this Act had not passed; and the several Lands and Hereditaments which shall be allotted for any Freehold Messuages or Cottages, Lands or Hereditaments, shall be deemed Freehold, and shall be held of the Lord or Lords of the Fee thereof, under the same Rents or other Payments as the Freehold Messuages, Cottages, Lands and Hereditaments for which they were allotted, were before that time held under; and the several Lands and Hereditaments which shall be allotted for any Copyhold or Cottishery Messuages, Cottages, Lands or Hereditaments, shall in like manner be deemed Copyhold or Cottishery Lands and Hereditaments, and shall be held of the Lord or Lords of the Fee thereof, under the same Rents and by the same Covenants and Services as the Copyhold or Cottishery Messuages, Cottages, Lands and Hereditaments, for which they were allotted were or ought to have been held under, and shall pass by the like Surrenders and Admissions as the Copyhold or Cottishery Messuages, Cottages, Lands and Hereditaments, in respect whereof such Allotments shall be made, do now pass by; and that still and every Person and Persons to whom such Copyhold or Cottishery Lands and Hereditaments shall be allotted as aforesaid, may at any Court which shall be holden for the Manor or Manors whereof such Copyhold or Cottishery Lands and Hereditaments shall be respectively holden, after the Execution of the Award of the said Commissioners respectively, be admitted Tenant and Treasurer to the same without paying any Fine or other Charge to the Lord or Lords, or to the Steward or Stewards of the said Manors (save and except for the Stamp Duties and Parchment requisite to be used for the Copies of such Admissions respectively, and the Cottishery Fees to the Stewards of the said Manors respectively), but in case the Person or Persons to whom such Copyhold or Cottishery Lands and Hereditaments shall be allotted, shall do without Admission thereto, then the Cottishery Fees and other Payments shall be due and payable on the Admission of the Person or Persons entitled to such Copyhold or Cottishery Lands and Hereditaments; and after every such first Admission as aforesaid, the Copyhold or Cottishery Lands and Hereditaments to be allotted as aforesaid, shall at all times be held under and subject to the same Tenures, Rents and other Payments as the parient Copyhold or Cottishery Messuages, Cottages, Lands and Hereditaments, in respect whereof such Lands and Hereditaments were allotted, are now held under and are subject to; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That in case the several Persons entitled to Allotments of the Waste Lands within the said several and respective Parishes and Liberties as aforesaid, or either of them, shall be desirous of purchasing such Timber Trees and other Trees as shall be the Property of His Majesty, landing, growing and being in or upon any of their said Allotments, then and in every such case the Value of such Timber Trees and other Trees shall be ascertained and settled by the Commissioners or Commissioners of the said Parishes respectively, and the Commissioners heretofore appointed for and on Behalf of His Majesty; and in case the said Commissioners shall not agree in their Opinion as to such Valuation, then it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and they are hereby authorized and required to refer and submit the same to the Determination of some indifferent Person to be chosen by them, and the Determination of such Person so to be chosen and appointed by the said Commissioners, shall as to such Valuation be binding and conclusive, as well on the Part of His Majesty as of the Person or Persons purchasing or agreeing to purchase such Timber and other Trees as aforesaid; and the Purchase Money to be received for the same shall be paid to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenue, or to the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods and Forests, for the time being, to be applied in manner hereinafter mentioned.

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Lands and Grounds to be allotted and awarded upon the said Division and Inclosure, to and for the several Parties concerned, and the several Messuages, Lands, Townships, Old Inclosures, new Allotments, and other Hereditaments, which shall be exchanged by virtue or in pursuance of this Act or of the said recited Act, shall immediately after such Allotments and Exchanges are made, be, remain and coexist, and the several Persons to whom the same shall be respectively allotted or given in Exchange as aforesaid, shall from thenceforth stand and be seized or possessed thereof to such and the same Uses, Estates, Tenures and Purposes, subject to such and the same Wills, Settlements, Limitations, Powers, Reservations, Leases (except Leases at Rack Rent), Charges, Tenures, Rents, Services and Incumbrances, as the several and respective Messuages, Lands, Townships, Old Inclosures, new Allotments

XCI. And be it further enacted, That all the Allotments to be made of the said Commonable Lands and Waste Grounds by virtue of this Act (exclusive of the Allotments to be made to His Majesty as aforesaid), in respect of any Lands or Tenements held by Lease or Leases at Rack Rent, or for which Leases no Fines are therein expressed to have been paid to the Grantors or Lessors, as the Consideration for the same, shall be allotted to and held by the several Owners and Proprietors of such Lands and Tenements, freed and discharged from all Right or Claim of such respective Lessors to, in or upon the said Allotments, or any Part thereof, so as be derived under or by virtue of such Leases; and in case any of such Leases shall think himself, herself or themselves aggrieved thereby, and such Lessors and Lessors shall not settle the same on their mutual Satisfaction, then in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners for the said respective Parishes and Liberties in which the same shall happen, on Application to him or them made by either Party, to take the Matters in question into their or his Consideration, and by his or their Order to make every such Lease, for his, her and their Life of Concomage, or other Losses by means of the said Division, such a fair and adequate Allowance and Compensation, either in Money to be paid down, or by way of Abatement or Reduction in the Rent by such Lessee relieved, as the said Commissioners or Commissioners shall think just and equitable.

XCIII. And he it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, until such Division and Allotment shall be made as aforesaid, all the Tillage and other Lands lying in the said Open and Common Fields of the said several and respective Parishes and Liberties aforesaid, by this Act directed to be divided and allotted, shall be cropped or sown by the Proprietors or Occupiers thereof, in such Proportions and Manner, and shall be stocked with such Cattle or Sheep, and kept, ordered and continued in such Course of Husbandry, as the said Commissioners for the said several and respective Parishes and Liberties shall, by Writing under their respective Hands in that Behalf, from time to time order, direct or appoint, if they or either of them shall think proper to give any Order or Direction concerning the same; and that no Meadow, Pasture or Greenward Ground, being Part of the Lands and Grounds by this Act directed to be divided, allotted and inclosed, shall before the making of such Division and Allotment be ploughed, broken up or converted into Tillage; and that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the said several and respective Parishes and Liberties, at any time before the making of the said Allotments, in case they or either or any of them shall judge it beneficial to the Proprietors, by a Notice or Notice in Writing under their respective Hands, to be affixed on the principal Outer Door of the several Churches of the respective Parishes aforesaid, to suspend or extinguish all or any of the Rights of Common in or upon all or any Part or Parts of the Lands or Grounds by this Act directed to be divided, allotted and inclosed; and such Rights of Common shall be suspended, or shall cease and be for ever extinguished, according to such Notice or Notices.

XCIV. And he it further enacted, That the respective Commissioners for the said Parishes and Liberties respectively shall and may, by some Writing or Writings under their respective Hands, assign, order and appoint what Recompense and Satisfaction in Money shall be paid to the Owner or Owners of any Crops growing on any Part of the said Open and Common Fields at the time of making the said intended Division and Allotment, for the said Crops, by the Person or Persons to whom the Lands on which such Crops are growing shall be allotted, unless such Owner or Owners shall within the time to be appointed, by Writing under the Hands of the said respective Commissioners for that Purpose, declare his, her or their Intention to reap and take away the same, and shall have Permission from the said Commissioners respectively so to do; and in case of Non-payment of such Recompense and Satisfaction in Money for such Crops, at the time and in the manner to be appointed by the said respective Commissioners for that Purpose, or in case of such Election to reap and take away the same, then it shall be lawful for such Owner of such Crops, and his, her or their Servants, Workmen or Agents, to enter on and upon the Lands and Grounds whereas such Crops shall be growing, and to cut, reap and carry away the same, and to dispose thereof to him, her and their own Use; and also that the said respective Commissioners shall, by some Writing or Writings under their respective Hands, assign, order and appoint what Recompense and Satisfaction shall be paid, and to whom, for the Standage of Crops, by such Owner or Owners sowing and having Permission from the said Commissioners respectively to take away the same as aforesaid, and also what Satisfaction in Money shall be paid, and by whom, in any Tenant or Tenants, Occupier or Occupiers of Land, within the said several Parishes aforesaid, as well for ploughing, sowing and mowing of any Lands or Grounds, which shall be allotted in favor either Person or Persons for the Profit and Advantage which any Person or Persons to whom the said Grounds shall be allotted will obtain thereby, as for any Loss or Damage which any such Tenant or Tenants, Occupier or Occupiers, shall or may sustain by means of the said Division and Inclosure; and if in either or any of the said cases last mentioned, such Recompense and Satisfaction shall not be made, at the time and in manner to be appointed by the said Commissioners respectively, then the said Commissioners shall and may, by any Warrant or Warrants under their respective Hands and Seals, directed to any Person or Persons whatsoever (and which Warrant or Warrants they or either or any of them are and is hereby authorized and empowered to grant accordingly), cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons required to make such Satisfaction and Recompense as aforesaid, together with the Costs and Charges of such Distress and Sale; rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners of such Goods and Chattels.

XCV. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That no Sheep or Cattle shall be depastured in any of the Allotments to be made by virtue of this Act, for the Space of Seven Years from the making of the said Allotments, unless the Person or Persons so depasturing the same shall have well and effectually fenced and guarded the Quack placed upon the adjoining Land of any other Proprietor or Proprietors as a Division Fence, from the Land of the Person or Persons so depasturing with Sheep or Cattle as aforesaid.

XCVI. And he it further enacted, That the Costs and Charges of and incident to the Surveying, measuring, planning, dividing, valuing and allotting the said last mentioned Open and Common Fields and Commonable Land and Waste Grounds intended to be divided, allotted and inclosed, and of making the Public Roads, Drains, Watercourses and Bridges, to be set out by virtue of this Act and the said recited Act, and of preparing and settling the several Awards, and the Allowances to the several Commissioners, Umpires and Clerks, and to the several Persons to be employed by them either before or after the Execution of the said respective Awards, in or about or concerning the Execution of this Act and the said recited Act, and not hereby otherwise provided for, shall from time to time be borne, paid and defrayed by and at the Expense of all the said Proprietors and Owners or other Persons interested, according to the Benefits derived under this Act, in such Shares and Proportions, by Writing under their Hands, to be affixed on the principal Outer Door of the several and respective Parish Churches, at least Ten Days before the time of such Payment, order and discharge.

KCVII. And he is further enacted, That the said Commissioners respectively shall and they are hereby authorized to sit out such Pieces or Pieces, Parcel or Parcels, and Quantity of the Waste Grounds within such of the said several and respective Parishes heretofore named (when the major Part in value of the Proprietors in such several and respective Parishes, to be ascertained by the Land Tax Assessors, shall require them so to do) as they shall think proper, for raising Money by Sale thereof, in manner directed by the said recited Act, to defray the Expenses of carrying this Act, so far as relates to the several Allotments to be made to the several Proprietors of Estates in the respective Parishes aforesaid into Execution; and in case any Surplus shall remain, after all such Charges and Expenses shall have been fully paid and satisfied, the same shall be divided and distributed amongst the several Proprietors, according to their several and respective Interests therein; and the Shares of such of them as shall be Tenants in Fee Simple shall be paid to them respectively; and the Shares of such other Proprietors of and in such Surplus Money, shall be applied and disposed of in manner directed by the said recited Act to those cases where any Money is to be paid for the Purchase or Exchange of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or of any Timber or Wood growing thereon; and which Money ought to be laid out in the Purchase of other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, to be settled in the same Uke; and that the same Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and directed to fill such Piece or Pieces, Parcel or Parcels, and Quantity of the Waste Grounds so by them set out as aforesaid, at the Time and Place appointed by them for that Purpose; and the Person or Persons who shall then and there offer the largest Sum of Money for such Land, or any Piece or Parcel thereof respectively, shall be the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, he, she or they immediately paying One Fifth Part of his, her or their Purchase Money, as and for a Deposit, and paying the Residue of such Purchase Money, within Two Calendar Months afterwards, into the Hands of the Commissioners for such respective Parishes aforesaid, or of such Person as they shall appoint, whose Receipt shall sufficiently discharge such Purchaser or Purchasers from any Concern in or Necessity of looking to the Application thereof; and the said Commissioners shall thereupon, at the Costs and Charges of such Purchaser or respective Purchasers, convey the said Lands so sold as aforesaid, unto and to the Use of, or as Trust for, such Purchaser or respective Purchaser, and him, her or their respective Heirs and Assigns, or otherwise, as such Purchaser or respective Purchaser shall direct; and the Land so to be sold and conveyed as aforesaid shall thenceforth be held and enjoyed as Freehold Land, freed and discharged from all Charges and Incumbrances whatsoever; and the said Commissioners shall, by their said Award, assign and allot the same Land accordingly; but in case such Purchaser or respective Purchaser shall refuse or neglect to pay the Residue of his, her or their Purchase Money, within the time herein for that Purpose appointed for the Payment thereof, then the Money so to be deposited as aforesaid, shall be forfeited, and applied towards defraying the Costs, Charges and Expenses of executing this Act, so far as relates to the several Allotments to be made to the several Proprietors of Estates in the respective Parishes aforesaid; and the Land for the Purchase whereof such Money was deposited, or for which any Money was offered at the Time and Place aforesaid, shall again be offered to Sale, and sold in manner aforesaid, and in every such case, unto the same shall be sold and conveyed, and the whole Purchase Money for the same shall be paid to the said Commissioners as manner and for the Purposes aforesaid: Provided always, that whenever any such Determination for Sale shall have been made as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, Corporation Aggregate or Sole, or any other Person or Persons interested in such Division and Allotment, to give Notice in Writing to the Commissioners or Commissioners of his, her or their Will and Intention to contribute his or their Proportion of such Expenses in Money; and then in that case, the said Commissioners shall proceed to award such Proportion, and to set out and allot his, her or their Proportion and Share of the said Waste and Commons, without making any Deduction in respect of such Expenses.

KCVIII. And he is further enacted, That in case any Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, Corporation Aggregate or Sole, or any of the Owners or Proprietors of or Persons interested in any Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, entitled to share in the Lands to be inclosed by virtue of this Act, who by virtue of this or the said recited Act shall have Power to raise Money on Mortgage for paying and defraying their respective Proportions of the Charges and Expenses incident to or attending the carrying the Inclosure hereby intended into Execution, shall instead of exercising such Power of borrowing Money as aforesaid, be desirous of having Land denuded or taken from their respective Allotments, equivalent to the Amount of Money with which they are by this Act or the said recited Act enabled to charge their respective Allotments, and shall by themselves or Agents signify the same in Writing to the Commissioners or Commissioners acting under this Act; then and in every such case it shall be lawful for such Commissioners or Commissioners to deduct from the respective Allotments to be made to such Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, Corporation Aggregate or Sole, or to such other Owners or Proprietors, or Persons as aforesaid respectively, so much Land as shall in the Judgment of such Commissioners or Commissioners be equal in Value to such Sum or Sums of Money as such respective Owners or Proprietors or Persons shall be warranted or empowered by virtue of this Act or the said recited Act, to raise or charge for the Purposes aforesaid, and to allot and award the same to such Person or Persons who shall give for the same such Sum or Sums of Money as aforesaid; and the same shall be thenceforth held by such Person or Persons as has, her or their Freehold of Inheritance in Fee Simple discharged of all Consumable Rights and other Rights for which Compensation shall have been provided and made upon or under such Division or Inclosure: Provided always, that in all cases where any Land shall be deducted from the Allotment of any of the said Proprietors or Persons towards Payment of Expenses as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners to deduct from any Allotment to be made to any Proprietor or Proprietors, any further or greater Quantity of Land than would be equal in value to the Sum of Money that such Proprietor or Proprietors is or are by this or the said recited Act empowered to borrow and charge on his, her or their Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments; nor shall it be lawful for the Proprietor or Person from whose whole Allotment Land shall be defoliated as aforesaid, to charge his, her or their Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments by virtue of the said recited Act or this Act, with any Money towards Payment of such Expenses.

XCIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case the Money to be produced by such Sale or Sales, where the same shall take place, shall not be sufficient to defray all such Costs, Charges and Expenses as aforesaid, then and in such case the Deficiency shall be borne, defrayed and paid by the respective Parishes, Body or Bodies Police, Corporate or Collegiate, to whom the said Lands and Grounds shall be allotted by virtue of this Act, in Proportion to the Value of their respective Allotments, such Proportion to be settled and ascertained by the said Commissioner or Commissioners appointed for the said Parishes respectively; and such Proportions, when so settled and ascertained, shall be paid to such Parish or Parishes, and at such time or times, as they shall order and direct; and in case any Parish or Parishes, Body or Bodies Police, Corporate or Collegiate, shall refuse or neglect to pay his, her or their Share or Proportion of the said Deficiency, then and in such case the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall and they are hereby empowered and required, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Owner or Owners, or the Occupier or Occupiers of the Allotment or Allotments so refusing or neglecting: such Payment as aforesaid, together with the Costs and Charges of such Warrant, Distress and Sale, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners of such Goods and Chattels upon Demand; and every Occupier or Tenant who shall make such Payments under such Distress or otherwise, by Order of the said Commissioner or Commissioners, is hereby authorized to deduct and retain out of his, her and their said Payment of Rents, so much Money as he, she or they shall be pay as that Account.

C. And be it further enacted, That if any of the said Proprietors of the said Common Fields and Premises in any of the said several Parishes and Liberties, or any other Person or Persons on their Behalf, shall advance any Sum or Sums of Money for the Purpose of defraying the Expenses of carrying this Act into Execution, such Proprietors or Persons shall be repaid the same, with interest, at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, by the said respective Commissioners of the said several Parishes and Liberties, out of the Monies which shall be first raised by them, to defray the Charges and Expenses of putting this Act into Execution.

CI. And be it further enacted, That once at least in each and every Year during the Execution of this Act (such Year to be computed from the Day of passing thereof) the respective Commissioners for the said several Parishes and Liberties aforesaid, shall and they are hereby required to make a true and just Statement and Account of all Sums of Money by them respectively received and expended, or due to them for their own Trouble or Expenses in the Execution of this Act; and such Statement or Account when so made, together with the Vouchers relating thereto, shall be by them respectively laid before Two or more Justices of the Peace for the said County of Berks, residing in the Neighbourhood, but not interested in the said intended Division and Inclosure: and the said Justices shall be by them examined and balanced, and such Balance shall be by such Justices stated in the respective Book or Books of Accounts, to be kept to the Officers of the respective Clerks in the said Commissioners.

CII. And be it further enacted, That the said respective Commissioners for the several Parishes and Liberties aforesaid shall and they are hereby authorized and required to make their several and respective Awards in Writing for each of the said Parishes and Liberties of and concerning the several Matters and Things directed to be done by them respectively in each of the said Parishes and Liberties on performance of this Act, in such manner, and to cause the same to be recorded within such time, and at such Place, as is set forth and directed by the said recited Act of the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty; and also to cause the Copy of each Award for each of the said respective Parishes and Liberties after the same shall have been duly enrolled, to be fairly written on Parchment; which Copy shall be deposited and kept in the Church Chest in each of the Churches of the said respective Parishes, for the Use of the Proprietors of Lands and Tenements and Persons interested in the said intended Division and Inclosure within the said respective Parishes, to be referred to and inspected by them respectively from time to time, as Occasions may require.

CIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think, himself, herself or themselves aggrieved by any thing done in pursuance of this or the said recited Act, then and in such case (except where the Orders and Determinations of the said Commissioners are by this Act or the said recited Act directed to be final or conclusive, and except in such cases where an Appeal at Law may be tried as heretofore accustomed) he, she or they may appeal to the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall be held for the said County of Berks, within his Calendar Months next after the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, on giving to the Commissioner or Commissioners whose Determination shall be appealed against, and to the Party or Parties concerned, Ten Days' Notice of such Appeal, and of the Matter thereof; and the Justices in their said Sessions (not interested in the Premises) are hereby required to hear and determine the Matter of every such Complaint, and to make such Order therein, and to award such Costs as they may think reasonable, and to direct the levying the Costs that shall be awarded by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party or Parties liable to pay the same, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners, after deducting the reasonable Charges of such Distress and Sale, which Determination of the Justices shall be final and conclusive to all Parties concerned, and shall not be removed by Curiam, or any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or elsewhere; but in case such Appeal shall appear to the said Justices to be frivolous, vexatious and without Foundation, then the said Justices shall award such Costs to be paid by the Appellant or Appellants, as to them in their Discretion shall seem reasonable, and to be levied in manner aforesaid.

C A P. CLIX.

An Act to limit the Responsibility of Ship Owners, in certain Cases.

[11th July 1813.]

WHEREAS it is of the utmost Convenience and Importance to promote the Increase of the Number of Ships and Vessels belonging to the United Kingdom, registered according to Law, and to prevent any Discontentment to Merchants and others from being interested therein: And whereas it is expedient to amend an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, entitled An Act to give Law for Owners of Ships shall be enforceable for the Acts of the Masters or Mariners; and also another Act made in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the Seventh Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to give Law for Owners of Ships shall be enforceable for the Acts of Masters or Mariners, and for giving a further Relief to the Owners of Ships; and that other Provisions should be made in respect thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Person or Persons who is, are or shall be Owner or Owners, or Part Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel, shall be liable or liable to answer for or make good any Loss or Damage arising or taking Place by reason of any Act, Neglect, Manner or Thing done, omitted or occasioned, without the Fault or Privity of such Owner or Owners, which may happen to any Goods, Wares, Merchandise or other Things laden or put on board the same Ship or Vessel, after the Full Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirtieth, or which after the first Full Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirtieth may happen to any other Ship or Vessel, or to any Goods, Wares, Merchandise or other Things, being in or on board of any other Ship or Vessel, further than the Value of his or their Ship or Vessel, and the Freight due or to grow due for and during the Voyage which may be in Prosecution or contracted for at the time of the happening of such Loss or Damage.

Owners of Ships not liable to make good Damage occasioned without their Fault, etc.
the Value of Vessel, &c.

Value of Cargo of Goods, &c. included in Liability.

II. And he is further enacted, That the Value of the Carriage of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, belonging to the Owner or any of the Owners of such Ship or Vessel, and also the Hire due or to grow due under or by virtue of any Contract, whether made by or on the Behalf of His Majesty, or by or on the Behalf of any other Person or Persons, or any Body Politic or Corporate whatsoever, except only such Hire as is the rate of a Ship or Vessel hired for time, may not begin to be earned until the Expiration of Six Calendar Months after the happening of such Loss or Damage, shall be deemed and taken to be, and shall be considered as Freight, within the Intent and Meaning and for the Purposes of this Act, and also of the said Acts of Parliament made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty.

Power for Master of Rights.

III. And he is further enacted, That in case any such Loss or Damage shall arise or happen by more than one Infringement and Default, Act, Neglect or Default, or on more than one Occasion in the Course or Progress of a Voyage, or after the End of any Voyage, and before the Commencement of another Voyage, such and every such Loss or Damage shall be paid, compensated and satisfied according to the Provisions of this Act, in such and the same way, and to the same Extent, as if no other Loss or Damage had happened or arisen during the same Voyage, or after the End of any Voyage and before the Commencement of another Voyage.

Mariners.

IV. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall lessen or take away any Responsibility to which any Master or Mariner of any Ship or Vessel may now by Law be liable, notwithstanding such Master or Mariner may be an Owner or Part Owner of his Ship or Vessel.

Owners of Ships, &c.

V. Provided also, and he is further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be confined to extend to the Owner or Owners of any Lighter, Barge, Boat or Vessel, of any Burthen or Description whatsoever, used solely in River or Inland Navigation, or any Ship or Vessel not duly registered according to Law.

VI. Provided

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prevent any Action or Suit being brought or instituted, or proceeded in, in any Court of competent Jurisdiction, by any Person or Persons who shall have suffered any Loss or Damage within the Intent and Meaning of this Act against any Owner or Part Owner of any Ship or Vessel, notwithstanding any other Person or Persons may have suffered any Loss or Damage by the same Accident, Act, Neglect or Default, or on the same Occasion; but that all such Actions and Suits shall and may be brought or instituted, and proceeded in, in such manner as the same might have been brought or instituted, or been proceeded in, if this Act had not been made; but-left notwithstanding to such Order as any Court may think fit to make, to refuse Proceedings in such Action or Suit, on special circumstances, as Justice and Equity shall require.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if several Persons shall suffer any Loss or Damage in or to their Goods, Wares, Merchandises, Ships or otherwise, by any means for which the Responsibility of any Owner or Owners is tested by this Act as aforesaid, and the Value of the Ship or Vessel, with all her Appurtenances, and the Amount of the Freight estimated as herein is mentioned, shall not be sufficient to make full Compensation to all and every the Persons and Persons suffering such Loss and Damages, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Person or Persons liable to make Satisfaction for such Loss or Damage, or any One or more of them, on Behalf of himself, herself or themselves, and the other Owner or Owners of the same Ship or Vessel, to exhibit a Bill in any Court of Equity having competent Jurisdiction, against all the Persons who shall have brought any such Action or Actions, Suit or Suits as aforesaid, and all other Persons who shall claim to be entitled to any Recompense for any Loss or Damage arising or happening by the same Accidents and default Accident, Act, Neglect or Default, or on the same Occasion, to ascertain the Amount of the Value of the Ship or Vessel, Appurtenances and Freight, and for Payment or Distribution thereof ratably amongst the several Persons claiming Recompense as aforesaid, in Proportion to the Amount of the several Losses or Damages sustained by such Persons to obtaining such Recompense as aforesaid, according to the Rules of Equity, and as the case may require: Provided always, that the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Bill shall annex to such Bill an Affidavit that he, she or they do not directly or indirectly collude with any of the Defendants therein, or with any other Owner or Owners of the same Ship or Vessel, or with any other Person or Persons, but that such Bill is filed for the Purpose only of Justice, and to obtain the Benefit of the Provisions of this Act; and that the several Persons named as Defendants to the said Bill, as, the Person or Persons making such Affidavents verily believes, all the Persons claiming to be entitled to Recompense for Loss or Damage sustained by the same Accident, Act, Neglect or Default, or on the same Occasion; and that all such Defendants do claim such Recompense, and to be entitled to Proportions of the Value of such Ship or Vessel, Appurtenances and Freight; and that no other Person claims to be entitled to any Proportion thereof under the Provisions of this Act; and that the Amount of the Value of such Ship or Vessel, Appurtenances and Freight, does not exceed a Sum to be specified in such Affidavents, and that the several Claims made by the Defendants to such Bill, do exceed the Amount of the Value of such Ship or Vessel, Appurtenances and Freight; and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Bill shall, on filing such Bill, apply to the Court and obtain an Order for Liberty to pay into Court the Amount of the Value of such Ship or Vessel, Appurtenances and Freight, as ascertained by such Affidavents, and shall pay the same into Court according to such Order; and no Defendant or Defendants in such Bill shall be compellable to put in any Answer thereto until such Value shall have been paid into Court as aforesaid, unless the Court shall for any special Cause think fit to order Security to be given for the same, in such manner as the said Court shall think fit, either ahead of Payment thereof into Court as aforesaid, or until such Court shall make other Order to the contrary; and unless such Money shall be paid into Court as aforesaid, or the said Court shall make such Order for Security as aforesaid, and such Security shall be given according to the said Order within One Month after such Bill shall have been filed, such Bill shall immediately after the Expiration of such Month stand dissolved without any Motion for that Purpose; and the Court shall thereupon order the Payment of the Costs of the said Suit to all the Defendants who shall then have appeared to such Bill; and is and shall such Security shall be given as aforesaid, and such Value shall afterwards be ordered to be paid into Court, and the same shall not be so paid within the time to be limited by the Court, such Bill shall still stand dissolved without Motion for that Purpose, and the said Court shall also order Coils to be paid to the Defendants as aforesaid; and in case any such Bill shall at any time be dissolved after any such Value shall have been paid into Court, or such Security given as aforesaid, such Court shall direct the Money so paid into Court, if any, to be paid to the several Claimants, Defendants to such Bill, who shall appear to the Court to be entitled to Proportions thereof, in such manner as to such Court shall appear to be just, and shall order any Security so to be given as aforesaid to be put in Stay, and the Money to be recovered thereupon to be paid into Court and distributed in like manner; and such Payments shall be without Prejudice to any Actions or Suits which may be brought or instituted by any other Person or Persons or Parties to such Bill, for any such Loss or Damage as aforesaid, although such Loss or Damage shall have arisen or happened by the same Accident, Act, Neglect or Default, or on the same Occasion as the Losses or Damages for which Recompense shall be claimed by the Parties Defendants to such Bill, and all such Payments shall be made under the Order of the said Court shall be without Prejudice to the Recovery of the Costs in any Action or Suit which shall have been brought by any such Defendant or Defendants, unless such Coils shall be otherwise provided for by the said Court.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to the Court in which any such Bill shall be filed as aforesaid, that the Money paid into Court, or for which such Security shall be given as aforesaid, is not the true Amount of the Value of such Ship or Vessel, Appurtenances and Freight, the said Court shall order such further Sum of Money to be paid into Court, or such further Security to be given as to the said Court shall seem proper; and the said Court shall also at any time if the said Court shall see fit, order

Security to be given in the Court of such Suit as to the said Court shall seem good and just; and if such further Sum of Money shall not be paid, or such further or other Security shall not be given as aforesaid within the time to be limited by the said Court for that Purpose; such Bill shall stand dissolved without any Order for that Purpose; and the said Court shall thereupon order the Payment of the Costs of such Suit to the several Defendants by the Plaintiff, and give the proper Directions for the Application of any Money paid into Court, or due on any Security given in such Suit to answer the Demands of the several Defendants in such Suit, as to such Court shall appear to be just.

X. And be it further enacted, That if after any such Suit shall have been instituted the same shall become abated or suspended in the Whole or in Part, and the same shall not be revived or made perfect within the time to be limited by the Court for that Purpose, such Suit and all Proceedings therein shall stand dissolved without any Motion for that Purpose; and the said Court shall order the Costs of such Suit to be paid to the Defendants thereto, or to the Representatives of any who shall be then dead; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any such Suit, or any of them, shall be then dead, such Costs as shall not be otherwise paid shall be a Charge on the Assets of such deceased Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and shall be recoverable as a Debt by Simple Contract.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Court in which any such Bill shall be filed as aforesaid, shall be and is hereby authorized and empowered to take all such Measures as to such Court shall seem just for ascertaining the Value of the Ship or Vessel, Appurtenances and Freight, the Amount of the Loss or Damages claimed by the Defendants therein respectively, and all such Matters and Things as shall be necessary for the Purposes of Justice in such Suit, and for Payment and Distribution of the Value of such Ship or Vessel, Appurtenances and Freight, amongst the several Parties entitled thereto, and generally to do therein as shall appear to be just; and the Costs of all such Proceedings shall be paid by the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Suit, unless such Court shall think fit otherwise to order.

XII. And be it further enacted, That all Costs to be paid by the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any such Suit in a Court of Equity as aforesaid shall be taxed and settled as between Attorney and Client, if the Court shall think fit so to order.

XIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any such Bill shall be filed, and shall afterwards be dissolved by reason of any such Default of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein as heretofore provided, or under any Order of the said Court for that Purpose, no new Bill shall be filed by the same Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or his, her or their Representatives, or by any other Part Owner or Part Owners of the same Ship or Vessel, within the Court in which such Bill shall have been filed shall order such Dissolution to be without Prejudice to the filing of a new Bill, either absolutely or under such Conditions as to the said Court shall seem just.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Money shall be paid into any such Court of Equity as aforesaid, in respect of the Value of any such Ship or Vessel, Appurtenances or Freight, all interest and Profit made thereof whilst such Money shall remain in Court shall be considered as belonging to the Parties in such Suit, who shall appear to be entitled to the Principal Money or Portions thereof respectively, and shall be divided and distributed accordingly; and if Security shall be given for such Value, or any Part thereof, the same shall bear interest, and such interest shall be applied in like manner.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any such Bill shall be filed as aforesaid by any Part Owner or Part Owners of any Ship or Vessel, on behalf of himself, herself or themselves, and the other Part Owners, such Bill shall bind all such other Part Owners, and their Representatives, in the same manner as they would have been bound if Parties Plaintiffs to such Bill; and if after the filing of any such Bill any of the Plaintiffs or other Part Owners shall die, the Right of Action against such Part Owners so dying, founded on any Tort or Wrong, shall not thereby be lost, but it shall be lawful to proceed against the respective Representatives of the Part Owners so dying, in the same manner as might have been if such Right of Action had been founded on Contract.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Suit for any such Loss or Damage as aforesaid shall be re-instituted or depending in any Court competent to act as a Court of Equity for the Purposes of this Act, such Court shall, and is hereby authorized and empowered to proceed in such Suit for such Purposes, in the same manner, and under the same Regulations, and with the same Powers as are herein given to Courts of Equity, in so far as the same are applicable to the nature of such Court, and the Forms of Proceedings therein, and such Court shall use all such means as a Court of Equity is by this Act empowered to use for the Purposes of this Act.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sum of Money which shall be paid for or towards or as a satisfaction of any Loss or Damage, in respect whereof the Responsibility of the Owners of any Ship or Vessel is limited by this Act, or by the said Acts or either of them, or any Costs incurred in relation thereto, shall and may be brought into Account among the Part Owners of the same Ship or Vessel in such and the like manner as Money disbursed for the Use thereof.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and other Persons whomsoever, without the same being specially pleaded.

An Act for making an equal County Rate for the County of Oxford. [21st May 1813.]

Session of the Peace in England may sit in County.

Removal of Causes deferred to Quarter Sessions.

WHEREAS the Assessments by which the County Rates are collected in the County of Oxford, are become very disproportionate and unequal, and it is therefore expedient that Power and Authority should be given to the Justices of the Peace for the said County of Oxford, in their General or Quarter Sessions assembled, to make a fair and equal County Rate, and for that Purpose to sit in and sit separately and in due Proportions all and every the Parishes, Towns, Liberties, Precincts, Villages, Hamlets and Places within the said County, heretofore subject and liable to the Authority and Jurisdiction of the said Justices as to the assessing or levying of the County Rates, according to the annual Rent or Value of Estates therein, for and towards the same: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Justices of the Peace for the said County of Oxford, in their General or Quarter Sessions assembled, or at any Adjournment or Adjournments thereof, shall have full Power and Authority, and they are hereby required from time to time, to sit in and sit in the County Rates every Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet and Place within the said County, heretofore subject and liable to the Authority and Jurisdiction of the said Justices as to the assessing or levying of the County Rates, equally and in equal Proportions, according to the Annual Rent or Value of Estates within each Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet and Place respectively.

II. And be it further enacted, That at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the said County of Oxford after the passing of this Act, or at the next subsequent General Quarter Sessions, and from time to time during the Execution of this Act, when required by the Justices assembled at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County, or by the Clerk of the Peace acting under their Authority, the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the several and respective Parishes, Towns, Liberties, Precincts, Villages, Hamlets and Places within the said County, shall and they are hereby required to make a Return in Writing to the said Justices in Session assembled (which Return shall be verified upon Oath in open Court, at the time of delivering in the same, by the Person or Persons so declaring in the same), of the total Amount of the Rental or Value of the several Estates and rateable Property within the Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet or Place to which they shall respectively belong, charged or assessed in the Poor Rate of and in each Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet or Place, at the time of making such Return, or liable to be; and the Mode adopted of making such Rate, whether it be to the full Value or in what Proportion thereof, shall be stated and passed out in Writing upon such Return, and verified as aforesaid by such Churchwardens and Overseers, in order that the said Justices may be enabled to discover the real Amount of the Rental or Value of the Estates within each several Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet or Place.

III. And

III. And be it further enacted, That in case any Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor of any of the several Parishes, Towns, Liberties, Precincts, Villages, Hamlets or Places within the said County, shall neglect or make Default in making any such Returns in manner aforesaid, then and in every such case each and every such Churchwarden and Overseer of the Poor for neglecting or making Default (without sufficient Excuse, to be allowed by the said Justices in their said General or Quarter Sessions) shall forfeit and pay each and every Sum of Money, not exceeding Ten Pounds, as shall or may be ordered or adjudged by the said Justices, in their General Quarter Sessions assembled, by way of Penalty for such Neglect or Default; and to each any such Penalty shall not be forthwith paid, it shall and may be lawful so and for the said Justices, in such Sessions assembled, and they are hereby directed to issue their Warrant, signed by the Justice sitting as Chairman of the Justices at such Sessions, to the High Constable of the Division where such Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet or Place shall be situated, directing him to levy such Penalty upon the respective Goods and Chances of each and every Churchwarden and Overseer of the Poor of the Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet or Place for neglecting or making Default, in like manner and with such Powers and Authorities as the said High Constable is, by a Statute made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled Act for the more easy raising, collecting and levying County Rates, vested with for levying on the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor the Sum affixed for the County Rate.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Churchwarden or Churchwardens, or Overseer or Overseers of the Poor, shall neglect or make Default in making such Returns or Returns as aforesaid; or if it shall happen that notwithstanding the incurring of any such Penalty or Penalties as aforesaid, for or on account of such Neglect or Default, a Return for any Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet or Place, shall not be made within the time before limited for the making thereof; then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the said Justices and they are hereby required, either at the said Quarter Sessions or at any Adjournment or Adjournments thereof, or at some subsequent General or Quarter Sessions to be held for the said County, or at some Adjournment or Adjournments thereof, to rate and assess each and every the Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet or Place, of which the Churchwarden or Churchwardens, or Overseer or Overseers of the Poor, shall have so neglected or made Default in making such Returns as aforesaid, for and towards the said County Rate, according to such Estimate of the full and several Rent or Value of the Estates within such Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet or Place, or Parishes, Townships, Liberties, Precincts, Villages, Hamlets or Places respectively, as the said Justices shall be able to procure by any other means than the Returns which are by this Act required to be made as aforesaid, and to order such Allowance and Compensation to be made to the Constables and other Persons within the several Divisions and Divisions in the said County, for their Expenses and Trouble in procuring, collecting and levying the same, as to the said Justices shall appear reasonable and proper; and all such Allowances, Compensation, and other Expenses as shall be thereby incurred, shall be by the Justices of the Peace for the said County of Oxford, in their General or Quarter Sessions, or at any Adjournment or Adjournments thereof assembled, charged upon the Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet or Place of which the Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Overseer or Overseers of the Poor, shall have so neglected or made Default as aforesaid, in Addition to the Proportion of the said County Rate to be paid by such Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet or Place; and such Allowances, Compensation and Expenses shall and may be rated, levied and collected by each and the said ways and means as the said County Rate can or may be rated, levied and collected, and shall be paid therewith.

V. And be it further enacted, That in any Parish, Township, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, Extra-parochial Place or other Place in the said County of Oxford, where no Rate is or shall be made and collected for the Relief of the Poor, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for the said County, in their General Quarter Sessions assembled, or at any Adjournment thereof, to order and direct the Sum of Money which shall from time to time be assessed as or for the County Rate upon such Parish, Township, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, Extra-parochial Place or other Place, to be rated and levied on the Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers of Lands and Tenements therein, by such one or more Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers, in fact and the same manner as any Rate for the Relief of the Poor is by Law directed to be rated or levied; which Sum, so rated and levied, shall be paid by such one or more Inhabitant or Occupier, or Inhabitants or Occupiers, to the Chief Constable of the Hundred or Division wherein such Parish, Township, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, Extra-parochial Place or other Place doth lie, within the Space of Thirty Days after Demand thereof made in Writing, to be given to such one or more Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers, or to his or her or their Dwelling House or Houses, by the said Chief Constable of such Hundred or Division, which Demand the said Chief Constable is hereby required to make at such times as the said Justices of the Peace shall by their Order in Sessions direct; and in case such one or more Inhabitant or Occupier, or Inhabitants or Occupiers, shall neglect or refuse to pay the Sum or Sums so assessed as or for a County Rate, after Demand made as aforesaid, such Chief Constable shall and is hereby empowered to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chances of such one or more Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers, in making or neglecting to pay the same as aforesaid, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of Two or more Justices of the Peace for the said County of Oxford, rendering the Occupier (if any) on Demand, after detaching the Money assessed and the Charges of the Distress and Sale, to the Owner or Owners thereof; and if such one or more Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers, shall pay such Sum before the same shall be so by him rated and levied as aforesaid, in, as or they may afterwards rate and levy the same, or shall and may be allowed and re-imbursed the said Sum of Money by a Rate made or to be made upon all and every the Inhabitants or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers of Lands and Tenements within such Parish, Township, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, Extra-parochial Place or other Place, which any Two or more

22 G. 2. c. 18.

IX. And be it further enacted and declared, That all and every the Clauses, Powers, Directions, Provisions and Authorities contained in the said Statute made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the more ready settling, collecting and levying County Rates; and also in so much of another Statute made in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act to continue several Acts therein mentioned, for punishing such Persons as shall wilfully and maliciously pull down or destroy Turnpikes; for expunging Highways or Lanes or other Works erected by Authority of Parliament; for moving Rivers navigable; for preventing Inundations of the Occupiers of Lands and Waters upon the River of Thames if overflowed, and for adjusting the Rates of Water Carriage upon the said River; for preventing felonies and various Arrogats; and for better securing the lawful Trade of His Majesty's Subjects to and from the East Indies, and for the more effectual preventing all His Majesty's Subjects trading either under Foreign Commissions; and for limiting the time for suing such Writs of Certiorari upon Proceedings before Justices of the Peace, and for regulating the time and manner of applying for the same; for the better and more speedy Execution of Privileges particular Franchises or Liberties, and for extending the Powers and Authorities of Justices of the Peace of Cinchus touching County Rates, in the Justice of the Peace of such Liberties and Franchises as now Commissioners of the Peace within themselves, as relates to County Rates

(Ivve

(fine and except such Parts thereof respectively as are hereby saved, altered or repealed), shall be good, valid and effectual for the Purposes of assessing, levying, collecting and enforcing the Payment of the Rate or Rates hereafter to be made in pursuance of this Act, and for carrying this Act into Execution.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the said County of Oxford shall be and he is hereby authorised and required to obey any Order or Orders that shall hereafter be made by the Justices of the said County at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace or Adjournment thereof, for the Payment of the Costs, Charges and Expenses occasioned by the applying for and passing this Act, and also the Charges and Expenses which shall be incident to and attending the collecting of the said Returns of the said Church-wardens, Overseers or other Persons, and the making and arranging of the Rate to be made in pursuance of this Act.

XI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Action or Suit shall be brought, commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for any thing done or to be done by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, after Three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, or the Cause of such Action shall have arisen; and every such Action shall be brought and laid in the County of Oxford, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit shall and may plead, at his, her or their Election, specially or the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance or by the Authority of this Act; and if upon the Trial of such Action or Suit it shall appear to have been so done, or that such Action or Suit shall have been brought after the time limited for bringing the same as aforesaid, or be brought or laid in any other County than as aforesaid, then and in every of the said cases the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants; and in all cases where a Verdict shall be found for any Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein shall discontinue the same after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared thereto, or shall be confessed, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, then and in every such case the Defendant or Defendants shall recover Double Costs, and have the like Remedy for recovering the same as any Defendant or Defendants such or have for recovering Costs of Suit in any other case by Law.

XII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to amend an Act, passed in the Fifty first Year of His present Majesty, for erecting a Bridge over the River Thames, from the City of London to the opposite Bank in the Parish of Saint Saviour, in the County of Surrey. [22d May 1813.]

32 G. 3. c. 41m.

17. WHETHERAS by an Act, passed in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for erecting a Bridge over the River Thames, from or near the Three Cranes, in the Parish of Saint James Garlick Hythe, and Saint Martin Vintry, in the City of London, to the opposite Bank of the said River, in the Parish of Saint Saviour, in the County of Surrey, and for making proper Streets and Approaches to communicate therewith, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that nothing in the said Act contained should extend, or be construed to extend, to authorize and empower the Company of Proprietors, incorporated for the Purposes of the said Act, to take any Lands, Grounds, Houses, Tenements or Premises, for the Purposes of the said Act, or to proceed with the Works therein authorized to be made, until a sufficient Number of Subscribers should have been obtained who would undertake to raise the Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds, such Subscriptions to be obtained within the Space of Eighteen Calendar Months from the passing of the said Act, to be proved to the Satisfaction of the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London, or to the Justices of the Peace for the County of Surrey, assembled at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden as and for the said County, and to be subject to all the Privileges and Enactments therein contained in respect of any or such Sum or Sums of Money mentioned in the said Act: And whereas many Persons have subscribed to the said Undertaking since the passing of the said Act, but, owing to the peculiar Exigencies of the Times, a sufficient Number of Subscribers have not yet been obtained who will undertake to raise the said Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds, and the said Period of Eighteen Months expired on the Fifteenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve: And whereas the said Company of Proprietors conceive that they shall be enabled to obtain a sufficient Number of Subscribers who will undertake to raise the said Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds, on being allowed further time for that Purpose, and it is expedient to amend the said recited Act: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the time for obtaining Subscriptions for raising the said Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds shall be extended Eighteen Calendar Months from the Day of passing the said Act, and that the said recited Act shall operate and be construed, and that all Clauses, Conditions, Powers, Privileges and Dispositions therein contained, shall be and continue in full Force and Effect for such extended Period in such and the same or the like way and manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said extended Period had been inserted in the said recited Act, instead of the said Space of Eighteen Calendar Months from the passing thereof.

Provided that the said Subscribers shall be obliged to make good.

The said Act
shall be amended
as may be.

18. And be it further enacted, That the Piers and Abutments of the said intended Bridge shall be constructed and made in a substantial and workmanlike manner, according to the Principles of a Specification hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, the Ground as which the said Piers and Abutments shall be erected, shall be secured by driving Piles of sufficient Strength, Length and Number, with Two or more Courses of Timber (such Course being at least One Foot in Thickness), placed on the Tops of such Piles; and that the said Piles and Courses of Timber for securing the said Piers, shall extend not less than Five Feet in Length, and Five Feet in Breadth at every Part thereof beyond the Shaft and lowest Angles of the said intended Piers, so as to cover a Space of Ground nearly Twice the Size of the same Pier at High Water Height; and that the Piles and Courses of Timber for securing the said Abutments, shall be sufficient to render the said Abutments perfectly secure, and to prevent the Possibility of their sinking or giving way; and that the same Piers and Abutments shall be constructed of solid Masonry, the Outside to be called for at least Two Feet and One-half in Thickness, with Double Coursing, or Dressing Stone, or other Stone of equal good Quality, and the Inside with Wholly or other Stone of a Quality, equally good, without any Rubble-work either in the said Piers or in the said Part of the said Abutments, but such Rubble-work may be used in the Wings or Land Arches, or the Abutments of the Wings or dry Arches.

The said Act
shall be amended
as may be.

19. And be it further enacted, That One Pier of the said intended Bridge shall be constructed and finished up to the Springing of the intended Arch, before the other Pier shall be begun, or any Preparations made for the River for that Purpose; and that when the said Pier is completed, the other shall be completed as aforesaid, so that only One of the said Piers shall be constructing at one and the same time, and that in like manner the Abutment of the said intended Bridge, on the Surrey Side thereof, shall be constructed and completed up to the Springing of the Arch before that on the London Side is begun, and when and after the said last mentioned Abutment shall be completed, but not before, the Abutment of the said intended Bridge on the London Side thereof shall be constructed and built.

The said Act
shall be amended
as may be.

20. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Company of Proprietors shall not proceed, to place or fix, or to cause to be placed or fixed, any of the Iron Work on the said intended Piers and Abutments of the said intended Bridge, until and until the said Piers and Abutments shall have been certified to be well and substantially built and completed according to the Specifications hereinafter contained, by John Rennie, Civil Engineer, or in case of his Death or Refusal to certify the same, by some Two Engineers, One of them to be appointed for that Purpose by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, at the Request of the said Company of Proprietors, and the other by the said Company; and in case such Two Engineers shall not agree as to the making such Certificate, then by such Third Engineer, as shall be appointed by the Two first aforesaid.

V. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That in case as the Monies to be collected and raised for the Purposes of the said recited Act, and of this Act, shall amount to the Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, the same Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds shall, after setting aside the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, be divided in the Three Parts or Proportions Confirmed Bank Annuities, in the Names of Sir Charles Price and Sir William Curtis Barons; and of George Robert Turner, James Thomson and William Mordaunt Esquires; as by the said recited Act is directed, be appropriated and set apart for the Construction and Erection of the said intended Bridge, and no Part thereof shall be applied for improving, widening or making any Streets, Ways or Approaches, or any other the Purposes of this Act, until the said intended Bridge shall be in every respect finished and completed: Provided nevertheless, that any Monies collected and raised after the said Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds shall have been appropriated as aforesaid, may be applied for any of the Purposes of the said recited Act, or this Act, in such a manner as the said Company of Proprietors shall think proper.

to Construction of Bridge.

Pounds

VI. And be it further enacted, That in case at any time hereafter the Iron Arches of the said intended Bridge, or any of them, shall fall or give way, so as to obstruct or endanger the Navigation of the said River, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the said Mayor, Aldermen and Common of the said City of London, in Councils lawfully assembled, or their Agents, Servants or Workmen, to take away the said Iron Work and other Materials which shall have fallen or given way as aforesaid, and sell the same for their Use and Benefit, towards defraying the Expenses of moving the same, and the Damages sustained by, or by reason of such Failure as aforesaid, unless the said Company of Proprietors shall forthwith, and with all due Diligence, take away the Iron Work and Materials which shall have fallen or given way as aforesaid.

If any Arch
fall or give way, Corporation authorized to remove and sell the Iron and Materials which have fallen or given way.

VII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That the said Company of Proprietors, or Court of Directors, or their Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being, shall and they are hereby authorized and required, by and out of the Monies to arise and be received by virtue of the said Act, to pay to the Collectors or Receivers of the Assessments for Land Tax and Poor's Rate, Confirmed Rate or Rate for paving, cleaning and lighting, Watch Rate, Sewer Rate and Trophy Tax within the Parishes of Saint Martin's Church, and Saint James Church respectively, or the Ward of Finsbury, in the City of London, all such Sums of Money as shall be deficient in the Produce of the said Assessments, Rates and Taxes, by reason of the taking down Houses and Buildings, or otherwise in consequence of the Alterations and Works authorized to be made by the said recited Act, according to the Produce of the said several Assessments and Rates and Taxes respectively, from Lady Day One thousand eight hundred and twelve to Lady Day One thousand eight hundred and thirteenth; and they, the said Collectors or Receivers, may, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, from time to time, as often as the said Assessments, Rates and Taxes shall be made and allowed, or become payable, to demand, recover and receive the same of and from the said Company of Proprietors, or Court of Directors, or their Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being, as an Equivalence in lieu of such Assessments, Rates and Taxes as aforesaid: Provided also, that when and so soon as a sufficient Number of Houses shall be erected and built by virtue of the said recited Act, and shall be rated, or become liable to the Payment of the said Assessments, Rates and Taxes, and the Rates, Taxes and Assessments thereof shall amount to as much Money as the Deficiencies aforesaid, then and from thenceforth, the Equivalence above mentioned and directed to be paid by the said Company of Proprietors, or Court of Directors, or their Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being, to the said respective Commissioners and their Successors, and to the said respective Collectors or Receivers as aforesaid, shall cease, and be no longer payable; and that when and so soon as any such House or Houses shall be built, and the Assessments, Rates and Taxes thereon shall not be sufficient to answer the said Equivalence, that then the said respective Collectors or Receivers shall allow and give Credit to the said Company of Proprietors or Court of Directors, or their Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being, for so much Money as shall be received in respect of the said several Assessments, Rates and Taxes, from the Owners and Occupiers of such House or Houses in discharge of the said Equivalence, as far as the same will extend, they the said Company of Proprietors, or Court of Directors, or their Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being, paying, and being liable to pay, the Remainder of the said Equivalence; and in case any Difference or Dispute shall arise with respect to the Amount of the Equivalence to be paid as aforesaid, by the said Company of Proprietors, or Court of Directors, or their Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being, the same shall be settled and adjusted by any Two or more of the Aldermen of the City of London, whose Assent and Determination shall be binding and conclusive on all Parties concerned.

Compensation made for Loss of Rates and Taxes
Saint Martin's Church and Saint James Church
Wards.

Cap. xv.

An Act to provide for the Distribution, Payment and Application of certain Monies and Effects, refunded or paid, or to be refunded or paid, by or on Behalf of the Government of Sweden, among the Persons having Claims thereon in consequence of certain Detentions, Sequestrations and Confiscations by that Government, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and ten, One thousand eight hundred and eleven, and One thousand eight hundred and twelve. [24 June 1813.]

WHEREAS divers Carriages, Goods, Wares and Merchandizes, and other Property, were, some time or about the Year One thousand eight hundred and ten, One thousand eight hundred and eleven and One thousand eight hundred and twelve, sequestrated, confiscated or otherwise detained, in some Ports or Places in the Dominions or within the Jurisdiction of the King of Sweden: And whereas at certain Meetings of the Persons who have sustained Losses in consequence of such Sequestrations, Detentions and Confiscations, held in the City of London, on the Second Day of August, and the Twenty sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and eleven, John Alcock the elder, Thomas Wilson, George Wood, Thomas Remond, John Anthony Rucker and Philip Frederick Solomons, all of the City of London, Merchants, were chosen as a Committee to act on Behalf of all the Parties interested, for the Purpose of endeavoring to obtain the Restoration of such Property, or some Compensation in respect thereof, or otherwise to act as it should seem to them expedient in relation to such Property, and also to appoint Attorneys or Agents to proceed to Sweden for the Purpose of negotiating and entering into Arrangements with the Swedish Government, or otherwise as might be deemed advisable for the Parties interested in the said Property; and the said Committee did, with the Concurrence and Permission of His Majesty's Government, sometime in or about the Month of December One thousand eight hundred and eleven, duly empower Niels Adolphi and John Alcock the younger, of the City of London, Merchants, to proceed to Sweden for the Purpose aforesaid; and the said Niels Adolphi and John Alcock the younger did accordingly proceed to Sweden, and enter into Negotiations with the Swedish Government in respect of the Matters in relation to their Charge as aforesaid; and in or about the Month of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve, the said John Alcock the younger returned to this Country, and reported to the said Committee the Result of such Negotations: And whereas a great Number of Merchants and Underwriters and other Persons (interested in the said Property, and, by an Act passed at under their Hands and Seals, duly assented to the said Act Abolition and John Adams the younger, jointly on Behalf of all the Parties interested in the said Property, to act as Attorneys or Commissioners respecting the Premises, and in such Capacity or otherwise as might be requisite to enter into and conclude any Agreement or Treaty with the Government of the Kingdom of Sweden or Officers of the same, or Persons acting on Behalf thereof, for the Liberation or Restoration of all or any of the Property detained, sequestered or condemned and forfeited, or in respect of any Payment, Compensation or Remuneration on account thereof, or to make any other Arrangement as respecting the Premises, and to do all such Acts as might be requisite for perfecting the same: And Whereas the said John Adams and John Adams the younger have, under and by virtue or in pursuance of such Power and Authority as aforesaid, entered into an Agreement or Arrangement with the Government of the Kingdom of Sweden, for the Restoration of the said Property, or the Proceeds thereof, or some Parts thereof, or for some Compensation respecting the same: And Whereas in pursuance of such Agreement or Arrangement a considerable Sum of Money hath been received by the said John Adams and John Adams the younger, in such Agency as aforesaid, and by them remitted to London: And the said John Adams and John Adams the younger are expected shortly to receive further Sums of Money on account of the Property and Effects sequestered, detained or condemned, as heretofore mentioned: And Whereas a great Number of the Persons claiming to be interested in the Monies received and to be received under such Agreement or Negotiation, being desirous that the said John Adams the elder, Robert Shallice the elder of the City of London, Merchant, and the said Thomas Wilson, John Ashbury Ward and Thomas Renshaw, should be appointed Commissioners or Trustees for the Payment and Distribution of such Monies, the Sums of Money aforesaid and upwards (the Monies already remitted as aforesaid) hath been paid to them, and by them received in Exchequer Bills: And Whereas it is expedient, in order to provide for the due Payment and Application of the Monies received and to be received as aforesaid, and for investigating, ascertaining and deciding on the Ought, Issue and Amount of the several and respective Claims to be made on the Monies and Property received and to be received as aforesaid, and the Rights and Interests of all Parties therein, and for the Safety and Indemnity of the Persons discharging or applying the said Sums and Funds, that certain Persons should be appointed as Referees, and that the said Referees, and also the said Commissioners or Trustees, should have such respective Powers and Authorities, and should take such Oaths for the faithful Discharge thereof as hereinafter in this Act respectively shall be expressed and contained, and that the said Funds should be protected against Forgery, and that the several other Provisions and Regulations hereinafter expressed should be made in relation thereto; but inasmuch as the several Purposes herebefore mentioned or referred to, cannot be effectually accomplished without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said John Adams the elder, Robert Shallice, Thomas Wilson, John Ashbury Ward and Thomas Renshaw, and their Successors to be appointed as heretofore mentioned, shall be and are hereby constituted and appointed Commissioners for the Receipt, Payment, Disbursement and Distribution of the Monies, Bills, Effects and Property received and to be received by or from the Swedish Government, or any Agents thereof, in respect of the Matters aforesaid; and that James Campbell of the City of London, Merchant, the said George Ward and William Rowlins, Henry Septhorne Ryde Wallis, James Brooker and William John Hathorn, also of the City of London, Merchants, and their Successors, to be appointed in manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be and they are hereby constituted and appointed Referees for the Investigation of the Ought, Issue and Amount of the Claims to be made on the said Monies and Property received or to be received as aforesaid in manner hereinafter expressed.

II. And be it further enacted, That some Two of the Persons who are hereby appointed as Commissioners, or as Referees, or one of the said Persons appointed Commissioners, and one of the said Persons appointed Referees, shall before they enter upon the Execution of such Office, respectively take an Oath before the Master of the Rolls for the time being, or One of His Majesty's Justices of the Court of King's Bench or Common Pleas, or Barons of the Exchequer, or the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the time being, (which Oath they or any of them respectively are and is hereby authorized and required to administer) the Tenor whereof shall be as followeth; that is to say,

I do swear, that according to the best of my Judgment I will faithfully and impartially execute the several Trusts, Powers and Authorities of a Commissioner [or Referee as the case may require] under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled As to [insert the Title of the Act], according to the Tenor and Purport of the said Act.

And every either of the said Commissioners and Referees in this Act named shall likewise take the same Oath before the said Two Persons, who are hereby authorized and empowered to administer the same, after they shall themselves have taken the said Oath as aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any or either of them the said Commissioners hereby appointed, or one of the Commissioners or Referees to be appointed under this present Provision, shall die, or be defunct or being discharged from the said Office, Duty or Trust of a Commissioner, or go to reside beyond the Seas, or refuse or become incapable, or decline to act further in such Trusts, Powers and Authorities, before the same shall be fully executed and performed, then and immediately on the happening of every such case, the other Persons who shall then be Commissioners by virtue of this Act, or the major Part of such Persons, shall and they are hereby required forthwith, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, to nominate and appoint mentioned in such Discharge or Discharge; and that when the said Jane Alderson and Jane Atkins the younger, or any other Person or Persons as aforesaid, shall have paid, delivered or received any such Money, Bills, Effects and Property, to or to the Order of, or otherwise applied the same according to the Direction of the said Commissioners, under their Hands as aforesaid, they the said Jane Alderson and Jane Atkins the younger, or their Executors or Administrators, or other such Person or Persons as aforesaid, shall be and it is and are hereby released, acquitted and discharged of and from all responsibility or liability in respect of such Money, Bills, Effects or Property, and shall not, after having paid, warranted or applied the same as aforesaid, be liable to any Claim on account thereof, or bound to go to the Application thereof, or be answerable or accountable for the Misapplication or Nonapplication of the same.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Power hereby given to the said Commissioners shall not revoke, or in any respect abridge or controul the Powers and Authorities heretofore mentioned to have been granted to and vested in the said Jane Alderson and Jane Atkins the younger, except in far as such Powers and Authorities are incompatible; but nevertheless, that the said Powers or Authorities given to the said Jane Alderson and Jane Atkins the younger, as aforesaid, shall be revocable by the said Commissioners.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Referees for the time being do and shall and they are hereby required, within Twenty eight Days next after the passing of this Act, to cause Notice to be given by Advertisement in the London Gazette, for all Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, claiming any Interest in the said Money, Bills, Effects and Property hereby vested in the said Commissioners, to deliver to them the said Referees for the time being, or as they may require, Statements and Accounts in Writing of the respective Losses sustained by them or shall under when they respectively claim, in consequence of or by reason of the said Sequestrations, Dissensions or Controversies, and of all their respective Claims to Satisfaction or Compensation in respect of such Losses, out of the Money, Bills and Effects and Property hereby vested in the said Commissioners, and also to file or deliver as aforesaid all or any Invoices, Bills of Lading, Policies of Insurance, Bills of Parcels, Vouchers, Documents, Papers and Writings whatsoever, which may by such Referees be thought necessary to prove and substantiate such Losses and Claims; and when the Amount of any such Claim or Claims shall be substantiated and ascertained to the Satisfaction of the said Referees, they are hereby required to deliver to every such Person, Body Politic or Corporate, whose Claim shall be so substantiated and ascertained, or to his or her Executors, Administrators or Successors, a Certificate in Writing, in such Form as to the said Referees shall seem proper, of the Amount for which such such Person, Body Politic or Corporate is entitled to claim, and also a Duplicate of such Certificate, the said Certificate and Duplicate to be respectively signed by the said Referees; and upon the Receipt of every such Certificate, the Person, Body Politic or Corporate receiving the same, is directed and required, within Fourteen Days from the Receipt thereof, to deliver to and deposit with the said Commissioners, or One of them, or their Clerk or Agent, one Part of every such Certificate, and to retain the other Part thereof in his or their own Custody; and when any Dividend or Distribution of the Money, Bills, Effects and Property hereby vested in the said Commissioners, shall be made as heretofore mentioned, the Person, Body Politic or Corporate holding any such Duplicate Certificate, shall be entitled to receive of and from the said Commissioners a just and reasonable Proportion, by way of Dividend or Share, of the said Trust Fund, according to the Amount expressed in every such Certificate as aforesaid, when compared with the total Amount expressed in all the Certificates as be granted under this present Clause or Provision.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all cases where any Claim shall be made by or on Behalf of any Person being under any Disability of Infancy or Coverture, or who shall be an Idiot or an imbecile person, or shall be in Parts beyond the Seas, or where the Money which would be receivable under any Claim shall be subject to any Trust, Contingency or Limitation whatsoever, which may render it impracticable or inconvenient to procure an efficient and available Release or Discharge for the same, and generally in all cases where it shall, in the Judgment of the said Referees, be impracticable or inconvenient to procure an efficient or available Discharge for the same, it shall be lawful for the said Referees, and they are hereby required, in every such case, to give or grant the Certificate and Duplicate Certificate of every such Claim as aforesaid, when the same shall have been substantiated in manner aforesaid, to and in the Name or Names of One or more Trustees or Trustees for the Person or Persons entitled thereto, such Trustee or Trustees to be approved by the said Referees; and every such Certificate to be granted as last aforesaid, shall be of the like Force and Effect for discharging the said Commissioners, and for all other the Purposes of this Act, as the Certificates to be granted under the Clause or Provision lastly heretofore contained.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Referees for the time being, as often as they shall think proper, by Writing to be signed by them, to require the said Commissioners to render out and deliver to them the said Referees upon Oath (which Oath the said Referees are hereby authorized and empowered to administer), a Statement or Account of all Money and Sums of Money, Bills, Effects and Property received or possessed by them the said Commissioners, or any or either of them respectively, or any Person or Persons by their Order or for their Use, or by the Order or for the Use of any or either of them respectively under or by virtue of this Act as otherwise, in respect of the said Trust Property and of their Disbursements and Application thereof, and of the Calls, Charges and Expenses, Payments, Disbursements and Sums of Money claimed by them and each of them respectively, to be allowed to them as such Commissioners out of the said Trust Funds, and also a List or Statement of all the Certificates lodged as heretofore directed, and the Orders for Referrals to be deposited with the said Commissioners, under the Power as heretofore contained, up to the Day of the Date of such Notice, or any other Day therein to be mentioned, in order to show the Amount of the said Trust Funds then in the Hands of the said Commissioners, and of the several Claims thereon; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the said Referees for the time being, by an Order or Warrant in Writing to be signed by them or any Three or more of them, directed and delivered to the said

Commissioners, or left at their respective Offices or Dwelling Houses, to order and direct the said Commissioners, within a time to be therein mentioned, to pay and divide unto each of the Parties, Bodies Public and Corporate, who shall have deposited with the said Commissioners, on or before a certain Day in the said Order or Warrant to be mentioned, the Certificate or Acknowledgment of the Amount of his, her or their Claims in manner herebefore directed, such a Dividend or Share of the said Trust Fund, in proportion to the several and respective Claims allowed, as they the said Referees shall think proper; and such Order or Warrant in Writing, and the respective Certificate or Certificate which shall have been deposited with the said Commissioners as aforesaid, on or before the Day mentioned in the said Order or Warrant, shall be a sufficient Authority for the said Commissioners to pay to every Person, Body Public or Corporate, to whom any such Certificate shall have been granted as aforesaid, either in his or their own Right, or as such Trustee or Trustees as aforesaid, and to his or their Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns, the respective Dividends or Dividend payable in respect thereof; and the respective Receipts or Receipt of every such Person, Body Public or Corporate, their or his Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns, or of some Officer or Agent of such Body Public or Corporate, together with such respective Certificate or Certificate, shall be a sufficient Discharge to the said Commissioners for the respective Sums or Sum of Money paid by them or him in obedience to such Order or Warrant, and in such respective Receipts or Receipt acknowledged to have been received, without any Liability to the said Commissioners to enquire into or to be accountable for the Application, Non-application or Misapplication of the Money so paid and to any such Trustee or Trustees.

XVII. Provided always, that any of the provisions of any of the above Clauses, affecting the said fund Income, Effects and Property vested in the said Commissioners as aforesaid, and the said Executors, Administrators or Assigns of every such Claimant, who shall act after being thereto required by the Referees for the time being, or their Agent, by a Notice in Writing under the Hands of the said Referees for the time being, or their Agent, and delivered to the said Claimant, or his or her Executors or Administrators, or left at his, her or their Dwelling House, Office or Common House, Twenty eight Days at least before the time of Meeting thereof to be attended, or by a Notice by or on Behalf of the said Referees or their Agent, to be referred to the London Gazette on a Day at least Twenty eight Days before the time of said Meeting, and specifying the Day, Hour and Place of such Meeting, attend either in Person or by some Agent, before the said Referees for the time being at the Time and Place of Meeting there to be summoned and appeared, and there and there either subswear his, her or their Claims upon the said Trust Fund, to the Satisfaction of the said Referees, or show some good Cause to the said Referees for the Defect is not substantiating the same, or for not attending, that (unless the contrary shall be expressly directed by the said Referees for the time being) be excluded from the Benefit of the Dividend or Distribution which shall be made of the said Trust Fund next after such Meeting; and the same Dividend or Distribution may be made, without Reference to a Consideration of the Claim of every such Party, his or her Executors, Administrators or Assigns, but if there shall be more than One Dividend or Distribution of the said Trust Fund, and any Claimant, his or her Executors, Administrators or Assigns, shall be excluded from the Benefit of any preceding Dividend or Distribution in manner fully hereinafter mentioned, he, she or they, notwithstanding such Exclusion, shall at the next said Dividend which shall be ordered after him, her or they shall have respectively obtained and departed with the said Commissioners such Certificate as aforesaid, and before any further Dividend or Distribution of the said Trust Fund, be entitled to receive the Amount of the former Dividend or Dividends, in proportion to their respective Claims to be allowed as aforesaid, as to so bring them up pari passu, and place them in an equal Situation in all respects with the Persons who shall have received said former Dividends, in the same manner as now as may be as if they had substantiated the same Claims previous to the first or other subsequent Dividend, except and unless the said Referees for the time being, or some Three or more of them, shall by Writing under their Hands otherwise order and direct, and they are hereby empowered to order the contrary.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That as often as shall happen that any Claim upon the said Trust Fund shall preclude to any Dividend or Distribution thereof, be substantiated to the Satisfaction of the said Reformers, it shall be lawful for the said Reformers, if they shall think proper, by Writing under their Hands, to be deposited with the Commissioners for the time being, in such manner as heretofore directed touching the Certificates of Claims allowed, to authorize and direct the said Commissioners to relieve out of the Trust Fund, at the then next and every subsequent Dividend, a sufficient Sum to satisfy and pay the Dividend upon such Claim, when the same shall be substantiated as aforesaid; and the said Reformers shall and may afterwards, upon such Claim being substantiated as aforesaid, give such Certificate and Acknowledgment as aforesaid to the Prior or Person, Heirs or Persons or Composites by whom such Claim shall be made as aforesaid, and be and they respectively shall by virtue of such Certificate be entitled to recover the Amount of the Dividends due to him, her or them therein, out of the Monies so ordered, or (if the same shall be insufficient) at the then next Distribution which shall be ordered of the said Trust Fund after such Certificate shall have been deposited with the said Commissioners.

XIV. Provide nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Referee, by Writing under their Hands to be delivered to every Party for whom any such Reference shall have been made as aforesaid, or to his, her or their Executors or Administrators, or to be left at the Dwelling House, Counting House, or Office of each and every such Party, Fourteen Days at least before the time of Meeting thereof to be mentioned, to call upon every such Party, his, her or their Executors or Administrators, to attend either personally, or by his, her or their Agent or Agents before the said Referee, at the Time and Place of Meeting therein mentioned and appointed, and then and there substantiate his, her or their Claim or respective Claims; and in Default thereof, then it shall and may be lawful for the said Referee, unless they shall for good Cause to the contrary, by Order or Warrant under their Hands, to divert the Dividends or Share of the said Trust Fund which shall have been referred to answer the unsubstantiated Claim or Claims of every such Party as aforesaid, shall be chosen into and become Part of the general Trial Feeds, and be divided between and among the Parties discharging their Claims, according to the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Public or Corporate, shall have or be entitled to any Share, Right, Interest, Claim or Demand whatsoever, of, in, or to the Monies, Bids, Property and Effects hereby vested in the said Commissioners, except such Claims as shall be so substantiated and allowed, and for which such Certificates shall be given as aforesaid; and that no Certificate or Certificates shall be given or granted, allowing any Claim or Claims, unless such Claim or Claims shall have been substantiated for the Certification of the said Referees on or before the Thirtieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Referees for the time being, if so then it shall appear necessary, in ascertaining the Claims and ascertaining the Amount of the Shares and Interests of any of the said several Claimants, by Writing under their Hands and Seals to authorize and appoint any Person or Persons to act as their Agent or Agents, in Sweden or elsewhere, for obtaining Evidence and Informations relative thereto, and to allow to such Agent or Agents all Expenses incurred in the Premises, and such Salary, Commission or Remuneration for their Trouble, as to the said Referees shall seem proper.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Referees for the time being, and also such Agent or Agents as they shall authorize and appoint as aforesaid, and they respectively are hereby authorized and empowered to examine viva voce, or upon written Interrogatories, upon Oath (which Oath they or any One of them are and is hereby authorized to administer), all Persons, whether Parties or Witnesses, touching any Matter whatsoever referred to the said Referees by writ or in pursuance of this Act; and that it shall be lawful to and for the said Referees for the time being or any one of them, and for such Agent or Agents as aforesaid, for all Courts, Judges, Masters in Chancery, Magistrates, Justices of the Peace, and for all Masters Extraordinary in Chancery, and all Commissioners and Persons who are or shall be authorized by any Court of Record to take Affidavits, to administer as Oath to any Person or Persons making any Affidavit or Deposition in Writing touching any Matter referred to the said Referees, or relating to the Execution of the Powers and Authorities hereby vested in them.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons, upon Examination upon Oath before the Referees for the time being under this Act, or their Agent or Agents as aforesaid, or in any such Affidavit or Deposition so to be sworn before the said Referees, or any one of them, or any Agent or Agents to be appointed by them as aforesaid, or before any such Court, Judge, Master in Chancery, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Master Extraordinary in Chancery, Commissioner, or Person so authorized to administer as Oath as heretofore is mentioned, shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, or shall wilfully or corruptly make any false Answer, Statement or Deposition, every such Person so offending, and being then duly convicted, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to such Pain and Penalty as by any Law now in force Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Referees for the time being, if they shall be fit, either of their own Motion or at the Instance of any Person or Persons having or claiming any Interest, to support or oppose any Claim or Demand, or otherwise, in any Matter hereby referred to the said Referees, to issue their Precepts or Proceps under the Hands and Seals of any Three or more of them, summoning any Person or Persons whatsoever to attend them, or any Three or more of them, to declare the Truth touching the Matters referred to the said Referees, or to bring or produce any Books, Deeds, Papers, Accounts or Writing, or any Books, Deeds, Papers, Accounts or Writing, relating to any such Matters, or as shall be necessary for executing the Powers and Authorities hereby vested in the said Referees; all which Persons so summoned are hereby required and directed, upon reasonable Notice of any such Precept, personally to attend the said Referees, at such Time and Times, Place and Places, as shall be by them or any Three or more of them appointed, under the Penalty for every Objection or Default the Sum of Fifty Pounds, which Penalty shall and may, in all cases where the Precept requiring the Attendance of the Person or Persons making such Default as aforesaid, shall have been issued by the said Referees for their own Motion, be recovered by the said Commissioners for the time being, and shall and may, in all cases where the same shall have been issued by the said Referees at the Instance of any other Person or Persons, be recovered by and to the proper Use of the Person or Persons at whose Instance the same shall have been issued; and all such Person or Persons shall and may be recovered by the said Commissioners or other Persons entitled to recover the same as aforesaid, by an Action of Debt, Bill or Plaint, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Estate, Privilege, Pardon or Wager of Law, and not more than One Imparison shall be allowed, and all Person or Persons to be recovered by the said Commissioners by virtue of this Act, shall be added to and be applied for the same Purposes as the other Monies hereby vested in the said Commissioners.

XX. Provided always, and be it enacted That on the Back, or on or at the Foot of every Precept to be issued for the Attendance of any Witness, or the Production of any Document, shall be written a Memorandum, specifying whether the same issued on the proper Motion of the Referees, or at whose Instance the same is issued.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall be compelled or constrained to appear before the said Referees for the time being, or to bring or produce before them any Books, Deeds, Papers, Accounts or Writings, unless at the time of Service of the Precept for such Attendance or Production, or in default, or at a reasonable time before the Day appointed for such Attendance or Production, the probable Amount of the Costs and Charges of the Person or Persons summoned, and a reasonable Compensation for his, her or their Loss of Time to be consumed by such Attendance or Production, shall be tendered to him,

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled
 "An Act for building a Bridge over the River Thames, from the Precinct of the Survey, or near thereto, in the County of Middlesex, to the opposite Shore, and for making convenient Roads and Avenues to communicate therewith, in the County of Surrey, whereby certain Persons and their Successors were incorporated into a Company by the Name and Style of "The Company of Proprietors of the Strand Bridge," and were thereby authorised to build the said Bridge, and to make and maintain certain Roads thence to the said Bridge, in such Proportions as they should think proper, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds; and in case the same should be found insufficient for the Purposes aforesaid, the said Company were also authorised to raise any further Sum of Money not exceeding Three hundred thousand Pounds, in manner therein mentioned: And whereas the said Company have in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Act, expended the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds in the

<sup>2</sup> in the Execution of the said Bridge: And whereas it will be expedient that the Acres or Avenue to the <sup>3</sup> said Bridge, from the Street in the County of Middlesex, authorized to be made by the said Act, should <sup>4</sup> be varied and altered, and that the said Acres or Avenue should be made more convenient, and that some <sup>5</sup> of the Powers and Provisions of the said Act should be amended, altered and enlarged: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and he it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful so and for the said Company of Proprietors to vary and alter the Acres or Approach to the North Foot of the said Bridge from the Street, in the County of Middlesex, in manner described and delineated in the Map or Plan hereafter mentioned; and also to take and purchase certain Premises mentioned and delineated in the Schedule to this Act amended, for the Purposes of the said recited Act and of this Act.

<sup>6</sup> II. And whereas Maps or Plans, describing and delineating the bounded Alienations in the said Acres or Approach, and the Premises mentioned and described in the said Schedule and Books of Reference, containing a List of the Owners or reputed Owners and Occupiers of the Lands and Premises to be taken and sold by virtue of this Act, have been deposited with the Clerks of the Peace for the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively: Be it therefore enacted, That the said Maps or Plans and Books of Reference shall remain in the Custody of the said Clerks of the Peace, to the end that all Persons interested therein may, at all reasonable times, have Liberty to inspect and peruse the same, and take Copies or Extracts thereof at their Will and Pleasure, paying to each Clerk of the Peace the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection, and after the Rate of Six pence for every One hundred Words of such Copies or Extracts of the said Book of Reference.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Company shall have full Power and Authority to make and construct the said Acres or Approach, and may purchase and take Possession, for the Purposes of the said recited Act and this Act, of any of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments mentioned and described in the Schedule to this Act amended, notwithstanding the Name or Names of any Person or Persons shall or may have been omitted or incorrectly mentioned or (put in the said Schedule, in case it shall appear to any Two or more Justices of the Peace of the County in which such Premises are situate, and be certified by Writing under their Hands, that such Error, Omission or incorrect Description proceeded from Mistake.

IV. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act as provides that it shall not be lawful for the said Company of Proprietors to retain any Lands or Grounds to be taken for the Purposes of the said Act exceeding the Breadth of Twenty Yards, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the said Company of Proprietors to retain any Lands or Grounds for the Purposes of the said recited Act and this Act, exceeding Seventy Feet in Breadth, except for making and constructing the Acres and Approach to the said Bridge, and immediately contiguous to the North Abutment thereof, as laid down and delineated in the Map or Plan herebefore mentioned; and also except as to the several Places where the said Roads, by the said recited Act authorized to be made, shall join or unite with other Roads or Streets, or with each other.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful so and for the said Company of Proprietors, in case they or their Committee shall deem it meet and expedient, to raise any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds, in Addition to the Sums authorized to be raised by the said recited Act, either among themselves the said Company, or by the Adherence of new Subscribers; and every Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, subscribing towards raising such Sum or other Sum of Money, shall be a Proprietor or Proprietors in the said Undertaking, and shall have a like Vote by himself, herself or themselves, or his, her or their Proxy or Proxies, in respect of every Share of the said additional Sum lawfully authorized to be raised, and shall also be liable to such Forfeitures, and bound interested in all the Profits of the said Undertaking, in Proportion to such Sum as he, she or they may subscribe thereunto, in general and extensively, to all Intents and Purposes, as the Proprietors of Shares in the present Capital Stock of the said Company.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful so and for the said Company of Proprietors or their Committee to raise all or any Part of the said Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds, lawfully authorized to be raised, by Mortgage of the said Undertaking, in manner by the said recited Act provided in respect of the Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds lawfully authorized to be raised.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Company or their Committee shall think it more advisable and proper to raise the several Sums of Money authorized to be raised by the said recited Act and this Act or any Part or Parts thereof, by granting Annuities payable out of the Rates and Tolls and other Rents, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful so and for the said Company to raise any such Sum, by the granting of any such Annuity or Annuities as aforesaid, to or for the Use of the Person or Persons who shall contribute, advance or pay into the Hands of the Treasurer or Treasurers to the said Company, any Sum or Sums of Money for the abatement Purchase of any such Annuity or Annuities, to be paid and payable for any Term or Number of Years, or for or during the natural Life of any such Contributor, or such other Person as shall be constituted by or on Behalf of such Contributor, at the time of Payment of his or her Contribution and Purchase Money, and either with or without Benefit of Survivorship; and the said Company are hereby authorized and empowered to grant all and every such Annuity or Annuities to be purchased as aforesaid, out of the Rates and Tolls or other Revenue of the said Undertaking, to the Person or Persons who shall agree to purchase the same, or to him, her or their Trustee or Trustees.

IX. And

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Grant of every such Annuity as aforesaid shall be by Deed, under the Common Seal of the said Company, and may be according to the Form, or to the Effect following; that is to say,

WE, the Company of Proprietors of the Strand Bridge, in Consideration of the Sum of [£] to be paid by A. B. of [County, if intended to be granted with Benefit of Survivorship, by E. F. G. H. &c.] do hereby by virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled [here insert the Title of the Act], grant unto the said A. B. and his [or, her] Assigns [or, if by Survivorship, unto the said E. F. G. H. &c. and to the Survivors and Survivor of them] One Annuity or Yearly Sum of [£] to be issuing out of all and singular the Rates and Tolls arising by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the Party sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled [set forth the Title of the said recited Act], and also the said fifth mentioned Act, and of all other the Revenues of the said Company, To hold unto the said A. B. his [or, her] Executors, Administrators and Assigns, for the Term of [Years, or, as the case may be]. To hold unto the said A. B. and his [or, her] Assigns, during his [or, her] natural Life, or, To hold unto the said A. B. his [or, her] Executors, Administrators or Assigns, for and during the natural Life of C. D. or, if by Survivorship, unto and amongst them the said E. F. G. H. &c. and the Survivors and Survivor of them; and such Annuity or Yearly Sum shall be paid and payable [at] upon the [Day of] [Month] yearly, and the First Payment thereof to be made on the [Day of] [Month] Given under our Common Seal, this [Day of] [Month] in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and [Year]

Princk. 1813.

XV. And whereas by the said recited Act it was enacted, That it should be lawful for the Principal, Fellows and Scholars of St. John's College, of Queen Elizabeth's Foundation, within the City and University of Oxford, to contract for, sell and dispose of the whole of a certain Piece or Parcel of Land then in the Occupation of John Hensley Bonyng and Thomas James, and comprised in the Schedule to the said Act annexed, and thereupon to grant, convey and assign the said Piece or Parcel of Land, and the Fee Simple and Reversionary thereof, under their Common Seal, unto and to the Use of the said Company of Proprietors and their Successors, and the said Company of Proprietors were thereby authorized and empowered to purchase and take the same Piece or Parcel of Land: And whereas the said Principal, Fellows and Scholars were entitled under the Provisions of the said recited Act, together with all other Persons from whom any Lands should be purchased by the said Company of Proprietors, to have the full Right of appraising any Part of the said Piece or Parcel of Land as should act be wanted by the said Company for the Purposes of the said Act: And whereas the said Company of Proprietors are permitted by other Provisions in the said recited Act from making such Offer of Sale to the said Principal, Fellows and Scholars, in respect of a great Part of the said Piece or Parcel of Land which will not be wanted for the Purposes of the said Act, is that the Repurchase of the Residue of such Part of the said Piece or Parcel of Land which will not be wanted as aforesaid will be of very small Advantage to the said Principal, Fellows and Scholars: Be it therefore further enacted, That the said Company of Proprietors shall and they are hereby required to make Compensation to the said Principal, Fellows and Scholars, within One Calendar Month after the passing of this Act, in respect of such Right as appertaineth such Part of the said Piece or Parcel of Land which will not be wanted as aforesaid, and of which the said Principal, Fellows and Scholars have been deprived as aforesaid; and to raise the said Company of Proprietors, and the said Principal, Fellows and Scholars shall not agree, as to the Amount of such Compensation within Seven Days after the passing of this Act, the same shall be decided by a Jury, to be summoned in manner by the said recited Act directed in cases where Juries are required to be summoned to settle the Value of Lands, Goods and Profits to be taken and sold for the Purposes of the said recited Act.

The application to
College Clerk.

XVI. And he is further enacted, That when the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, lent in the Names of Trustees as aforesaid, and the Accumulation and Interest thereof, shall be transferred to the said Company of Proprietors in pursuance of the said second Act, the same, or a competent Part thereof, shall be forthwith applied in finishing and completing the said intended Bridge; and as Part thereof shall be laid out or expended in the making of Roads or Arches to the said intended Bridge, or in the Purchase of Houses, Lands or Hereditaments for that Purpose or otherwise lawfully used, and unless the said intended Bridge, and every Part thereof, shall be fully completed and finished.

XVII. And whereas, for facilitating the Completion of the said intended Bridge, it may be expedient to place Three Centres under the Arches or intended Arches thereof at the same time; Be it therefore further enacted, That in such of the said second Act as extends, or may be construed to extend to prevent the said Company of Proprietors from erecting and placing more than Two Centres at one time under the intended Arches of the said Bridge, while the same shall be building, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

XVIII. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That the said Company of Proprietors shall not erect or place more than Three Centres at one time under the Arches or intended Arches of the said Bridge, while the same shall be building, and shall not begin to erect any other Centre until one of the said Centres shall be entirely removed, so that there shall not be at any one time more than Three Centres or Parts of Centres standing, being or remaining under the Arches or intended Arches of the said Bridge; and as and more than Three Centres or Parts of Centres shall be standing or remaining at the same time, the Lord Mayor for the time being of the City of London shall have such and the same Power of removing the same, and the Expenses of such Removal, and such and the same Penalties, shall be paid and recovered in like manner as are expressed in the said second Act in case more than Two Centres or Parts of Centres should be standing or remaining at the same time.

XIX. And whereas it will tend to the Convenience of the Public if the said Company of Proprietors have Power to open the said intended Bridge for Passengers before the same shall be fully completed; Be it therefore further enacted, That when and as soon as all the Arches or intended Arches of the said intended Bridge shall be securely turned, and all the Centres used in building the same entirely removed, it shall be lawful for the said Company of Proprietors, and they are hereby empowered to make and open a Passage for Passengers over the Works of the said intended Bridge, notwithstanding the Purposes and other Parts of the said Bridge shall not be made or finished, and to demand and receive the Tolls in and by the said second Act authorized to be taken and received from Passengers crossing the said Bridge; and such Tolls shall be applicable and be applied and disposed of in the same manner as the Tolls authorized by the said second Act to be taken and received upon the said Bridge, are thereby directed to be applied and disposed of.

XX. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That in case any Land or other Hereditaments purchased by the said Company of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, by virtue of the said second Act, or any Part thereof, shall not be used for a public Road or Way, the said Company of Proprietors shall and they are hereby empowered and required at the Request of the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, but at the Costs and Charges of the said Company, by an Indenture under their Common Seal, to give and recovery to the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, by way of absolute Sale, such Land or such Part of such Land and Hereditaments so purchased, as shall not be so used as aforesaid, for such Price or Sum of Money as (if so Part of the said Land is purchased shall be used as aforesaid) shall be equal to the Sum paid by the said Company for the Purchase thereof; but, if Part of such Land and Hereditaments so purchased shall have been used as aforesaid, for such Price or Sum of Money as shall bear the same Proportion to the whole Purchase Money paid by the said Company for the Purchase of the Land, Part of which shall be used as aforesaid, as the Part of such Land which shall not be used shall bear in Quantity to the whole of such Land; and in case of any Difference or Dispute, the same to be adjusted and settled by a Jury, and Certificates from the said Company of Proprietors shall be valid and effectual; and that upon Payment of the Sum or Sums to be paid to the said Company of Proprietors for such Recoveries of Land as last aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees or Trustees for the time being to the said Company of Proprietors, to sign and give Receipts for the Money for which the same shall be sold, which Receipts shall be sufficient Discharges to any Person or Persons for the Purchase Money for which such Lands or Buildings shall be sold, or for so much thereof as in such Receipts shall be acknowledged or expressed to be received; and such Person or Persons shall not afterwards be answerable or accountable for any Loss, Misapplication or Misappropriation of such Purchase Money, or any Part thereof.

XXI. And he is further enacted, That nothing in this or the said second Act contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to enable the said Company of Proprietors to stop up or obstruct a common Way or Street called Newgate Wall, in the said Parish of St. Mary le Strand, in the said County of Surry.

XXII. And he is further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to enable the said Company of Proprietors to erect any Buildings whatsoever except Toll Houses on the said Bridge and Roads.

XXIII. And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Company of Proprietors, or their Committee, after giving Twenty one Days Notice in Writing, to be affixed on all the Turnpike Gates which shall then be erected upon the said Bridge and Roads, and advertising the same Twice at least in some Newspaper published or circulated in the City of London, from time to time to lease and demise the Tolls granted by the said second Act and this Act, or any Part or Parts thereof, for any Term of Years not exceeding Three Years, at any one time, for the best Price that can be gotten for the same, payable at such times and under such Conditions as the said Company, or their Committee, shall think fit, they the said Company having a Counterpart of such Lease or Leases, Demise or Demises, and taking each other sufficient Security from the Parties or Parties, in whom any such Tolls shall be levied or demanded, for Payment of the Rents, and Performance of the Covenants to be observed and complied in such Lease or Leases, Demise or Demises, as the said Company or their Commissioners shall think fit.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That when and as Soon as there shall be needed, on any Part of the Ground or Soil upon which any Messuages or Tenements were built, and which have been pulled down in pursuance of the said recited Act or this Act, waste within the Parish of Saint Mary & Street, in the County of Middlesex, Messuages or Tenements, or other Buildings liable to be used to the Lead Tax, and Paving, Cleansing, Lighting, Watch and Poor Rates, or any of them, within the said Parish, and for the Payment of any Sum of Money to the Rector and Officers of the Church of the same Parish, then and from thenceforth the said Parish of Saint Mary & Street shall not any longer be entitled to receive the Compensation mentioned and directed by the said recited Act for Deficiencies in the Produce of the said Rents or Sums of Money, by reason of the pulling down the Houses and making the Alterations in pursuance of the said recited Act and this Act without first allowing thereout, and the said Parish is hereby required to allow thereout, against such Amount of Deficiencies the Amount of the Rates and Sums of Money which such newly-erected Messuages or Buildings shall be respectively liable to; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXV. And whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Provision in the said recited Act in respect of the Distance to be preserved between the said Bridge and Road, or Way to be used as an Approach from the said Bridge to the Street, and the Outside Walls of the Houses or Buildings forming the West Side of the said Bridge, and the Buildings and Premises thereto belonging, and for removing the same: Be it further enacted, That the Parapet Wall on the East Side of the said Bridge, and the said Road or Way, shall not be nearer than Sixty Feet to the said Outside Walls of the said Houses and Buildings, each Sixty Feet to be measured as directed by the said recited Act.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the said Company shall and may demand and take upon the Roads mentioned in the said Act, the several Tolls mentioned and authorized to be taken and demanded by the said Act, for and during the Term and in the manner mentioned and authorized in respect of Tolls to be taken upon the said Bridge, and that such Tolls shall be applied and disposed of in manner in the said Act mentioned, in respect of the Tolls to be taken on the said Bridge.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Company to make and construct Two Stone Steps or Paving Places at each End of the said Bridge.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as extends to exempt any free Burghs of Lanes from the Payment of the Tolls authorized to be demanded and taken by the said recited Act, and this Act, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as provides that the Expenses of inspecting and estimating Juries and taking Verdicts for the Purpose of ascertaining the Value of Lands, Grounds, Houses, Hereditaments and Premises, to be taken or used for the Purpose of the said recited Act and this Act, or the Compensation for Good Will, or for any other Injury or Damage that may affect any Person or Persons interested in such Lands, Grounds, Houses, Hereditaments and Premises, shall be settled by any Two or more Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex or Surrey (where such Verdicts were taken, as the case may happen to be), shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That the Costs and Expenses of summoning any Jury, and taking any Verdict in pursuance of the Provisions of the said recited Act and this Act, shall be settled and determined by the Sheriff, Under Sheriff or Coroner, before whom such Verdicts shall have been given, and such Sheriff, Under Sheriff or Coroner, as and are hereby empowered and required to examine and settle the same.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That, where by reason of any Difficulty or Inequality of the Parties or Parties, or Corporation, entitled to any Lands, Tenements or other Hereditaments to be purchased under the Authority of the said recited Act or this Act, the Purchase Money shall be required to be paid into the Court of Chancery, and to be applied in the Purchase of other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, to be settled to the like Use in pursuance of the said recited Act, the said Court may in its Discretion order the Expenses of all Purchases from time to time to be made in pursuance of the said Act and this Act, together with the necessary Costs and Charges of obtaining such Order, to be paid by the said Company of Proprietors, or their Directors, the same being first taxed by a Master of the said Court, and the Provisions of the said recited Act in relation thereto shall be, and the same are hereby repealed.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Lord High Steward of Westminster for the time being, the Very Reverend the Dean of Westminster for the time being, the Right Honourable Charles Seymour Conway commonly called Earl of Yarmouth, Sir Thomas Sturt Baronet, William Conway, Henry Sturt, Benjamin Bunsfield, John Kingston, William Royle, Edward Billo, Hyson Jelfs and Arthur Gifford, Sergeant at Law, shall and they are hereby constituted Commissioners for executing the several Powers in and by the said recited Act specially provided and directed to be executed, in addition to the Commissioners nominated and appointed by the said recited Act, and the said Commissioners hereby nominated shall be and they are hereby invested with all the Functions, Powers and Authorities by the said recited Act given to the said Commissioners therein mentioned, and shall be subject to all the Restrictions, Charges, Privileges and Emoluments in the said recited Act contained in relation to the said Commissioners.

XXXIII. And

XXXIII. And he is further enacted, That the said recited Act, and all and every the Tolls, Duties, Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Regulations, Privileges, Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, Manners and Things whatsoever therein contained, so far as the same are not hereby repealed, shall extend, and be construed to extend in operation and be in full Force and Effect, with respect to the Roads mentioned and described in the said recited Act, and with respect to the Access or Approach to be made on the North End of the said Bridge; and also with respect to the Premises mentioned and contained in the Schedule to this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same and every of them, and every Part thereof, were repeated and re-enacted in this Act, and were made Part thereof; and the recited Act and this Act shall, as to all Matters and Things whatsoever (except as aforesaid), be construed as one Act.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed, and taken to be a Public Public Act. And, shall be judiciously taken Notice of by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded.

An Act for enabling the Archbishop of Canterbury to convey certain Tenements at Deal, in the County of Kent, to or in Trust for His Majesty, for the Public Service. [10th July 1813.]

"WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for enabling the Archbishop of Canterbury to grant building and repairing Leases of Houses at Deal and Cleve, in the County of Kent, belonging in the Fee of Canterbury, and for other Purposes, after reciting, among amongst other things, that Charles Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, is Right of his See, was seized of or entitled to diverse Messuages or Tenements, Lands and Grounds, as the Town and Borough and Parish of Dual, is the County of Kent, and in the Parish of Saint Margaret at Chesh, in the same County, several Parts whereof were or might be required for the Public Service, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Charles Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and his Successors from time to time, as to such of his Lands and Grounds as required for the Public Service, then built upon or capable of Improvement by buildings, situate in the Town and Borough and Parish of Dual aforesaid, and in the Parish of Saint Margaret at Chesh aforesaid, and more particularly mentioned and described in the Schedule to the said Act annexed, as were and should from time to time be ext. of Lease, solely and alone with the Approbation of the High Court of Chancery, and as to such of his and their said Lands and Grounds, and the Houses and Buildings there erected or to be erected thereon, as were or should be in Lease to any Person or Persons for Years, or on any Life or Lives, jointly and with the Concurrence of the original Lessee or Lessees for the time being thereof, or his or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns respectively, by Indenture or Indentures, to be sealed and delivered by the Lord Archbishop for the time being; and also as to such Leases as were to be granted jointly or with such Concurrence as aforesaid, to be sealed and delivered by such Lessee or Lessees, or his or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns respectively, to demise and lease after any Part of the said Lands and Grounds, Houses and Buildings respectively for any Term of Years, not exceeding Ninety nine Years in Possession, or by way of immediate Reversion, to any Person or Persons, in Trust for His Majesty or his Successors, for the Public Service, with and under the Restrictions therein mentioned; And it was thereby provided and enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Archbishop and his Successors, with the Approbation of the said Court, in and under the Rent or Share thereby required to be referred to the said Lord Archbishop and his Successors, upon any Lease or Leases thereby authorized to be made, to accept and make payable in manner thereafter mentioned, as or in the Nature of a Fine, such Sum or Sums of Money in Gold as should be equivalent to the Rent or Share of Rent by the said Act required to be referred by any such Lease or Leases respectively; In that in every such Lease there should be referred to the said Lord Archbishop and his Successors so annual Rent, equal to or exceeding the Rent referred by the said preceding Lease of the said Lands or Grounds, or a due Proportion of such Rent, in case the same should have been referred for such Lands or Grounds jointly with other Lands or Tenements; And it was thereby further enacted, that all Monies arising from the Premises to be taken should be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the said Court, to be placed to his Account there ex parte the Archbishop of Canterbury; and Provision was thereby made for having the Monies so to be paid into the Bank, or the Monies to be produced by Sale of the Navy, Vestiment, Transport or Exchange Bills, to be purchased with any of such Monies, or with the Interest of any of such Bills in manner therein directed, and put under the Direction of the said Court as the Purchase of Freehold Hereditaments and Copyhold Hereditaments convenient to be held therewith (such Copyhold not to exceed in Value One sixth Part of the Freehold Premises), to be situate in or near the Diocese of Canterbury, to be settled to the Use of the said Lord Archbishop and his Successors in the said Diocese of Canterbury; and which it was thereby enacted should from the time of the Assize thereof be assessed to and for ever thereafter continue and be Part of the said See; And whereas by an Indenture of Lease, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and made between the said Charles Lord Archbishop of Canterbury of the one Part, and Sir Thomas Basilin Thompson Baronet, Comptroller, Sir Francis John Harcourt Baronet, Deputy Comptroller, and Sir William Rolt Knight, and Henry Peake Esquire, Joint Surveyors, Four of the principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy (on Behalf of His said Majesty) of the other Part;  * Term of Ninety nine Years, at the yearly Rent of Forty Shillings; and on Payment into the Bank of the * Sum of Seventeen thousand one hundred and fifty nine Pounds One Shilling and Three pence, by way of * Fine or Premium for such Lease; and the said Master also certified that, upon the Evidence stated in the * said Report, he was of Opinion it would be for the Benefit of the said Lord Archbishop and his Successors, * that a Lease should be granted to the said Commissioners of the said several Parcels of Land and Heredita* ments comprised in the said several Indentures of Lease, situate in the Parish and Town of Dual, in the * County of Kent, Part of the Premises comprised in the Schedule to the said Act of Parliament, for the * Term of Ninety nine Years, to commence from the Day of the Date of the said proposal Lease, at the * yearly Rent of Forty Shillings; and subject to such Covenants as were directed by the said Act; and * also certified his Opinion that the Sum of Seventeen thousand one hundred and fifty nine Pounds One * Shilling and Three pence, proposed to be paid by the said Commissioners by way of Fine or Premium for * granting such Lease, was a proper Sum to be paid into the Bank, in money directed by the said Act, * according to the Value of the said Premises, and the Interest of the said Lord Archbishop thereon. And * also reciting an Order of the said Court, made on the Thirtieth Day of December One thousand eight hun-and twelve; whereby it was, amongst other things, ordered, that the said Report should be confirmed; and that it should be referred back to the said Master to settle and approve of the Lease proposed to be granted by the said Lord Archbishop to the said Commissioners as aforesaid; and that the said Commissioners should pay the Sum of Seventeen thousand nine hundred and fifty nine Pounds One Shilling and Three pence into the Bank, with the Consent of the Accountant General of the said Court, to be there placed to the Credit of Ex parte the Archbishop of Canterbury; And further meeting, that it is Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, his, as Governor of the said Order, paid into the Bank the Sum of Seventeen thousand nine hundred and fifty nine Pounds One Shilling and Three pence, pursuant to the Directions contained in the said Act; and also meeting that the said Master had procured the Draft of the said Lease, and had approved thereof, and had signed his Name in the Margin of the said Lease, in testimony of his Approbation of the same: It was by the said Indenture, of the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve, Witnessed, that in consideration of the Sum of all the said several things before is Part recited Indenture of Lease, and of the first full Term of Twenty one Years at the lease, granted upon each several as aforesaid; and also in consideration of the Sum of Sixteen thousand nine hundred and fifty nine Pounds One Shilling and Three pence, so paid as theretofore mentioned, the said Charles Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, in obedience to the said Order of the said Court of Chancery, and pursuant to and by leave and virtue and in exercise and execution of the Power or Authority vested in him by that Part of the said second Act, and of every other Power or Authority vesting him in that behalf, did demise and lease unto the said Sir Thomas Dimesdale Thompson, Sir Francis John Horwath, Sir William Rule and Henry Poole, in Trust for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; all and singular the said several Pieces or Parcels of Ground, with the Messuages or Tenements, and all other the Endowments and Buildings vested and built thereto, or on some Part thereof, measured and comprised in the said several things before is Part recited Indenture of Lease; and all Ways, Paths, Pallages, Watens, Watercourses, Profits, Commodities and Appurtenances to the same respectively belonging, or in any wise appertaining; and which said Parcels were therein mentioned to be more particularly described in the Plan or Ground Plan thereof, in the Schedule to the said Indenture of Lease; To hold unto the said Sir Thomas Dimesdale Thompson, Sir Francis John Horwath, Sir William Rule and Henry Poole, their Successors and Assigns, for the Term of Ninety nine Years, to be computed from the Twentieth Day of September then last, as Trust for His Majesty and his Successors for the Public Service; subject to the Payment therefore, during the said Term of Ninety nine Years, unto the said Lord Archbishop and his Successors, of the yearly Rent of Forty Shillings on the said Days therein mentioned, by equal Portions; and also subject to the Covenants, Provisions and Agreements therein contained, by and on the Part of the said Sir Thomas Dimesdale Thompson, Sir Francis John Horwath, Sir William Rule and Henry Poole, and their Successors, to be kept, observed and performed; and after stating that three thousand, and for some time past had been, a Public Sewer or Drain, running from North to South through the Whole, or a considerable Part of the Premises therein intended to be demised; it was thereby agreed, by and between the said several Parties aforesaid, so themselves, their respective Successors and Assigns, that the said Public Sewer or Drain, should from time to time, and at all times during the Continuance of the said Demise, be kept open in the same manner as it respects in all the same had theretofore been: And whereas the said principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, considering that it would be for the Benefit of the Public Service to shew the Fee simple of the said Grounds, Buildings and Premises to them by the said Lord Archbishop, for the full Term of Ninety nine Years, in Trust for His Majesty and his Successors, for the Public Service as aforesaid, upon the like Trust; as also to purchase the Reversion in Fee Simple of Three small Pieces or Parcel of Land (Part of the Estates belonging to the said Sir) situate in D. of aforesaid, and lying contiguous and immediately adjoining to the said Grounds, Buildings and Premises, subject to Three several Leases granted to the Reverend Monks of Westminster, John Appleton and John Greville of the time, by the said Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, bearing Date respectively the Eighth and Ninth of October One thousand eight hundred and five, and now intended to be renewed for Three several Terms of Twenty one Years at and under the said Rent and Covenants therein respectively contained and contained; as also to purchase the Site of the Foundation situate through a Part of the said Pieces or Parcels of Land; have proposed to the said Lord Archbishop to give for the Purchase of the Reversion in Fee Simple of the said Grounds, Buildings and Premises is devised to them the said principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy as aforesaid, expedient on the full Term of Ninety nine Years the term of One thousand and thirty eight Pounds, Ten Shillings and Three Halfpence; and for the Purchase of the Reversion in Fee Simple of the said Three small Pieces or Parcels of Land expedient on the full Three several Terms of Twenty one Years, the Sum of Three hundred and twenty two Pounds; and for the Purchase of the Site of the said Foundation, the Sum of One hundred Pounds; the said Three several Sums to be paid into the Bank, in the Name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to be applied, as hereafter is mentioned; and the said Lord Archbishop being informed that the said Sums are a full and fair Consideration for said Purchases, thought fit to accede to each Proposal; but the same cannot be carried so to Execution without the Aid of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Most Excellent Majesty (in the Petition of the said Charles Lord Archbishop of Canterbury) that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament Assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, at any time or times, after Presentment of the Sum of One thousand and thirty eight Pounds Ten Shillings and Three Halfpence, in manner hereafter directed, by Indenture or Indentures, to be sealed and delivered by the Lord Archbishop for the same being, to grant, bargain and sell and assure all

THE STATUTES at Large, &c.

Anno Regni GEORGII III. Britanniarum Regis, Quinquagesimo Quarto.

AT the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster, the Twenty fourth Day of November, Anno Domini 1814, in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith; And from thence continued, by several Prorogations, to the Fourth Day of November 1815; being the Second Session of the Fifth Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

CAP. I.

An Act to enable His Majesty to accept the Services of a Proportion of the Militia out of the United Kingdom, for the vigorous Prosecution of the War. [24th November 1813.]

WHEREAS it is highly important that the most effectual Measures should be adopted for the vigorous Prosecution of the War upon the Continent of Europe; and it is therefore expedient that His Majesty should be empowered to accept any Officers of a Proportion of the Officers, Non Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men, of the Militia of the United Kingdom, so serve in any Part of Europe, or to transfer their Services to Regiments of the Line, under certain Regulations; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to accept the Services, and to employ in any Part of Europe, under the Regulations and Restrictions specified in this Act, such Part of the present Regular Militia of Great Britain, and of the Militia of Ireland, not exceeding in any case three fourths of the Number actually serving in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of any such Militia, as may make a voluntary Offer, duly certified by their respective Commanding Officers, of extending their Services to all Parts of Europe; and as His Majesty may think proper to permit to extend their Services in consequence of such voluntary Offers as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order signed by the Principal Secretary of State, or by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or by his or their Chief Secretary, directed to the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of the Militia of Great Britain or Ireland, to propose to such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or any Part or Parts thereof, not exceeding such Proportion as aforesaid, to extend their Services to all Parts of Europe, under such Rules and Regulations as His Majesty may think fit to appoint.

His Majesty may accept voluntary Offers of Proportion of Militia to serve in any Part of Europe.

It. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to draft that a Bounty not exceeding Eight Guineas shall be allowed to every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man, who shall make such voluntary Offer as aforesaid; and every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man, making such voluntary Offer as aforesaid, shall take the following Oath; vide infra, Bounty of Eight Guineas to Private Men making voluntary Offer.

I, A. B. do solemnly promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to His Majesty King George, his Heirs and Successors, and that I will faithfully serve in the Militia in any Part of Europe, during the Remainder of the War, and until the Expulsion of Six Months after the Termination thereof, or to be reckoned from the Ratification of any Definitive Treaty of Peace, unless I shall be sooner discharged.

Oath.

And every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man, making such voluntary Offer as aforesaid, and taking such Oath, shall be entitled to serve in the Militia in any Part of Europe, according to the Terms of such Oath; and such several Enrollments shall take place and such Oaths shall be administered, by the Officer commanding any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, or by any Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace, at such Times, and under such Regulations, as His Majesty, by any Order to be signed by the Secretary of State, or by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or by his or their Secretary, shall in that Behalf direct or appoint; and every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, from time to time to form the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men, who shall be extended their Services from the Regiments, Battalions or Corps of Militia, into such Provisional Regiments or Battalions as may be deemed most expedient for His Majesty's Service: Provided always, that in all cases in which a Field Officer of Militia shall have volunteered for Extended Service in any Part of Europe, the Officer having the Chief Command as such provisional Battalions shall be a Field Officer of Militia.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Officer of the Militia shall, while out of the United Kingdom upon any such Extended Service, rank with the Officers of His Majesty's Regular Forces higher than in a Lieutenant Colonel of the Militia.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in any case in which the Number of Officers of each Rank be volunteering to extend their Services in any Part of Europe, and accepted by His Majesty, shall not be in due Proportion to the Number of Men to volunteer, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to appoint any fit and proper Persons to be Officers in such provisional Battalions of Militia without regard to the Qualifications now required by Law for such Officers in the Militia, and from time to time to supply any Vacancies which may occur in such provisional Battalions of Militia in consequence of the Death, Resignation or Dismissal of any such Officer who shall have been appointed by His Majesty: Provided always, that no Person so appointed by His Majesty shall hold a Commission in any such provisional Battalion of higher Rank than that of a Subaltern, which he shall at the time of such Appointment have been an Officer of His Majesty's Regular Forces or Militia: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the Appointment of Officers, as by Law established, in any case of Vacancy which may occur in consequence of the Death, Resignation or Dismissal of any Militia Officer who may have volunteered for Extended Service in Europe.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Commissioned Officers of the Militia, whose Offices of extending their Services to all Parts of Europe under the Provisions of this A. I. shall be accepted by His Majesty, shall be entitled to Half Pay according to the Ranks in which their Services shall be accepted to serve out of the United Kingdom, in like manner and under such and the like circumstances as Officers of His Majesty's Regular Forces; and the Widows of all such Commissioned Officers killed in such Extended Service shall be entitled to receive such Pensions for Life as are given to Widows of His Majesty's Regular Forces: Provided always, that no Officer who shall be appointed to supply any Vacancy which may arise in the Militia on such Extended Service shall be entitled to such Half Pay, unless he shall actually join the Militia upon such Extended Service.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men, of the Militia extending their Services as Militia to any Part of Europe, shall, upon leaving the United Kingdom upon such Extended Service, and during such Service until their Return to the United Kingdom, be subject to all the Laws in force for the Punishment of Mutiny and Disobedience, in like manner in every respect as His Majesty's Regular Forces; and all Officers of His Majesty's Regular Forces shall be entitled to sit in any Court Martial upon the Trial of any Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, Drummer or Private Man of the Militia, while he is serving out of the United Kingdom under this A. I.; and all Officers of the Militia shall, during such Extended Service, be entitled to sit in any Court Martial upon the Trial of any Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier of His Majesty's Regular Forces; any thing in any A. I. or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all the Militia enrolled and formed for Extended Service as Militia to any Part of Europe under this A. I. shall, notwithstanding such Extension of Service, remain subject to all the Provisions and Regulations in force, in relation to the Militia to which they shall respectively belong (except in such cases as are in this A. I. particularly specified), and shall be entitled to all such such Privileges and Immunities, and to such Provisions for their Wives and Families, as if they had continued serving as Militia in the United Kingdom.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time to make such Regulations as His Majesty may deem most expedient in relation to the training upon the Establishment of the Militia to which they belong, as Sergeants-majors or otherwise, any Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Drummers, of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, as may not be volunteer to extend their Services to any Part of Europe, or as may not be so employed upon such Extended Service; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Militia, and the offering of the Militia, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XII. And be it further enacted, That where any Number of Private Militia Men shall be desirous of enlisting into any Regiment of the Line of His Majesty's Regular Forces which may be appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, as a Company or Companies of not less than One Hundred Men to each Company, and His Majesty shall have signified His Intention of granting Commission in His Majesty's Regular Forces to any Officer or Officers actually serving in the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, from which any such Company or Men shall volunteer to serve as aforesaid in His Majesty's Regular Forces, as Captain, Lieutenant and Ensign of any such Company, that in every such case it shall be lawful for such Men to enlist as such Company or Companies as aforesaid; and in every such case it shall be lawful for any Number of Non Commissioned Officers, Corporals and Drummers of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, not exceeding Five Sergeants and Six Corporals to every Hundred Men, to enlist with any such Company of Men as aforesaid; and every Colonel and Commanding Officer of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, is hereby required to discharge such Non Commissioned Officers, Corporals and Drummers, as shall be desirous of enlisting as aforesaid, not exceeding such Number as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty to attach such Company or Companies of Men to any Regiment of the Line of His Majesty's Regular Forces to be appointed by His Majesty, or to join together any Number of such Companies, and form the same into an additional Battalion or additional Battalions of any such Regiment as aforesaid, and in such case to appoint such and such Number of Field and Staff Officers to any such Battalion or Battalions as His Majesty shall think necessary: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any Number of Men less than One Hundred, from enlisting as Part of a Company into any Regiment so appointed by His Majesty, under such Regulations with respect to the Proportion of Officers and Non Commissioned Officers, as His Majesty may think fit to appoint.

XIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Person serving in the Militia, who shall be usually employed as Adjutant's Clerk or Regimental Clerk, or as a Drummer, or as a Musician in the Band of the Regiment of the Militia to which he shall belong, or shall be usually employed as an Armourer in any such Regiment, or who shall have been trained as an Artillery Man or Muzoon, and as such shall be attached to any Artillery belonging to any Regiment of Militia, not exceeding Twenty Men in each Battalion, shall be entitled to his Discharge, or to enlist into the Regular Forces as aforesaid under this Act, unless he shall obtain the Consent for that Purpose of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment of Militia in which he shall be then serving.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commanding Officer of any Regiment of Militia to refuse to discharge any Private Militia Man, who shall desire his Discharge for the Purpose of being enlisted into the Regular Forces under this Act, upon signing in Writing to the General Officer commanding in the District within which such Regiment of Militia shall be quartered, or to the Adjutant General of His Majesty's Forces where there shall not be such General Officer as aforesaid, such Cause for his Refusal as shall be deemed sufficient by such General Officer or Adjutant General, as the case may be.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person discharged from the Militia for the Purpose of being enlisted into His Majesty's Regular Forces under this Act, shall notwithstanding refuse to add pursuant to any Declaration of being desirous to enlist, to make by him as aforesaid, or shall not be approved of by the Officer appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, then and in every such case, such Person shall continue to belong to the Regiment of Militia from which he shall have been so discharged for the Purpose of enlisting as aforesaid, notwithstanding any such Discharge.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall be enlisted to serve in any Regiment so named and appointed as aforesaid shall serve in the Regiment in which he shall have originally enlisted to serve, and in no other Regiment whatever; and no Person enlisting in any such Regiment shall, on any Account or Pretence whatsoever, be drafted into or serve in any other Regiment without his Consent, except in some Garrison or Veteran Battalion, in case it shall be necessary or expedient to transfer such Person into any Garrison or Veteran Battalion on account of his being disabled, or for any other sufficient Cause.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Officer so volunteering to serve in His Majesty's Regular Forces with any such Company of Men as aforesaid shall, upon his Reduction, be entitled to and receive the Half Pay of the Rank in which he shall have been serving at the time of his Reduction.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the total Number of Officers, Non Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men, to be raised under this Act, either by extending their Services to Europe as Militia, or by Enlistment by Companies into such Regiments of the Line as may be appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, shall not exceed Thirty Thousand; and that the Number of Men to be raised under this Act in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, either by extending their Services to Europe as Militia, or by Enlistment by Companies into such Regiments of the Line as may be appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, shall in no case exceed Three fourths of the Number of Private Men actually serving in any such Regiment, Battalion or Corps.

Number of Men to a Company. His Majesty may appoint Officers from Militia, and make Battalions of Companies, &c.

An Act for raising the Sum of Twenty two Millions by way of Annuities. [25th November 1813.]

C A P. IV.

An Act to continue until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled, An Act to continue and amend an Act of the present Session, to prevent the issuing and circulating of Pieces of Gold and Silver, or other Metal, usually called Tokens, except such as are issued by the Banks of England and Ireland respectively. [26th November 1813.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to continue and amend an Act of the present Session, to prevent the issuing and circulating of Pieces of Gold and Silver, or other Metal, usually called Tokens, except such as are issued by the Banks of England and Ireland respectively; And whereas it is expedient that the Period limited in the said recited Act for the Circulation of Pieces of Gold or Silver and mixed Metals, in the said recited Act specified and denominated Tokens, should be further extended; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act as prohibits the Circulation of any such Tokens as are in the said recited Act described, after Six Weeks from the Commencement of this Session of Parliament, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament on Piece of Gold or Silver, or of any mixed Metal composed partly of Gold or Silver, of whatever Name the same may be, shall pass or circulate as a Token for Money, or as purporting that the Bearer or Holder thereof is entitled to demand any Value denoted thereon, either by Letters, Words, Figures, Mark or otherwise, whether such Value is to be paid or given in Money or Goods, or other Value, or in any manner whatsoever; and every Person who shall, after Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, circulate or pass as for any nominal Value in Money or Goods any such Token, shall, for every such Token so circulated or passed, whether such Person shall be or have been concerned in the original issuing or Circulation of any such Token, or only the Bearer or Holder thereof for the time being, forfeit any Sum not less than Five Pounds nor more than Ten Pounds, at the Discretion of such Justice or Justices of the Peace who shall hear and determine such Offence; provided that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any Person from presenting any such Token for Payment to the original Issuer thereof, or to discharge or excuse any such original Issuer from his Liability to pay the same.

III. And be it therefore enacted, That all Persons who shall have originally issued or have been concerned in the original issuing or Circulation of any such Tokens, and their respective Executors and Administrators, shall be and they are hereby declared to be liable in Law, upon Demand made of the Value denoted upon the Tokens issued by such Person respectively, to pay the same; and the Amount of Money or Value denoted upon any such Tokens, either by Letters, Words, Figures, Marks or otherwise, may be recovered by the Bearer or Holder thereof, in any Action or Suit against the Person or Persons who shall have originally issued or been concerned in the original issuing or Circulation of such Tokens, in like manner as the Amount or Value of any Promissory Notes payable to Bearer, and lawful by Law, may now be recovered, to pay off or discharge the same.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to authorize or make legal the issuing of any Promissory Note, not being a Token composed of Gold or Silver, or of mixed Metal composed partly of Gold or Silver, which cannot now be issued by Law.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Tokens issued or circulated by or under the Authority of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or by or under the Authority of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland respectively; or in any manner to affect any such Tokens, or the Circulation thereof; or to subject any Company or Companies, or Person or Persons, to any Penalty for issuing or circulating any such Tokens.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act shall and may be recoverable and recovered, and levied and applied, in like manner and by such Means as the like Penalties and Forfeitures are made recoverable by the said recited Act; and all the Powers, Authorities, Clauses, Matters and Provisions, in the said recited Act contained or referred to, shall be and remain, and continue in full force, and be applied and executed for the enforcing the Provision of this Act, and for the enforcing and applying of any Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, as fully and effectually as if all such Powers, Authorities, Clauses and Provisions, were severally and separately re-enacted in and made Part of this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. V.

An Act to indemnify such Persons in the United Kingdom as have omitted to qualify themselves for Offices and Employments, and for extending the Time limited for these Purposes respectively, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and to permit such Persons in Great Britain as have omitted to make and file Affidavits of the Execution of Indentures of Clerks to Attorneys and Solicitors to make and file the same on or before the Fifth Day of Hilary Term One thousand eight hundred and fifteen. [6th December 1813.]

WHEREAS divers Persons, who, on account of these Offices, Places, Employments or Professions, or any other Cause or Occasion, ought to have taken and subscribed the Oath or Affirmance respectively appointed to be by such Persons taken and subscribed, is and by an Act, made in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, of glorious Memory, intitled An Act for the further Security of His Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession to the Crown in the Reins of the late King Charles the Second, being Protestants; and for ratifying the Oaths of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his sons and direct Affinities; or to have qualified themselves according to an Act, made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intitled An Act for the more governing and regulating of Corporations; or to have qualified themselves according to another Act, made in the Twenty fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intitled An Act for preventing the Danagers which may happen from Popish Recusants by receiving the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper according to the Usage of the Church of England, and making and subscribing the Declaration against Transubstantiation therein mentioned (a); or according to another Act, made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intitled An Act for the more effectual preserving the King's Person and Government, by disabling Popish from sitting in either House of Parliament; or according to another Act, made in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intitled An Act for granting the People called Quakers such Forms of Affirmation or Declaration as may remove the Difficulties which may of them be under; or according to another Act, made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for indemnifying Persons who have omitted to qualify themselves for Office within the time limited by Law, and for allowing further time for that Purpose; and for amending so much of an Act, passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as requires Persons to qualify themselves for Office before the End of the next Term or Quarter Sessions; and also for enlarging the time limited by Law, for making and subscribing the Declaration against Transubstantiation; and for allowing a further time for Issuance of Writs of Habeas Corpus and Writs made by Popish; and for Relief of Protestant Foreigners, Dissenters and Exiles; or according to another Act, made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the further Qualification of Judges of the Peace; or according to another Act, made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for allowing the Oath of Abjuration, and the Affirmance; and for amending so much of an Act, made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty Queen Anne, intitled An Act for the Improvement of the Union of the Two Kingdoms, as after the time therein limited, requires the Delivery of certain Lists and Copies therein mentioned to Persons indebted of High Treason, or Misprision of Treason; have, through Ignorance of the Law, Accident or some unavoidable Accident, omitted to take and subscribe the said Oath and Affirmance, and make and subscribe the Declaration required by Law or otherwise to qualify themselves as aforesaid, within such Time, and in such Manner, as is and by the said Act respectively, or by any other Act of Parliament in that behalf made, is required, whereby they have incurred, or may be in Danger of incurring, divers Penalties and Disabilities: For quieting the Minds of His Majesty's Subjects, and for preventing any Inconveniences that might otherwise happen by means of such Qualifications, be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Person or Persons who, at or before the passing of this Act, hath or shall have omitted to take and subscribe the said Oath and Declarations, or to receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, or otherwise to qualify him, her or themselves, within such time, and in such manner as is and by the said Act, or any of them, or by any other Act of Parliament in that behalf made, is required, and who, after accepting any such Office, Place or Employment, or undertaking any Profession or Trade on account of which such Qualifications ought to have been had, and is required, before the passing of this Act, hath or shall have taken and subscribed the said Oath, or made the Declaration required by Law, and also received the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, according to the Usage of the Church of England, or when, or on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, shall take and subscribe the said Oath, Declaration and Affirmance respectively, in such cases wherein by Law the said Oath, Declaration and Affirmance, ought to have been taken and subscribed, in such manner and Form, and as or in such Place or Places as are appointed or ordered by the said Act, made in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament in that behalf made and provided, and also hath or shall have received, or shall, on or before the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, according to the Usage of the Church of England, in such cases wherein the said Sacrament ought to have been received, and hath or ought to be) have made and subscribed, or shall, on or before the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, make and subscribe the said Declaration against Transubstantiation, and also hath or have made and subscribed, or shall, on or before the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, make and subscribe the said Declaration in the said Statute made in the Thirtieth Year of King Charles the Second, in such cases wherein the said Declaration ought to have been made and subscribed, or take and subscribe the Oath directed by the said Act made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, in such cases wherein the said Oath ought to have been taken and subscribed, in such manner as by the said Act is directed, shall be and are hereby intended, freed and discharged, from and against all Penalties, Forfeitures, Incapacities and Disabilities, incurred, or to be incurred for or by reason of any Neglect or Omission, previous to the passing of this Act, of taking or subscribing the said Oaths or Affurances, or receiving the Sacrament, or making or subscribing the said Declaration, or taking or subscribing the said Oath according to the above mentioned Acts, or any of them, or any other Act or Acts; and each Person and Persons is and are, and shall be fully and actually reciprocated and referred to the same Statute and Condition as he, she or they, were in before such Neglect or Omission, and shall be deemed and adjudged to have duly qualified him, her or themselves, according to the above mentioned Acts, and every of them; and that all Elections of, and Acts done or to be done by any such Person or Persons, or by Authority derived from him, her or them, are and shall be of the same Force and Validity as the same, or any of them, would have been if each Person or Persons respectively had taken the said Oaths or Affurances, and received the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and made and subscribed the said Declarations, and taken and subscribed the said Oath according to the Directions of the said Acts, and every or any of them; and that the Qualification of each Person or Persons, qualifying themselves in manner and within the time appointed by this Act, shall be, as all Elections and Purposes, as effectual as if such Person or Persons had respectively taken the said Oaths and Affurances, and received the Sacrament, and made and subscribed the said Declaration, and taken and subscribed the said Oath, within the time and in the manner appointed by the several Acts before mentioned.

(a) [Query. The Words "ought to."]

11. And whereas several Persons will be directed by His Majesty's Government, and to the United Church of England and Ireland have, through Ignorance of the Law, neglected, or been by Sakeeds or other considerable Causes, prevented from taking and subscribing the Declaration, and from receiving the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and delivering a Certificate thereof according to the Directions of the said Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Second Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery; Be it therefore further enacted, That all Persons who have incurred any Penalty or Incapacity in the said recited Act mentioned, by neglecting to qualify themselves according to the said Act, shall be, and are hereby intended, freed and discharged from all Incapacities, Disabilities, Penalties and Forfeitures, incurred by reason of such Omission or Neglect as aforesaid; and that no Act done by any of them not yet avoided, shall be questioned or avoided by reason of such Omission or Neglect, but that all such Acts shall be and are hereby declared to be good and effectual, as if such Persons respectively had taken and subscribed the said Oath, and received the said Sacrament, and delivered the Certificate thereof, such made and repeated and subscribed the said Declaration, at such Time, Place and Manner, as in the said Act is mentioned; any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that such Person or Persons do and shall take and subscribe the said Oaths, and make, repeat and subscribe the said Declaration in such Manner and Form, and in such Place or Places respectively as are directed and appointed by the said last recited Act, on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

12. Provided always, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to indemnify any Person against whom final Judgment shall have been given, in any Action of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record, for any Penalty incurred by having neglected to qualify himself within the time limited by Law.

13. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing contained in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to exempt any Justice of the Peace within Great Britain from the Penalty to which he is subject for sitting in such without being possessed of the Qualification required by the Laws now in force.

14. And whereas the Appointment of divers Clerics of the Peace, Town Clerks, and other public Officers, and the Admissions of divers Members and Officers of Cities, Corporations and Borough Towns in Great Britain, or the Entries of such Admissions in the Court Books, Rolls or Records of such Cities, Corporations and Borough Towns, which by several Acts of Parliament are directed and required to be stamped, may not have been provided, or the same not stamped, or may have been left or mislaid; Be it further enacted, That, for the Relief of such Persons whose Appointments and Admissions, or the Entries of what Admissions as aforesaid, may not have been provided, or not duly stamped, or where the same have been left or mislaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Persons in Great Britain, on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, to provide or cause to be provided, Appointments, and Admissions, or Entries of Admissions, as aforesaid, duly stamped; or, in case where such Appointments, Admissions or Entries of Admissions, as aforesaid, have been made or provided, but have not been duly stamped, to produce such Appointments, Admissions or Entries of Admissions, as aforesaid, to the Commissioner appointed to inspect and manage the Revenue of the Stamp Duties to be duly stamped; which such Commissioners are hereby authorized, empowered and required to duly stamp, or to pay of the Duties not payable, or to have been paid on such Appointments, Admissions or Entries of Admissions, as aforesaid, without any Fine or Forfeiture thereon; and in

CAP. VII.

An Act to continue, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and amend an Act for regulating the Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Ireland. [6th December 1813.]

WHEREAS the Act hereinafter mentioned has by Experience been found useful and beneficial, and it is expedient that the same should be further continued in manner hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to provide more effectually for regulating the Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Ireland; and for allowing British Plantation Sugar to be warehoused in Ireland, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight (a), and which by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, was continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall be and the same is hereby further continued from the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, until and upon the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, except only so much of the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year aforesaid, as relates to the allowing British Plantation Sugar to be warehoused in Ireland, and which, under the Provision of an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign for continuing the said Act of the Forty seventh Year, is directed to be warehoused under the Provision of an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for permitting Goods imported into Ireland to be warehoused or secured without the Duties due on the Importation thereof being first paid, and except as the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year is amended by this Act.

(a) [Schedule to 47 G. 3. 2d. c. 1. 2. 19. repealed, c. 100. § 1. 2d.]

II. And be it further enacted, That if in the Publication of the Dublin Gazette containing Notice of the Average Price of Brown or Muscovado Sugar for the Four Months preceding the First Wednesday in May or preceding the First Wednesday in September in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or preceding the First Wednesday in January in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, or preceding any or either of the said Days in any subsequent Year, during the Continuance of the last recited Act of the Forty seventh Year aforesaid, and this Act, ascertained and taken in manner prescribed by Law in Great Britain, and inserted in the London Gazette, it shall appear that the Average Price of such Sugar so ascertained and taken for the preceding Four Months in England shall not have exceeded Seventy Shillings Sterling British Currency for an Hundred Weight, exclusive of the Duties paid or payable on the Importation thereof, then and in every such case the Drawback or Bounty in the Schedule to the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year aforesaid mentioned, as corresponding to or with the Price of which such Notice in the London and Dublin Gazettes shall have been given as aforesaid, shall be paid or allowed on Exportation (except to Great Britain) of the several Sorts of Sugar mentioned in the said Schedule, until Notice published in the London Gazette of the Average Price for the Four Months preceding any other of such subsequent Days shall be inserted in the Dublin Gazette, and such Drawback or Bounty shall be paid or allowed in like manner in every respect and subject and under and according to the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures as any Drawbacks and Bounties are paid and allowed under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force or to be in force in Ireland relating to Drawbacks and Bounties, except so far as the same are altered by the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year aforesaid or this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and the Act hereby continued, may be amended, altered or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. VIII.

An Act to provide for the Charge of the Addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen. [6th December 1813.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to alter and amend several Acts passed in His present Majesty's Reign relating to the Redemption of the National Debt; and for making further Provision in respect thereof, it was enacted and declared, That, for the Purpose of the said Act, as Amount of Public Debt, equal to the whole Capital of the Public Debt in perpetual redeemable Annuities existing on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, should be drawn to be satisfied and discharged, and so much of the Capital Stock is purchased and transferred as therein mentioned, and standing in the Names of the Commissioners for the Redemption of the National Debt, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as Parliament by any Act or Acts of the last Session should or might direct should be enrolled in like manner as of the same had been transferred to the said Commissioners for the Redemption of Land Tax, pursuant to the Provisions of the several Acts thereto relating, in order to make Provision for the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, by way of Loan, or in any other manner, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen; and it was thereby further enacted, that whenever the Amount of the Sum to be raised by way of Loan, or in any other manner which might create an Addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain in the present or any future Year should exceed the Sum which on the First Day of February should have been or should be estimated to be applicable in the same Year to the Redemption of the National Debt; then and in every such case an annual Sum amounting to the One hundredth Part of the Capital Stock, created by so much only of the Moons called by way of Loan, or in any other manner

An Act to amend an Act passed in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to permit the Interchange of the British and Irish Militia respectively.

[5th December 1813.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Fifty first of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to permit the Interchange of the British and Irish Militia respectively: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be amended, for the Purpose of enabling His Majesty to employ a greater Number of the Militia of Great Britain in Ireland, and of the Militia of Ireland in England (a), at one time, than are allowed by the said Act: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, from and after the passing of this Act, and during the Continuance thereof, to accept the Services of the Militia of Great Britain, or any Part thereof, to serve in Ireland, and of the Militia of Ireland, or any Part thereof, to serve in Great Britain (b), without regard to the Proportions of the Militia of one Country allowed to serve in the other, or any Ratios, specified in the said recited Act; and from time to time to employ in any Part of the United Kingdom such Part of the Regular Militia of Great Britain and the Militia of Ireland respectively, as may make such voluntary Offer, duly certified by their respective Commanding Officers, of extending their Services to all Parts of the United Kingdom, without regard to such Limitations as aforesaid, and as His Majesty may think proper to permit to be extended their Services in consequence of such voluntary Offer as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order signed by the Principal Secretary of State, or by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or by him, or their Chief Secretary, directed by the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps, of the said Militia Forces of Great Britain or Ireland, to propose to such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or any Part or Parts thereof, to extend their Services, under such Rules and Regulations, and upon such Allowances as His Majesty may think fit to appoint; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

[a] G. 3. c. 118.

His Majesty may employ in any Part of United Kingdom any Part of regular Militia Forces of G. B. or Ireland, making voluntary Offer to serve, without Reference to such Limitations.

[a] [See the existing Part of this Session.]

[b] [See the preamble.]

II. And be it further enacted, That no Person serving in the said Militia, of either Part of the United Kingdom, shall be compelled to make such Offer, except by his own Consent; and no Commanding Officer shall certify according to this Act any voluntary Offer previously to his having explained to every Person of the Militia offering to do so, that the Offer is to be purely voluntary on his Part.

Commanding Officer shall explain to Militia that Offer is to be voluntary. Consensus. Act amended, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and may be altered, varied or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XI.

An Act for extending the Provisions of an Act, passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, for making better Provision for Soldiers, to Sergeants of the Militia. [5th December 1813.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that certain of the Provisions of an Act, passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for making better Provision for Soldiers, and of any Regulation made in pursuance thereof, should be extended to Sergeants of the Regular Militia of Great Britain or Ireland: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Sergeant of Militia who shall, from and after the passing of this Act, become entitled to his Discharge by reason of the Expiration of any Period of Service fixed in any Orders and Regulations made by His Majesty in that behalf, or shall have been discharged by reason of being an Invalid or disabled, shall thereupon become legally entitled to receive such Pension, Allowance or Relief, as shall have been fixed in any Orders or Regulations made by His Majesty in relation to such cases respectively, and for the Payment whereof Money shall have been voted by Parliament; and every such Sergeant may claim to be paid or receive the same, under the Provisions of this Act, or any Rules or Regulations made in pursuance thereof.

[a] G. 3. c. 49.

Sergeants of Militia may receive Pension as fixed in Regulations made by His Majesty.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Sergeant of Militia who shall have been discharged by reason of the Expiration of any Period of Service fixed in any Orders and Regulations made by His Majesty, in that behalf, or shall have been discharged by reason of being an Invalid or disabled, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, become legally entitled to an additional Pension, which together with the Pension he may now receive shall be equal to the increased Pension to which Sergeants are entitled under the Provisions of this Act, or any Rules and Regulations made in pursuance thereof, such additional Pension to take Effect from the passing of this Act.

Additional Pension allowed in pursuance of this Act.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Sergeant of Militia, whose Office of Extended Service in the Militia shall be accepted by His Majesty, shall be allowed to receive, for the Purpose of clearing any Pension, Allowance or Relief, given by any such Orders and Regulations as aforesaid at the Expiration of his Service, or in case of his Discharge Two Years for such Offer of extended Service, and also Two Years for such Service in the Militia as aforesaid, in any Part of Europe out of His Majesty's Dominions; and every Militia Man who shall so extend his Services, and who shall thereafter volunteer into His Majesty's Regular Forces, shall be entitled to reckon for such Offer of Extension of Service as a Militia Man, and for such Extended Service under any such Offer, and also for such volunentering into His Majesty's Regular Forces, such Number of Years respectively for the Purpose of claiming any Pension, Allowance or Relief as a Soldier, as shall be fixed by any Rules, Regulations or Orders, made by His Majesty in that Behalf.

Mode of computing time of Service.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Orders and Regulations from time to time made by His Majesty, in relation to the Discharge of Soldiers of the Militia after the Expiration of any Periods of Service, and also in relation to any Pensions, Allowance or Relief, to any discharged or invalid, disabled or wounded Soldiers, shall be laid before Parliament; and that Officers of the Armies of all such Pensions, Allowances and Relief, and of all contingent Expenses and Charges relating to the Payment, Control and Management thereof, shall also be usually laid before Parliament.

V. And be it further enacted, That all the Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things in the said recited Act of the Forty sixth Year of His Majesty's Kings aforesaid contained, shall extend and be construed to extend, and be used, applied and enforced, in relation to any Rules and Regulations made for giving any Pensions, Allowances or Relief under the Act, and the demands, paying, receiving, recovering and accounting for any Pensions, Allowances or Payments, so fully and effectually to all Issues and Purposes, as if the same were severally repeated and re-enacted in and made Part of this Act; and the said recited Act and this Act shall be construed as one Act.

An Act to enable His Majesty to augment the Sixtieth Regiment to Ten Battalions, by Enrolling more of Foreigners. [6th December 1813.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that His Majesty should be empowered to augment His Scotch Regiment of Infantry, now consisting of Seven Battalions, by the Addition of an English, Scotch and Welsh Battalion; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to augment the said Scotch Regiment of Infantry, by the Addition of an English, Scotch and Welsh Battalion, to consist of One thousand Men each, and to enlist as Soldiers to serve in such Battalions any Foreigners now in His Majesty's Pay, or other Foreigners who shall voluntarily enter themselves to serve as Soldiers therein, and to employ such Regiment, or any Part thereof, in any Country or Place out of Great Britain; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Foreign Officers who shall receive Commissions from His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to be Officers in the said Regiment, for the Purpose of enabling His Majesty to augment the same to Ten Battalions (which Commissions it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to grant) shall be enabled to serve and receive Pay as Officers in the said Regiment; and when reduced shall be capable of receiving Half Pay, according to the Rank in which they shall serve at the time of such Reduction.

C A P. XIII.

An Act for giving Effect to certain Engagements of His Majesty with the Emperor all the Ruffian and the King of Prussia, for furnishing a Part of the pecuniary Succours for assisting His Majesty's said Allies, in supporting the Expenses of the War with France. [6th December 1813.]

WHEREAS by Two several Conventions, signed at London on the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, between Your Majesty on the one Part, and their Majesties the Emperor of all the Ruffias and the King of Prussia respectively on the other, it was agreed, That a Part of the Pecuniary Succours which Your Majesty was desirous of furnishing to Your said Allies, to assist them in supporting the Expenses of the War with France, should be furnished by Aid of the Public Credit of Great Britain, and under the Form of Bills exclusively applicable to the Expenses of the War, and to be re-embursed in Specie, upon certain Terms and Conditions; and Your Majesty by the said Conventions engaged to Propose to Your Parliament to authorize the Issue of such Bills of Credit, for the Benefit of their Majesties the Emperor of all the Ruffias and the King of Prussia, for the sum of Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds Sterling, or of Fifty Millions Prussian Thalers of the Denomination and Weight of One thousand seven hundred and sixty four, to be issued Monthly in masses therein mentioned, in the Proportion of Two Thirds of such Monthly Issue for the Emperor of all the Ruffias, and of One Third thereof for the King of Prussia, and to be computed from the Fifteenth Day of June of the Current Year; so that Your Majesty has engaged in place at the Disposal of the Emperor and the King, for the First Instalment, as many Millions of Thalers as there shall have been Months elapsed since the Fifteenth Day of June last, and thereafter a Million each Month, until the Issue of Fifteen Millions of Thalers shall be completed: And it is in the said Conventions further stipulated, that Commissioners should be named on the Part of Your Majesty and the said Sovereigns respectively, upon the Convention, who should be charged to direct the Circulation of the said Paper in conformity with the Principles of the said Conventions; and that the Bills of Credit to be issued under the said Conventions should not bear Interest, but that a General Office should be opened, in such Town in the North of Germany as the Prussian Government with the Concurrence of the Courts of Ruffia and Prussia should point out for the Purpose, where the Holders of each Bill should be admitted to have them in a Capital Stock or Fund bearing Interest at the * Rate of Six per Centum per Annum, or at the Choice of the Holders of the said Bills, in Debentures bearing Six per Centum Interest; and that the Interest of the Bills issued and converted into a Six per Centum Stock, or into Debentures, should be payable every Six Months, in whatever City of the North of Germany Your Majesty's Commissioners should point out for that Purpose, to commence from the Month following that of their being deposited in the General Office; and that the Bills which should neither have been registered nor issued before the Signature of the Preliminaries of Peace should be entitled to an interest of One Half per Centum per Month, to commence from the Period of the said Signature until that of their Re-embourcement; and that the Re-embourcement of the whole of the said Fifteen Millions Thalers of Bills of Credit, should be made in Spain either in Progres Thalers according to the Tenth of One thousand four hundred and sixty four, or in Spanish Dollars at the Rate of Two Spanish Dollars for Three such Thalers as aforesaid, and to the Amount of One Million of Thalers per Month, in the manner fixed in such Conventions, and to commence from the Month following the Ratification of a General Peace: And whereas we, the Commissioners of the United Kingdom in Parliament assembled, have resolved that Provision be made for enabling Your Majesty to defray the Expenses which may be incurred in the Execution of the said Conventions, not exceeding Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds Sterling, or Fifteen Millions of Progres Thalers Principal Money? May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury of Great Britain, or any Three or more of them for the time being, shall and they are hereby empowered to cause Bills of Credit in the Form specified in the said Conventions, and not exceeding the Amount of Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds Sterling, or of Fifteen Millions of Progres Thalers of the Decemisation and Weight of One thousand four hundred and sixty four, to be prepared and signed by the Commissioner to be named on the Part of His Majesty, and to be issued to the respective Commissioners to be named on the Part of their Majesties the Emperor of all the Russias and the King of Prussia, in the respective Proportions and at the times specified in the said Conventions; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, are hereby also empowered and required to cause proper Books to be provided and kept by the Commissioner to be named on the Part of His Majesty for receiving the Subscriptions of all such Holders of the said Bills of Credit as may be desirous to fund the same in a Six per Centum Stock, and also to cause Bills bearing an Interest of Six per Centum from the Month succeeding the Date of their Registry, to be prepared and issued to all such Holders of the said Bills of Credit as may be desirous of converting them into Bills bearing an Interest as aforesaid.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the time being respectively, shall, and be, and they it and are hereby empowered from time to time, out of any of the Aids or Supplies granted or to be granted by Parliament for the Service of any Year, or each to be issued such Sums of Money as shall be required for the Payment of the Interest on each of the said Securities as may from time to time bear an Interest, and also for the Payment of the Principal Moneys due thereon, and when the same may from time to time become payable, conformably to the Terms of His Majesty's Engagements, as specified in the said Conventions respectively; and also such Sums as may be required to pay and satisfy all the Expenses attending the Execution of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall cause to be prepared, and shall lay before both Houses of Parliament, within Twenty Days after the Commencement of every Session, an Account of the Total Amount of the said Bills of Credit which have been issued, and also of such as have been funded, and of those which have been converted into Bills bearing an Interest, and of those which remain unfunded and unconverted as aforesaid respectively, up to the Thirty first Day of December then next proceeding, together with an Account of the Total Sums which shall from time to time have been issued and applied by virtue of this Act for paying and satisfying the Interest on all or any of the said Securities, and towards paying and satisfying the Principal thereof (in case the Principal of any of the said Securities shall then have been paid), and also for paying the Expenses of carrying this Act into Execution.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the time being to appoint such Officers and Clerks in the Office of the said Commissioner to be named on the Part of His Majesty, and in Great Britain, as they may deem necessary for carrying this Act into Execution, and to grant such Salaries and Compendiums to the said Commissioners and Officers and Clerks for their Trouble and Labour therein, as they may think fit and reasonable in that Behalf.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall forge, counterfeit or make or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or wilfully sell or aid or assist in the forging or counterfeiting any Bill, Receipt, Indentment or Security, made and issued under the Authority of this Act, or the Signature or Name of any Commissioner or other Person or Persons to or upon any such Bill, Receipt, Indentment or Security, or any Indentment or Writing upon any such Bill, Receipt, Indentment or Security, or other or make or procure to be shown, or sell as aforesaid, or assist in the altering any Number, Figure or Word therein, or utter or publish as true, any such false, forged, counterfeited or altered Bill, Receipt, Indentment or Security (knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited or altered), with Intent to defraud His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or any Body Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons whatsoever, then and in every such case every Person being thereof convicted as in the Form of Law shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

An Act to enable His Majesty to accept the Services of a Proportion of the Militia of the City of London, out of the United Kingdom, for the vigorous Prosecution of the War.

[5th December 1813.]

WHEREAS it is highly important that the most effectual measures should be adopted for the vigorous Prosecution of the War upon the Continent of Europe: And whereas the City of London, notwithstanding the Exemptions from raising Men for Military Service contained in their Charter, are deficient and have voluntarily proposed, That His Majesty should be empowered to accept any Officers of a Proportion of the Officers, Non Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men of the Two Regiments of Militia of the said City of London, to serve in any Part of Europe, under certain Regulations, in Addition to the Proportion of the Militia of the United Kingdom, whose Services shall be accepted by His Majesty by virtue of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to enable His Majesty to accept the Services of a Proportion of the Militia out of the United Kingdom, for the vigorous Prosecution of the War: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to accept the Services, and to employ in any Part of Europe, under the Regulations and Restrictions specified in this Act, such Part of the present Militia of the City of London, not exceeding Three fourths of the Number actually serving in each Regiment of such Militia as may make a voluntary Offer, duly accepted by their respective Commanding Officers, of extending their Services to all Parts of Europe, and as His Majesty may think proper to permit to extend their Services in consequence of such voluntary Offers as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order signed by the Principal Secretary of State, or by his Chief Secretary, directed to the Commanding Officer of each or either of such Regiments, to propose to such Regiment respectively, or any Part or Parts thereof not exceeding such Proportion as aforesaid, to extend their Services to all Parts of Europe, under such Rules and Regulations as His Majesty may think fit to appoint.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to direct that a Bounty not exceeding Eight Guineas, shall be allowed to every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man who shall make such voluntary Offer as aforesaid; and every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man making such voluntary Offer as aforesaid shall take the following Oath; to-wit:

I, A. B. do solemnly promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to His Majesty King George, his Heirs and Successors, and that I will faithfully serve in the London Militia in any Part of Europe during the Remainder of the War, and until the Expiration of Six Months after the Termination thereof, to be ascertained from the Ratification of any Definitive Treaty of Peace, which I shall be sooner discharged.

And every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man making such voluntary Offer as aforesaid, shall taking such Oath, shall be entitled to serve in the London Militia in any Part of Europe, according to the Terms of such Oath, and such several Enrolments shall take place, and such Oaths shall be administered, by the Officer commanding the Regiment to which such Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man respectively shall belong, or by the Lord Mayor or any Commissioners of Lunacy, or Justice of the Peace, at such times and under such Regulations as His Majesty, by any Order to be signed by the Secretary of State or his Secretary, shall in that behalf direct or appoint; and every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man so entitled to serve in the London Militia in any Part of Europe, under the Provisions of this Act shall be entitled to his Discharge at the Expiration of the Period specified in such Oath, without any regard to the Period for which he shall have been enrolled to serve in the Militia of the City of London, by virtue of Two several Acts of Parliament, one of them passed in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for amending and extending into One Act of Parliament Two several Acts passed in the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the better ordering the Militia of the City of London; and for the further regulating of the Trained Bands or Militia of the said City; and the other of them passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to explain and amend an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for amending and reducing into One Act of Parliament Two several Acts passed in the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the better ordering of the Militia of the City of London; and for the further regulating the Trained Bands or Militia of the said City.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Person serving in the London Militia shall be compelled to make such Offer, or be engaged to serve out of the United Kingdom, except by his own Consent, and no Commanding Officer shall certify according to this Act any voluntary Offer before he shall have explained to every Person offering to serve, that the Offer is to be purely voluntary on his Part.

Commanding Officers to explain the Offer to be voluntary.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to accept the Services of One Field Officer of each or either Regiment of London Militia, in which Three hundred Private Men shall offer to extend their Service under this Act, and to call on Field Officers of other Regiments from which such Numbers of Men respectively shall be volunteers as aforesaid, shall offer to extend his Services with such Men, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to give the Rank of Field Officer to any Captain in such Regiment respectively who may offer to extend his Services with such Men, and it shall also be lawful for His Majesty to accept the Services of such Proportion of other Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Drummers, with any such Numbers of Private Men as are allowed to such Numbers of Men respectively in the Establishment of the said Regiments of London Militia, by virtue of the said Acts of the Thirty sixth and Thirty seventh Years of the Reign of His present Majesty.

An Act for charging an equalizing Duty on Scotch Salt brought to England. [10th December 1813.]

WHEREAS for the Purpose of equalizing the Duties for or in respect of Salt made in that Part of Great Britain called England, and Salt brought from Scotland into that Part of Great Britain called England, it is expedient to impose the additional Duty hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, so and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the additional Duty hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, For every Bushel of Salt or Rock Salt which shall be brought from Scotland into that Part of Great Britain called England, accompanied with a Certificate from the proper Officer that it hath paid the Duty of Four Shillings, imposed by an Act made in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to repeal the Duties of Excise payable in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof; and also the additional Duty of Two Shillings, imposed by an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His said Majesty, intituled An Act for granting additional Duties on Salt in Great Britain (a); for every Bushel of Salt or Rock Salt made at any Salt Work or taken out of any Salt Mine or Salt Pit in Scotland, to be paid by the Master or Commander of every Ship or Vessel bringing or importing such Salt or Rock Salt, before the Landing thereof, Three Shillings.

(a) [Query, What is the Duty meant to be imposed on the salt measured Salt?]

II. And whereas Contracts or Agreements may have been made before the passing of this Act by Dealers in Salt or Rock Salt respectively in that Part of Great Britain called England upon which the additional Duty is by this Act imposed for such Salt or Rock Salt respectively, to be delivered after the said Fifth Day of January; Be it therefore enacted, That such Dealers delivering any such Salt or Rock Salt after the said Fifth Day of January in pursuance of any such Contract or Agreement, shall be allowed to add to such Money as will be equivalent to the Duty by this Act imposed for or in respect of such Salt or Rock Salt which shall have been charged with the said Duty to the Price thereof, and shall be entitled by virtue of this Act to be paid for the same accordingly.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Duty by this Act imposed shall be ascertained, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered and adjudged in such and the like manner as the Duties of Four Shillings and Two Shillings per Bushel respectively imposed by the said Acts made in the Forty third and Forty fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, for Salt or Rock Salt brought from Scotland into that Part of Great Britain called England, accompanied with a proper Certificate, is by any Law or Laws in force at the time of passing this Act to be ascertained, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered or adjudged.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising by the Duty by this Act imposed (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall from time to time be paid into the Receipts of His Majesty's Exchequer together with the said recited Duties imposed by the said Acts made in the Forty third and Forty fifth Years aforesaid, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain.

C A P. XXII.

An Act to continue, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, an Act of the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty, for the more effectual Preservation of the Peace by enforcing the Duties of Watching and Wandering. [10th December 1813.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the more effectual Preservation of the Peace by enforcing the Duties of Watching and Wandering, and the Fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in Places where Disorders prevail or are apprehended; And whereas the said Act has by Experience been found useful and beneficial, and it is expedient that the same should be continued; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall, from and after the said Fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, be and the same is hereby continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

C A P. XXIII.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fifty third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England. [10th December 1813.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, and it is expedient to amend the said Act; Be it therefore enacted and declared by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the

Lords

Levies Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners appointed or to be appointed by virtue of the said Act, to hold the Court established by virtue of the said Act, and to exercise his Office as aforesaid shall require in any Part of England; but nevertheless such Commissioners shall at all times have an Office in some convenient Place, either in the Cities of London or Westminster, or in the County of Middlesex, within the Bills of Mortality, for the Discharge of Business.

II. And whereas it is required by the said Act that every Prisoner applying by Petition to the said Court to be discharged by virtue of the said Act shall previously take the Oath required by the said Act, and that such Petitioner, with the Schedule in the said Act mentioned, and the said Oath, shall be filed as in the said Act mentioned; and it has been found inconvenient if at such Oath should be taken previous to such Petition, and the Order thereon: Be it therefore further enacted, That in each of the said Acts as requires such Oath to be taken before the presenting of such Petition, and so to be filed therewith, and that Notice thereof should be given as provided by the said Act, he and the same is hereby repealed from and after the passing of this Act.

III. And be it enacted, That in each thereof, from and after the passing of this Act, such Petition shall contain an Offer to take the Oath required by the said Act, in such Form as the circumstances of the case shall require; and that the said Oath shall be taken upon or after the Examination of such Prisoner under the said Act, and shall thereupon be filed as the said Act directs; and that the Notice required by the said Act to be given upon the Order made on such Petition shall not extend to such Oath: Provided always, that in all cases in which such Oath shall have been taken before the passing of this Act, the same shall be of the same Force and Effect as if this Act had not been made, and the said Court shall proceed therein accordingly, if the said Court shall think fit.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which Notices of the Petition of any Prisoner for Discharge under the said Act, and of the Schedule of such Prisoner, and a Copy of the Order as such Petitioner, are required by the said Act (a) to be served on Creditors, or Persons claiming to be Creditors of such Prisoner, it shall be lawful for the Court established by virtue of the said Act to dispense with such Service, and to order that Notice of such several Matters may be in the Form or to the Effect expressed in the Schedule to this Act marked (A), or in such other Form or to such other Effect as the said Court shall direct, and that such Notice may be given either by Advertisement in the London Gazette or other Newspaper, or Newspapers, or in such other manner as the said Court shall see fit; and it shall be lawful to comprise Notices on behalf of several Prisoners in the same Advertisement or Advertisement, if the said Court shall so order; and it shall be lawful for the said Court either to direct Lists of the Creditors or Persons claiming to be Creditors of each of such Prisoners to be annexed to such Notice, or to direct that such Notice shall refer to the Schedule delivered by each of such Prisoners filed in the proper Office of the said Court; and such Notice is given according to the Order of the said Court shall be deemed sufficient Notice to the Creditors described in such List, or described in such Schedule, as the case may be; any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and it shall be likewise lawful for the said Court to order any other Notice required or authorised by the said Act or by this Act to be given by Advertisement in any Newspaper or Newspapers, or in any other manner as to the said Court shall seem fit. (a) [§ 3 G. 3. c. 102. § 5.]

V. And be it further enacted, That in case of Default in the Form or Manner of Service of any Notice required or authorised by the said Act (b) or by this Act, or in the Intention of such Notice in the London Gazette or in any Newspaper, or in any Mode of Notice ordered by the said Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court from time to time to adjourn the Hearing of any Petition, and to make such further Order respecting the same, or respecting such Notice, as to the said Court shall appear to be reasonable.

(b) [§ 3 G. 3. c. 102. § 6.]

VI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Advertisement to be inserted under the Authority of the said Act (c) or of this Act, in any Newspaper, shall contain more than Fifty Words, there shall be paid for the Insertion thereof at the Rate of Six pence for every Ten Words contained in such Advertisement beyond the Number of Fifty Words over and above the Sum of Three Shillings mentioned in the said Act, and so more. (c) [§ 3 G. 3. c. 102. § 7.]

VII. And be it further enacted, That in the Adjudication of the said Court that any Prisoner is entitled to the Benefit of the said Act and the Order thereon, it shall not be necessary to specify the several Creditors and Persons claiming to be Creditors of such Prisoner, as required by the said Act (d), but it shall be sufficient, if the said Court shall think fit, to refer in such Order to the Schedule (e) as by such Prisoner, specifying such Creditors or Persons claiming to be Creditors of such Prisoner, either generally or specially, or with such Exceptions as the circumstances of the case shall appear to the Court to require.

(d) [§ 3 G. 3. c. 102. § 10.]

VIII. And be it further declared and enacted, That the said Court shall have full Power, and the same is hereby authorised, by any Order for that Purpose, to require the Sheriff or Sheriffs, Keepers or Gaolers of any Prison, or any other Officer having the Custody of any Prisoner, to bring before such Court, or any Justice of the Peace, at any Quarter Session or Adjourned or Special Session of the Peace, or out of Sessé, as to the said Court shall seem fit, any such Prisoner, for any of the Purposes authorised by the said Act or by this Act; which Order every such Sheriff, Keeper, Gaoler or other Officer shall obey; and for so doing such Order shall be a sufficient Warrant.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Court, instead of ordering any Prisoner to be brought before the said Court for Examination, shall direct such Prisoner to be examined before His Majesty's Justice of the Peace for any County, Riding, Division or Place, at a General Session of the Peace or any Adjournment

Act of the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, and the Bounties in the Schedule to the said last recited Act of the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall be respectively paid and allowed, in like manner and under and according to the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures (except where any Alteration is made by this Act), as the said Drawbacks and Bounties were respectively paid or allowed before the passing of this Act. (a) [See Note in p. 121.]

II. And be it further enacted, That if it shall appear by Notice in the London Gazette published on the Saturday which shall happen next after the First Wednesday in May, the First Wednesday in September One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or the First Wednesday in January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, that the Average Price of Brown or Malabar Sugar taken in manner directed by an Act made in the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for regulating the Allowances of the Drawback and Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, and for permitting the Importation of Sugar and Coffee into the Bahama and Bermuda Islands in Foreign Ships, for the Four preceding Months, computed to the Wednesday immediately preceding each Saturday aforesaid, shall not have exceeded Seventy Shillings for an Hundred Weight exclusive of the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon on the Importation into Great Britain, then and in every such case the Drawback or Bounty in the Schedule to the said recited Acts passed in the Forty sixth and Forty fifth Years of His present Majesty aforesaid respectively enacted mentioned, as corresponding to or with the Price of which such Notice in the London Gazette shall have been given as aforesaid, shall be paid or allowed until Notice of any other Average shall in like manner appear in the Lan- don Gazette on any other of such Saturdays as before mentioned; and such Drawback or Bounty shall be paid or allowed in like manner in every respect, and subject and under and according to the like Rules and Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as any Drawbacks or Bounties were paid or allowed before the passing of the said last recited Act (except in any such Rules or Regulations as are altered by the said recited Acts of the Forty sixth and Forty fifth Years aforesaid). (b) [See Note in p. 121.]

III. And whereas Doubts may arise in certain cases respecting the Duty that would be chargeable on Raw or Cured Sugar of the Produce of the British Plantations, or of the Islands of Martinique, Montserrat, Guadeloupe, Saint Eustace, Saint Martin and Tobago, imported from the Warehouse in which any such Sugar shall have been landed on Importation into Great Britain: Be it therefore enacted and declared, That, from and after the passing of this Act any such Sugar so warehoused on which the Duties of Customs shall not have been paid, which shall be exported or shipped for Exportation from any such Warehouse, shall be subject and liable only to the Payment of such Portage (if any) of the Duties of Customs due and payable on the Importation of British Plantation Sugar into Great Britain as shall exceed the Amount of the Drawback that would have been paid or allowed on the Exportation of any such Sugar, at the time any such Sugar as aforesaid shall be exported or shipped for Exportation in case the full Duties due and payable thereon had been previously paid.

IV. And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other

• *Duties in Law thereof, the Lord High Treasurer or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, are authorised to suspend the Payment of the additional Duties of Customs on Sugar granted by the said last recited Act, either in the Whole or in Part, whenever the Average Price of Sugar ascertained as directed by the said recited Act, and by another Act passed in the Forty ninth Year of His Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the Mode in which the Average Price of Brown or Malabar Sugar, exclusive of the Duty thereon, is to be ascertained under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His Majesty, shall be below the Prices mentioned in the said last recited Act of the Forty ninth Year aforesaid: And whereas it is expedient, that during the Period of such Suspension, the Countervailing Duties on Refined Sugar imported from Ireland into Great Britain, and the Equivalent Drawback or Bounty on the Exports to an Island of Refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Great Britain, and also the additional Bounty on the Exports of Refined Sugar from Great Britain, other than to Ireland, imported and allowed by the said last recited Act, should in like manner be suspended: Be it therefore further enacted, That whenever the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, shall exercise the Power vested in them, and shall, according to the Direction of the said Act, suspend the Payment of the Whole or Part of the Duties on Sugar thereby imposed, it shall be lawful for them, and they are hereby authorised and required, in like manner and for the like Period, to suspend either the whole of the additional Countervailing Duties of Customs on Refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Ireland imported from thence into Great Britain, and of the additional Drawback or Bounty on the Exports to an Island of Refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Great Britain, and of the additional Bounty on the Exports of Refined Sugar from Great Britain, other than to Ireland, imported and allowed by the said last recited Act, or such Part thereof respectively as shall bear a just Proportion to the Amount of Duty so suspended.*

V. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Act of the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, and all the Powers, Privileges, Authorities, Regulations, Classes, Matters and Things in the said Act contained, except as the same are varied or altered by this Act, shall be and the same are hereby further continued from the Fifteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and shall be and remain in full Force until the Fifteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, for the Part of London, and from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, for other Parts of Great Britain.

VI. And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to allow for Two Years, from and after the passing of this Act, an additional Bounty on Double Refined Sugar; and to extend former Bounties on other Refined Sugar to such as shall be pounded, crushed or broken; and to allow for One Year certain Bounties on British Plantation Raw Sugar exported, a certain Bounty was allowed upon the Exports of Double Refined Sugar, and also a Bounty was allowed upon the Exports of Raw Sugar, and it was enacted, that so much of the said recited Act as related to the allowing of a Bounty upon Double Refined Sugar should continue in force for Two Years from the passing of the said Act and so much thereof as related to the allowing of a Bounty upon Raw Sugar should continue in force for One Year from the passing of that Act: And whereas by another Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend and continue, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and nine, so much of an Act of the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty, as allows certain Bounties on British Plantation Raw Sugar exported, so much of the said last recited Act as related to the said Bounties upon Raw Sugars was further continued with certain Alterations until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and nine. And whereas so much of the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year aforesaid, as related to the Bounties upon Raw Sugars, as altered and continued by the said last recited Act, and also the said last recited Act altering and continuing the same, have been by subsequent Acts continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen: and whereas so much of the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year aforesaid, as related to an additional Bounty on Double Refined Sugar; and to extend former Bounties on other Refined Sugar to such as shall be pounded, crushed or broken, was by an Act of the Fifty third Year of His present Majesty continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and it is expedient that the said Bounties should be further continued: Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year aforesaid, as related to the Bounties on Raw Sugars, as altered and continued by the said recited Act, as likewise so much of the said Act of the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty as related to the Bounty on Double Refined Sugar, and to extend former Bounties on other Refined Sugar to such as shall be pounded, crushed or broken, shall be further continued from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

VII. Provided always and be it further enacted, That from and after the Fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the Allowance of the Bounty granted upon the Exports from Great Britain (except to Ireland) of British Plantation Raw Sugar by the said last recited Act of the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall be governed by the Average Prices of Brown or Malabar Sugar, computed and published in the London Gazette, for the Period, at the Times and in the Manner hereinafore directed.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXV.

An Act for purifying Mutiny and Defection; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

[10th December 1813.]

WHEREAS the raising or keeping a Standing Army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Time of Peace, while it be with the Consent of Parliament, is against Law: And whereas it is judged necessary by His Majesty and this present Parliament, that a Body of Forces should be continued for the Safety of the United Kingdom, the Defence of the Possessions of His Majesty's Crowns, and that the whole Number of such Forces should consist of Two hundred and thirty six thousand four hundred and sixty seven effective Officers and Men, exclusive of His Majesty's Footers employed in the Territorial Possessions of the East India Company, and of the Foreign Corps in British Pay: And whereas no Man can be forsworn of Life or Limb, or subjected in Time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment within this Realm by Martial Law or in any other manner than by the Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and established Laws of this Realm; yet nevertheless, it being requisite for the raising all the before mentioned Forces in those Ways, that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Soldiers who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, or shall desert His Majesty's Service, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the usual Forms of the Law will allow: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person who is or shall be commissioned or in Pay as an Officer, or who is or shall be hired or in Pay as a Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, shall at any time during the Continuance of this Act, begin, execute, cause or join in any Mutiny or Sedition in His Majesty's Land or Marine Forces, or shall not use his utmost Endeavours to suppress the same, or coming to the Knowledge of any Mutiny or intended Mutiny, shall not without Delay, give Information thereof to his Commanding Officer, or shall misbehave himself before the Enemy, or shall shamefully shun or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post or Guard committed to his Charge, or which he shall be commanded to defend; or shall counsel the Governor or Commanding Officer of any Garrison, Fortress or Post, to deliver up to the Enemy or to abandon the same; or shall speak Words, or use any other means to induce such Governor or Commanding Officer, or others, to misbehave before the Enemy; or shamefully to abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post or Guard committed to their respective Charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend; or shall leave his Post before ordered; or shall be found sleeping on his Post; or shall hold Correspondence with, or give Advice or Intelligence to any Rebel or Enemy of His Majesty, either by Letters, Messages, Signs or Tokens, in any manner or way whatsoever; or shall treat or enter into any Terms with such Rebel or Enemy, without His Majesty's Licence, or Licence of the General or Chief Commander, or shall refuse or use any Violence against his superior Officer, being in the Execution of his Office; or shall disobey any lawful Command of his superior Officer; or shall desert His Majesty's Service, all and every Person and Persons offending in any of the Matters before mentioned, whether such Offence shall be committed within this Realm, or in any other of His Majesty's Dominions, or in Foreign Parts, upon Land, or upon the Sea, shall suffer Death, or such other Punishment as by a Court Martial shall be awarded.

[Sections 2. to 20. are the same as the 15. Sections of 53 G. 3. c. 17.]

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any General or other Officer commanding any Division, or commanding any Division, Brigade, Detachment or distinct Party belonging to any Army of His Majesty which may at any time be serving in any Place beyond the Seas out of His Majesty's Dominions, upon Complaint made to him of any Crime or Crimes, Offence or Offences done or committed against the Property or Person of any Inhabitant of or resident in any such Countries by any Non-Commissioned Officer, Soldier or other Person, serving with or belonging to His Majesty's Armies in the Field being under the immediate Command of any such General or other Officer, so far as respects and relate to assemble a Court Martial which shall consist of no less than Three Officers at the least for the Purpose of trying any such Person or Persons accused or suspected of having committed any such Crime or Crimes, Offence or Offences as aforesaid, notwithstanding such General or other Officer shall not have received from His Majesty or from any Person having His Majesty's Authority in that behalf any Warrant or Warrants empowering such General or other Officer to summon or assemble Courts Martial, and every such Court Martial shall have Power to try any such Person or Persons as accused or suspected as aforesaid, and to adjudge any such Person or Persons to suffer any such Punishment as shall be prescribed for any Crime or Crimes, Offence or Offences with which any such Person or Persons shall be charged before such Court Martial: Provided always, that no Sentence of any such Court Martial shall be executed until the General commanding in Chief the Army of which the Division, Brigade, Detachment or Party to which any Person is tried, convicted and adjudged to suffer Punishment shall have approved and confirmed the same: Provided also, that every such Court Martial shall have such and the same Powers for summoning and examining Witnesses; and every such Court Martial shall be subject and liable to the same Penalties and Punishments in or as shall be by any Law or Usage in force in relation to any other Court Martial or to any Witnesses examined before any other Court Martial.

[Sections 21. to 25. are the same as 21. to 24. of 53 G. 3. c. 17.]

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier sentenced to Imprisonment by any General or other Court Martial shall forfeit all Right to any Pay from the Day of his Commencement during the time of such Imprisonment; and also, that during the Continuance of any Imprisonment in any Gaol or House of Correction, the Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison or House of Correction in Great Britain,

Britain, and in Ireland the Inspector under whose immediate Inspection such House of Correction, Gaol or Prison shall be, shall receive and apply in the Maintenance of such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier the Sum of Nine pence per Diem out of the Subsidies of such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier during the time that such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier shall continue in Custody, which said Sum the Secretary at War in Great Britain and in Ireland the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor, or in his Absence the Under Secretary for the Military Department, is hereby authorized and required to make to be paid to the said Gaoler or Keeper, or Inspector respectively as aforesaid, upon receiving as Appropriate in Writing signed by any Justice of the Peace for the County or Riding in which such Gaol, Prison or House of Correction shall be locally situate, together with a Copy of the Order under which the said Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier was confined: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Secretary at War, or for such Chief Secretary as aforesaid, or in his Absence for the Under Secretary for the Military Department for the time being, if he should think fit, to order the Issue and Payment of any Arrears of Pay, or of the Burgees of such Pay, or any Portion thereof, or of any Arrears thereof, to or on account of such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier, during or after the Expiration of the Period of his Imprisonment, in any Gaol, House of Correction, or Place of Military Confinement.

[Section 27. is 42. are the same as § 26. to 40. of 53 G. 3. c. 17.]

XLII. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That all Muster Rolls and Pay Lists which are required to be verified upon Oath, shall be taken before and attested by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, who are hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath and stick the same without Payment of any Fee or Reward whatever in respect thereof, either to such Justice or Magistrate or the Clerk of any such Justice or Magistrate.

XLIII. And, for preventing of Fraud and Deceit in the Mustering of Soldiers, he is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person do make or give, or procure to be made or given, any false or untrue Certificate, whereby to excuse any Soldier for his Absence from any Muster, or any other Service which he ought to attend or perform, upon Pretence of such Soldier being employed on some other Duty of the Regiment, or being sick, or in Prison, or on Furlough; then every such Person, so making, giving or procuring such Certificate, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and shall be forthwith captured and displaced from his Office, and shall be thereby utterly disabled to have or hold any Military Office or Employment within such Realm, or in His Majesty's Service; and no Certificate shall excuse the Absence of any Soldier but for the Reasons above mentioned or one of them.

[Section 28. is 43. are the same as § 42. to 44. of 53 G. 3. c. 17.]

XLVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Great Britain the Deputy or Deputies of the Commissary General shall, upon every Half-yearly Muster taken by him or them respectively of any Regiment, Troop or Company, in His Majesty's Service at any Place Ten Miles distant from London, close the Muster Rolls of the said Regiment, Troop or Company, within Twenty four Hours after such Muster shall have been made; and shall return the Rolls so taken by the Post or other safe Conveyance, within Seven Days after their being closed, to the Office of the Commissary General of Musters, who shall, and he is hereby directed and required to transmit One Set of every of the said Rolls to the Secretary at War, One to the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Land Forces, and One to the Comptrollers of the Accounts of the Army, on or before the First Day of May, and Twenty sixth Day of September, respectively following such Half-yearly Muster: And no Alterations or Indorsements shall be made in or upon the said Muster Rolls, other than in the case of Orders of Leave or Dates of Commisssions, and other than voluntary Errors or literal Mistakes in Writing or transcribing the said Muster Rolls, upon Pain of forfeiting their respective Emoluments, and the Sum of Twenty Pounds to any Person that will fail for the same, for every such Offence.

XLVIII. And whereas, by the Statute of Right, in the Third Year of King Charles the First, it is enacted and declared, that the People of the Land are not by the Laws to be hindered with the joininging of Soldiers against their Will; and by a Clause in an Act of the British Parliament, made in the One and twentieth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, for granting a Supply to His Majesty of Two hundred and six thousand four hundred fifty two Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Three pence, for paying and disbursing the Forces, it is declared and enacted, That no Officer, Civil or Military, nor other Person whatsoever, should from thenceforth presume to place, quarter or billet, any Soldier or Soldiers upon any Subject or Inhabitant of this Realm, of any Degree, Quality or Profession whatsoever, without his Consent, and that it shall and may be lawful for any Subject, Sponsor or Inhabitant, to refuse to quarter any Soldier or Soldiers notwithstanding any Demand or Warrant or Billings whatsoever: Yet inasmuch as at this time, and during the Continuance of this Act, there is and may be Occasion for the marching and quartering of Regiments, Troops and Companies, in several Parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, for and during the Continuance of this Act, and so long as it shall and may be lawful to and for the Constables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of Cities, Towns and Villages, and other Places within England, Wales and the Towns of Berwick upon Tweed, and in their Default or Absence, for any One Justice of the Peace inhabiting in or near any such City, Town, Village or Place, and for so others, and such Constables, and other Chief Magistrates as aforesaid, are hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers and Soldiers in His Majesty's Service, and Persons receiving Pay in His Majesty's Army, in Inns, Lodging Houses, Alehouses, Victualling-houses, and the Houses of Sellers of Wine by Retail, whether English or Foreign, to be drunk in their own Houses, or Places thereto belonging; other than and except Customs held and occupied under the Authority of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Berwick, or of the Department of the Ordnance, and other than and except Persons who keep Taverns only, being Foremen of the Company of Watermen of the City of London, who were admitted to the Freedom before the Fifth Day of July One thousand seven hundred and fifty seven, or who have been or shall have been admitted to their Freedom of the said Company, in Right of Patrimony or Apprentice ship, notwithstanding such Persons who keep Taverns only have taken out Withstanding Licences; and all Houses of Persons selling Brandy, Strong Waters, Cyder or Meads &c. by Retail, to be drunk in Houses, other than and except the House or Houses of any Distillers, who keep Houses or Places for distilling Brandy and Strong Waters, and the House of any Shopkeeper whose principal Dealings shall be more in other Goods and Merchandises than in Brandy and Strong Waters (so as such Distillers and Shopkeepers do not permit or suffer Topping in or on their Houses), and in no other, and in no private Houses whatsoever; one Bill or more Bills at any time be ordered than there are effective Soldiers present to be quartered; all which Bills when made out by such Chief Magistrate or Constables, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Commanding Officer present; And if any Constable, Tithingman, or such like Officer or Magistrate, as aforesaid, shall presume to quarter or billet any such Officer or Soldier in any such private House, without the Consent of the Owner or Occupier, in such case such Owner or Occupier shall have his or their Remedy at Law against such Magistrate or Officer, for the Damage that such Owner or Occupier shall sustain thereby; And if any Military Officer shall take upon him to quarter Soldiers otherwise than is limited and allowed by this Act, or shall use or offer any Menace or Compulsion to or upon any Mayor, Constable or other Civil Officers before mentioned, tending to deter and discourage any of them from performing any Part of their Duty lawfully required or appointed; such Military Officer shall, for every such Offence (being thereof convicted before any Two or more of the Justices of the Peace of the County, by the Oath of Two credible Witnesses), be deemed and taken to be ipso facto outlawed, and shall be utterly disabled to here or hold any Military Employment within this Kingdom, or in His Majesty's Service; provided the said Conviction be affirmed at the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the said County, and a Certificate thereof be transmitted to the Judge Advocate in London, who is hereby obliged to certify the same to the Commander in Chief and Secretary at War: And in case any Person shall find himself aggrieved, in that such Constable, Tithingman or Headborough, Chief Officer or Magistrate (such Chief Officer or Magistrate not being a Justice of the Peace), has quartered or billeted in his House a greater Number of Soldiers than he ought to be so quartered to his Neighbours, and shall complain thereof to One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the Division, City or Liberty, where such Soldiers are quartered; or in case such Chief Officer or Magistrate shall be a Justice of the Peace, then, on Complaint made to Two or more Justices of the Peace of such Division, City or Liberty, such Justices respectively shall have, and have hereby Power to relieve such Person, by ordering such and so many of the Soldiers to be removed and quartered upon such other Person or Persons as they shall see Cause; and such other Person or Persons shall be obliged to receive such Soldiers accordingly.

XLIX. And whereas by an Act passed in Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled An Act to prevent the Disorders that may happen by the marching of Soldiers and providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers in their March, it was amongst other things enacted and declared, that no Officer, Soldier or Trooper in the Army, nor the Servant of any Officer, nor any Attendant on the Train of Artillery, nor any Townsman of the Guard of Battle Axes, nor any Officer commanding the said Troops, nor any Servant of any such Officer, should at any time thereafter have, receive or be allowed any Quarters in any Part of Ireland, save only during such time as he or they should be and would in some Sea Port Town in order to be transported, or during such time as there should be any Commission in any Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emergency the Army or any considerable Part thereof should be commanded to march from any Part of Ireland to another, or during such time or times as he or they should be on their March as aforesaid: And whereas the Barracks of Ireland are not at present sufficient to lodge all the Forces upon in Military Establishment: And whereas it may be necessary to station Part of the Troops in Places where there are not Barracks or not sufficient Barracks to hold them: Be it enacted, and it is hereby declared and agreed by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and lawfully notwithstanding the said statute Act, in and for the Constables and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of Cities, Towns, Villages and other Places in Ireland, and in their Default or Absence for any One Justice of the Peace inhabiting in or near any such City, Town, Village or Place, and for no others, and such Constables and other Chief Magistrates as aforesaid, or in their Default, such Justice of Peace as aforesaid, are hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers and Soldiers in His Majesty's Service in Inns, Levee Stables, Ale Houses, and the Houses of Sellers of Wine by Retail, to be drunk in their own Houses or Places thereto belonging, and all Houses of Persons selling Brandy, Strong Waters, Cyder or Meads, by Retail; and where there shall not be found sufficient Rooms in such Houses, then in such manner as him hereunto lawfully authorized, taking even not to bill more than Two Men to any One House, except only in the case of billeting Horse or Dragoons, in manner hereinafter mentioned; nor shall any Billets at any time be ordered far more than the Number of effective Soldiers present to be quartered; all which Billets, when made out by such Chief Magistrate or Constables or Justice of the Peace, as the case may be, shall be delivered into the Hands of the said Chief Officer employed, or of the Commanding Officer present; and if any Constable or such Chief Officer or Magistrate as aforesaid shall presume to quarter or billet any such Officer or Soldier in any House not within the Meaning of this Act, without the Consent of the Owner or Occupier thereof; then such Owner or Occupier shall have his or their Remedy at Law against such Magistrate or Officer for the Damage that such Owner or Occupier shall sustain thereby, and such Constable, Chief Officer or Magistrate, being duly convicted of such Offence by Indictment, shall be imprisoned for the Space of One Calendar Month; and if any Military Officer shall take upon him to quarter Soldiers otherwise than is limited and allowed by this Act, or shall use or offer any Menace or Compulsion to or upon any Mayor, Constable or other Chief Officer before mentioned, tending to deter or discourage any of them from performing any Part of their Duty hereby required, or appointing or permitting any of them to do any thing contrary to their said Duty, such Military Officer shall, for every such Offence, be liable to be convicted before any Two or more Justices of the Peace of the County, by the Order of the Justices of the Peace, if proved and taken to be his fault, and shall be wholly disabled to have or receive any Military Employment whatsoever: Provided the said Commissions be affirmed at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County, or County of a City or Town, and Certificate thereof transmitted to the Secretary at War; and in case any Person shall find himself aggrieved by that such Constable, Chief Officer or Magistrate not being a Justice of the Peace, has quartered or billeted in his House a greater Number of Soldiers than he ought to have in proportion to his Neighbourhood, and shall complain thereof to One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the Division, City or Liberty, where such Soldiers are quartered, or to such such Chief Officer or Magistrate shall be a Justice of the Peace, then as Complaint made to Two or more Justices of the Peace of such Division, City or Liberty, such Justice or Justices respectively shall have, and have hereby Power to remove such Persons by ordering such and so many of the Soldiers to be removed and quartered upon such other Person or Persons as he or they shall for cause, and such other Person or Persons shall be obliged to receive such Soldiers accordingly.

LVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Officers, Men and Horses, belonging to His Majesty's Horse or Dragoons, and also all Bat and Baggage Horses belonging to any of His Majesty's other Forces, and also the Horses belonging to Staff and Field Officers in His Majesty's Forces when upon actual Service, not exceeding for each Officer the Number for which Forage is or shall be allowed by His Majesty's Regulations, shall and may be quartered and billeted in the Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling Houses, and other Houses in which Officers and Soldiers are by this Act allowed to be quartered and billeted, and that they shall be received and furnished by the Owners or Occupiers of such Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling Houses, and other Houses in which they are so allowed to be quartered and billeted, with Diet and Small Beer, and with Stables, and Hay and Straw for such Horses, paying and allowing for the same the several Rates that are or shall be established by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in that respect.

[Sections 57. to 60. are the same as § 55. to 58. of 53 G. 3. c. 17.]

LXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any High Constable, Constable, Beadle or other Officer or Person whatsoever, who, by virtue or colour of this Act, shall quarter or billet, or be employed in quartering or billeting any Officers or Soldiers, shall neglect or refuse to quarter or billet any Officer or Soldier on Duty when thereunto required, in such manner as is by this Act directed, provided sufficient Notice be given before the Arrival of such Troops; or shall receive, demand, contract or agree for any Sum or Sums of Money, or any Reward whatsoever, for or on account of receiving, or in order to execute any Person or Persons whatsoever, from quartering or receiving into his, her or their House or Houses, any such Officer or Soldier; or in case any Victualler, or any other Person liable by this Act to have any Officer or Soldier billeted or quartered on him or her, shall refuse to receive or admit any such Officer or Soldier so quartered or billeted upon him or her as aforesaid; or shall refuse to furnish or allow according to the Direction of this Act the several Things hereinafter respectively directed to be furnished or allowed in Non Commissioned Officers or Soldiers so quartered or billeted on him or her as aforesaid; or shall neglect or refuse to furnish good and sufficient Stables, together with good and sufficient Hay and Straw for each Horse so quartered or billeted on him or her as aforesaid, at the Rate that is or shall be established by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in that respect, and shall be thereof convicted before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, City or Liberty, within which such Officer shall be committed, either by his own Confession or by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses (which Oath the said Magistrate or Justices) and are hereby empowered to administer), every such High Constable, Constable, Beadle or other Officer or Person so offending, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds, or any Sum of Money not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Twenty Shillings (as the said Justice or Justices before whom the Matter shall be heard shall see fit or their Discretion shall think fit) to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Person offending, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals of such Justice or Justices before whom such Offender shall be convicted, or of One or more of them, to be directed to any such Constable within the County, City or Liberty, or to any of the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish where the Offender shall dwell; which said Sum of Five Pounds, or the said Sum not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Twenty Shillings, when levied, shall be applied in the first Place in making such Satisfaction to any Soldier for the Expense he may have been put to by reason of his not being billeted or quartered as aforesaid, as such Justice or Justices shall order and direct; and the Remainder shall be paid to the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish if in England, and to the Churchwardens of the Parish if in Ireland, wherein the Offence shall be committed, or to some One of them, for the Use of the Poor of the said Parish.

[Sections 62. and 63. are the same as § 60. and 61. of 53 G. 3. c. 17.]

LXIV. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted, That the Officers and Soldiers so quartered and billeted as aforesaid, shall be received and furnished with Diet and Small Beer by the Owners of the Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling Houses, and other Houses in which they are allowed to be quartered and billeted by this Act; paying and allowing for the same the several Rates that are or shall be established by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in that respect. [Recs. Sect. c. 55. pass]

LXV. Provided always, That in case any Innholder, or other Person on whom any Non Commissioned Officers and Private Men shall be quartered by virtue of this Act (except on a March or employed in recruiting, recruiting, and likewise except the Recruits by their refusal, for the Space of Seven Days at most for such Non-Commission Officers and Soldiers who are recruiting and the Recruits by them refused, shall be answerable to furnish such Non-Commission Officers and Soldiers with Candles, Vinegar and Salt gratis, and allow to such Non-Commission Officers or Soldiers the Use of Fire, and the necessary Utensils for dressing and curing their Meat, and shall give Notice of such his Deed to the Commanding Officer, and shall furnish and allow the same accordingly; then and in each case the Non-Commission Officers and Soldiers so quartered shall provide their own Victuals and Small Beer; and the Officer to whom it belongs to receive, or that does actually receive the Pay and Subsistence of such Non-Commission Officers and Soldiers, shall pay the General Sum to be payable out of the Subsistence Money for Diet and Small Beer to the Non-Commission Officers and Soldiers as aforesaid, and out to the Inhabitant or other Person on whom such Non-Commission Officers and Soldiers are quartered; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXVI. And, that the Quarters both of Officers and Soldiers may lawfully be duly paid and satisfied, and His Majesty's Duties of Excise better answered, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, every Officer to whom it belongs to receive, or that does actually receive the Pay or Subsistence Money, either for a whole Regiment, or particular Troops and Companies, or otherwise, shall, every Four Days, or before the Troops shall quit their Quarters if they shall not remain so long as four Days, settle the just Demands of all Persons keeping Inns, or other Places where Officers or Soldiers are quartered by virtue of this Act, out of the Pay and Subsistence of such Officers and Soldiers, before any Part of the said Pay or Subsistence be delivered to either of them respectively: And if any Officer or Officers as aforesaid shall not satisfy, contest and pay the same, upon Complaint and Oath made thereof by any Two Justices, at the next Quarter Sessions for the County or City where such Quarters were (which Oath the Justices of the Peace at such Sessions are hereby authorized and required to administer), the Secretary at War in England, and the Chief Secretary, or in his Absence the Under Secretary for the Military Department in Ireland, is hereby required and authorized (upon Certificate of the said Justices before whom such Oath was made, of the Sum due upon such Accounts, and the Persons to whom the same is owing), to give Orders to the Agent of the Troop or Company to pay and satisfy the said Sum, and to charge the same against such Officers.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Troop or Company being suddenly ordered to march, and that the respective Commanding Officers are not enabled to make Payment of the bounties due for the Lodgings for the Men, and Stabling for the Horses, every such Officer shall before his Departure make up the Account with every Person with whom such Troop or Company may have been quartered, and sign a Certificate thereof, which Account and Certificate shall be transmitted to the Agent of the Regiment, that immediate Payment may be made, which he is hereby required to make accordingly, and to charge the same to the Account of such Officers.

[Section 68. as to go. are the same as § 66. to 88. of 53 G. 3. c. 17.]

XCI. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall enlist into His Majesty's Forces, and who shall be discovered to be incapable of active Service by reason of any Infirmary which shall have been concealed by such Person, or not declared before the Justice of the Peace at the time of his [Enlistment], and mentioned in the Oath thereof, may be transferred into any Garrison or Fortress or Invalid Battalion, or into His Majesty's Marine Forces, notwithstanding he shall have enlisted for any particular Regiment, and shall be entitled to receive such Provision or Relief of His Majesty only as shall be allowed by His Majesty by any Regulation made in that behalf, he has and instead of the Bounty upon which such Man shall have been enlisted; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Rules and Regulations relating to Soldiers, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XCIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace or Magistrates before whom any Person shall be brought who has enlisted, and who shall be proved upon Oath before them and convicted of having wilfully concealed any such Infirmary upon being enlisted, or of having knowingly, wilfully and deliberately made any such false Representation as aforesaid, to adjudge such Person to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and such Person shall thereupon be subject to such Punishment as by and under any Statutes or Laws now in force may be inflicted upon Rogues, Vagabonds and Vagrants and incorrigible Rogues, to be adjudged by the Justices of the Peace or Magistrates in convicting any such Person as aforesaid.

XCIV. And whereas various Persons are in the habit of advertising for Recruits for Regiments of the Line, the Militia, or for the Service of the Honourable The East India Company, and also under the Pretence of procuring Substitutes for the same, to the great Detriment of the Service: Be it therefore further enacted, That all Persons whatsoever who shall after the passing of this Act advertise, post or disseminate, or cause to be advertised, posted or advertised, Bills for the Purpose of procuring Recruits or Substitutes, or shall open or keep any Heads or Places of Rendezvous purporting in any manner whatever to be connected with the Recruiting Service or Department for the Line, Militia or East India Company, or shall interfere or be concerned directly or indirectly in any manner or way therewith (except such recruiting Parties as may be sanctioned under the Command and Direction of the respective Field Officers of Infantry, without the express Permission in Writing of the Adjutant General, if for the Line or Militia, or of the Court of Directors, if for the Honourable East India Company's Service), or shall receive any Person or Persons as aforesaid at his House or Office under any such Bill or Advertisement as aforesaid, or shall receive the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Offence; to be recovered on Conviction before a Magistrate, One Moiety to the Informer and the other to the Poor of the Parish where such Information shall

XII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Debtor and Debtors confined in any Gaol of that Part of the United Kingdom called England, who shall intend to apply to be discharged and exonerated under this Act, shall first cause public Notice to be inserted in Three several London Gazettes, previous to such General or Quarter Sessions or General Sessions of the Peace or Adjournment thereof, at which such Application shall be made; and if such Debtor shall be in Custody in any such Gaol, out of London, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or shall have been moved by Helms Carper from one Gaol to another, then also in some Newspaper which shall be published in or near the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty

Liberty or Place, is the Goal whereof he or she shall be or have been so in Custody, containing the Name, Trade, Occupation and Description, and the Two last Places of Abode (if so many) of every such Debtor and Debtors, and the Prison whither he, she or they or she confined, and of his, her or their Intention to take the Benefit of this Act, and mentioning such Notice in such Gazette or Newspapers respectively, to be the First, Second or Third Notice, according to the time of publishing each of such Notices; and for the inferring each of the said Notices in the London Gazette or in any other Newspapers, there shall be paid each time by every Prisoner the Sum of Four pence and no more; the First of which said Notices shall be so inserted in the said Gazette respectively and in the said other Newspapers, as the case may require, Twenty next Days at the least, and the last of the said Notices Six Days at the least before any such First or Second General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions, or Adjournment thereof, shall be held as aforesaid, so that as well all the Creditors who have not charged the said Debtor or Debtors in Custody, as those Creditors who have charged such Debtor or Debtors in Execution, or on Mortgage Process or otherwise, may have sufficient Notice thereof.

XIII. And, to the Intent that all Creditors may have full and sufficient time to consider the Matters and Things contained in the Schedule or Schedules intended to be addressed to by any Debtor or Debtors, he it further enacted, That every such Debtor, where he or she shall, according to the Direction of this Act, publish the First Notice of an Intention to take the Benefit of this Act, be or she shall in such Notice declare that the Schedule containing his or her intended Discovery of his or her Real and Personal Estate, to be sworn to in manner as by this Act is directed, is lodged in the Hands of the Keeper or Gaoler, or the Deputy of such Keeper or Gaoler of the Prison whither any such Debtor shall be confined; and every such Debtor is hereby directed and required to deliver such Schedule to such Keeper, or Gaoler, or Deputy, as the case may be, before he shall publish such First Notice as aforesaid, signed with his or her own Christian Name and Surname, to be attested by any such Keeper, Gaoler or Deputy; and in case any Debtor shall neglect or refuse to deliver such Schedule to such Keeper, Gaoler or Deputy, prior to such his First Notice to be given as aforesaid, or be or she upon due Proof made of such Neglect or Refusal, to the Satisfaction of the Court to which such Debtor shall make Application, shall be remanded back to Prison, there to remain until he or she shall have complied with the Direction aforesaid; and every such Keeper, Gaoler or Deputy, is hereby directed and required to attest the Signature of the Debtor's Name to such Schedule, and to enclose the same into his Custody and Charge, giving a Duplicate thereof to every such Debtor, with an Acknowledgment of his having received the Original; and he is hereby further required to deliver a true Copy of any such Schedule, signed by himself, upon Request made to him by any Creditor for that Purpose in Writing, such Copy to be delivered to the Creditor himself, or to such Person as he shall appoint to receive the same, within Thirty Days after Demand made; and if any such Keeper, Gaoler or Deputy shall neglect or refuse to conform to the Direction hereby given him respecting such Schedule, every such Keeper, Gaoler or Deputy so offending shall be liable to a Penalty of Ten Pounds, to be recovered by an Action of Debt in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, at the Suit of any Person who shall be aggrieved by such Neglect or Refusal.

XIV. And he it further enacted, That the Notice to be given by every Debtor, in manner directed by this Act, shall be in the Effect following; that is to say,

"I, [insert the Name, Trade, Occupation and Description, and the Two last Places of Abode, if so many] now confined in [insert the Name of the Prison and County] and being charged in Custody on the Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, do hereby give this [First, Second or Third] public Notice, that I intend to take the Benefit of an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled [say for forth the Title of this Act, and if it be the First Notice then add] And I do hereby give Notice, that a true and perfect Schedule, containing a Discovery of all my Real and Personal Estate, hereunto to be sworn to, is now ready to be delivered to any Creditor applying for the same to the Keeper or Gaoler of his Prison.

And every such Notice shall be signed by the Debtor, and countersigned by the Keeper or Gaoler, or Deputy of such Keeper or Gaoler of such Prison.

XV. And he it further enacted, That every such Debtor as aforesaid, being charged as aforesaid, on the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, who shall apply to the General or Quarter Sessions, or any Adjournment thereof, in case it shall be proved upon Oath, or by producing the said Three Gazettes and Newspapers respectively before mentioned to the said Justices at any such Sessions or Adjournment thereof, that such Notices were inserted in the London Gazette and other Newspapers respectively, as now required in manner aforesaid; and that the Prison or Prisons to which he or she was or were actually a Prisoner or Prisoners on the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, is the Prison or Goal in which he, she or their Name or Names as or are specified in a List delivered to an such First or Second Sessions, or any Adjournment thereof, or is same with a Prison or Goal as aforesaid, in pursuance of this Act, shall in open Court at the said General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions, or any Adjournment thereof, subscribe or deliver a true Schedule or Account of all his or her or her Real Estate in Possession, Reversion, Remainder or Expectancy, and of any other Nature and Kind whatsoever, and also the Whole of his or her Personal Estate which he or she, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him or her, or for his or her Use, Benefit or Advantage, is or are indebted to, or are entitled to, or was or were in his, her or their Possession, Custody or Power, or which he, she or they, or such Person or Persons had any Power of disposing of, or charging for his, her or their Benefit or Advantage, at any time since he or her Commitment to Prison, with the Name of his or her several Debtors, and where they respectively live or any

by Debtors.

And before each Oath shall be taken by every Debtor, the said Justices shall examine, upon Oath, each Debtor, touching the several Matters contained therein, as they shall think fit; and if such Debtor shall, upon such Examination, make Answer to the Satisfaction of the said Justices, then the said Schedule and Oath shall be by such Debtor subscribed in the Presence of the Justices in open Session of the Peace as hereby directed, and shall be kept by and remain with the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace for the County, City, Liberty, Town or Place, where the same shall be subscribed and taken, for the better Information of all the Creditors of such Debtors who shall desire or may have Occasion to resort thereto; and every such Creditor shall be at Liberty, at reasonable times in the Day-time, to peruse and examine the same.

Covert, or Confession, may be made before an Oath.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace within their respective Jurisdictions at any such General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions, or Adjournment thereof, either at the Request or without the Request of any Creditor or Creditors of any such Debtor, are hereby authorized to cause the Deputy Warden and Marshal of the Fleet and King's Bench Prison, or any other Under Officer, Turnkey and Turnkey of any Prison or Gaol, or any other Person within their respective Jurisdictions, to come before them, and to examine them respectively on Oath touching any of the Matters contained in any of the Oaths prescribed by this Act to be taken, and the Truth thereof, either before or after such Oath shall have been taken; and if the Oath which shall have been taken in open Court by any Debtor or Debtors shall not be supported by good Testimony of any credible Person or Persons on Oath, and such Justices, or the major Part of them present at any such General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions, or any Adjournment thereof, shall be satisfied with the Truth of the Oath taken by such respective Debtors, then such Justices shall, in such Sessions or some Adjournment thereof, adjudge such Debtor or Debtors to be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, and shall order the said Sheriff or Sheriffs, Keeper or Keepers, Gaoler or Gaolers of such Prison or Prisons, forthwith to set at Liberty such Prisoner or Prisoners; and every such Order shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Sheriff or Sheriffs, Keeper or Keepers, Gaoler or Gaolers, of such Prison or Prisons, and shall indemnify him or them against any Escape or Escapes, Abuses or Abuses whatsoever for Escape, which shall or may be brought, commenced or prosecuted against him or them.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Estate, Right, Title, Interest and Trust of such Debtor or Debtors, and unto all the Real Estate as well Freehold and Copyhold as Customary, and to all the Personal Estate, Debts and Effects of every such Debtor, shall immediately after such Adjournment be, and the same is hereby vested in the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace of and for the County, Riding, City, Town Corporate, Division, Liberty or Place where any Debtor shall be respectively discharged; and every such Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, is hereby directed and required to make an Assignment and Conveyance of every such Debtor's Estate and Effects, vested in such Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, to such Creditor or Creditors of the said Debtor, as the Justices at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or at any Adjournment thereof, which shall be held by them within their respective Jurisdictions, shall order and direct; which Assignment and Conveyance shall be good and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, without being written on Parchment or Paper stamped, to wit the Estates thereby assigned and conveyed in the Party or Parties to whom the same shall be so assigned and conveyed, viz. her and their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, according to the Estate and Intents which the Debtor had therein; and every such Assignment and Conveyance shall be in Trust for the Benefit of the Creditor or Creditors of every such Debtor to whom the same shall be made, and the rest of the Creditors of every such Debtor in respect of or in Proportion to their respective Debts; and every Person or Persons to whom any such Assignment and Conveyance is aforesaid shall be made, in and are hereby fully empowered to sue from time to time as there may be Occasion, in his, her or their own Name or Names for the Recovery and obtaining any Estate or Effects of any such Debtor, and also to execute any Trust or Power vested in or created for the Use or Benefit of any such Debtor, but in Trust for the Benefit of him or them and the rest of the Creditors of every such Debtor, and to give such Discharge and Discharges to any Person or Persons who shall respectively be indebted to such Debtor as may be requisite; and every such Assignor or Assignors shall with all convenient Speed after his or their accepting such Assignment or Conveyance, use his and their best Endeavours to recover and get in the Estate and Effects of every such Debtor, and shall, with all convenient Speed, make Sale of all the Estates of such Debtor vested in such Assignor or Assignors; and if such Debtor shall be committed to or confined in any Real Estate, either in Possession, Reversion or Expectancy, the time within the Space of Two Months after such Assignment and Conveyance shall be held by Public Auction, in such manner and at such Place as the major Part of the Creditors of any such Debtor, who shall all sit together as by any Notice in Writing published in the London Gazette or in some Daily Paper printed and published in London, if the Debtor before his or her going to Prison resided in London or within the Bills of Mortality, and if elsewhere, then in some printed Newspaper which shall be published in or near the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty or Place in which such Debtor resided before he or she was committed to Prison, Thirty Days before any such Sale shall be made, shall under his Hand or their Hands agree on, and every such Assignor or Assignors, at the End of Three Months at the furthest from the time of his or their accepting any such Assignment or Conveyance as aforesaid, shall make a fair and just Dividend of all such Debtor's Estate and Effects which shall have been then recovered amongst his or her Creditors, in proportion and in regard to each Creditor's respective debt; but before any such Dividend shall be made, such Assignor or Assignors shall make up an Account of such Debtor's Estate, and make Oath in Writing before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding or Division, Town, Liberty or Place in which any such Debtor shall have been discharged, that every such Account contains a true and just Account of the Estate and Effects of every such Debtor got in by or for such Assignor or Assignors, and of all Payments made in respect thereof, and that all Payments in every such Account charged were truly and lawfully made and paid; and Notice of the making of every such Dividend shall be published in like manner as a Meeting of the Creditors is heretofore directed to be published, Thirty Days at least before the same shall be made; and no Creditor shall be allowed to receive any Share of such Dividend, until he shall have made out the Justness and Identity of his Debt, by Oath, or due Proof in Writing before some such Justice or Justices; and if any Creditor of such Debtor shall be dissatisfied with the Reality or Fairness of any Debt claimed by any other Creditor, then the same, at the Request of any such Creditor or Creditors so dissatisfied, shall be examined into by the Justices of the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty or Place in which such Debtor shall have been adjudged to have been entitled to the Benefit of this Act, at the next General or Quarter Sessions, or at some Adjournment thereof.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Assignor or Assignors of the Estate and Effects of any Prisoner discharged by virtue of this Act, or the Heirs, Executors or Administrators of any deceased Assignor or Assignors, shall not deliver over any Part of such Estate or Effects, or pay the Balance of the Proceeds of any such Estate or Effects, found to be in the Hands of such Assignor or Assignors, or of such Heirs, Executors or Administrators as aforesaid, according to the Tenor of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Court before which the Prisoner was discharged, to order the Person or Persons so offending to be arrested and committed to the next County Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until such Person or Persons shall have fulfilled the Duty required by the said Act, or until such Court shall make other Order to the contrary.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all and every Creditor and Creditors of any Debtor who shall be discharged by virtue of this Act, for any Sum or Sums of Money payable by way of Annuity or otherwise at any future time or times, by virtue of any Bond, Covenant or other Securities of any Nature whatsoever, may be and shall be entitled to be admitted a Creditor or Creditors, and shall be entitled to receive a Dividend or Dividends of the Estate of such Debtor, in such manner and upon such Terms and Conditions as such Creditor or Creditors would have been entitled unto by the Laws now in force if such Debtor had become Bankrupt, and without Prejudice to future to their respective Securities, otherwise than as the same would have been affected by a Proof made in respect thereof by the Creditor under a Commission of Bankruptcy and a Certificate obtained by the Bankrupt under such Commissions.

XX. And, to the Intent that no Loss may arise to any Creditor or Creditors from any Neglect or Omission in the Schedule not containing the Whole of the Estate Real or Personal, belonging to any Debtor who shall apply for his or her Discharge under the Authority of this Act, be it enacted, That all the Estate, whether Creditors.

XXIII. Provided further, and be it also enacted, That no Suit in Law or Equity shall be commenced by any Assignee or Assigns of any such Debtor's Estate and Effects without the Consent of the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Debtor, who shall meet together pursuant to a Notice to be given at least Ten Days before such Meeting in the London Gazette or other Newspaper which shall be published in the Neighborhood of the last Residence of such Debtor or Debtors for that Purpose.

Mortgages to take place of Debts of an inferior Nature.

XXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to hinder or prevent any Mortgage or Mortgages, Charges or Liens upon the Estate of such Debtor or Debtors, or any Part thereof, to take place upon the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments or Personal Estate or Effects comprised in or charged or affected by such Mortgage or Mortgages, Charges or Liens respectively, nor to prevent any Statute Staple, Statute Merchant, Recognizance or Judgment, acknowledged by or shewn against any such Debtor or Debtors, to take place upon the Lands, Tenements or Real Estates of such Debtor or Debtors; and also, where any liquidation shall have been taken upon any such Statute or Recognizance, every Writ or Execution shall have been taken out and delivered to the Sheriff or proper Officer upon any such Judgment before such Discharge shall be given in open Session to any such Debtor as aforesaid, the Personal Estate of any such Debtor respectively shall be sold in the first place for so much as shall remain due upon such Mortgage, Charge, Lien, Statute, Recognizance or Judgment respectively, in like manner as such Mortgages and Persons having such Charges or Liens, and Creditors by Statute, Recognizance or Judgment respectively would have been preferred to other Creditors of an inferior Nature, against the Real or Personal Estate of such Debtor or Debtors respectively, if this Act had not been made; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

shall be hereby required to be delivered in, then the Justices at any such Sessions or at any Adjourned Sessions may and are hereby required to advertise to the respective Justices or Persons who shall be Keeper or Gaoler of any such Prison or Gaol, or deputed Keeper thereof, and deliver in such List as aforesaid at any such General or Quarter Sessions or Adjourned Sessions, as Oath touching the Commitments or Books of Commitment of any such Prison or Gaol, to the Effect following; that is to say, on 6th Nov. 1813, he took this following Oath.

do swear, That I have examined the Commitments or Books of or concerning the Commitments of Prisoners to the Prison of [in the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Place or Liberty,] and that I do verily believe that the said Commitments or Books of Commitment are truly true and not fictitious, nor calculated for this Purpose; and by these it doth appear, that was on the Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen really and truly a Prisoner in the actual Custody of the then Keeper or Gaoler, or Deputy Keeper or Gaoler of the said Prison or Gaol [or other Prison as the case may be] without Fraud or Deceit by me or any other Person or Persons, to my Knowledge or Belief.
 So help me GOD."

Oath.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Debtor as aforesaid, who shall come or be brought up to such General or Quarter Sessions, or Adjourned thereof, under the Provisions of this Act, shall wilfully forswear and perjure himself, himself or themselves, in any Oath as be taken under this Act, and shall be lawfully convicted thereof, he, she or they offending shall suffer such Punishment as by Law may be inflicted on Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Debtors falsely swearing shall suffer the usual Punishment.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person entitled to the Benefit of this Act shall at any time hereafter be imprisoned by reason of any Judgment or Decree obtained for Payment of Money only, or for any Debt, Bond, Damages, Costs, or for Non payment of Money, Costs, Sum or Sums of Money contracted, incurred, occasioned, owing or growing due before the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, but that upon every Arrest upon every Judgment or such Decree, or for such Debts, Damages, Costs, Sums and Sums of Money, it shall and may be lawful for any Judge of the Court where the Process issued, or for any Two Justices of the Peace, upon showing the Copy of the Order of Adjudication as aforesaid, to release and discharge out of Custody such Prisoners as aforesaid, and at the same time to order the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Suit or Suits to pay such Prisoner or Prisoners the Costs which he, she or they shall have incurred on such Quodam, or so much thereof as to such Judge or Justices shall seem just and reasonable; and every such Judge is hereby empowered so to do on such Prisoner's causing a Common Appearance to be entered for him on every such Action or Suit.

Debtors discharged upon the 6th Nov. 1813, are imprisoned for Debts prior to 6th Nov. 1813.

XXIX. And whereas under former Acts of this kind, Debtors have striven what was to be done with such Prisoners who applied at any Session to be discharged, who owed and stood charged with Debts as well previous as subsequent to the Day limited by the respective Acts: To remedy which, be it therefore enacted, That no Prisoner or Prisoners shall be discharged of any Debts incurred subsequent to the Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and if it shall appear to the Justices at any Session or Adjournment, that any Prisoner or Prisoners then applying to them to be discharged shall stand charged as well with Debts previous to as subsequent to the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, that in such cases it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices to discharge the Prisoner or such Prisoner on account of all Debts which shall appear to their Satisfaction, by the Oath of such Prisoner not being disproved (or otherwise), to have been incurred previous to the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and to commit him or her back to the Custody of the Keeper of the Prison from whence he or she was brought, for all Debts which he or she stands charged with in his Custody, which shall appear to the Justices to have been incurred subsequent to the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and their Order for such Discharge shall inductively the Sheriff or Sheriffess, Keeper or Keepers, Gaoler or Gaolers, against any Escape or Escape, Action or Actions whatsoever for Escape, which shall or may be brought, commenced or prosecuted against him or them; any thing to the contrary hereunto notwithstanding.

Prisoners not discharged of Debts subsequent to 6th Nov. 1813.

Sheriff indemnified.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That in any Action of Escape, or any Suit or Action to be brought against any Justice or Justices of the Peace, Sheriff, Keeper or Gaoler of any Prison, for performing their Office in pursuance of this Act, they may plead the General Issue, and give the Act in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff be acquitted or discontinues his Action, or Verdict pass against him, or Judgment upon Demurrer, the Defendant shall have Treble Costs.

due before the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, without pleading any other Matter specially, whereat the Plaintiff shall or may reply generally, and deny the Matters pleaded as aforesaid, or reply any other Matter or Thing which may show the said Defendant not to be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, or not duly discharged according to it, in the same manner as the Plaintiff might have replied in case the Defendant had pleaded this Act, and his Discharge by virtue of this Act specially; and if the Plaintiff be acquitted, discharge his Action, or Verdict pass against him, or Judgment on Demurrer; the Defendant to have Twelve Cents.

XXXII. And to be further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person being a Prisoner charged in Execution on the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and having before or since that Day petitioned any Court to be discharged as an Insolvent Debtor, and having conformably to the several Provisions of the Laws in being for that Purpose, shall have been brought up, and by the Court remanded back to the Prison or Goal from which such Prisoner was brought up, there to continue in Execution, on the Undertaking of his or her Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to pay to him such weekly or other Allowance as by Law is directed to be paid to such debtors during such time as such Prisoner shall remain in Execution at the Rate of such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and such Prisoner so continued in Execution shall have born or shall be discharged from such Execution he has or her Plaintiff or Plaintiffs without his or her own Privilege or Consent subsequent to the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and before the Day where he or she again otherwise was applied to take the Benefit of this Act, every such Prisoner shall be released, notwithstanding such Discharge, to the same Relief and Advantage to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever which he or she might or could have otherwise obtained by virtue of this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to release or discharge any Attorney at Law, Solicitor, or any other Person or Persons acting or pretending to act as such, with regard to any Debt with which he or they shall have charged, for any Money or other Effects recovered or received by him or them for the Use of any Person or Persons, Bodies Corporate or Public, and by any Attorney, Solicitor, or any other Person or Persons acting as such, embezzled, concealed or converted to his or their own Use; or to release or discharge any Servant, or any other Person or Persons employed or entrusted as such, with regard to any Debt or Demand with which he, she or they shall have charged, for or on account of any Money, Goods or other Effects received or possessed by him, her or them, for the Use and on Account of his, her or their Master or Masters or Employers, and by such Servant or such other Person or Persons aforesaid, embezzled, concealed or converted to his, her or their own Use; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding; except where such Persons shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Ten Years last past: Provided, that nothing in this Act contained extend or be construed to extend to release any Sheriff's Officer, or Sergeant at Mace of the City of London, or to release any other Person employed by any Sheriff, Bailiff, Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison, with regard to any Debt or Demand for or on account of any Money, Goods or other Effects, received or possessed by any such Sheriff's Officer, Sergeant at Mace, or other Person as aforesaid, for the Use or on the Account of his, her or their Employer, and by such Sheriff's Officer, Sergeant at Mace, or other Person as aforesaid, embezzled, concealed or converted to his, her or their own Use.

XXXIV. And whereas many evil disposed Persons, to support their profligate Way of Life by various & subtle Stratagems, Tricks and Devices, and under assumed and fictitious Name or Names for the Purpose of obtaining Credit, have fraudulently obtained great Sums of Money, or Securities for Money, Goods and Merchandise, to the great Injury of Trade and Credit: Be it enacted, That no Prisoner, who knowingly and deliberately, by false Pretences or Pretences, or under any fictitious Name or Names assumed for the Purpose of obtaining Credit, shall have obtained from any Person or Persons Money, Goods, Wares, Merchandise, Bond, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, or other Securities for Money, shall have or receive any Benefit or Discharge by or under this Act; but on due Proof of such fraudulent Conduct as aforesaid, the Justice shall remove such Prisoner to the Custody of the Gaoler or Keeper of the Prison from which he or she shall have been brought up to take the Benefit of this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; except where such Person shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Ten Years last past.

XXXV. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That the Truth of each of the Objections and Exceptions aforesaid against the obtaining the Benefit of this Act, shall be proved by the Testimony upon Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, or other legal Proof or Evidence admissible in a Court of Law: Provided always, that no Prisoner, who shall have been remanded to Prison under any Act heretofore passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, for having fraudulently obtained Money, Goods or Securities for Money on false Pretences, or for having secretly or fraudulently removed Stock, Cattle or other Effects, which were subject or liable to be demanded for Rent, or who shall have lost or forfeited the Benefit of any such former Act, by having made any fraudulent Sale, Transfer, Conveyance or Assignment, since his or her Imprisonment, to the Prejudice of his Creditor or Creditors, or who shall have fraudulently obtained a Discharge under such former Act, or shall have taken a false Oath under such Act, shall have or receive any Benefit or Discharge under this Act, but shall be remanded to Prison as aforesaid by the Justice before where he or she shall be brought up to take the Benefit of this Act: Provided always, that such Objections or Exceptions were supported by such Proof or Evidence as is heretofore provided and directed to be made under this present Act, and not otherwise; and that no Person shall be permitted to make the Objections in this Act mentioned against any Prisoner, except a detaining Creditor, or such Person or Persons as have commenced their Action or Actions against such Prisoner previous to the Sixth Day of November last past provided on the Matters in the said Exceptions mentioned: Provided also, that no Person charged in Execution for Debts not recovered

Twelve Cents.

Plaintiff shall or may reply generally, and deny the Matters pleaded as aforesaid, or reply any other Matter or Thing which may show the said Defendant not to be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, or not duly discharged according to it, in the same manner as the Plaintiff might have replied in case the Defendant had pleaded this Act, and his Discharge by virtue of this Act specially; and if the Plaintiff be acquitted, discharge his Action, or Verdict pass against him, or Judgment on Demurrer; the Defendant to have Twelve Cents.

Attorney at Law, Solicitor, or any other Person or Persons acting or pretending to act as such, with regard to any Debt with which he or they shall have charged, for any Money or other Effects recovered or received by him or them for the Use of any Person or Persons, Bodies Corporate or Public, and by any Attorney, Solicitor, or any other Person or Persons acting as such, embezzled, concealed or converted to his or their own Use; or to release or discharge any Servant, or any other Person or Persons employed or entrusted as such, with regard to any Debt or Demand with which he, she or they shall have charged, for or on account of any Money, Goods or other Effects received or possessed by him, her or them, for the Use and on Account of his, her or their Master or Masters or Employers, and by such Servant or such other Person or Persons aforesaid, embezzled, concealed or converted to his, her or their own Use; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding; except where such Persons shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Ten Years last past: Provided, that nothing in this Act contained extend or be construed to extend to release any Sheriff's Officer, or Sergeant at Mace of the City of London, or to release any other Person employed by any Sheriff, Bailiff, Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison, with regard to any Debt or Demand for or on account of any Money, Goods or other Effects, received or possessed by any such Sheriff's Officer, Sergeant at Mace, or other Person as aforesaid, for the Use or on the Account of his, her or their Employer, and by such Sheriff's Officer, Sergeant at Mace, or other Person as aforesaid, embezzled, concealed or converted to his, her or their own Use.

any Person who knowingly and deliberately, by false Pretences or Pretences, or under any fictitious Name or Names assumed for the Purpose of obtaining Credit, shall have obtained from any Person or Persons Money, Goods, Wares, Merchandise, Bond, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, or other Securities for Money, shall have or receive any Benefit or Discharge by or under this Act; but on due Proof of such fraudulent Conduct as aforesaid, the Justice shall remove such Prisoner to the Custody of the Gaoler or Keeper of the Prison from which he or she shall have been brought up to take the Benefit of this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; except where such Person shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Ten Years last past.

Not to Prisoner who has been remanded to Prison under any former Act, for having fraudulently obtained Money, Goods or Securities for Money on false Pretences, or for having secretly or fraudulently removed Stock, Cattle or other Effects, which were subject or liable to be demanded for Rent, or who shall have lost or forfeited the Benefit of any such former Act, by having made any fraudulent Sale, Transfer, Conveyance or Assignment, since his or her Imprisonment, to the Prejudice of his Creditor or Creditors, or who shall have fraudulently obtained a Discharge under such former Act, or shall have taken a false Oath under such Act, shall have or receive any Benefit or Discharge under this Act, but shall be remanded to Prison as aforesaid by the Justice before where he or she shall be brought up to take the Benefit of this Act: Provided always, that such Objections or Exceptions were supported by such Proof or Evidence as is heretofore provided and directed to be made under this present Act, and not otherwise; and that no Person shall be permitted to make the Objections in this Act mentioned against any Prisoner, except a detaining Creditor, or such Person or Persons as have commenced their Action or Actions against such Prisoner previous to the Sixth Day of November last past provided on the Matters in the said Exceptions mentioned: Provided also, that no Person charged in Execution for Debts not recovered

Not to Prison charged in Execution for Debts not recovered

covered in any Action for Criminal Conversation with the Wife of the Plaintiff in such Action, or in any Action for Seduction or cohabiting knowing the Daughter or Female Servant of the Plaintiff, or in any Action for a malicious Prosecution, or in any Action for any other malicious Injury, shall have any Benefit under this Act, except only in cases where the Plaintiff in such Action respectively shall be dead, and no Person shall have obtained Probate of the Will or Letters of Administration of the Effects of such Plaintiff within Twelve Months after his Decese; and except where such Person shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Two Years last past.

XXXVI. And whereas many Debtors have, with a view to defraud their Creditors, sold, transferred, conveyed or assigned their Estate or Estate to some Person or Persons, subsequent to their being in Custody of a fraudulent Intent to disappoint the Right of their respective Creditors, removed the Stock, Liable, Furniture, Goods or other Effects, which were subject or liable to be delivered for the Satisfaction of the said Debtors; Be it therefore enacted, That no Person or Persons, who, in a secret, clandestine or fraudulent manner, shall have removed or caused to be removed within Six Years, any such Stock, Cattle, Furniture, Goods or Effects of the Value of Thirty Pounds or upwards, which were subject or liable to be delivered by their respective Landlord or Landlords for or in Payment of such Rent or Rents, whereby such Landlord or Landlords shall have lost all or some Part of the Rent or Rents due to him, her or them as aforesaid, shall be discharged by or under this Act, but shall be repossessed in manner herebefore mentioned; provided such Person shall be made thereof as shall be satisfactory to the Justice before whom such Person shall be brought up to take the Benefit of this Act, except where such Person shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Two Years last past.

XXXVII. And whereas many Debtors have, with a view to defraud their Creditors, sold, transferred, conveyed or assigned their Estate or Estate to some Person or Persons, subsequent to their being in Custody of a Law or imposed under some Process for Debt: And whereas such Sale, Transfer, Conveyance or Assignment hath been fraudulently made, to the Injury of his Creditor or Creditors, though it hath been difficult to convict the Party of a fraudulent Design; Be it enacted, That whenever it shall be proved that such Person has sold, transferred, conveyed or assigned to any Person or Persons all or any Part of his Estate or Effects, with an intent to defraud or delay his or her Creditors, or without just Cause for so doing, to be determined by the Justice before whom such Person shall be brought up to take the Benefit of this Act, every such Debtor shall lose all the Benefits and Advantages that he might have otherwise claimed under the Authority of this Act, and shall be repossessed in manner herebefore mentioned; and every such Sale, Transfer, Conveyance or Assignment is hereby declared null and void, except where such Person shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Ten Years last past.

XXXVIII. And whereas many Prisoners frequent and exposed great Part of their remaining Property by playing at Cards, Dice or other unlawful Games, to the great Injury of their Creditors; Be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to discharge or release any Prisoner who hath or shall have lost, in any one Day less the Date of his Commitment to Prison for any Debt with which he stood charged on the Sixth Day of November last, the Sum or Value of Twenty Pounds, or in the Whole more than such Commitment as aforesaid, the Sum of One hundred Pounds, or playing at or with Cards, Dice, Tables, Tennis, Bowls, Billiards, or other Game or Games whatsoever, or in or by betting a Share or Part in the Stakes, Wagers or Advantages, or in or by betting on the Sides or Hands of such as do play as aforesaid; but no due Proof thereof to the Satisfaction of the Justice assembled at such Quarter Sessions or Adjudged Sessions before which such Prisoner shall be brought, it shall be lawful for such Justice, and they are hereby required to commit such Prisoner to Goal; any thing herebefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding, except where such Person shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Ten Years last past.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That every Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison shall and is hereby required to suffer any Person or Persons detaining the same, to sit and speak with on the Day-time either in the Lodge or other convenient Room in the said Prison, any Prisoner or Prisoners whose Names are inserted in the before mentioned List or Lists, or the London Gazette or other Newspapers, in manner aforesaid, and also to be in the true and genuine Books of the said Prison the Entries made of the Name or Names of such Prisoner or Prisoners, Debtor or Debtors, together with the Name or Names of the Person or Persons, at whose Suit or Suits he, she or they are or were detained; and if any such Gaoler or Keeper shall refuse or neglect to comply with what is hereby above required, every such Gaoler or Keeper who shall be proved in the Premises, shall forfeit and pay to the Person so refused and aggrieved the Sum of Forty Pounds, to be recovered with Costs of Suit by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of the Courts of High Justice, whereas no Entry, Prohibition, Wager of Law or more than One Impetition shall be allowed, by and in the Name or Names of the Person so refused and aggrieved.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Gaoler or Keeper, or deputy Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison or Prison shall make or cause to be made any false Entries in any Book or Books belonging to any Prison or Goal under his Care, or of which he is or was Gaoler, or shall procure any Entry, or cause to be procured or kept, any false Book or Books, in order for any false or untrue Entry or Entries to be made therein, or shall insert in any List to be delivered upon aforesaid, the Name or Names of any Person or Persons who was or were not in actual Custody as aforesaid, except as in the Oath of any such Gaoler or Keeper or deputy Gaoler or Keeper shall be excepted, every such Gaoler or Keeper or deputy Gaoler or Keeper shall, over and above the Penalties which he shall be liable to for every such False, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered with Triple Cost of Suit, by and in the Name and for the Use of any Person or Persons who shall be prejudiced by any such false Entry or Entries, which Penalties shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any action for Debt, or by recovery of any Action for the same; and the said Penalties shall be recovered by and in the Name of the Person so prejudiced.

of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Effiole, Possession, Wager of Law or more than One Imparance shall be allowed.

Debtors refusing to answer Truth and Abode of Person at whose Suit he is detained, shall be liable to Arrest.

XLII. And he it further enacted, That if any Debtor, being thereto required by any Creditor or Creditors, shall refuse to come to the Lodge of the Prison in which any such Prisoner shall be confined, or when come to such Lodge shall refuse to answer and declare the Truth or Occupation and the last Place of Abode or Habitation, to the best of his or her Knowledge or Belief, of the Prison or Person at whose Suit he or she was detained or charged in Custody, without some reasonable Cause being shown for such Refusal, every such Debtor, on Proof being made thereof before the Justices at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace or any Adjournment thereof, to be held as aforesaid, shall not have or receive any Benefit or Discharge by or under this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any will notwithstanding.

Justices for Sur-
to Session House Harrowgate Lane.

XLIII. Provided always, and he it hereby enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said County of Surrey, to issue his or their Warrant or Warrants for the bringing up of any Prisoner or Prisoners in order to his, her or their Discharge under the Provisions of this Act, at any Quarter Sessions or Adjourned Sessions of the Peace, other than such as shall be holden at the Sessions House in Harrowgate Lane, in the Parish of Newington aforesaid.

Justices for Survey may hold Sessions near to County Gaol.

XLIII. And whereas there is but one Commor or County Gaol for each of the respective Counties of York or Lincoln, which said Counties are each of them divided into several Ridings or Divisions, all of which have several Commorities of the Peace; and if the Gaoler of these Gaols be obliged to carry the Debtors Prisoners thence, to the Quarter Sessions of each Riding or Division, the same will be a very great Charge, not only to such Gaoler but also to the Prisoners in these large Counties: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for Two or more Justices of the Peace for any of the Ridings or Divisions in the respective Counties (or any other County or Counties where the Prisoners are at a Distance from the Place where the Sessions are held), at the Commor or County Gaol thereof respectively, or at any other Gaol or Gaols within the said Counties, or at some convenient Place near thereto, and they are hereby required to assemble and meet and to hold Sessions there by Adjournment from their respective Quarter Sessions from time to time, for the Discharge of the respective Prisoners therein, according to the Powers, Limitations and Directions of this Act.

Justices for District of Midland may hold in Adjourned Sessions.

XLIV. And whereas the District or Division of Bedford is the said County of Lincoln, is distant near Forty Miles from the said County Gaol, and it is highly inconvenient and expensive for the Justices of the Peace sitting for the said Division, to be obliged to travel to the said Gaol, for the sole Purpose of discharging the Prisoners under the Powers by this Act given: Be it therefore enacted, That, for the several Purposes aforesaid, the Justices for the said Division or District of Bedford may adjourn their original Sessions to the County Gaol, or to some Place near thereto; and it shall and may be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace sitting either for the Parts of Lindsey, Kesteven or Bedford, to hold such Adjourned Sessions for the sole Purpose of discharging such Prisoners, Notice of the Adjournment of such original Sessions being given by the Clerk of the Sessions to such Justices, and who shall attend there to regular the Proceedings of the said Court, so far as the same relate to or affect the Discharges of any Prisoner detained for Debt in the Division of Bedford, and claiming the Benefit of this Act.

Prisoners in Custody for Prison Fees, discharged.

XLV. And he it further enacted, That all Debtors and others, who were in Prison on or before the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, in any of the Gaols of England, and now remain, for not paying their Fees, Rent or other Demands due or claimed as due to the Keeper or Keepers of any Prison respectively, or to any other Officer of such Prison, and upon no other Account, shall be discharged therefrom, he, she or they taking the Oath by this Act required to be taken by Prisoners.

All not responding to Arrest of the Crown Officers, or of the Revenue, or other Taxes, may be taken.

XLVI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to discharge any Prisoner seeking the Benefit of this Act, with respect of any Debt or Penalty with which he or she shall stand charged at the Suit of The Crown, or of any Person for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to His Majesty's Revenues of Customs, Excise, Stamps or Salt Duties, or any of them, or any Branches of the Public Revenue, or at the Suit of any Sheriff or other Public Officer upon any Bail Bond entered into for the Appearance of any Person prosecuted for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to His Majesty's said Revenues of Customs, Excise, Stamps or Salt Duties, or any other Branches of the Public Revenue, which any Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being shall certify their Consent, under their Hands, to the said Justices at their said Sessions or Adjournment thereof, for the Discharge of such Prisoner as aforesaid.

of Indebted status, or of Gentry or to Discharge.

XLVII. And whereas under former Acts Creditors have been put to great Expence and Trouble in attending every Sessions and Adjournment, during the whole Continuance of this Act, to oppose the Discharge of Debtors clearly excluded from any Benefit under the said respective Acts, but who, after having been before one Sessions and refused a Discharge, or having given Notice of his or her Intention to be brought up as required by this Act, and not procuring himself or herself to be brought up conformably to such Notice, gave such Notice for each subsequent Sessions and Adjournment of their intended Application to be discharged, with the sole View of harassing and subjecting to inconvenience their Creditors: To remedy which, he it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all cases where the Determination of the Justices in Sessions or Adjournment shall be final to all Intents and Purposes, unless the Debtor shall get rid of the Objection or Objections for which they refused his Discharge; and that the same may be clear and certain, the Justices are hereby required to state the Objections why such Debtor's Discharge is refused by them; and in all cases where it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices, at some one subsequent Sessions within the Space of Twelve Calendar Months after he shall have been so remanded, upon Application of the Prisoner, and due Proof on Oath or otherwise to the Satisfaction of the Justices is Satisfactory or Adjudgments, of such Objections or Objections being removed, and on Proof of Notice served at least Twenty Days previous to such Application on the Creditors or Creditors who before appealed his Discharge, or on satisfactory Reasons being given to the said Court why he or she was not brought up conformably to such Notice, and of Notice likewise inserted in the London Gazette in manner before directed by this Act, to order such Prisoner to be brought before them, and if they then shall be of Opinion that the said Debtor is entitled to the Benefit of this Act, to adjudge him or her to be committed thereto, and if a Prisoner to order him or her to be discharged, or to the taking the Oath, and in all other respects conforming to the Directions of this Act.

* XLVIII. And whereas it may happen that several Persons who may claim and be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, are seized of an Estate Tail in some Freehold Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which * Entail, with the Remainder thereon expellants, they have by Law Power to defeat and bar, either by * leaving a Fine or Pinner, suffering a Common Recovery or Common Recoveries whereby the said Freehold * Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments of such Person or Persons would be liable to the Payment of their * Debts, and be delivered up according to the Terms of this Act, for the Benefit of their Creditors: Be it therefore further enacted, That in every such case such Person or Persons so seized as aforesaid, and who shall be entitled to and claim the Benefit of this Act, shall to all intents and Purposes whatsoever to Law be deemed and taken, and is and are hereby declared to be seized of such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in Fee, and the same shall be delivered up to such Creditors or Creditors of every such Prisoner in the same manner as if such Person or Persons had actually leased a Fine, suffered a Common Recovery or Recoveries, and thereby had become seized in Fee; any Law or Custom or Law to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

* XLIX. And whereas many Persons who may be entitled to and claim the Benefit of this Act have been * great Debtors, or otherwise engaged in large Transactions, whereby they may be entitled to sundry and * great Debts and Demands of various and intricate Natures, and they may be entitled to Equities of Rescission of Estates subject and liable to Mortgages, Judgments or other Incumbrances, or to Reversions, * Remainders, or other contingent Estates, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or to other Trusts or * Interests in Estates both Real and Personal, which may not be sufficiently described or discovered in the Schedule or Inventory before directed to be delivered in upon Oath by the Prisoner to be discharged as * aforesaid, or which may want his Aid and Assistance to adjust, make out, remove or manage for the Benefit * of his Creditors: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Assignors of the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors who shall obtain his, her or their Discharge in pursuance of this Act, or any other Person or Persons duly authorized by them for that Purpose, from time to time to apply to any Two or more of the Justices of the Peace for the County, City, Town, Place or Liberty where such Debtor or Debtors shall be then residing, thereby desiring that such Debtor or Debtors may be further examined as to any Matters and Things relating to his, her or their Estate or Effects; whereupon such Justices shall send for or call before them such Debtor or Debtors by such Warrant, Summons, Ways or Means as they shall think fit, and upon such Debtor or Debtors appearing, shall examine him, her or them, as well upon Oath or otherwise, as to such Matters and Things as such Assignors shall desire, relating to the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors; and if any Debtor or Debtors, on Payment or Tender of Payment of such reasonable Charges as such Justices shall judge sufficient, shall neglect or refuse to come or appear, or not having a lawful Excuse, allowed by such Justices, or being come before them shall refuse to be sworn, or to answer such Questions as by such Justices shall be put to him, her or them, relating to the Discovery of his, her or their Estate or Effects to be sworn or intended to be sworn in such Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk or other Officer sitting as Clerk of the Peace, of such Assignors as aforesaid, then it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justices by Warrant under their Hands and Seals to apprehend such Debtor or Debtors for offending as aforesaid, and him, her or them to commit to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until such time as he, she or they shall submit him, her or themselves to such Justices, and answer upon Oath to all such lawful Questions as shall by such Justices be put to him, her or them, for the Purposes aforesaid.

L. Provided always, and be it enacted, That notwithstanding the Discharge of any Debtor or Debtors by virtue of this Act, if it shall hereafter appear that the same was obtained fraudulently, or that any Part of the Oath taken by any such Debtor was not true, then and in every such case every such Discharge shall be void and of none Effect.

LI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful at all times hereafter, for any Assignor or Assignors of the Estate or Effects of any Debtor or Debtors, who shall be chosen in pursuance of this Act, by and with the Consent of the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Debtor or Debtors who shall be present at a Meeting to be had on Twenty one Days' Notice being previously given for the Purpose hereafter mentioned, in the London Gazette, if the Debtor was in Custody in London, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and if not, then also in some Newspaper which shall be published in the County, City or Place in or near which such Person or Persons shall have been in Gaol, to make Compositions with any Person or Persons or Accountants to such Debtor or Debtors, whose the same shall appear necessary or profitable, and to take such reasonable Part of any such Debt as can upon any such Composition be gotten, in full Discharge of such Debts and Accounts; and also to submit any Dispute or Dispute between such Assignors or Assignors and any Person or Persons for or on account or by reason of any Matter, Cause or Thing relating to the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors; and every such Assignor or Assignors it and are hereby authorized for when they shall duly do in the Premises in pursuance of this Act.

 any Debtor or Debtors not yet in, obtained or recovered by any Assignee or Assignees at the time of his or their Death or Deaths, and whose Heirs or Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns refuse to act, or would thereby? To remedy which, be it enacted, That in all such cases it shall and may be lawful to and for the Creditors of every such Debtor or Debtors to choose a new Assignee or Assignees, and to obtain a new Assignment from the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, Town Clerk or other Officer sitting as Clerk of the Peace, pursuant to the Order of the Justices, and which said Order the said Justices are hereby required and empowered to direct (as the Proof on Oath may be made to them of the Death of such former Assignee, or Assignees, and Refusal of his or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns to act or meddle therein), and the said Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, Town Clerk or other Officer sitting as Clerk of the Judges respectively shall think fit; and in case of the Removal of any Assignee or Assigns, and the appointing of any new Assignee or Assigns, the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors shall from thenceforth be directed out of the Assignee or Assigns as removed, and be vested in and delivered over to such new Assignee or Assigns, in the same manner and for the same Intents and Purposes as the same were before vested in the Assignee or Assigns first chosen; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

In case of mutual Credit Balance paid.

“ LIV. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That in all cases where mutual Credit hath been given between any Debtor who shall be discharged in pursuance of this Act and any other Person or Persons, or Bodies Politic or Corporate, before the Delivery of such Schedule or Inventory of the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors upon Oath as aforesaid, the respective Assignee or Assigns of such Debtor or Debtors is and are hereby authorized and required on his and their Parts to fair and allow an Account between them and the other Party or Parties concerned; and nothing more shall be deemed to be vested in such Clerk of the Peace, or Town Clerk or other Officer sitting as Clerk of the Peace, or such Assignee or Assigns as aforesaid, as the Estate or Effects of such Debtor or Debtors than what shall appear to be justly due to him, her or them respectively, as and for the Balance of such Account when truly stated.

Persons implemented by Courts of Conscience appointed in lieu of A.D. and Leds removed therein to Seditious.

“ LV. And whereas great Numbers of poor People have been and are now imprisoned for Debt upon Processes issued out of Courts of Conscience? It is hereby enacted and declared, That all such Prisoners shall be entitled to have the Benefit of this Act, and shall be discharged under the same, provided he, she and they conform to the Directions heretofore prescribed, touching other Prisoners who shall be discharged by virtue of this Act; and the Keeper or Keepers, Gaoler or Gaolers, or of all every Gaol, Prison or other Place of Confinement, in which any Person or Persons are confined, or charged in Execution with Debts under Process or Process issued out of or from such Courts of Conscience, are hereby required to make out and deliver to the Justices assembled at the next Quarter Sessions or Adjourned Sessions of the Peace, a true List or Lists of the Prisoners in their Custody to consider charged in Execution, in like manner as the Gaolers or Keepers of other Prisons are directed by this Act.

Affirmations of

Perjury.

“ LVI. And be it further enacted, That in all cases wherein by this Act an Oath is required, the solemn Affirmation of any Person being a Quaker shall and may be accepted and taken in lieu thereof; and every Person making such Affirmation, who shall be convicted of wilful and false Allegation, shall incur and suffer such and the same Penalties as are inflicted and imposed by this Act upon Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Justices may appoint Masters and Solicitors in Matters of Form.

“ LVII. And whereas Debtors are frequently, to the Injury of themselves and their Creditors, remanded back to Prison on account of mere Errors or Omissions in point of Form relating to their Notices or the making out of their Schedules, or other Proceedings directed by this Act? It is hereby enacted and declared, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices assembled at such Quarter Sessions or Adjourned ment thereof as aforesaid, to amend such Matters of Form or to supply such Omissions, or to correct such Er-

An Act to charge an additional Duty of Customs on Brandy imported into Great Britain for the Purpose of Exportation, and which shall be taken out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, before the Thirty first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen. [14th December 1813.]

WHEREAS certain Quantities of Brandy have been brought into Great Britain under the Authority of Licences granted on the Condition of such Brandy being exported to Foreign Parts, and which Brandy now remains under the Care of the Officers of the Revenue; And whereas it is expedient that such Brandy should now be permitted to be used in Great Britain on Payment of the Duties of Customs and Excise due and payable thereon, and also of a further Duty of Customs; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Proprietor or Consignee of any such Brandy so imported or brought into Great Britain as aforesaid, and which now actually remains under the Care of the Officers of the Revenue, to make an Entry thereof with the proper Officers of the Customs and Excise, and to pay the Duties of Customs and Excise due and payable on Brandy at the rate of such Entry, and also an additional Temporary or War Duty of Customs of Two Shillings for every Gallon of such Brandy: Provided always, that no such Entry shall be permitted to be made, or the Duties on any such Brandy be received, unless such Entry shall be made and the full Duties on such Brandy paid on or before the Thirty first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

Additional Duty on Brandy.

On Payment of Dues, Brandy delivered for Home Consumption.

II. And be it further enacted, That on such Entry being made, and the Duties of Customs and Excise due and payable on the Importation of Brandy into Great Britain, together with the additional Duty of Customs imposed by this Act of Two Shillings for every Gallon of such Brandy being paid within the time herebefore limited, any such Brandy shall and may be delivered to the Proprietor or Consignee thereof, for the Purpose of being sold or consumed in Great Britain; any thing contained in the Licence or Licences under the Authority of which any such Brandy may have been imported or brought into Great Britain, or in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Customs.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said additional Duty of Customs shall be ascertained, managed, raised, levied, collected, enforced, paid and recovered in such and the like manner as the Duties of Customs due and payable on Brandy are and immediately before the passing of this Act were ascertained, managed, raised, levied, collected, enforced, paid and recovered; and that the Produce and Amount of the said Duty shall be appropriated and applied in such and the like manner in every respect as the Temporary or War Duty payable on Brandy imported into Great Britain is appropriated and applied.

Act thereof.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXX.

An Act to continue until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, several Laws relating to the Transportation of Felons and other Offenders, and to the authorizing the Removal of Offenders to temporary Places of Confinement in England and Scotland. [14th December 1813.]

WHEREAS the Laws heretofore continued have by Experience been found useful and beneficial, and it is expedient that the same should be further continued; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of an Act, made in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to explain and amend the Laws relating to the Transportation, Imprisonment and other Punishment of certain Offenders, as relates to Transportation beyond the Seas; and also so much of an Act, made in the Twenty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the efficient Transportation of Felons and other Offenders; and to authorize the Removal of Prisoners in certain Cases; and for other Purposes therein mentioned, as extends to authorize the Removal of Offenders to temporary Places of Confinement; which Acts were amended and continued by six other Acts of the Twenty eighth, Thirty fourth, Thirty sixth, Forty second, Forty sixth and Fifty third Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall be and the same is hereby further continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

II. And be it further enacted, That so much of an Act made in the Twenty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the more efficient Transportation of Felons and other Offenders in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and to authorize the Removal of Prisoners in certain Cases, as authorizes the Removal of Offenders to temporary Places of Confinement, which was so continued in force until the First Day of June One thousand seven hundred and eighty seven, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which was revised and continued by Five Acts of the Thirty fourth, Thirty sixth, Forty second, Forty sixth and Fifty third Years of His present Majesty's Reign, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall be and the same is hereby further continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

III. And

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts Act altered, &c. to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXXI.

[14th December 1813.]

[SECTIONS 1. to 8. are the same as the 1st Session of 53 G. 3. c. 25.]

IX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Non Commissioned Officer or Marine be convicted of Desertion, shall appear to have enlisted for a limited Term of Years, it shall be lawful for such Court to sentence any such Non Commissioned Officer or Marine to be sold, to serve for Life as a Soldier, or for any Number of Years beyond the Period for which such Non Commissioned Officer or Marine shall have enlisted; or generally, in any Regiment or Corps which His Majesty shall please to direct; and any Non Commissioned Officer or Marine may, in any case, in addition to any Sentence, be further adjudged to forfeit all Benefits or Advantages as to Increase of pay, or as to Pardon or Discharge, which might otherwise have accrued to such Non Commissioned Officer or Marine from the Length or Nature of his Service.

Court may Sentence Desertion to serve for Life, &c.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Court Martial before which any Non Commissioned Officer or Marine shall be tried and convicted of Desertion, to direct, if it shall so think fit, in addition to any other Punishment such Court may award for any such Desertion, that such Offender be worked on the Left Side Two Inches below the Arm Pit with the Letter (D.), such Letter not to be less than Half an Inch long, and to be marked upon the Skin with Ink or Gunpowder or other Preparation fit as to be visible and conspicuous and not liable to be obliterated.

[Sections 11. to 18. are the same as 18. to 25. of 53 G. 3. c. 25.]

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every Non Commissioned Officer or Private Marine, to be imprisoned as aforesaid, shall forfeit all Right to any Pay, from the Day of his Commencement, during the time of such Imprisonment; and also that, during the Continuance of any such Imprisonment, the Governor or Keeper of such Prison or House of Correction shall receive the Sum of Nine pence per Diem out of the Subsidies of such Non Commissioned Officer or Private Marine, during the time that such Non Commissioned Officer or Private Marine shall continue in Custody, which said Sum the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are hereby authorized and required to cause to be paid by the Paymaster of Royal Marines to the said Governor or Keeper aforesaid, upon receiving an Application in Writing to their Secretary, signed by any Justice of the Peace for the County or Riding in which such Gaol, Prison or House of Correction shall be locally situate, together with a Copy of the Order under which the said Non Commissioned Officer or Private Marine was confined: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being, if they should think fit, to order the Issue and Payment of the Surplus of such Pay, or any Portion thereof, to or on Account of such Non Commissioned Officer or Private Marine during or after the Expiration of the Period of his Imprisonment in any Gaol, House of Correction or Place of Military Confinement.

Provided,

XXIX. And whereas there is and may be Occasion for the marching and quartering of the said Royal Marine Forces in several Parts of this Kingdom; Be it further enacted, That, for and during the Continuance of this Act, and so long as in pursuance of an Order or Orders in Writing in that behalf, under the Hand of the said Lord High Admiral, or under the Hands of Three or more of the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral, for the time being, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of Cities, Towns and Villages, and other Places within England and Wales and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and in their District or Aldership, for any One Justice of the Peace inhabiting in or near any such City, Town, Village or Place, and for so others, and such Constables and other Chief Magistrates as aforesaid, are hereby required to quarter and billet the Marines, both Officers and Private Men, in His Majesty's Service in Inns, Liberty Stables, Alehouses, Victualling Houses, and the Houses of Sellers of Wine by Retail, to be drunk in their own Houses or Places whatsoever belonging, and all Houses of Perilous selling Brandy, Strong Waters, Cyder or Meads, by Retail, to be drunk at their own Houses, other than and except Cellars held and occupied under the Authority of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Berwick, or of the Department of the Ordnance, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and other than and except the House or Houses of any Distillers, who keep Houses or Places for distilling Brandy, or Strong Waters, and the House of any Shopkeeper, whose principal Dealings shall be more in other Goods and Merchandise than in Beer, Cyder and Strong Waters (so as such Distillers and Shopkeepers do not permit or suffer Tipping in his or their Houses), and is no other, and is no Private House whatsoever, without the Consent of the Occupier; nor shall any more Billets at any time be ordered than there are sufficient Royal Marines present to be quartered; and if any Constable, Tythingman, or such like Officer or Magistrate as aforesaid shall presume to quarter or billet any such Officer or Private Man in any such Private House without the Consent of the Occupier, he shall cause such Occupier shall have his or her Remedy at Law against such Magistrate or Officer for the Damages that such Occupier shall sustain thereby; and if any Marine Officer shall take upon him to quarter Private Men otherwise than is limited and allowed by this Act, or shall take or order any Messer or Compulsions to any Messen, Constables or other Civil Officers before mentioned, tending to deter and discourage any of them from performing any Part of their Duty hereby required or appointed; such Marine Officer shall, for every such Offence (being thereof convicted before any Two or more of the next Justices of the Peace of the County, by the Oath of These credible Witnesses, be detested and taken to be the facts called, and shall be utterly disabled to have or hold any Military Employment within this Kingdom, or in His Majesty's Service; provided the said Commission be affirmed at the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the said County, and a Certificate thereof be transmitted to the Judge Advocate, who is hereby obliged to certify the same to the next Court Martial; and in case any Person shall find himself aggrieved at that such Certificate, Testimony or Headquarters, Chief Officer or Magistrate (such Chief Officer or Magistrate not being a Justice of the Peace), has quartered or billeted in his House a greater Number of Royal Marines, than he ought to have in Proportion to his Neighbours, and shall complain thereof to One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the Division, City or Liberty, where such Royal Marines are quartered; or in case such Chief Officer or Magistrate shall be a Justice of the Peace, then on Complaint made to Two or more Justices of the Peace of such Division, City or Liberty, such Justice or Justices respectively shall have, and in so far as they hereby declared to have, Power to remove such Person by ordering such and so many of the said Royal Marines to be removed and quartered upon such other Person or Persons as they shall see Cause; and such other Person or Persons shall be obliged to receive, such Royal Marines accordingly.

XXXI. Provided nevertheless, That it is hereby enacted, That the Marine Officers and Private Men, to be quartered and billeted as aforesaid, shall be received and furnished with Diet and Small Beer by the Owners of the Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling-houses, and the Houses of Sale of Wine by Retail, to be drunk in their own Houses or Places thereto belonging, and other Houses in which they are allowed to be quartered and billeted by this Act; paying and allowing for the same the several Rates that are or shall be established by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in that respect.

XXXII. Provided always, That in case any Inhabitant or other Person on whom any Non Commissioned Officers or Private Men shall be quartered by virtue of this Act (except on a March or employed in marching, and likewise except the Recruits by them raised, for the Space of Seven Days at most, for such Non Commissioned Officers and Private Men, who are marching, and the Recruits by them raised), shall be disposed to furnish such Non Commissioned Officers and Private Men with Candles, Vinegar and Salt, and with other Small Beer or Cyder, not exceeding Five Pence for each Man per Day, gratis, and allow to such Non Commissioned Officers or Private Men the Use of Fire, and the necessary Utensils for dressing and eating their Meat, and shall give Notice of such his Order to the Commanding Officers, and shall furnish and allow the same accordingly, then and in such case, the Non Commissioned Officers and Private Men so quartered shall provide their own Victuals; and the Officer to whom it belongs to receive, or who shall actually receive the Pay and Subsistence of such Non Commissioned Officers and Private Men, shall pay the several Sums that are or shall be established by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in that behalf to the Non Commissioned Officers and Private Men aforesaid, and not to the Inhabitant or other Person, on whom such Non Commissioned Officers and Private Men are quartered; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

[Section 33. in the same as 25. of 53 G. 3. c. 25.]

XXXVI. And, that the Quartering both of the said Marine Officers and Private Men, while on Shore as aforesaid, may, during the Continuance of this Act, be duly paid and finished, and His Majesty's Duties of Excise better answered, be it enacted, That, from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, every Officer or other Person to whom it belongs to receive, or that shall actually receive the Pay or Subsistence Money, for One or more particular Company or Companies of the said Royal Marine Forces, or otherwise, shall immediately upon such Receipt of every particular Sum which shall from time to time be paid, returned or come to his or their Hands, on Account of Pay or Subsistence, give public Notice thereof to all Persons keeping Inns, or other Places where Officers or Private Men are quartered by virtue of this Act; and shall also appoint the said Inkeepers, and others, to report to these Quarters at such times as they shall appear for the Disbursement and Payment of the said Pay or Subsistence Money to such Officers or Private Men, which shall be within Four Days after the Receipt of the same, as aforesaid; and the said Inkeepers, and others, shall then and there require such Officer or Officers with the Accounts or Debits (if any shall be) between them and the Officers and Private Men so quartered in their respective Houses; which Accounts the said Officer or Officers is or are hereby required to accept of, and immediately pay the same, before any Part of the said Pay or Subsistence be distributed either to the Officers or Private Men; and if any Officer or Officers, as aforesaid, shall not give Notice as aforesaid, and shall not immediately, upon producing such Account stated, filed, by, content and pay the same, upon Complaint and Oath made thereof by any Two Witnesses, at the next Quarter Sessions for the County or City where such Quarters were (which Oath the Justice of the Peace at such Sessions are hereby authorized and required to administer), the Paymaster, or Person for the time being authorized to pay the said Royal Marine Forces, is hereby required and authorized (upon Certificate of the said Justice, before whom such Oath was made, of the Sum due upon such Accounts, and the Person to whom the same is owing), to pay and satisfy the said Sums out of the Arrears due to the said Marine Officer or Officers, upon Penalty that such Paymaster or Person shall forfeit their respective Places or Places of Paymaster or otherwise, and be discharged from holding the same for the future; and in case there shall be no Arrears due to the said Officer or Officers; then the said Paymaster, or Person for the time being authorized to pay the said Royal Marine Forces, is hereby authorized and required to deduct the Sums he shall pay, pursuant to the Certificate of the said Justice, out of the next Pay or Subsistence Money of the Company in which such Officer or Officers shall belong; and such Officer or Officers shall, for such their Officers, or for neglecting to give Notice of the

And be it further enacted, that the Sums to be paid into the Hands of such Constable or Petty Constable in England, Wales and Berwick upon Tweed, shall be according to the following Rates; that is to say, the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or Four Oxen with Two Horses, shall travel; and the Sum of Nine pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; and the Sum of Six pence for every Mile any Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; or any further Sum not exceeding Four pence for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or with Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall travel; and not exceeding Three pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; and not exceeding Two pence for every Mile any Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; according as the same shall be fixed and ordered by the Justices of the Peace for any County or District assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District, the said Justices having regard to the Price of Hay and Oxen at the time of fixing such Additional Rates: Provided always, that in cases where the Day's March shall exceed Fifteen Miles, such further Compensation shall be made and paid in like manner to the Owners of the said Carriages as shall be deemed reasonable by the Magistrate who granted the Warrant for compelling them, not exceeding the usual Rate and Hire of such Carriages: Provided always, that every Order of the Justices assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace, fixing a further Sum to be paid for the Hire of Carriages as aforesaid in Addition to the customary Rates of One Shilling and Nine pence and Six pence per Mile respectively, shall specify the Period for which the same shall be so fixed, and which shall not in any case exceed

Two Days beyond the General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District next ending the Date of such Order, and a Copy of every such Order signed by the Chairman or presiding Magistrate and one other Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at the Quarter Sessions at which the same shall be made, shall within Three Days after the making thereof be transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and no such Order shall be valid or effectual unless a Copy thereof be so signed and transmitted as aforesaid; Provided also, that in every case of any increased Rate being allowed for the Hire of any Carriage, the Justice of the Peace granting or signing such Warrant shall select in his own Hand the Amount of such increased Rate for each Delinquent of Carriage as is authorized by the Justices at the Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, and such Warrant shall be given to the Officer or Non Commissioned Officer commanding the Regiment, Corps, Company, Detachment or Party requiring such Carriage, as by Voucher for the Payment of such increased Rate; and no increased Rate shall be demanded, but such as shall be so selected by the Justice in the Warrant.

LII. And whereas several Persons, who being duly control, may afterwards desert and be found wandering, or otherwise absconding themselves illegally from His Majesty's Service; It is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Countable, Headborough or Tithingman, of the Town or Place where any Person who may reasonably be suspected to be such a Defector shall be found, or if no such Countable, Headborough or Tithingman can be immediately met with, then for any Marine Officer or Justice to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace sitting in or near such Town or Place, who is lawfully empowered and required to examine such suspected Person; and if, by his Confession, or the Testimony of One or more Witnesses or Witnesses upon Oath, or by Knowledge of such Justice of the Peace, it shall appear or be found that such suspected Person is a Marine duly sworn, and ought to be with the Company to which he belongs, whether such Company shall be employed on board any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or quartered on Shore, or employed as board any Transport Ship, or Merchant Ship or Vessel, such Justice of the Peace shall without Fee or Reward to himself or Clerk forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the Goal of the County or Place where he shall be found; or to the House of Correction or other public Prison at such Town or Place where such Defector shall be apprehended; or to the Gaol, in case such Defector shall be apprehended within the Cities of London or Westminster, or Place adjacent; and transmit an Account thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty for the time being, to the end that such Person may be plundered against according to Law; and the Keeper of every Goal, House of Correction or Prison, shall receive the full Satisfaction of such Defector, during the time he shall continue in his Custody, for the Maintenance of such Defector; but shall not be entitled to say Fee or Reward on account of the Impayment of any such Defector; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the Secretary of the Admiralty for the time being, if he should think fit to order the Issue and Payment of any Arrears of Pay, or of the Surplus of such Pay or any Portion thereof, to or on account of such Non Commissioned Officer or Marine, during or after the Expiration of his Period of Imprisonment in any Goal or House of Correction or other public Prison.

[Section 52. to 55. are the same as §50. to 53. of 33 G.3. c.25.]

LXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person shall harbour, conceal or assist any Defector from His Majesty's Royal Marine Service, knowing him to be such, the Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and upon Conviction, by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the said Penalty of Twenty Pounds shall be levied, by Warrant under the Hand of such Justice of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, One Month of the said Penalty to be paid to the Defector, and the other Month to be paid to the Paymaster of the Royal Marine Forces, and shall be credited by such Paymaster in his Public Accounts, and a Report of the Penalty being adjudged shall be made to the Secretary of the Admiralty by the Justice of the Peace by whom the same shall have been imposed; and in case any such Offender, who shall be convicted as aforesaid of harbouring, concealing or assisting any such Defector, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels wherewith Distress may be made, to the Value of the Penalty awarded against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalty within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such case such Justice of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, commit such Offender to the Common Goal, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of Six Months.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly detain, buy or exchange, or otherwise receive any Arms, Cloths, Caps or other Furniture belonging to the King, from any Marine or Marine Defector, or any other Person, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, or any such Articles belonging to any Marine or Marine Defector, or any generally dressed Regimental Accessories, according to the Custom of the Royal Marine Corps (being provided for the Marine and paid for by the Detachment out of his Pay), or cause the Colour of such Cloths to be changed, every such Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds; and upon Conviction by the Oath of One more or credible Witnesses or Witnesses before any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the said Penalty shall be levied, by Warrant under the Hand of the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, One Month thereof to be paid to the Defector, and the other Month to be paid to the Paymaster of the Royal Marine Forces who shall report the same to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and credit the same as 1/2 public Accounts, and in case any such Offender who shall be convicted as aforesaid, of having knowingly received any Arms, Clothes, Caps or other Furniture belonging to the King, or any such Articles as are generally deemed Regiments, Needles, or of having caused the Colours of such Clothes to be changed contrary to the Intent of this Act, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels wherewith Distress may be made to the Value of the Penalty recovered against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalty within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such case such Justice or Justices of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Seals and Seals, either commit such Offender to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of Three Months; or cause such Offender to be publicly or privately whipped, at the Discretion of such Justice or Justices.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all Informations for any Offence on account whereof any Township, Parish, Manor or Lordship shall be liable to the Payment of any Fine or Penally under this Act, or any of the Acts heretofore recited or revised by the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year, or this Act, which shall be delivered to the Clerk of The Crown, and laid before the Court at any Affairs in manner directed by the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid, and all Issues and Taverries concerning such Informations, and for the recovering of any such Fine or Penally, or for the proving or controverting any Matter or Thing relating to any such Informations, Fine or Penally, shall be proceeded upon, and shall be fully tried and determined by the Court at some time during the Continuance of such Affairs, and before the Judges shall depart from the County in which such Affairs shall be holden.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXXIII.

An Act to continue, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, an Act, made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty seventh Year of His present Majesty, for the better Execution of the Law and Preservation of the Peace within Counties at large, as amended by an Act of the Thirty sixth of His Majesty. [17th December 1813.]

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the better Execution of the Law and Preservation of the Peace within Counties at large, which said recited Act was continued and amended by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the better and more convenient Administration of Justice, and for the Recovery of Small Debts in a summary Way, at the Session of the Peace of the several Counties at large within this Kingdom, except the County of Dublin; and for continuing and amending an Act, intitled An Act for the better Execution of the Law and Preservation of the Peace within Counties at large; and which said recited Act of the Twenty seventh Year, as amended by the said Act of the Thirty sixth Year, was further continued by Two Acts, made in the Forty fourth and Fifty second Years of His present Majesty's Reign, and is now near expiring; and it is expedient that the same should be continued; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act made in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as the same is amended by the said recited Act made in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall be and the same is hereby further continued, and shall be in force, from and after the passing of this Act, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

II. And be it further enacted, That this and the said Act of the Twenty seventh Year hereby continued, may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXXIV.

An Act for the further Regulation of the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the Charter of The East India Company. [17th December 1813.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for continuing the Charter of The East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges: for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same: and for regulating the Trade to and from the Place within the Limits of the said Company's Charter: And whereas by the said recited Act it was enacted, that it should be lawful for any of His Majesty's Subjects, in Common with the said United Company, to export, in Ships navigated according to Law, from any Port or Ports within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to all Ports and Places within the Limits referred to, and except the Dominions of the Emperor of China, any Goods, Wares and Merchandise, which would then or might at any time or times thereafter be legally exported, and also in Common with the said Company to import in Ships navigated to or afforded from any Port or Ports within the Limits aforesaid, five and except as aforesaid, into the said United Kingdom, any Goods, Wares and Merchandise, the Produce or Manufacture of any of the Countries within the said Limits, which could or might at any time or times thereafter be legally imported; And although nevertheless to the several Restrictions, Conditions and Limitations in the said Act contained: And whereas it was also enacted by the said Act, that nothing therein contained should extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the making, during the further Term thereby granted to the said Company, such further Provisions, by Authority of Parliament, as might from time to time be deemed necessary for enabling His Majesty's Subjects to carry on Trade and Traffic, directly or circuitously, as well between all Ports and Places situate without the Limits of the said Company's Charter, and all Ports and Places (except the Dominions of the Emperor of China) situate within those Limits, as between the said United Kingdom and all the last mentioned Ports and Places, except as aforesaid; but without Prejudice to any of the Restrictions or Provisions therein contained, as to the Relief to and Residence of any Persons in the East Indies, and Ports aforesaid: And whereas it is expedient to make Provisions for the enabling the said Company, and all other His Majesty's Subjects, to carry on such circuitous Trade, also to carry on Trade between all Ports and Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, under certain Restrictions and Regulations: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Tenth Day of April one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, it shall be lawful for the said Company, and also for any other of His Majesty's Subjects to trade (in Ships navigated according to Law, and proceeding upon any Voyage from the United Kingdom to any Ports or Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company) to, and at any intermediate Ports, Places or Countries between the said United Kingdom and the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, Situate in North and South America (other than and except any of His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America), and to and at the Island of Madagascar, the Cannaries, and Cape de Verde Islands, the Island of Saint Helena, and the Cape of Good Hope; and for that Purpose to discharge the Whole or any Part of the Cargo of any such Ship or Vessel at any such intermediate Ports, Places or Countries as aforesaid; and in the Prosecution of any such circuitous Voyage to take on board any other Goods, Wares and Merchandise which can be legally carried from any of such intermediate Countries, Ports or Places, to any Ports or Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company; and in like manner to trade, in any such Ship or Vessel, in any Voyage from any Ports or Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter as aforesaid, to the United Kingdom, to and at any intermediate Ports, Places or Countries between such Limits and the said United Kingdom, Situate in North or South America (other than and except the Colonies or Plantations of His Majesty in America), and at the Cape of Good Hope, or the Island of Saint Helena: And it shall also be lawful for His Majesty's Subjects to carry on Trade and Traffic in Ships navigated according to Law, directly and circuitously, between all Ports and Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter, except the Dominions of the Emperor of China; any thing contained in any Charter of the said Company, or in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize any of His Majesty's Subjects, other than the said Company, or Persons properly licensed by them, to export or import from or to any such Countries, Ports and Places, within or without such Limits, or to import into the United Kingdom any Tea, or in any manner to trade or traffic in Tea between any such Ports or Places as aforesaid.

11. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or alter, or in any manner to affect the Restrictions, Regulations and Provisions in the said recited Act contained, as to the Sale of Vessels allowed to clear out from any Port in any Part of the United Kingdom; or as to any Licences, Certificates or Bills required by the said Act, in the cases therein specified; or any of the Restrictions or Provisions in the said Act, or in any other Act contained, as to the Relief to and Residence of any Persons in the East Indies: Provided always that all Trade with all Ports and Places upon the Coast of Asia, from the River Indus to the Town of Malacca inclusive, or any Island under the Government of the said Company, lying to the North of the Equator, or the said Company's Factory at Bombay and its Dependencies, shall in man and customs, subject to all such Regulations, Provisions and Restrictions, as shall from time to time be in force in relation to Trade at any such Ports and Places, under the Authority of any of the Governments of the said Company at their several Presidencies in India.

11th. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That His Majesty's Settlement at the Cape of Good Hope shall, as to all Trade allowed by this Act to be carried on between Ports and Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, be deemed, construed and taken to be within such Limits: Provided also, that nothing herein contained, as to the said Settlement being deemed, as to such Trade as aforesaid, to be within such Limits, shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent or in any manner to limit or affect any other

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled *An Act for continuing in The East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; and for regulating the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter; And whereas the Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty for allowing the Importation of Goods from Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company in Ships not of British-built nor registered as such, and of another Act passed in the Twenty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty in relation to such Ships, were continued by the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, unless any Provision was made relating thereto in the present Session of Parliament; and His Majesty was by the said recited Act authorized by any Order or Orders in Council to authorize any of his Subjects to import from the East India and other Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company into the United Kingdom, and to export from the United Kingdom into the East India or Places within such Limits in such Ships under such Regulations as His Majesty should think fit: And whereas it is expedient that such Provisions should be extended and continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Provisions, Regulations, Conditions and Restrictions, contained in the said Acts or in any Order or Orders of Council are in force, or which may be issued by His Majesty under the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament in relation to the allowing of the Importations into the United Kingdom from the East India, and other Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, or the Exportation from the United Kingdom to the East India or any Ports or Places within such Limits, of any Goods, Wares and Merchandise by the said Company or by any of His Majesty's Subjects in any such Ships or Vessels as are in the said Acts or Orders in Council defined, shall be and the same are hereby extended and continued in full force and effect, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and shall remain and be applied to all such Ships and Vessels which shall sail from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company before the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.*

All amended, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts which may be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

[See c. 134. §. 158.]

C A P. XXXVI.

An Act to repeal the Duties of Customs (a) payable on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into Great Britain from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to The United Company of Merchants of England trading to The East India; and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof; and to establish further Regulations for the better Security of the Revenue on Goods so imported; and to alter the Periods of making up and presenting certain Accounts of the said Company to Parliament; to continue in force until the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen. [17th December 1813.]

1 G 3 c 155.

WHEREAS an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for continuing in The East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; and for regulating the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter; And whereas it is necessary, in order to carry the said Act into Effect according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, that further Provisions and Regulations should be established, and that the Duties on Goods so imported into Great Britain, whether by the said United Company, or by other Persons under the Authority of the said Act, should be ascertained and regulated: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, all the several Duties of Customs (a) payable to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, upon the Importations into Great Britain of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of (a) [See in Part II. Officers of Customs in several Branches of Ships, § 15. p. 58.] (b) [19 G. 3. c. 98. Table B.] England

Periods of Customs repealed.

England trading to the East Indies, and also the several Drawbacks allowed upon the Exportation from Great Britain of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandises, having been imposed from any Port or Place within the said Limits, shall cease and determine; and except in all cases relating to the receiving, allowing or giving any Arrears thereof respectively, which may, on the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, remain unpaid or allowed, or to any Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures relating thereto respectively, which shall have been incurred at any time before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

II. And whereas it is necessary that other Duties of Customs should be granted to Your Majesty, in lieu and instead of the Duties repealed by this Act, We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, have therefore given and granted to Your Majesty the several Duties of Customs hereinafter mentioned, and do hereby beleave Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in lieu and instead of the Duties of Customs hereby made to cease and determine, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon Goods, Wares and Merchandises, imported or brought into Great Britain, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted, defined and set forth in Figures in the Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.); and that there shall also be paid or allowed the several Drawbacks of the said Duties of Customs, as the same are also respectively inserted, defined and set forth in Figures in the said Table hereunto annexed, marked (B.); any Law, Customs or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And whereas it is necessary, for the Security of the Public Revenue, that additional Regulations should be established with respect to Manifests, directed to be brought by Masters of Ships or Vessels arriving in Great Britain, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, from His Majesty's Settlements of the Cape of Good Hope, the Towns and Dependencies thereof, or from the Island of Saint Helena: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the Master or other Person having or taking the Command of every Ship or Vessel, belonging in the Whole or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, arriving in Great Britain from any of the Places before mentioned, shall have so bound a Manifest or Manifests, as described and directed by an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the Production of Manifests, and for the more effectually preventing fraudulent Practices in obtaining Bounties and Drawbacks, and in the classification and relaying of Goods; and shall produce and deliver such Manifest or Manifests, in the manner prescribed and directed by the said recited Act; and that all the Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures, required and directed by the said recited Act, shall remain in force, and be applied to the Purpose of this present Act, as far as they relate or may be applicable thereto; except where any of the said Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures, are repealed, or in any wise altered by this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That on Goods, Wares or Merchandises, shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, from any of the Ports or Places before mentioned, in any Ship or Vessel whatever, belonging in the Whole or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, unless the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel respectively, shall have on board a Manifest or Manifests in Writing, signed by such Master, and containing the Particulars described and set forth in the said recited Act, passed in the Twenty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign; and which Manifest or Manifests shall also contain the Name or Names (if the same shall be known) of the Person or Persons to whom any such Goods shall be consigned, the time when and the Place where any such Goods shall have been taken on board; and distinguishing in every Manifest the Goods which are stored in the Hold, from those which are stowed in other Parts of the Ship.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Alterations which shall, after the completion of any such Manifest, be made in the Stowage of any Ship or Vessel, by the Removal of any Goods from the Hold to any other Part of the Vessel, or from any other Part of the Vessel to the Hold, or from any one Deck of the Vessel to any other Deck, shall be registered, on the Day of such Removal, in the Log Book or Journal kept by the Master of the Vessel, and also in a Supplementary Manifest which shall be kept for the Purpose of registering any such Alterations in the Stowage of Goods by any such Removals as aforesaid; and every such Supplementary Manifest shall be attached to and kept with the Original Manifest to which it refers.

VI. And be it further enacted, That before any such Ship or Vessel shall clear or depart from the Port or Place wherein the Lading or any Part thereof shall have been taken on board, the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel, shall prepare and deliver a Manifest in Writing, as heretofore required, to the Officer who shall or may be appointed by the Governor, or by the Person or Persons exercising the Powers and Authorities of Government of any such Settlement or Place; and such Master or other Person aforesaid shall verify upon Oath the Truth of the Contents of the said Manifest before the said Person or Persons so appointed (which Oath the said Officer is hereby authorized and required to administer), and also to cause a Duplicate thereof to be forthwith made, and to deliver upon the Original Manifest their Name, with the Day and Year on which the same was produced to him; which said Original Manifest shall then be returned to the said Master or other Person aforesaid, on or before the Clearing or Departure of any such Ship or Vessel; and such Officer, as appointed as aforesaid, shall, by the first Opportunity other than by the same Ship or Vessel, transmit the said Duplicate of such Manifest to be made as before directed under his Hand and Seal, to the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland, as the case may require.

for the Purpose of such Importations, under the Rules, Regulations and Provisions of the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, either by the said United Company or by any Person or Persons so trading under the Authority of the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, and of this present Act, shall be lodged and secured in Warehouses approved by the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively, or any Three or more of them, for the time being; subject to all the Rules, Regulations, Securities and Provisions, devised and required by any Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain, as is provided in Warehouses without Payment of Duty; or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament made for amending or explaining the said Act, in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing contained either in the said recited Act, passed in the Thirty ninth Year, or in the recited Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to exempt any of the Goods, Wares or Merchandise so warehoused as aforesaid, from the Payment of the Duties of Customs imposed by this Act on any such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, as the same are respectively described and set forth in the Table hereto annexed marked (A.), under the Head of Warehousing Duties; which Duties shall and may be paid at any time previous to the Delivery of any such Goods, Wares and Merchandise from such Warehouse, either for the Purpose of Exportation or Home Consumption.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said United Company to lease by Bond, in the usual and accustomed manner, the several Duties of Customs imposed by this Act on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported by the said Company; and such Bonds shall be given under such Penalties and Conditions, and for such Periods, as to the Payment of the said Duties, in like manner as Bonds were given for the Payment of Duties of Customs by the said United Company before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Proprietors or Proprietors, Partner or Partners, of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, which, having been imported from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and secured in approved Warehouses, and on which Goods the Duties imposed by this Act, under the Description of Warehousing Duties, as the same are respectively described and set forth in Figures in the Table hereto annexed, marked (A.), shall have been paid or secured, to export the same directly from any such Warehouse, without Payment of any further Duty of Customs or Excise whatever; subject nevertheless to all and every the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Securities, devised and required by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, as far as the same are applicable.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Proprietor or Proprietors, Partner or Partners of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, imported as aforesaid (not being prohibited as to use or consumed in Great Britain), on which the Duties imposed by this Act under the Description of Warehousing Duties shall have been paid, shall intend to make the same out of the Warehouse whereas the same shall have been lodged as aforesaid, in order to be used or consumed in Great Britain, the Person or Persons so intending to take out any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be delivered from any such Warehouse, make a due Entry of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise with the proper Officers of His Majesty's Customs, and pay down in ready Money to the Collector or other proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, the full Duties due and payable on such Goods, as the same are respectively described and set forth in Figures in the Table hereto annexed, marked (B.), under the Description of Home Consumption Duties, together with such Duties of Excise and other Duties as may be due and payable on such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, at the time the same shall be taken out of such Warehouse, in order to be used or consumed in Great Britain.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That as Goods, Wares or Merchandise whatever, which may have been imported into Great Britain by the said United East India Company, before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and lodged and secured in Warehouses, shall be delivered from any such Warehouse, either for Exportation or Home Consumption, and the Duties imposed by this Act, and entered and set forth in the Table hereto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), under the Description of Warehousing Duties, or Home Consumption Duties (as the case may be), shall be fully paid; notwithstanding such Goods, Wares or Merchandise may have been imported and sold before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the several Drawbacks to be paid or allowed on the Exportation from Great Britain, of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise, as the same are respectively described and set forth in Figures in the Table hereto annexed, marked (B.), shall not be paid or allowed, unless such Goods shall be exported or shipped for the Purpose of Exportation, within Twelve Calendar Months from the Day on which the Home Consumption Duty shall have been paid thereon.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the Duties of Customs imposed by this Act on the Goods, Wares and Merchandise, enumerated and described in the Table hereto annexed, marked (A.), are charged, not according to the Weight, Tare, Gauge or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be ascertained, whether such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, shall have been imported by the said United East India Company, or by any other Person or Persons, according to the Declaration of the Value thereof, in like Manner and Form, and under the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions and such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, shall be subject and liable to such and the like Forfeitures and Penalties as are prescribed, directed and imposed, for ascertaining and collecting Duties to be paid according to the Value, by an Act passed in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof; and for applying the said Duties, together with others comprising the Public Revenue, for providing the Improvement of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise, the Produce or Manufacture of the European Dominions of the British King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies remaining in the Exchequer, for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, &c. the Reduction of the National Debt; or by any other subsequent Act or Acts (a) relative thereto, in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen. [a] [See 45 G. 3. c. 66. § 18.—49 G. 3. c. 68. § 18.—c. 128. § 1. post.]

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the Duties of Customs imposed by this Act on the Goods, Wares and Merchandise enumerated or described in the Table hereto annexed, marked (B.), are charged, not according to the Weight, Tare, Gauge or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, the Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, which shall be imported into the Port of London either by the said United East India Company, or by any other Person or Persons, or which, having been imported into any Part of the United Kingdom other than the Port of London, shall have been removed to the Port of London for the Purpose of Sale for Home Consumption, under the Authority of the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, shall be ascertained according to the gross Price at which such Goods shall be sold at the Public Sale of the said United East India Company, without any Deduction or Abatement whatever.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the Duties of Customs imposed by this Act on the Goods, Wares or Merchandise enumerated and described in the Table hereto annexed, marked (B.), are charged, not according to the Weight, Tare, Gauge or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, the Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise respectively, which shall be imported into any Part of Great Britain other than the Port of London, except such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, which by the said recited Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, are required to be removed to the Port of London for the Purpose of Sale for Home Consumption, shall be ascertained according to the Declaration of the Value thereof, in like Manner and Form, and under the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions; and such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, shall be subject and liable to such and the like Forfeitures and Penalties as are prescribed, directed and imposed, for ascertaining and collecting Duties to be paid according to the Value by the before recited Act, passed in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or by any other subsequent Act or Acts (b) relative thereto, in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen. [b] [See Note to § 25.]

XXVIII. And whereas by this Act Duties of Customs are payable on certain Articles, according to the true and real Value thereof, to be ascertained by the gross Price at which such Goods shall have been publicly sold at the Sales of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies: And whereas much Inconvenience and Delay hath arisen in the Payment of the Duties and Delivery of the Articles brought from the East Indies, either as Presents or for Private Use, particularly Specimens of Natural History, Models, Drawings, and other Articles, tending to illustrate or improve the Arts or Sciences, arising from the Necessity of such Articles being exposed to Public Sale by the East India Company, in order to ascertain the Value according to which the Duties payable by Law are to be levied and collected, and such Articles are also thereby exposed to great Injury and Damage: And whereas it is expedient, in order to remedy such Inconvenience and Delay, that the Duties of Customs payable on such Goods should be ascertained, without the same being in future exposed to Public Sale: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons who shall import or bring into Great Britain, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, any of the Articles before mentioned, or any Articles whatever (not being prohibited to be used, or consumed in Great Britain), on which the Duties of Customs are now chargeable according to the Value thereof, either as Presents or for Private Use, and not by way of Merchandise, to enter the same with the proper Officers of His Majesty's Customs, such Goods having been first lodged and bonded in Warehouses according to Law; and that the Value of such Goods, according to which the Duties of Customs are due and payable, shall be ascertained according to the Declaration of the Value thereof, to be made by the Owner or Proprietor, or his known Agent, in like Manner and Form, and under all the Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, and subject and liable to such and the like Forfeitures and Penalties, as are prescribed, directed and imposed with respect to Goods not imported by the East India Company, and on which the Duties of Customs are payable according to the Value thereof.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That any such Goods on which the Duties of Customs have not been paid, may be entered, and the Value ascertained, according to the Declaration of this Act, notwithstanding such Goods may have been imported or brought into Great Britain on or before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen: Provided always, that no such Goods shall be admitted to entry under the Authority of this Act, until a Proof shall be made on Oath, before the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs of the Port of Great Britain into which such Goods shall have been imported or brought, that such Goods were imported or brought for Private Use, and not by way of Merchandise.

XXX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all Goods, Wares and Merchandise, of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of any Country or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, taken and consumed as Prior, shall be lodged

40 G. 3. c. 42 § 32.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Duties imposed by this Act upon the Importation of Sugar, as imported, described and set forth in the Table hereunto annexed, marked [B.], shall continue and be in force until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and so longer, and shall be appropriated, applied and accounted for, according to the Provision of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for continuing to His Majesty certain Duties on Molasses, Sugar, Tobacco and Snuff in Great Britain; and on Perfumes, Office and Personal Estates in England, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen; and that a separate Account of such Duties shall be kept at the Customs House, distinct and apart from all other Duties of Customs; and the same shall be paid into the Exchequer, pursuant to the Provisions of the last recited Act, as to the Duties by the said Act granted on Sugar.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the time being, to suspend the Payment of a Part of the Temporary or War Duty on Sugar imposed by this Act, in like manner, and in such Proportion and according to the Average Price of Sugar, as the Lords of His Majesty's Treasury are authorized to do with respect to other Sugar imported into Great Britain, by virtue of an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for repealing the several Acts of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall appear by Notice in the London Gazette, in the manner directed by an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty during the present War, and for ten Months after the Expiration thereof, by the Ratification of a Defensive Treaty of Peace, additional Duties on certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into and exported from, or brought or carried Coastwise within Great Britain, that the Average Price of Brown or Muscovado Sugar, taken in the manner directed by the last recited Act, for Four Months preceding the Tenth Day of January, the Fifth Day of May and the Fifth Day of September respectively, in every Year, shall exceed Sixty Shillings the Hundred Weight, then and in such case, One Shilling in the Hundred Weight, Part of the Permanent Duty on Sugar imposed by this Act, shall be suspended, until a new Average Price, in the manner directed by the last recited Act, shall be published; and if such Average Price shall exceed the Sum of Sixty one Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Two Shillings in the Hundred Weight, Part of the said Duty, shall be suspended; and in like manner, if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty two Shillings the Hundred Weight, then three Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty three Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Four Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty four Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Five Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty five Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Six Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty six Shillings the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty seven Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Eight Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty eight Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Nine Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; and if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty nine Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Ten Shillings in the Hundred Weight, Part of the said Duty, shall be suspended.

XXXIV. And whereas certain Bounties are allowed on the Exportation of Refined Sugar produced from Raw Sugar imported from the British Plantations in America: And whereas it is expedient that the like Bounties should be allowed on the Exportation from Great Britain of Refined Sugar produced from Sugar imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or by Persons authorized to trade within the Limits of the Charter granted to the said United Company: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, there shall be paid and allowed on the Exportation from Great Britain of Refined Sugar produced from Sugar imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or by any Person or Persons authorized to Trade within the Limits of the Charter granted to the said United Company, the like Bounty as is now or hereafter may be allowed by Law on the Exportation from Great Britain of the like Sort or Description of Refined Sugar produced from Raw Sugar imported from the British Plantations in America: subject in every respect to the Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Refinements, Penalties and Forfeitures now by Law provided and applied with Respect to the Bounty allowed on the Exportation of Refined Sugar.

XXXV. And whereas it is necessary that some further Provision should be made to prevent the illegal Importation of Tea into the Kingdom: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, if any Ship or Vessel coming from Foreign Parts, and belonging wholly or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, or wherein One Half of the Persons on board shall be Subjects of His Majesty (other than and except such Ships or Vessels as shall belong to or be employed by the

the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, shall be found on the High Seas, or shall be discovered to have been within the Limits, having on board any Tonnage exceeding Six Tons in the Whole, except Tonnage for the Use of the Port on board, not exceeding One Pound for each Port, then not only such Tonnage together with the Packages containing the same, but also every such Ship or Vessel together with all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officers or Officers of His Majesty's Navy or Marines, or of the Customs in India.

[See § 56. as to such Seizures by Officers of Customs.]

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Goods, Wares or Merchandise, and all Ships or Vessels forfeited by this Act, may and shall be seized by the Commander or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any Commissioned, Warranted or Private Officer (especially appointed by him or them, or by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs (a) ; and that every Forfeiture incurred by this Act, and whereof the Recovery is not specially provided for by this Act, may and shall respectively be paid for, prosecuted and recovered in such Courts, and by such and the like ways, means and methods, and the Proceeds thereof respectively disposed and applied in such and the like manner, and to such and the like uses and purposes, as any Forfeiture incurred by any Law respecting the Revenue of Customs (a) may now be paid for, prosecuted or recovered, disposed of and applied, either in Great Britain, or in the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or in any of His Majesty's other Dominions or in any of Europe respectively, as the case may happen to be.

(a) [See § 35. ante, as to such Seizures by Officers of Customs.]

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act, or in the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, vary or repeal any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, for prohibiting the Consumption or Use of any Foreign Manufactures or Goods Great Britain; but that all and singular the said Acts, and the Provisions, Penalties and Regulations therein contained respectively, shall remain and continue of the same Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act and the said before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament had not been made; so that the said Acts and the said recited Act or the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to permit or allow any Goods, Wares or Merchandise whatever, to be imported into or exported from Great Britain, in any way or manner contrary to any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, except in so far as where Provision is expressly made that the Purpose by this Act, or by the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Duties granted and imposed by this Act, and made payable according to the Weight, Tare, Gauge, Measure or Value of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, charged with such Duties, shall be charged and payable upon any greater or less Weight, Number, Quantity or Value thereof, than the Weight, Number, Quantity or Value particularly ascertained, described and set forth in the Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), in proportion to the actual Weight, Number, Quantity or Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise.

XL. And whereas it is expedient that Goods, Wares and Merchandise, legally imported into that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, should be allowed to be imported into Great Britain directly from Ireland; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise so imported as aforesaid into Ireland, shall and may be imported directly from thence into any of those Ports in Great Britain, which shall have been or may be declared fit and proper for the safe Callado of such Goods; and all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise so imported into Great Britain, shall be subject and liable to such and the like Duties on Importation, and entitled to such and the like Drawbacks on Exportation, as the like Articles would be subject and liable to, if imported directly into Great Britain from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company; and all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall in every other respect be subject and liable to the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Limitations and Conditions, and to the same Penalties and Forfeitures, and shall and may be warehoused under the same Regulations, Securities and Conditions, as such Goods, Wares or Merchandise would be subject and liable or entitled to, if the same had been imported into Great Britain directly from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company, any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to alter the manner in which the Duties of Customs payable on the Importation of Tea into Great Britain, are now paid or secured, but that the said Duties shall continue to be paid or secured as heretofore.

XLII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or alter any of the Provisions contained in Two Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, the one made in the Parliament of Great Britain in the Thirty sixth and Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and the other made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or any other Act or Acts in force as or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by which any Goods, Wares or Merchandise imported from Ireland into Great Britain, or any Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported from Great Britain to Ireland, XLIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or repeal, or in any wise to affect the Tonnage Duty on Ships and Vessels entering Inwards or Outwards in any Port in Great Britain, from or to Foreign Parts, granted by an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof.

XLIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or repeal or in any wise to affect any of the Duties on Ships or Vessels, according to the Tonnage thereof, granted by an Act passed in the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for rendering more commodious, and for better regulating the Port of London; or by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act in relation to the Advancement of further Sums of Money out of the Consolidated Fund, to be applied to the Improvement of the Port of London, by the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of London, in Common Council assembled; and to empower the Lord Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to purchase the Royal Quays between London Bridge and the Tower of London.

XLV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to, or in any wise affect, alter, vary or repeal, any of the Duties granted by, or any of the Provisions contained in an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for making further Provision for the efficient Performance of Quarantine; or so an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for making additional and further Provision for the efficient Performance of Quarantine in Great Britain.

XLVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or repeal, or in any wise to affect any of the Rates or Duties granted and made payable to the East India Dock Company, by any Act (s) or Acts of Parliament in force or to immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen. (s) [43 G. 3. c. cxxv. § 6.]

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or in any wise alter the Duties of Package, Scavage, Ballage or Portage, or any other Duties payable to the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or to the Lord Mayor of the said City for the time being, or to any other City or Town Corporate within Great Britain, or any other special Privilege or Exemption to which any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, is or are now entitled by Law; but the same shall be construed as heretofore.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, vary or repeal any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by which Duties of Excise are imposed on any Article imported or brought into Great Britain, or by which any Licences, Rules, Regulations or Restrictions are made or provided for the raising any of the Duties of Excise, but that the same shall remain in full Force and Effect as if this Act had not been made.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That every Act of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by which any Rules, Regulations, Conditions or Restrictions were made, established or directed, for the ascertaining the Value of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, or for the raising or allowing of any Deductions of any Duties on account of Damage, or for the better securing the Revenue of Customs, or for the regular Importation into or Exportation from Great Britain, or the bringing or carrying Coastwise, or from any Port to Port within Great Britain, or the carrying, landing or shipping of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise whatsoever, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act; and all Provisions, Clauses, Matters and Things relating thereto, shall and are hereby declared to be and remain in full Force and Effect, and shall be applied to the Subject of this Act, and for carrying the same into Execution as fully and effectually as if they had been repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

L. And be it further enacted, That the several Sums of Money respectively inserted, described and set forth in Figures in the said Tables hereto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), as the Duties of Customs, and the Drawbacks of the Duties of Customs, upon, or in respect of the several Goods, Wares or Merchandise specified therein, may and shall respectively be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, assewered, paid, recovered and allowed, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act, in such and the like manner, and by the same means, ways or methods, as former Duties of Customs and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs upon Goods, Wares or Merchandise in general, and also by any such special means, ways or methods respectively as former Duties of Customs and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs upon Goods, Wares or Merchandise of the same Sorts or Kinds, were or might be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, assewered, paid, recovered and allowed; and the Goods, Wares or Merchandise whereof Duties of Customs are by this Act charged, and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs allowed, as the same are respectively inserted, described and set forth in the said Tables hereto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.) upon the Importation thereof into, or Exportation thereof from Great Britain, or on any other account whatsoever, shall be and the same are hereby made subject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Restrictions, Seizures and Forfeitures, to which Goods, Wares or Merchandise in general, and also all and every the special Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Seizures, Sales and Forfeitures respectively, to which the like Goods, Wares or Merchandise were subject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament to be seized on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, respecting the Revenue of Customs, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act; and all Fines, Penalties, Fines and Forfeitures, of whatever nature or kind the same may be, as well Fines of Death as others, for any Offence whatever, committed against or in breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, made for securing the Revenue of Customs, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the General Clauses, Powers, Provisions and Declarations contained in any such Act or Acts, shall (unless where expressly altered by this Act) and any hereby directed and declared to extend to, and shall be respectively applied, professed and put in Execution, for and in respect of the several Duties of Customs and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs hereby charged and allowed, in as full and ample manner, in all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and made Part thereof.

LI. And be it further enacted, That each of the Duties of Customs by this Act imposed or shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England for the time being; and each thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland for the time being.

LII. And be it further enacted, That the Duties of Customs by this Act imposed on Goods, Wares and Merchandise, and which are particularly described and set forth in Figures in the Tables hereto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), under the Title and Description of Temporary or War Duties, shall continue in force during the War, and until Six Months after the Ratification of a Defensive Treaty of Peace. [Continued till July 1815, c. 64. pp. 8.]

LIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising from the Duties of Customs imposed by this Act, described and set forth in the Tables hereto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), under the Head of Permanent Duties (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted), shall from time to time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, and be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, and shall be appropriated, issued and applied in like manner and to the same Services as the Permanent Duties of Customs hereby repealed would have been appropriated, issued and applied if this Act had not been passed; and that the Monies arising from the Duties of Customs, as the same are described and set forth in the Tables hereto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), under the Head of Temporary or War Duties (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted), shall from time to time be appropriated, issued and applied in like manner in every respect as the Monies arising from the Duties called Temporary or War Duties, granted by an Act passed in the Tenth sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for regulating the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, were directed to be appropriated, issued and applied.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That on the due Exportation from Great Britain of any Sugar on which the Home Consumption Duty imposed by this Act shall have been paid, the Exporter or Exporters thereof shall be entitled to such and the like Drawbacks as shall be allowed at the time of such Exportation on Brown or Muscovado Sugar of the Produce of the British Plantations exported from Great Britain: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to impose any Duty on such Sugar when taken out of the Warehouses for Exportation only.

* LV. And whereas by an Act made in the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for continuing in the East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with their exclusive Trade, under certain Limitations; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; for appropriating to certain Uses the Revenue and Profits of the said Company; and for making Provision for the good Order and Government of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, it is, among other things, enacted, that the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies should, within the First Fourteen Sitting Days after the Thirtieth Day of March in every Year, lay before the Court of Directors before Parliament: And whereas it is expedient to alter the Periods for making up and presenting the said Accounts to Parliament: Be it therefore enacted, That the several Accounts directed by the said recited Act to be presented to Parliament shall, by the Court of Directors of the said United Company, be usually made up to the First Day of May, and be presented to both Houses of Parliament within the First Fourteen Sitting Days after the said Period, in every Year; any thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Fact complained of, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence as any Trial to be had thereon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be acquitted, or shall sustain loss, her or their Action or Suit, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared; or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant had in other cases to recover Costs by Law.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act, or any of the Provisions thereof, may be altered, amended or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

Continuance of Act.

LVIII. And he it further enacted, That this Act and every thing herein contained, shall continue in force (except where any special Continuance is directed by this Act) until the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and no longer.

[17th December 1813.]

WHEREAS an Act made in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for repealing Two Acts, made in the Forty fourth and Forty seventh Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the more effectual Administration of the Office of a Justice of the Peace, in such Parts of the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey as lie in and near the Metropolis, and for the more effectual Prevention of Frauds, and for making other Provisions in lieu thereof; to continue in force until the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and from thence until the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be repealed, and more effectual Provisions made in lieu thereof: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That the several Public Offices now established in the following Places, namely, the Parishes of Saint Margaret Wyke, Saint James Wyke, Saint Andrew Holborn, Saint Leonard Shoreditch, Saint Mary Whitechapel and Saint Paul Shoreditch, in the County of Middlesex, and the Parish of Saint Andrew, in the Borough of Southwark, in the County of Surrey, shall be continued, and the several Persons appointed by His Majesty to execute the Office of Justice of the Peace at each of the said Offices, by virtue of the said Act, shall continue to execute the same, together with such other Justices of the Peace for the said Counties respectively as may think proper to attend.

III. And be it further enacted, That in and may be lawful for His Majesty, from time to time, upon any Vacancy in any of the said Offices, by Death or otherwise, to appoint other fit and proper Persons, being Justices of the Peace of the said Counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively, to execute the Duties of the said Office in his Place; and that one or more of the said Justices be appointed as aforesaid, shall diligently attend at each of the said Public Offices every Day from Ten of the Clock in the Morning until Eight of the Clock in the Evening, and at such other Times and Places as shall be found necessary; and that Two of the said Justices so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall in like manner attend together at each of the said Offices from Twelve of the Clock at Noon until Three in the Afternoon.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, County of Surrey, City and Liberty of Wyke or Liberty of the Tower of London, or his or their Clerk or Clerks, or any Person for them, other than at the said Public Offices, shall directly or indirectly, upon any Pretence or under any Colour whatever, take or receive any Fee, Gratuity, Reward or Remuneration, for any Act by him or them done or to be done in the Execution of his or their Office or Employment as Justice or Justices of the Peace, Clerk or Clerks as aforesaid, within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within the Parishes of Saint Mary le Bow, Parish of Saint Pancras, Kingsland and Saint Luke in Christchurch, in the said County of Middlesex, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every such Offence; to be recovered, one Moiety thereof to the Receiver appointed in the Statute hereinafter mentioned, to be applied to the Purposes of this Act, and the other Moiety thereof, with full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons who shall sue for the same in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Wyke, by Action of Debt, Plea or Information, wherein as Costs, Perdiage, Wages of Law, or more than One Impetition shall be allowed: Provided always nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to any Fees taken at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace or at any Meeting of Justices, for the Purpose of hearing Allocations, pursuant to an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for regulating the manner of hearing Allocations in that Part of Great Britain called England; and for the more effectual preventing Persons selling Ale and other Liquors without Licenses; or to any Fees taken at a certain Public Office within the Liberty of Wyke, known by the Name of The Public Office in Bow Street; or to any Fees taken by any Vestry Clerk or his Assistant, as Clerk to any Justice or Justices of the Peace sitting within the Parish in which such Justice or Justices reside, for the Purpose of enforcing the Payment of any Tax or Assessment arising within the same Parish, or for the Purpose of licensing and determining any Offence regulable by a Justice or Justices of the Peace, by virtue of any Statute made and provided for the special Regulation or Government of such Parish.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Justices so appointed to attend at the said Seven Public Offices as aforesaid, and their Clerks respectively, shall, as Books to be provided for that Purpose, keep a full, true and particular Account of all the Fees taken and received at each of the said Offices, together with all Penalties and Forfeitures which shall have been recovered, levied or received in pursuance of any Adjudication, Conviction or Order, had or made at any of the said Seven Public Offices, or any Process or Warrant issuing from the same; to which said Books and Accounts the Receiver to be appointed in manner hereinafter mentioned shall at all times have free Access; and the said Justices shall, once in every Month, deliver unto such Receiver such Accounts, certified upon Oath by such Justice or Justices, their Clerk or Clerks, and such other Person or Persons

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the said Recesser out of the Moneys heretofore directed to be applied in Discharge of the Salaries, Expenses and Charges attending the said Public Offices, shall and may pay to the Constables so appointed as aforesaid, for their Trouble and Attendance as aforesaid, such Sum as may from time to time appear reasonable to His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department, and any extraordinary Expenses they shall appear to have been necessarily put to in apprehending Offenders, and executing the Orders of the Justices acting under and by virtue of this Act; such extraordinary Expenses being first examined and approved of by the Justices attending the Office in which such Constables shall have been respectively appointed.

XVIII. And whereas divers ill disposed and suspected Persons and reputed Thieves frequent Places of Public Resort, the Avenues leading thence, and the Streets and Highways, and Places adjacent, with Intent to commit Felony on the Persons and Property of His Majesty's Subjects there being; and although their evil Purposes are sufficiently manifest, the Power of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, to demand of them Sureties for their Good Behaviour, hath not been of sufficient Effect to prevent them from carrying their evil Purposes into Execution: Be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Constable, Headborough, Parole, Watchman or other Person to apprehend every such suspected Person or reputed Thief, and convey him or them before any Justice of the Peace; and if it shall appear before the said Justice upon the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, that such Person or Persons be brought before him, by such Constable, Headborough, Parole or Watchman, or by any other Person whatever, as well within the said Counties of Middlesex and Surrey, or elsewhere, as he be a Person or Persons of evil Fame and a reputed Thief or Thieves, and such Person or Persons shall not be able to give a satisfactory Account of himself or themselves, and of his or their way of living, and it shall also appear to the Satisfaction of the said Justice that there is a just Ground to believe that such Person or Persons were or were in such Public Place of Resort, Avenue, Street, Highway or Place adjacent as aforesaid, with such Intent as aforesaid, every such Person shall be deemed a Rogue and Vagabond, within the Intent and Meaning of the Statute made in the Seventeenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every such Conviction shall be in the following Form of Words as the case may happen, or in any other Form of Words to the like Effect:

BE it remembered, That on the Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord _____ A.D. is brought before me C. D. Esquire, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the County of _____ (or, City, Liberty or Place, or the city may be), and charged before me the said Justice with being a Rogue and Vagabond; he the said A.B. having been apprehended on the Day of _____ in a certain _____ called _____ in the Parish of _____ in the said County [or, City, town, or the city may be]; and it appearing to me the said Justice, on the Oath of _____ a credible Witness, that the said A.B. is a Person of evil Fame and a reputed Thief; and the said A.B. on his Examination before me set being able to give a satisfactory Account of himself, or of his way of living, and it also appearing to the Satisfaction of me the said Justice, that there is just Ground to believe the said A.B. was in such _____ aforesaid, with Intent to commit Felony on the Person or Property of His Majesty's Subjects there being; I do therefore, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled [here insert the Title of this Act], convict him the said A.B. of the said Offence, and adjudge him to be a Rogue and Vagabond, within the Intent and Meaning of the Statute made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the second, intituled An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds, and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction; and that he for his said Offence be committed to the House of Correction for the said County, until the next General or Quarter [or the city may be] Session of the Peace to be holden for the said County, City or Place [or the city may be] then and there to be further dealt with according to Law. [If the Party is committed for a less time than usual the Session, then say, there is reason for the Space of _____.]

s. 10.

And that such Conviction shall be good and effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes, and shall not be quashed or set aside, or adjudged void or insufficient, for want of any other Form of Words whatever; nor shall the same be reversed by Certiorari into His Majesty's Court of King's Bench.

XX. *Provided always, and he it further enacted, That if any Person shall think himself aggrieved by the Judgment of such Justice as aforesaid, such Person may appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General or Quarter Session of the Peace to be held for the County or Place wherein the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, such Person at the time of his Application entering into a Recognizance with Two sufficient Sureties conditioned perfectly to appear at the said Sessions to try such Appeal, and to abide the further Judgment of the Justices at such Sessions assembled; and in case such Conviction shall be affirmed at such Sessions, the said Justices may adjudge such Person to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and proceed against such Person in the same manner as they might have done if such Rogue and Vagabond had been committed to the House of Correction until such General or Quarter Sessions; and in case such Person shall not appear pursuant to the said Recognizance, the Person so convicted by such Justice shall be deemed an incorrigible Rogue, unless the Intent and Meaning of an Act made and passed in the Seventeenth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds, and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction; and the said Justices at such Sessions, or any Two of them, shall issue their Warrant to apprehend and commit the Person so deemed an incorrigible Rogue to some House of Correction or Common Goal within their Jurisdiction, there to remain until the next General or Quarter Session for the said County, [Liberty, or City, as the case may be,] then and there to be further dealt with according to Law: *Provided always, that no Person convicted under this Act shall be deemed subject or liable to Punishment by Whipping.

XXI. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to deprive the Mayor and Corporation and Citizens of the City of London, of any Rights, Privileges or Jurisdictions, which they have heretofore lawfully claimed, exercised or enjoyed, within the Town and Borough of Southwark and the Liberties thereof; or to prevent the Mayor of the City of London for the time being, and each of the Aldermen of the said City who have borne the Office of Mayorship, and the Recorder of the said City for the time being, from acting as Justices of the Peace within the said Town and Borough of Southwark, and the Liberties thereof, in such and the like manner as they could or might have done in case this Act had not been made.

XXII. Provided always, and he it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to deprive the Dean of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter Westminster for the time being, or the High Steward of the City and Liberty of Westminster for the time being, or his lawful Deputy, of any Rights, Privileges or Jurisdictions which they have heretofore lawfully claimed, exercised or enjoyed within the said City and Liberty, in such and the like manner as they could or might have done in case this Act had not been made.

XXIII. *And whereas it is expedient that the Officers and Patrols belonging to the said Public Office in New Street, should be sworn in as Constables, and be empowered to act within the Limits of the several Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Essex and Kent, the City and Liberty of Westminster, and the Liberty of the Tower of London; It is therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Two Justices belonging to the said Public Office in New Street (the Chief Magistrate of such Office for the time being, being one) being Justices of the said several Counties, City and Liberties, to administer to such Persons respectively as Oath duly to execute the Office of Constable within the Limits aforesaid; and each of such Persons being sworn shall have Power to act as a Constable for the Preservation of the Peace, and for the Security of Property against Felonies and other unlawful Modes of obtaining the same, within any and every of the said several Counties, City and Liberties, and for apprehending Offenders against the Peace, as well by Night as by Day; and within the Limits aforesaid, every such Constable shall have all such Powers and Authorities, Privileges and Advantages, as any Constable duly appointed now has or hereafter may have within his Constabulary: *Provided always, that when any such Constable shall be dismissed from his said Employment, or cease to belong to the said Public Office in New Street, all Powers and Authorities, Allowances, Emoluments, Privileges and Advantages, vested in the Person so dismissed or ceasing to belong to the said Office, shall immediately cease and determine.

XXIV. And he it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and from thence until the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intimated As Aft to allow a certain Proportion of the Middle of Great Britain to only annually into the Regular Forces; and to provide for the gradual Reduction of the said Militia; and it was thereby enacted, that the said Aft should not extend to the City of London (a); And whereas an Aft has been passed in this present Session of Parliament, intimated As Aft to enable His Majesty to accept the Services of a Proportion of the Militia out of the United Kingdom, for the vigorous Prosecution of the War; and it is thereby enacted, that the said Aft shall not extend to the City of London: And whereas by an Aft passed in the present Session of Parliament, intimated As Aft to enable His Majesty to accept the Services of a Proportion of the Militia of the City of London, out of the United Kingdom, for the vigorous Prosecution of the War, His Majesty has been empowered to accept the Services, and to employ in any Part of Europe, such Part of the London Militia, not exceeding Three Fourths of the Number actually serving in each Regiment of such Militia, as may make a voluntary Offer of extending their Services to all Parts of Europe: And Whereas it is highly important that the most effectual Measures should be adopted for the vigorous Prosecution of the War upon the Continents of Europe, and it is necessary to provide a permanent Supply of Men for His Majesty's Regular Forces: And Whereas the City of London, notwithstanding the Exemption from raising of Men for Military Service contained in their Charters and in the said recited Afts, we declare, and have voluntarily agreed, that His Majesty should be empowered to accept any Offers of a Proportion of the Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Private Men of the London Militia to transfer their Services into Regiments of the Line, and/or certain Regulations; and that a certain Proportion of the said Militia should be annually allowed to enlist into His Majesty's Regular Forces under certain Restrictions: May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by His King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to accept the Services, under the Regulations and Restrictions specified in the Aft, of such Part of the present London Militia not exceeding in any case Three Fourths of the Number actually serving in the said Militia, as shall be desirous of enlisting into His Majesty's Regular Forces in manner hereinafter mentioned.

(a) [No such Enactment appears.]

II. And be it further enacted, That where any Number of Private London Militia Men shall be desirous of enlisting into any Regiment of the Line of His Majesty's Regular Forces, which may be appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, as a Company or Companies of not less than One hundred Men to each Company, and His Majesty shall have signed his Letters of granting Commissions in His Majesty's Regular Forces to any Officer or Officers actually serving in the Regiment of London Militia, from which any such Company of Men shall volunteer to serve as aforesaid in His Majesty's Regular Forces as Captain, Lieutenant and Ensign of any such Company; that in every such case it shall be lawful for such Men to enlist as such Company or Companies as aforesaid, and in every such case it shall be lawful for any Number of Non Commissioned Officers, Corporals and Drummers of such Regiment of London Militia, not exceeding Five Sergeants and Six Corporals to serve as aforesaid, to enlist with any such Company of Men as aforesaid; and every Colonel and Commanding Officer of such Regiment is hereby required to discharge such Non Commissioned Officers, Corporals and Drummers as shall be desirous of enlisting as aforesaid, not exceeding such Number as aforesaid, and it shall be lawful for His Majesty to attach such Company or Companies of Men to any Regiment of the Line of His Majesty's Regular Forces to be appointed by His Majesty, or to join together any Number of such Companies and form the same into an additional Battalion or additional Battalions of any such Regiment as aforesaid, and in such case to appoint such and such Number of Field and Staff Officers to any such Battalion or Battalions as His Majesty shall think necessary: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any Number of Men less than One hundred from enlisting as Part of a Company into any Regiment to be appointed by His Majesty, under such Regulations with respect to the Proportion of Officers and Non Commissioned Officers as His Majesty may think fit to appoint.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Officer is volunteering to serve in His Majesty's Regular Forces, with any such Company of Men as aforesaid, shall upon his Reduction be entitled to and receive the Half Pay of the Rank in which he shall have been serving at the time of his Reduction.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Number of Men to be raised in either of the said Regiments under the last recited Aft (a), passed in this Session of Parliament, by extending their Services to Europe as Militia, and under this Aft by Letters of Appointment by Companies into such Regiments of the Line as may be appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, shall not altogether exceed Three Fourths of the Number of Private Men actually serving in such Regiment. (a) [C. 17. § 1. ante.]

V. And, towards providing a permanent Supply of Men for His Majesty's Regular Forces, be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty annually to accept the Services of such Men of the London Militia, not exceeding One Seventh Part of the Number of Private Men in each of the said Regiments, as shall be willing to enlist into His Majesty's Regular Forces, under the Regulations and subject to the Restrictions hereinafter mentioned, but in addition to the Men now serving in the said Militia who may enlist in Companies by virtue of the Provisions herebefore contained.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty by any Order or Orders, signed by His Majesty's Secretary of State, to name and appoint such and so many of the Regiments of His Majesty's Regular Forces in His Majesty shall think fit, to receive Volunteers from the London Militia under this Aft, out of either of the Regiments of such Militia named in any such Order; and it shall be lawful for any Number of Private Men, of each of such Regiments of Militia, not exceeding the Proportion hereinafter mentioned, to enlist in the manner and under the Regulations herein contained into any Regiment or Militia, which, as any such Order of His Majesty, shall be issued to receive Volunteers from such Regiments or Militia.

VII. And be it further enacted, That His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, viz. usually, ascertain the Number of Private Men that shall be allowed to enlist out of each Regiment of London Militia, so that the whole Number do not exceed One Seventh Part of each of the said Regiments; and His Majesty's Secretary of State shall, annually, on or before the First Day of February, signify to the Commanding Officers of each of the said Regiments the Number of Private Men that shall be allowed to enlist out of each Regiment respectively, under the Provisions of this Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to appoint such General or Field Officers respectively authorized by His Majesty, or by the Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces for that Purpose, to inspect, approve or reject the Private Men who shall be desirous of enlisting under this Act, and such Officers may approve of or reject such Private Men accordingly: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to authorize any such Officers to reject any Private Men, desirous of enlisting as aforesaid, who shall be of the Height of Five Feet and Four Inches or upwards, and under the Age of Thirty five Years, and not debilitated by Lameness or other bodily Infirmary.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Commanding Officer of each Regiment of London Militia shall, within Two Days after the Receipt of the Order as to Men enlisting, cause each Regiment to be drawn out, and such Commanding Officer shall read, or cause to be read, by some Commissioned Officer to the Regiment to be drawn out, His Majesty's Orders in relation to enlisting under this Act, and shall cause the same to be given out in Orders, and shall in such manner as His Majesty shall direct, explain to the Men the Terms upon which any Men serving in such Militia may enlist into His Majesty's Regular Forces under this Act, and shall, on the Day next succeeding, cause his Regiment to be drawn out, and the Names of the Men who shall then voluntarily declare their Intention of enlisting to be written down, and if the Number of such Men shall exceed the Proportions allowed to enlist, such Excess shall be reduced by Ballot to the Number authorized to enlist.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Number of Private Men in either of the Regiments of London Militia, who shall (when so drawn out, as aforesaid) voluntarily declare their Intention to enlist, shall not amount to the Proportions authorized to enlist as aforesaid, then and in such case, a Book shall be opened by the Commanding Officer, and it shall be lawful for any other of such Men, not exceeding the Number necessary to complete the Number allowed to enlist under this Act, at any time within Seven Days after the last Day of such Two Days on which such Regiment shall have been drawn out, to enter their Names in such Book as willing to enlist as aforesaid.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in case the whole Number of Men allowed to enlist in any One Year under the Provisions of this Act, from each or either of the said Regiments, shall not have enlisted into His Majesty's Regular Forces within the said Seven Days as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order of the Secretary of State, signified to the Commanding Officer of such Regiment, to appoint, from time to time, further Periods of Three Days each for enlisting into His Majesty's Regular Forces, until the whole Number allowed to enlist shall have declared their Intention of enlisting; and during any such Periods it shall be lawful for any Men to enlist under this Act from such Regiment in manner aforesaid: Provided always, that Ten Days Notice shall, from time to time, be given to each Commanding Officer, and by him to his Regiment, of the several Days or Periods so to be appointed for enlisting persons in each such Period, and that there be an Interval of Fourteen Days at least between each such Period of Three Days.

XII. And be it further enacted, That so soon as the Number of Private Men to be enlisted from either of such Regiments shall have been ascertained in manner by this Act directed at each of such respective Periods as aforesaid, the Commanding Officer of such Regiment is hereby required to discharge all such Private Men so to be enlisted from the Militia; and every such Private Man so discharged as aforesaid, shall, if approved by the Officer to be appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, immediately be referred to the Regiment, into which he shall have declared or shall declare his Intention to enlist, if he shall have enlisted into any Regiment of His Majesty's Regular Forces specified in His Majesty's Orders, or shall believe if he shall not have enlisted into any such Regiment as an enlisted Soldier in His Majesty's Regular Forces, and every such Man shall be thereupon immediately attested for such Service in His Majesty's Regular Forces, and shall (as soon as conveniently may be) be transferred to some Officer of the Regiment into which he shall have enlisted, or such Officer of His Majesty's Regular Forces as His Majesty may have appointed to receive Men enlisted under this Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Lintrentary of the City of London shall, within Ten Days after the receipt of any Order for that Purpose from His Majesty, signified by His Majesty's Secretary of State, transmit to His Majesty's Privy Council an accurate Account, in Writing, of the Number of Persons that shall have been discharged from the said London Militia and enlisted as aforesaid under this Act, which Account shall, in all cases where the same can be ascertained, be transmitted by the Commanding Officer of each Regiment of such Militia to such Commissioners as aforesaid for that Purpose.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Private Militia Men shall be entitled to enlist under this Act who shall be in Contempt under any Sentence of any Court Martial, or with a View to being tried by any Court Martial, until he shall have suffered the Sentence of such Court Martial, or shall have been acquitted, or until such Sentence shall have been reversed; and that no Private Militia Men shall be entitled to his Discharge or to enlist under this Act who shall have been sentenced to any Punishment by any Court Martial for any Offence committed within the Space of Three Calendar Months next before the

ment of Militia in which he shall be serving at the time of his being desirous of enlisting as aforesaid.

XV. Provided always, and to be further enacted, That it shall be lawful, with the Consent of the Officer commanding either of the said Regiments, for any Number of Sergeants and Corporals, not exceeding the Proportion of One Sergeant and One Corporal for every Twenty Men enlisting from each Regiment, to enlist in like manner and at such Periods as Part of the said Quota into His Majesty's Regular Forces; and if any greater Number of Sergeants and Corporals, than such Proportion as aforesaid, shall be desirous of enlisting as aforesaid, such Number shall be reduced by Billet to the Number authorized to enlist.

XVI. Provided also, and to be further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall authorize any Officers, appointed by His Majesty to enlist and receive Militia Men under this Act, or any Commanding Officer or other Officer or Non-Commissioned Officer of any Regiment as aforesaid, or other Person, to enlist or permit to enlist or receive any Militia Men, other than such as shall have been duly discharged by the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment of Militia to which the Person desirous of enlisting shall belong; and if any Officer shall enlist, or attempt to enlist any London Militia Men, such Men shall not be permitted to enter into the Regiment to which the Officer persuading him to enlist may belong.

XVII. And to be further enacted, That upon the Production to the Colonel or Commanding Officer of either of the Regiments of London Militia of a Certificate, under the Hand of any Justice of the Peace of any County in Great Britain, or of any Magistrate of any City, Borough, Town or Place therein, of any Private Man belonging to the Militia having voluntarily enlisted and been attested for His Majesty's Regular Forces as aforesaid (which Certificate every such Justice or Magistrate and Officer respectively is hereby required to give gratis), such Colonel or Commanding Officer is hereby required to cause the Person named in such Certificate to be discharged from the List of Militia Men serving for the City of London; provided that the Number of Men authorized by this Act to enlist shall not have previously enlisted.

XVIII. And to be further enacted, That the Adjutant of each such Regiment of Militia shall, after the Commencement of every enlisting of Men under this Act, and until the whole Number of Men allowed to enlist from his Regiment shall have enlisted, at the End of every Week after each Period of enlisting in each Year, transmit to the said Commissioners of Lunaticism an accurate Return of all the Private Men who shall have enlisted under this Act, specifying therein the Christian and Surname of each Private Man, and the Ward and Parish or Place to which he is attached, or for which he is serving at the time of such enlisting; and the said Commissioners of Lunaticism shall immediately, upon the Receipt of such Returns, transmit to the respective Overseers of the Poor, or Governors or Managers thereof, an Account of the Men allowed to or serving for their respective Parishes or Places who shall have enlisted under this Act, and all Allowances payable to the Wives and Families of any such Private Men shall cease from the time such enlisting shall have taken place.

XIX. Provided always, and to be further enacted, That in any voluntary Offer from the London Militia, which may be ordered by His Majesty, by virtue of this Act, for the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or any succeeding Year, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, if he shall think fit, to order and direct that the Number so permitted to enlist into the Regular Forces, from the said London Militia, may transfer their Services into that Part of the London Militia forming in Europe, under the Provisions of the said last recited Act (a) of this present Session of Parliament, or may enlist as Companies, or Parts of Companies, under the Provisions of this Act, and in the manner hereinafter specified with regard to the specific Quota which each of the said Regiments is by this Act required to furnish.

(a) [c. 17. ante.]

XX. Provided always, and to be further enacted, That no Person serving in the London Militia, who shall be usually employed as Adjutant's Clerk or Regimental Clerk, or as a Drummer, or as a Musician in the Band of the Regiment to which he shall belong, or shall be usually employed as an Artificer in such Regiment, shall be entitled to his Discharge, or to enlist into the Regular Forces as Part of a Company, or as an Enlistment for the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or any succeeding Year, under this Act, unless he shall obtain the Consent for that Purpose of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment in which he shall be then serving.

XXI. And to be further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commanding Officer of either Regiment of London Militia to refuse to discharge any Private Militia Man who shall desire his Discharge for the Purpose of being enlisted into the Regular Forces, as Part of a Company, or as an Enlistment for the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or any succeeding Year, under this Act, upon signing in Writing to the General Officer commanding to the District within which such Regiment of Militia shall be quartered, or to the Adjutant General of His Majesty's Forces, where there shall not be such General Officer as aforesaid, such Cause for his Refusal as shall be deemed sufficient by such General Officer or Adjutant General, as the case may be.

XXII. Provided always, and to be further enacted, That if any Person discharged from the London Militia for the Purpose of being enlisted into His Majesty's Regular Forces as Part of a Company, or as an Enlistment for the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or any succeeding Year, under this Act, shall not withstanding refuse to enlist pursuant to any Declaration of being desirous to enlist, to be made by him as aforesaid, or shall not be approved of by the Officer appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, then and in every such case such Person shall continue to belong to the Regiment of London Militia from which he shall have been discharged for the Purpose of enlisting as aforesaid notwithstanding any such Discharge.

XXIII. And to be further enacted, That every Person who shall be enlisted to serve in any Regiment so named and appointed as aforesaid, as Part of a Company, or as an Enlistment for the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or any succeeding Year, shall serve in the Regiment in which he shall have originally

originally enlisted to serve, and in no other Regiment whatever; and no Person enlisting in any such Regiment shall on any Account or Pretence whatsoever be divided into or serve in any other Regiment without his Consent, except in some Garrison or Veteran Battalion, in case it shall be necessary or expedient to transfer such Person into any Garrison or Veteran Battalion, on account of his being disabled, or for any other sufficient Cause; and every such Person may also be transferred from one Battalion to another of any Regiment in which he may be serving.

XXIV. And, for replacing the Number of Men heretofore allowed to enlist by Companies or Parts of Companies, and actually, into the Regular Forces out of the Landes Militia, he is further enacted, That three shall be raised from nine to three, in manner hereinafter expressed, a Number of Private Militia Men, equal to the Number of Rank and File, as shall enlist into His Majesty's Regular Forces, as well in Companies or Parts of Companies, as actually, by virtue of this Act.

XXV. And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, when it shall appear to His Majesty to be necessary for the more speedily completing the Number of Men to be raised for the Militia, from time to time, under the Provisions of this Act, to order and direct, under an Order of His Majesty in Council, that the Commissioners of Lieutenancy of the City of London, or the Colonels or Commanding Officers of the Two Regiments of Militia, and the Commissioned Officers, Adjutants, Quarter Masters, Staff Sergeants, Non-Commissioned Officers and Drummers of the London Militia, duly authorized by their Commanding Officers for the time being, or by other proper Order or Warrant, by Best of Drum or otherwise, in the Counties of Middlesex, Essex, Surrey and Kent, or any of them, to raise Volunteers for the Regiments of London Militia, for the completing the Number of Men required to be raised and enrolled under the Provisions of this Act, and to direct that the raising of Men by the City of London, under the Provisions heretofore contained, shall either cease or proceed together with such raising or enrolling of Men, by Best of Drum or otherwise, as aforesaid, and every Volunteer so raised as aforesaid, shall take the following Oath; to-wit,

'I, A. B. do solemnly promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to His Majesty King George, his Heirs and Successors, and that I will faithfully serve in the London Militia during the Term of Five Years, and thenceforth during the Remainder of the War, and until the Expiration of Six Months after the Termination thereof, to be reckoned from the Ratification of any Definitive Treaty of Peace, which I shall be lawfully discharged.'

And every Man taking such Oath shall be enrolled to serve in the London Militia according to the Terms of such Oath, and such several Enrollments shall take place, and such Oaths shall be administered in the manner in the said Acts of the Thirty fourth and Thirty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty directed with respect to the Men raised by virtue of those Acts, or by any Justice of the Peace, or Deputy Lieutenant for the County in which such Volunteers shall have been raised, or in which the Regiment for which he shall have been raised shall be at the time of his joining such Regiment.

XXVI. And he is further enacted, That the Colonels or Commanding Officers for the time being, of the Regiments of Militia for which any Men shall be so raised as aforesaid, shall, at the Expiration of every Month from the Commencement of enlisting such Volunteers as aforesaid, transmit to the Commissioners of Lieutenancy of the City of London, a Certificate of the Number of Men raised for their respective Regiments, according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed/marked (A.)

XXVII. And he is further enacted, That a Sum not exceeding Twelve Guineas, shall be allowed and paid in respect of every Man who shall be provided or raised for the London Militia as a Volunteer by Best of Drum or otherwise, under the Provisions heretofore contained, and such Part of such Sum shall be applied towards the Expenses of procuring the Volunteer, and the remaining Part as a Bounty to the Volunteer, and such Bounty shall be paid or applied to the Use of every such Man, at such Times and Places, and in such Proportions, as to any Advances of any Part thereof, and in such manner, and under and subject to such Regulations and Restrictions as His Majesty shall, by any Order of His Principal Secretary of State, by any Regulations from time to time made in that behalf, be pleased to order and direct, and it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, to order any Receiver General in England to advance and pay any Sum or Sums of Money for or in respect of any such Bounties, or any Advances in respect thereof, as may be necessary, out of any Public Monies in their Hands, or received or receivable by them, out of any Rates and Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and all Monies paid under any such Orders as aforesaid shall be good and valid, and be allowed to all such Receivers General as their Agents.

XXVIII. And he is further enacted, That of the Number of Persons to be raised for the London Militia, under this Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to direct that such Proportion as He shall think fit, not exceeding One fourth Part of the whole Number of Persons to be raised within the same Year, shall consist of Boys of the Age of Fourteen Years and upwards, of such Height as His Majesty may direct, who shall be raised by Best of Drum.

XXIX. And he is further enacted, That all the Provisions contained in any Act of Parliament in force for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion, and the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, in relation to the enlisting any Men for His Majesty's Army, shall, in so far as the same can be made applicable to the Men raised for the London Militia, be applied and used, yet so far as all Justices of the Peace and others, and all Persons authorized to raise Men by Best of Drum for the London Militia, and the procuring Funds as aforesaid by Purvies raised, and for the Protection of Men having hitherto enlisted, as fully and effectually

His Majesty may order Men to be raised by Best of Drum for Militia.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That such Sums of Money as the Commissioners of Licentymen shall from time to time think necessary (together with the Allowances to be made by His Majesty as hereinbefore mentioned) for providing for the London Militia the Men required to be provided by the said City of London by virtue of this Act, shall from time to time be provided and raised by all the several Wards of the said City, and the Liberties and Precincts within the same, in such or the like Proportions as the Number of Private Men in the said London Militia was by the said Act of the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty required to be raised.

raise Men, and Wards to pay it in

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners of Licentymen at their Courts shall, and they are hereby required from time to time as and when they shall think it necessary, to issue Precepts to the Aldermen, Deputies and Common Councils of the said several Wards of the said City, and the Liberties thereof, requiring them to make the Proportions of the Sum of Money for the time being, thought secretary

necessary to be raised as aforesaid, herebefore appointed to be raised in their respective Wards to be provided, and the Aldermen or Deputies and Common Councilmen of the several Wards aforesaid, or the major Part of them, shall provide the Proportions of the Sums of Money directed to be raised in their respective Wards, and shall, within Twenty eight Days next after the sitting of the said Precept, pay the same into the Chamber of the City of London to the Account of the said Commissioners of Lieutenancy, to be applied as hereinafter is appointed; and for raising such Proportions of such Sums of Money the Aldermen, Deputies and Common Councilmen of the said several Wards, or the major Part of them, shall from time to time when and so often as Occasion shall require, make such and the like Rates, and upon such or the like several and respective Bodies and Persons within their respective Wards as they were authorized and required to make by the said Acts of the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for providing the Mews thereby required to be raised, and shall levy or cause the same Rates to be levied accordingly; and all the Powers, Privileges, Rules, Regulations, Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things contained in the said Acts of the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty in relation to the Rates thereby directed to be made, shall, so far as the same are applicable and are not hereby altered, varied or repealed, shall be applied and practised for the Purpose of making and levying the Rates to be made by virtue of this Act in as full and ample a manner as if the said Powers, Privileges, Rules, Regulations, Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things were again repeated and enacted in this Act.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Aldermen or Sums of Two Guineas, and the said Sums of Money to be, from time to time, paid by the said several Wards into the Chamber of the City of London by virtue of this Act, shall be applied in defraying the Expenses of providing the Mews by this Act required to be raised by the said City of London, and for that Purpose shall be paid, from time to time, by the Chambermen of the said City of London, in such manner, and at such times, as the said Commissioners by their Order or Precept shall direct; and such Precepts or Orders of the said Commissioners shall be sufficient Authority to the said Chambermen for the Payment of such Monies, or so much thereof, as in such Precepts or Orders shall be directed to be paid.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Man raised and provided by the said City of London, by virtue of the Provisions fully herebefore contained, shall take such and the same Oath, and shall be enrolled in such and the same manner, as hereinafter is directed, with respect to the Men to be raised by virtue of this Act by Beat of Drum; any thing in the said Acts of the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, or herebefore contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

XL. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all the Men raised by the City of London, under the Provisions fully herebefore contained, shall be subject to all the Powers and Regulations contained in the said Acts of the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, in relation to Men enrolled for the London Militia (except in such cases as are in this Act particularly specified), and shall be entitled to all such Privileges and Immunities, and to such Pensions for their Wives and Families, as they would have been entitled to if enrolled in the manner mentioned by the said Acts.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Lieutenancy, and they are hereby required at some General Meeting which shall be held for that Purpose, on or before the First Day of February in every Year, to apportion and distribute the Men raised by Beat of Drum under this Act to fill up any Vacancies which may have been occasioned in the Number of Men allotted and belonging to any Ward, by enrolling into the List or otherwise, and in like manner to apportion and distribute any Excess of Men raised by Beat of Drum, over and above the Number of such Vacancies in the several Wards where Vacancies may have arisen by reason of the Discharge of Men whose Period of Service may have expired, and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Lieutenancy, at any General Meeting to be held for that Purpose, to alter from time to time any such Apportionments and make any new and further Apportionments or Distributions, and place any Men so apportioned or distributed, or applied as aforesaid, to any other Ward, in case it shall appear to be necessary for the making a just Distribution of the Men so raised by Beat of Drum as aforesaid; and all such Apportionments and Distributions shall be made under the several Wards either by Ballot, and entering upon Lists the Names of the Ward, or otherwise, and in such manner as shall appear to the Commissioners of Lieutenancy, at any such Meeting, most effectually to produce an equal and just Distribution of the Men raised by Beat of Drum among the Wards, and the Men entered and placed to any Ward under any such Distribution or Apportionment shall thenceforth be deemed to belong to such Wards, for the supplying of any Vacancies thereafter, in like manner as if such Men had been provided by such Wards respectively.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order signed by His Majesty's Secretary of State, at any time, from time to time, during the Execution of this Act, or any Part thereof, to give such Orders and Directions to the said Commissioners of Lieutenancy, or to the respective Colonels or Commanding Officers of the said Regiments of Militia, as His Majesty shall from time to time think expedient and necessary for the Execution of this Act; and the several Commissioners and Colonels and Commanding Officers aforesaid, shall proceed forthwith, in pursuance of His Majesty's Orders, to do all such Acts as shall be necessary for the Purpose of carrying such Order into Execution, and for the due Execution of the Provisions of this Act.

XLIII. And, in order that the Rights and Privileges of the City of London may not be infringed, be it further enacted, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not directly or be prejudicial to the Rights, Privileges, Immunities and Exemptions to which the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or the Freemen, Citizens or Inhabitants of the said City, or the Suburbs and Liberties of and Jury.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners by virtue of this Act to be appointed, or any Five or more of them, shall cause Notice to be given in Writing of the Days appointed for the Meeting of the said Jurors as aforesaid, Fourteen Days at the least before any such Meeting, which Notice shall be affixed on the Doors of the Parish Churches of Wymondley, Witley and Parfitt aforesaid, and shall also cause the same to be published in The London Gazette; and if any Person or Persons shall not appear pursuant to such Notice, or shall refuse to give in, or their Deeds or Writings relating to the Premises, that then the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, and also the said Jury, shall proceed upon the best Information they can then procure or obtain, to make such Inquests, Judgments and Decrees as hereinbefore directed; and all such Judgments and Decrees being returned and certified as aforesaid shall be final and conclusive.

After Payment of Purchase Money, Presumption to vest
in Treasurers for Use of His Majesty.

IX. And be it further enacted, That immediately from and after the time that Payment shall be made of the Sum and Sums of Money to be agreed for or assessed by the said Jury, and decreed and adjudged by the said Commissioners to be by virtue of this present Act appointed, or any Five or more of them, to the Owners and Proprietors of and Persons interested in the said Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments vested by and to be purchased in pursuance of this Act, or to any or either of them, the Treasurers hereinbefore mentioned and their Heirs shall be deemed and adjudged to stand inured of the said Premises respectively, so and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for ever fixed and discharged of and from all and all manner of Estates, Leases, Rights, Titles, Interests, Claims and Demands whatsoever, which can or may be had, made, or set up in, to, out of, upon or in respect of the said Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, by any Bishops, Priests, or Carpenters, Ecclesiastical or Civil, or any Person or Persons whatsoever on any account whatsoever.

Presumption to remain
with Taxes, Land Tax, Poor
and other Rates.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, vested by and to be purchased in pursuance of this Act, which were before the passing of this Act liable to and charged with Taxes, Land Tax, Poor and other Rates, in the respective Parishes wherein the same respectively lie, shall, from the time the same were or shall be taken Possession of as aforesaid, stand and be subject and liable to and chargeable therewith; and that the said Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments do be charged and chargeable with such Taxes, Taxes and Rates, shall, as to be made thereof as shall not be otherwise directed or occupied by any particular Person, stand and be charged to and in the Name of and to be paid by the Storekeeper of His Majesty's Ordnance for the time being, at Parliament aforesaid; and that such Storekeeper paying the same shall be repaid and allowed such Sum and Sums of Money as he shall be paid by the Treasurer or Paymaster of His Majesty's Ordnance for the time being, on Demand thereof, who shall be allowed the same in his Accounts; and that in case such Storekeeper is charged and chargeable therewith shall neglect or refuse to pay any such Taxes, Taxes or Rates charged on him as aforesaid when demanded, that then and in every such case the Sum or Sums so due and charged for such Taxes, Taxes or Rates, and charged on such Storekeeper as aforesaid, shall or may be levied on such Storekeeper by compelling or compelling to pay the same, by such ways and means and in such manner as upon any other Occupier of Lands liable to the Payment of any such Taxes, Taxes and Rates; any Law, Statute, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

No Comand.

[10 C. 2. 1.]

WHEREAS some of the Provisions of an Act, passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled *An Act to amend the Laws relating to Spiritual Persons holding of Farms; and for enforcing the Restraints of Spiritual Persons on their Benefices in England, have, from the Inadvertence of many Spiritual Persons, given Occasion to many venations Proceedings: And Whereas an Act was passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled *An Act to stay, until the Twentieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, Proceedings in Actions under an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, to amend the Laws relating to Spiritual Persons: And Whereas another Act was passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled *An Act to continue, until the Twentieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, an Act passed in this Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to stay, until the Twentieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, Proceedings in Actions under an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, to amend the Laws relating to Spiritual Persons: And Whereas it is expedient that further Provision should be made in relation to Proceedings already commenced, and for the Prevention of other venations Proceedings of Spiritual Persons: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Licences for the Non Residence of any Spiritual Person, which shall have been granted, or which shall be granted on or before the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by any Archbishop or Bishop, under and subject to the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Forty third Year of His Majesty, and upon which the Archbishop or Bishop granting the same shall certify, that they are issued and vouch before, that the Confess of granting such Licences really and truly have existed for many Years, notwithstanding to the granting thereof, and specified in such Certificates respectively, and that the Archbishop or Bishop, giving such Certificates, would have granted the Licences to which they refer, from the Period specified in such Certificates, if proper Application had or could have been made to him in due time for the same, and that the Cause, if any, upon which such Licences would have been granted have been performed and complied with; and also all Certificates given by any Archbishop or Bishop

Licences granted with Certificates, being that Certificates for granting them shall be in any specified antecedent Period, viz. 1. or extending from Periods from such antecedent Period.

Bishop to any Spiritual Person of their respective Dioceses, which shall certify that the Archbishop or Bishop giving such Certificate would have granted Licences for the Non Residence of such Spiritual Persons for and during the Periods specified in such Certificates, for Causes of a temporary Nature, to be also specified in such Certificates, and which they are furnished and truly believe did really and truly exist, and which may have ended, if proper Application had or could have been made to him in due time for the same, and that the Conditions, if any, upon which such Licences would have been granted, have been performed and complied with; shall be deemed and taken to be good and valid as Licences under the last recited Act, for the Purpose of exempting such Persons respectively from any pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures for Non Residence, from and for and during the Periods specified in such Certificates respectively, as fully and effectually as if Licences had been duly granted at and for such Period, and had been duly registered, and all the Provisions of the last said recited Act in relation thereto duly observed.

II. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That every such Licence and Certificate shall, within Fourteen Days after the granting thereof, or after the passing of this Act, be registered in like manner as Licences are required to be registered under the Provisions of the last recited Act of the Forty third Year aforesaid, and shall be open to the Inspection of all Persons, upon Payment of Two Shillings, and so more.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Notification by any Person who shall have been non resident by reason of any Exemption, and where no Licence is required, and which shall specify the Nature of the Exemption, and the Period for which the Benefit thereof is claimed, and which shall have been made and registered, or which shall be made and registered before the said First Day of July, shall be deemed a good and valid Notification for the Period specified, for the Purpose of entitling the Person making the same to the Benefit of any Exemptions specified therein to which he may be entitled, as fully and effectually as if the same had been made and registered within the Period required by the said recited Act of the Forty third Year aforesaid; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and every Registrar is hereby required to register such Notification, and such Register of Notification shall be open to Inspection of all Persons, upon Payment of Two Shillings, and so more.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, immediately from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons against whom any Original Writ, Suit, Action, Bill, Pleint or Information, shall have been first set, commenced or prosecuted, before the Sixth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirteenth, for any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture, or any Penalties or Forfeitures incurred under the last recited Act, for any Non Residence, or Omission to procure a Licence, or register the same, or for omitting to satisfy any Ground of Exemption, and to whom any such Licence and Certificate shall have been granted, or who shall have satisfied his Exemption before the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirteenth, to apply to the Court in which such Original Writ, Suit, Action, Bill, Pleint or Information shall have been first set, commenced or prosecuted, if such Court shall be sitting, or to any Judge of any such Court when not sitting, for an Order, that such Writ, Suit, Action, Bill, Pleint or Information shall be discontinued, upon Payment of the Costs incurred up to the time of such Application being made; all such Costs to be taxed as between Attorney and Client, according to the Practice of such Court; and every such Court or Judge is hereby authorized, upon such Application, and Proof by Affidavit of the granting and registering of any Licence and Certificate, or of the Notification of any Exemption, and that sufficient Notice thereof, together with a Copy of the Licence, Certificate or Notification, as the case may be, has been given to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or his or their Attorney, and of the Application and the Ground upon which the same is made, to make such Order as aforesaid; and upon the making such Order and Payment of such Costs as aforesaid, such Writ, Suit, Action, Bill, Pleint or Information shall be forthwith discontinued; and in every tale it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any such Original Writ, Suit, Action, Bill, Pleint or Information, at any time after the Twentieth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirteenth, until such Application shall be made as aforesaid, to proceed therein as if this Act or the last recited Acts of Parliament had not been passed, and as if no such Licence and Certificate had been granted, or Notification made; any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Archbishop or Bishop in whom any Application shall be made for any such Certificate as aforesaid, under the Provisions of this Act, to require that any Facts or Circumstances which such Archbishop or Bishop may deem necessary to be proved in relation to the Grounds upon which any such Certificate may be applied for, or which any such Archbishop or Bishop may deem necessary to require into and ascertain, before the granting any such Certificate, shall be proved and verified by Oath or Affidavit before any Surrogate or Master Extraordinary in Chancery, (which Oath any Surrogate or Master Extraordinary in Chancery is hereby authorized and required to administer).

Penalties for Perjury.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all cases in which any such Writ, Subj., Affid., Bill, Pleat or Information shall have been filed out or commenced at any time subsequent to the said Sixth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, it shall be competent for such Court or Judges as aforesaid, to make such Order as aforesaid for discontinuing the same, without Payment of any Costs; and upon making such Order, such Writ, Subj., Affid., Bill, Pleat or Information shall be forthwith discontinued.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if upon any such Application to the Court or Judge to stay the Proceedings under the Proceedings heretofore contained, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or his or their Attorney, will undertake to admit such Notice of Exemption to have been duly made and given under the said recited Act of the Forty third Year aforesaid, or under this Act, and disprove only the Title of such Person or Persons to the Exemption claimed, that then and in such case it shall and may be lawful so and for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Original Writ, Subj., Affid., Bill, Pleat or Information, to proceed therein as if this Act had not been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and if the said Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall suffer Judgment as in case of a Nonsuit, or if upon the Trial of any such Affid., Subj., Bill, Pleat or Information, the said Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become Nonsuit, or there shall be a Verdict for the Defendant, the Defendant shall have Treble Costs, and have the like remedy for the same as any Discontinue hath in other cases to recover Costs by Law.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Penalty or Forfeiture under the said recited Act of the Forty third Year aforesaid, which shall have arisen or been incurred, at or for or during any Period antecedent to the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and eleven, shall be recoverable or recovered in any Affid. or Subj. which has been commenced previous to the Sixth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and that no Penalty or Forfeiture under the said recited Act of the Forty third Year aforesaid, which shall have arisen or been incurred at or for or during any Period antecedent to the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve, shall be recoverable or be recovered in any Affid. or Subj. which shall have been or shall be filed out after the Sixth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; any thing so the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to affect any Original Writ, Subj., Affid., Bill, Pleat or Information which shall have been filed out, commenced or preferred before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and whereas there has been passed between the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs and the Person or Persons against whom the said Original Writ, Subj., Affid., Bill, Pleat or Information may have been filed out, commenced or preferred,

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That a certified Copy of the Register of such License and Certificate, and of the Date when the same was issued, or of such Notice, with the Date of Delivery thereof, shall be deemed sufficient Proof of the same.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to affect any Verdict, Judgment or Execution, which has been or at any time hereafter may be given, awarded or issued against any Spiritual Person under the Act made and passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend the Laws relating to Spiritual Persons holding of Farms; and for enforcing the Rights of Spiritual Persons in their Brothers in England.

XIII. And Whereas an Act was passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled *An Act to continue, until the Twentieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, an Act passed in the Fifth of Perliament, intitled An Act to stay, until the Twentieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, Proceedings in Adm- under an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, to amend the Laws relating to Spiritual Persons: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be further continued, and that all such Proceedings should be stayed for a further limited Period: Be it therefore further enacted, That the said recited Act of the present Session of Parliament shall remain and continue in force until the Twentieth Day of July; and that all Proceedings which shall have been or which may hereafter be stayed under the Provisions of the said last recited Act, or of the Act of this present Session of Parliament, intitled
An Act to stay, until the Twentieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, Proceedings in Adm- under an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, to amend the Laws relating to Spiritual Persons, which are commenced by this Act, or which remain and continue stayed under the Provisions of the last recited Act of this Session of Parliament, shall be and remain and continue stayed until the said Twentieth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.*

C. A. P. LV.

An Act for fixing the Rates of Subsidence to be paid to Innkeepers and others on quartering Soldiers.
[18th May 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, for punishing Mutiny and Disturbance; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, it is enacted, that Officers and Soldiers shall be furnished with Diet and Small Beer upon paying and allowing for the same the several Rates that are or shall be established by any Act or Acts of Parliament; and as Oration is given to Inhabitants and others, upon whom Officers and Soldiers are quartered and billeted, to furnish certain Articles gratis, in lieu of Diet and Small Beer, and it is just and expedient that an adequate Allowance shall be made and established for Provisions and other Articles furnished to Officers and Soldiers: May it therefore

please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Non-Commissioned Officer and Private Soldier who shall be furnished with Diet and Small Beer by the Inholders or other Persons on whom such Non-Commissioned Officers or Private Soldiers shall be quartered and billeted by virtue of the said Act shall pay and allow for the same the Sum of Fourteen pence per Diem; and that for such Allowance of Fourteen pence the Inholder or other Person shall furnish One Meal; and that, a hot Dinner if required in each Day, to each Non-Commissioned Officer, Trumpeter, Drummer and Private Soldier quartered and billeted on him, to consist of such Quantities of Diet and Small Beer to have him or shall be specified and fixed to and by any Regulations made or to be made from time to time by His Majesty in that behalf, but not to exceed One Pound and a Quarter of Meat previous to being dressed, One Pound of Bread, One Pound of Potatoes or other Vegetables previous to being cooked, and Two Pints of Small Beer, and Vinegar, Salt and Pepper; and that the Accounts of the same shall be rendered, and Payment thereof made, in like manner as is directed by the said Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case any Inholders or other Persons on whom any Non-Commissioned Officers or Private Men shall be quartered within the aforesaid Parts of the United Kingdom, shall, by virtue of the said Act Option in the said Act, furnish such Non-Commissioned Officers or Soldiers with the Articles therein mentioned in lieu of furnishing Diet and Small Beer, at the Rate prescribed by this Act, such Inholders or other Persons as whom such Non-Commissioned Officers or Soldiers are quartered, and by whom the said Articles shall have been so supplied, shall receive in Consideration thereof, One Halfpenny per Diem for each Non-Commissioned Officer and Soldier, which Sum of One Halfpenny per Diem shall be accounted for and paid in like manner as is directed touching the Rate aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Sum to be paid to the Inholder or other Person within the aforesaid Parts of the United Kingdom, on whom any of the Horses belonging to His Majesty's Forces shall be quartered by virtue of the said Act, for Hay and Straw, shall be One Shilling and Two pence per Diem for each Horse.

[4. of 53 G. 3. c. 45. is omitted in this Act. — (4. is 4. are the same as § 5. of 53 G. 3. c. 45.)] IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall have Commencement and be in force from the Twenty-fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and that all Payments which have been made, and all Acts, Matters and Things done in pursuance of or in conformity with the Provision thereof, shall be as good, valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act had passed before the said Twenty-fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

[This Act is in all other respects similar to 53 G. 3. c. 45.]

C A P. LVI.

An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act of His present Majesty, for encouraging the Art of making new Models and Casts of Busts, and other Things therein mentioned; and for giving further Encouragement to such Arts.

[18th May 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirtieth eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for encouraging the Art of making new Models and Casts of Busts, and other Things therein mentioned, the sole Right and Property thereof were vested in the original Proprietors, for a time therein specified: And Whereas the Provisions of the said Act having been found insufficient for the Purposes thereby intended, it is expedient to amend the same, and to make other Provisions and Regulations for the Encouragement of Artists, and to secure to them the Profit of and in their Works, and for the Advancement of the said Arts: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Person or Persons who shall make or cause to be made any new and original Sculpture, or Model, or Copy, or Cast of the Human Figure or Human Figures, or of any Bust or Busts, or of any Part or Parts of the Human Figure, clothed in Drapery or otherwise, or of any Animal or Animals, or of any Part or Parts of any Animal combined with the Human Figure or otherwise, or of any Subject being Master of Invention in Sculpture, or of any Alto or Busts-Reliefs representing any of the Matters or Things hereinafore mentioned, or any Cast from Nature of the Human Figure, or of any Part or Parts of the Human Figure, or of any Cast from Nature of any Animal, or of any Part or Parts of any Animal, or of any such Subject containing or representing any of the Matters and Things hereinafore mentioned, whether separate or combined, shall have the sole Right and Property of all and in every such new and original Sculpture, Model, Copy and Cast of the Human Figure or Human Figures, and of all and in every such Bust or Busts, and of all and in every such Part or Parts of the Human Figure, clothed in Drapery or otherwise, and of all and in every such new and original Sculpture, Model, Copy and Cast, representing any Animal or Animals, and of all and in every such Work representing any Part or Parts of any Animal combined with the Human Figure or otherwise, and of all and in every such new and original Sculpture, Model, Copy and Cast of any Subject, being Master of Invention in Sculpture, and of all and in every such new and original Sculpture, Model, Copy and Cast in Alto or Busts-Reliefs, representing any of the Matters or Things hereinafore mentioned, and of every such Cast from Nature, for the Term or Fourteen Years from first putting forth or publishing the

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, within such Term of Fourteen Years, make or import, or cause to be made or imported, or exposed to Sale, or otherwise disposed of, any printed Copy or printed Cast of any such new and original Sculpture, or Model or Copy, or Cast of the Human Figure or Human Figures, or of any such Bust or Busts, or of any such Part or Parts of the Human Figure clothed in Drapery or otherwise, or of any such Work of any Animal or Animals, or of any such Part or Parts of any Animal or Animals combined with the Human Figure or otherwise, or of any such Subject being Matter of Invention in Sculpture, or of any such Alto or Bas-relievo representing any of the Masters or Things hereinbefore mentioned, or of any such Cast from Nature as aforesaid, whether such printed Copy or printed Cast be produced by moulding or copying from, or imitating in any way, any of the Masters or Things put forth or published under the Protection of this Act, or of any Works which have been put forth or published under the Protection of the said recited Act, the Right and Property whereof is and are secured, extended and protected by this Act, in any of the cases as aforesaid, to the Detriment, Damage or Loss of the original or respective Proprietor or Proprietors of any such Works so printed; then and in all such cases the said Proprietor or Proprietors, or their Assigns, shall and may, by and as in a Special Action upon the Case to be brought against the Person or Persons so offending, recover such Damages as a Jury on a Trial of such Action shall give or allow, together with Double Costs of Suit.

IV. Provided nevertheless, That no Person or Persons who shall or may hereafter purchase the Right or Property of any new and original Sculpture or Model, or Copy or Cast, or of any Cast from Nature, or of any of the Masters and Things published under or protected by virtue of this Act, of the Proprietor or Proprietors, expressed in a Deed in Writing signed by him, her or them respectively, with his, her or their own Hand or Hands, in the Presence of and attested by Two or more credible Witnesses, shall be subject to any Action for copying or casting, or sending the same; any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Actions to be brought as aforesaid, against any Person or Persons for any Offence committed against this Act, shall be commenced within Six Calendar Months next after the Discovery of every such Offence, and not afterwards.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, from and immediately after the Expiration of the said Term of Fourteen Years, the sole Right of making and disposing of such new and original Sculpture, or Model, or Copy, or Cast of any of the Masters or Things hereinbefore mentioned, shall return to the Person or Persons who originally made or caused to be made the same, if he or they shall be then living; for the further Term of Fourteen Years, commencing in the case or cases where such Person or Persons shall be still alive on the said day directed himself, herself or themselves, of such Right of making or disposing of any new and original Sculpture, or Model, or Copy, or Cast of any of the Masters or Things hereinbefore mentioned, previous to the passing of this Act.

C A P. LVII.

An Act to repeal the Schedule annexed to an Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, by which the Drawbacks and Bounties on Sugar exported are to be abrogated, and Substitution made in lieu thereof; and to permit the importation of Sugar, Coffee and other Articles, the Produce of Martinique, Mariegalante, Saint Eustache, Saint Martin and St. Pierre, under the same Duties and Regulations as similar Articles of the British Plantations, to continue until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen. [25th May 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for further extending, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, certain Bounties and Drawbacks on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain, and for extending the Countervailing Duties and Bounties on Sugar when the Duties imposed by an Act of the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty shall be reduced, certain Drawbacks and Bounties were allowed on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain, in like manner and under and according to the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures (except where any Alteration was made by the said Act), as the Drawbacks and Bounties were respectively paid or allowed before the passing of the said Act: And Whereas it is expedient that an Alteration should be made with respect to the Periods at which the Average Prices of Brown or Mulceno Sugar should be taken and published in the London Gazette; and also that the Schedule and Table of Drawbacks, Bounties and Duties annexed to an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend Two Acts passed in the Forty third and Forty fifth Years of His present Majesty for regulating the Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain, should be repealed, and that another Schedule and Table should be enacted in lieu thereof: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, affiliated, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Seventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the Schedule annexed to the said Act recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that in and in lieu thereof the Schedule to this Act annexed shall, from and after the said Seventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, be confirmed and taken to be the Schedule according to which the Drawbacks and Bounties on Sugar exported from Great Britain shall be paid or allowed, except as hereinafter is provided.

45 G. 3. c. 91

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Seventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the Drawback or Bounty to be paid or allowed on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain, shall be regulated and ascertained according to such Average Prices of Brown or Muscovado Sugar taken in auction directed by an Act made in the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for regulating the Drawbacks and Payment of the Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar, and for providing the Importation of Sugar and Coffee into the Colonies and Bermuda Islands in Foreign Ships, as shall appear by Notice in the London Gazette, published on the Saturday which shall happen next after the First Wednesday in May, the First Wednesday in August, the First Wednesday in November One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and the First Wednesday in January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and the said Bounties and Drawbacks shall be paid or allowed according to the Schedule herewith annexed (except as hereinafter is provided), as corresponding to or with the Prices of which such Notice shall have been given in the London Gazette as aforesaid; and which Bounties and Drawbacks shall be paid or allowed with Notice of any other Average Price shall in like manner appear in the London Gazette on any of such Saturdays before mentioned (save and except the Notice hereby required to be given in the London Gazette on the Saturday which shall happen next after the First Wednesday in January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; which last mentioned Notice shall continue in force until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and so longer); and the several Drawbacks and Bounties hereby granted shall be paid or allowed in such and the like manner in every respect, and subject and under and according to the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Privileges and Favourable (except when any Alteration is made by this present Act), as any Drawbacks or Bounties on Sugar were paid or allowed before the said Seventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Bounty by this Act granted on Refined Sugar exported from Great Britain shall not take Effect or be paid or allowed on any such Sugar which shall be shipped for Exportation on or before the Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, but that the Bounty on Refined Sugar exported from Great Britain shall be paid or allowed as such Sugar only as shall be shipped for Exportation after the said Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fourteen; any thing contained in this Act or in the Schedule herewith annexed to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, vary or repeal the additional Bounty payable on the Exportation from Great Britain of Sugar being Double Refined, or to repeal the additional Bounties payable on the Exportation from Great Britain of Refined Sugar on account of the Temporary or War Duties imposed on Sugar: Provided always, that the last mentioned additional Bounties shall be calculated on the Amount of the Bounty to be paid or allowed under the Directions of this present Act, and according to the Schedule herewith annexed and not otherwise.

IV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or repeal the Deduction heretofore made from the Bounty or Drawback to be paid on Sugar when exported from Great Britain in any other than a British Vessel, saved, assigned and registered according to Law, as directed by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for distinguishing certain Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain, and for allowing other Drawbacks and Bounties in lieu thereof, until the Fifteenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, any Sugar, Coffee or other Articles, being of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of any or either of the Islands of Martinique, Montserrat, Guadeloupe, Saint Eustace, Saint Marie and Saba, imported into Great Britain, shall and may be admitted to Entry on Payment of such and the like Duties of Customs and Excise, and no other, as are or may be due and payable on the like Articles of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the British Plantations; and all such Sugar, Coffee and other Articles, shall on Exportation from Great Britain be subject to such and the like Duties, and entitled to such and the like Drawbacks and Bounties, as the like Articles being of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the British Plantations are or may be subject or liable to; and all such Goods shall in every other respect be subject and liable to all and every the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Deductions, to which any such Articles, being of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the British Plantations are or may be subject or liable to; any thing in an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for permit the Entry for Home Consumption of Sugar the Produce or Manufacture of Martinique, Montserrat, Guadeloupe, Saint Eustace, Saint Marie and Saba, at a lower Rate of Duty than is payable upon Sugar not of the British Plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that any Sugar, Coffee or other Articles of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of any of the said Islands, which have been or may be secured in Warehouse in Great Britain, and on which the Home Consumption Duties shall not have been paid, shall and may be delivered from any such Warehouse for Home Consumption on Payment of such and the like Duties of Customs and Excise, and no other, as at the time any such Goods shall be so taken out of any such Warehouse shall be due and payable on the like Description of Goods of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the British Plantations.

An Act to amend several Acts for erecting or establishing Public Infirmaries or Hospitals in Ireland, so far as relates to the Surgeons and Apothecaries of such Infirmaries or Hospitals.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for erecting and establishing Public Infirmaries or Hospitals in Ireland, it is enacted, that the Surgeons to be chosen or appointed for the respective County Infirmaries or Hospitals, should be paid by the Year a Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds, to be paid out of the Public Money, in manner as in the said recited Act is mentioned: And Whereas the said Sum, from the great Increase in the Price of the Necessaries of Life, and other circumstances, is inadequate to the fair Remuneration of the Services of such Surgeons; and in consequence thereof, it has been found impossible, in those Counties, to procure Persons, properly qualified according to Law, to accept such Situations: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of the several Counties in the said recited Act mentioned, and of all other Counties, and Counties of Cities and Castles of Towns, in Ireland, either at the Spring or Summer Assizes to be holden in and for any such County, County of a City or County of a Town, in Ireland, in each Year, to prohibit any Person exceeding One hundred Pounds, to be paid in the County at large, or in the County of a City, or County of a Town, and to be paid to the Surgeons of the Infirmary or Hospital in such County, County of a City or County of a Town; and which Sum shall be in addition to the Salary which any such Surgeon is entitled to receive under or by virtue of the before recited Act of the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or of any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland, relating to such Infirmaries or Hospitals.
